toughened steel

Vancouver

615 Pender St.

VOL. 19. NO. 5.

Durham and Victoria Standard

MILLBROOK AND OMEMEE MIRROR

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1907.

C. W. RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

$1 per annum.

Rorie and Vixen;

00000000

OR, A HAPPY MARRIAGE.

THE DIE TO THE TOTAL THE T

CHAPTER XXVIII.—(Continued). "You forget the hours in which ne is shooting pheasants and playing bilder a lucky star.'

den change of tone, as the first silvery bered peacefully. that which the old ones have taken and lapsed into slumber.

to him, moved by tender thoughts of thers capable of such love are rare.

new year will drift us further."

visitors came trooping to hear the most grotesquely human. den from them by intervening hills. a part of her nature. hills lies Moyles Court; the good old not?" asked Lord Mallow. Leslie sheltered the fugitives from el Violet, coolly; "but I have no stand- dust and ashes." womanly hospitality with her life. Fur- ner at Ashbourne." thrives against the gray stones of her dees not so consider himself." them with her bodily eyes, as she looked coolest lover I ever saw."

shadows, its patches of silver light. The bells chimed on with their tender cadence, half joyous, half sorrowful. The shallower spirits among the guests chattered about the beauty of the night and the sweetness of the bells. Deeper souls were silent, full of saddest thoughts. Who is there who has not lest something in the years gone by ravished treasures of the dead years. Roderick saw the tears rolling down her pale cheeks, and offered no word censolation. He knew that she was

"Dear old squire," he murmured gent-

That speech was the sweelest comfort he could have offered her. Vixen gave his arm a grateful hug.

"Thank God there is someone who remembers him, besides his dogs and ily dried her tears, and made herself ready to meet Lord Mallow and Lady along the terrace toward them, talking gayly. Lord Mallow had a much wider range of subjects than Mr. Vawdrey. He had read more, and could keep pace with Lady Mabel in her highest flights; science, literature, politics, were all as which ushered in the newborn year, the ther. My old playfellow, Roderick Vawone to him. He had crammed his vig- first day of that year was abominable- drey, belongs to his cousin. I belong orous young mind with everything a day of hopeless, incessant rain, fal- to nobody. which it behooved a man panting for ling from a leaden sky in which there

"Where have you two people been of sunshine from morn till eve. hiding yourselves for the last half "The new year is like Shakespeare's would fancy yourself in the centre of hour?" asked Lady Mabel. "You were Richard," said Lord Mallow, when he the universe, and that all the planets wanted badly just now for 'Blow, stood in the porch after breakfast, sur- revolved in the skies only to please gentle gales.' I know you can manage | veying the horizon. "Tetchy and way- | you. Love, let me have you-priceless the bass, Rorie, when you like."

"Lo, behold a pennant waving!" enced anything so provoking. I was value. Let me keep and guard you." sang Rorie, in deep full tones. "Yes, dreaming all night of our ride," I can manage that much, at a push, You seem music-mad to-night, Mabel. that dreadful man in 'Locksley Hall'- I shall not love any more," said Vixen. The old year is making a swan-like end-fading in music."

Rorie and Vixen were still standing arm in arm; rather too much as if they belonged to each other, Lady Mabel thought. The attitude was hardly in good taste, according to Lady Mabel's of healthful beauty, in her dark-green |--ah! I cannot tell you how fondly. lew of taste, which was a code as strict cloth dress and plain linen collar. All do not think there are many fathers crop at Claresholm, Stavely, Parkland,

The bells rang on. "The new year has come!" cried the of dress which interfered with none of I have no love left for a husband." duke. "Let us all shake hands in the her rural amusements. She could romp | "What, Violet, not if your old friend friendly German fashion." On this there was a general shaking stables, work in the garden, ramble in asked Lord Mallow. of hands, which appeared to last a the forest, without fear of dilapidated It was an unlucky speech. If Lord long time. It seemed rather as if the flounces or disheveled laces and rib- Mallow had had a change-which he young people of opposite sexes shook bons. hands with each other more than once. "Violet's morning-dresses are so it Violet started to her feet, her cheeks German named Chris Vegot, working at Sheep and lambs were steady, bucks Lord Mallow would hardly let Violet's dreadfully strong-minded," complained crimson, her eyes flashing. hand go, once having got it in his hearty Mrs. Carmichael. "To look at her, one "It is shameful, abominable of you of Red Deer, committed suicide by plactogether!" he said, softly. "May it not lecturing upon woman's rights." be the last! I feel that it must not, "No ride this morning," said Captain ly speech. Come, Argus."

and here her face beamed at him with often have to pay for the pleasures of a lovely smile-"except that you will society. I'm afraid I shall have to de "Glimpses of purgatory, which make "If I were an emperor, I would make leaf in everybody's bed. And if the night. Lord Mallow look her to ber day years ago-the day on which Rod- that it is almost impossible to save it. rose leaves were all smooth, a man carriage, and sat opposite her, and crick Vawdrey came of age. How well The heavy rain of Wednesday night spot, Toronto, without sellers. would crumple one on purpose, in order talked to her during the homeward she remembered sitting in that very completely extinguished the bush fires to have something to grumble about. drive. Captain Carmichael was smok- window, watching the ceaseless rain, which have been graging for the past Hark, Rorfe," cried Vixen, with a sud- ing a cigar on the box. His wife slum- with a chilly sense of having been for- week up the Patry Sound line. The chime of Ringwood bells came floating "I think I may be satisfied with Theo- panion. And then, in the gloaming, great area over which the fires swept. over the woodland distance—the low dere," she said, as she composed her- just when she had lost all hope of see- Between Madawaska and Whitney, for and primes at $1.35 to $1.40. moon-lit hills, "don't be cross. The self for sleep; "my dress was not quite ing him, he had come leaping in out a considerable distance on each side of cld year is dying. Remember the dear the worst in the room, was it, Violet?" of the wet night, like a lion from his the railway track, the lightly wooded per th, and comb honey at $2 to $2.50 days that are gone when you and I "It was lovely, mamma. You can lair, and had taken her in his arms and ground was burned clear. The heavy per dozen, used to think a new year a thing to be make yourself quite happy," answered kissed her before she knew what he was and valuable timber limits farther back glad about. And now, what can the Vixen, truthfully; whereupon the mat-deing.

She had slipped her little gloved hand them-a long hilly road cleaving the ed awful-a burning spot of shame in thick scrub. The St. Anthony Lumber through his arm, and drawn very near very heart of the forest; a road full of upon the whiteness of her youth. ghosts at the best of times, but offering "He must have thought I was very have the rights to the territory swept. the past. He looked down at her with a Walpurgis revel of phantoms on such fond of him, or he would not have eyes from which all anger had vanish- a night as this to the eye of the belated dared to treat me so," she told herself. ed. There was only love in them-deep wanderer. How ghostly the deer were, "But then we had been playfellows so love; love such as a very affectionale as they skimmed across the road and long. I had teased him, and he had brother might perchance give his only flitted away into dim distances, mixing plagued me; and we had been really Canadian Pacific is Considering Their rolls are quoted at 17 to 17%c. Cream- were astounded and turned to fice, when rived at 6 on Friday morning. All sister; but it must be owned that bro- with and melting into the shadows of like brother and sister. Poor Rorie! If the trees! The little gray rabbits, sit- we could have always been young we "No, child," he murmured sadly. ting up on end, were like circles of should have been better friends." "Years to come can bring us nothing hob-goblins that dispersed and vanish- "How thoughtful you seem this mornso good or so dear as the past. Every ed at the approach of mortals. The ing, Miss Tempest!" said a voice beleafless old hawthorns, rugged and hind Vixen's shoulder. They were standing at the end of the crooked, silvered by the moonlight, were "Do I?" she asked, turning quickly terrace furthest from the orangery win- most ghost-like of all. They took every round. "New Year's Day is a time to the landscape toward the winding never could grow tired of these things. of happiness."

martyr of Jeffrey's lust for blood takes sider himself extremely fortunate." - familiar that it was as if she could see a little more enthusiastic. He is the ence could bear.

son with Irish lovers. Your nation is leve, my love, you were born to be the more demonstrative than ours."

know more about him than I. You have and light." haps if she were a little less clever and ward.

"Anyway, it will be all the same in a century or so," assented Lord Mallow. Love can. Love is a god. Oh, my darly, after an interval of silence. "How "We are going to have lovely weather ling, I have learned to love you dearly good he was to me, and how fondly as long as this moon lasts, I believe. and fondly in this little while, and Will you go for a long ride to-morrow mean to win you. It shall go hard answer for that. I would make his life unendurable if he were to refuse," ward was his infancy.' I never experi- treasure that others know not how to "Were you not afraid of being like!

I don't mind being your guide again on her downcast face.

CHAPTER XXIX.

"Like a dog, he hunts in dreams'?"

asked Vixen, mockingly. She was standing on the threshold. playing with Argus, looking the picture while I was a child. I loved my father Vixen's morning costumes were of the who are loved as he was. I poured out Cayley and Carstairs. simplest and neatest-a compact style all my treasures of affection at his feet. with her dog, make her round of the Roderick Vawdrey were pleading?"

first day of the year," answered Lord Mallow. "I am sure you would rather be fetching up your arrears of correspondence than shooting at dejected birds in a damp plantation; and I am luxurious enough to prefer staying indoors, if the ladies will have me. can help Miss Tempest to wind her

"Thanks, but I never do any woolwork. Mamma is the artist in that line. "Then I place mysel" unreservedly at Mrs. Carmichael's feet."

"You are too good," sighed the fair hearth; "but I shall not touch my creanswered, coldly, "for my feelings tell wels to-day." I have one of my nervme nothing about the future, except"- ous headaches. It is a penalty I too down for an hour or two."

He had contrived to separate Roder- shawl round her, and went slowly up- Valley. Some days the smoke is so ness, as you said just now. There are ick and Vixen. The young man had restairs, leaving Violet and Lord Mallow dense as to darken the streets of Matpeople born to be happy, I suppose— turned to his allegiance, and was es- in sole possession of the great oak-pan- lawa, although the fires are many miles corting Lady Mabel back to the house, eled hall, the lady looking at the rain away. Mr. Rankin tells of the great Everybody began to feel chilly, now from her favorite perch in the deep danger to life along the Montreal River. 90c outside without bids. No. 1 northern ment is face to face with an armed in- pavement. He was immediately sur-"Undoubtedly, and among them not- that the bells were silent, and there widow-seat the gentleman contemplat- Reports have reached Mattawa of men offered at 93c lake ports, with 92c bid, surrection. ably Mr. Vawdrey, who has everything was a general hurrying off to the carri- ing the same prospect from the open having had very narrow escapes, so while 921/2c was bid for 20,000 bushels. that the heart of a reasonable man can ages, which were standing in an oval door. It was one of those mild winter sudden was the inroad of the flames on Peas—No. 2 offered at 81c outside, deaths so far have resulted since Wedring round a group of deodoras in front mornings when a huge-wood fire is a the timber regions. The lumbermen who without bids.

ly essential to comfort. gotten and neglected by her old com- damage is nothing in comparison to the $2.50 to $3.50 per bbl.

new years bring us half so good as ron breathed a gentle sigh of content, Her cheeks crimsoned even to-day at untouched, the region destroyed being the memory of that kiss. It had seem-smainly that which had been cut years They had the Bolderwood road before ed a small thing then. Now it seems before and is now springing up again bag on track, and New Brunswick, $1.30 detective from the crowd. The chemists 500 cartridges each. At first the mutindows, out of which the duchess and her form, from the most unearthly to the make one thoughtful. It is like begin-

Yonder, nestling among those grassy "What a delightful evening, was it drained my cup of bliss before I was difference between electric and steam, English manor-house where noble Alice "I suppose it was very nice," answer- me but the dregs, and they—they are electric locomotive is slightly more ex-ther away, on the banks of the Avon, is "What a remarkably clever girl Lady power of self control. That she, so we have a sufficient water supply to the quiet church-yard where that gentle Mabel is! Mr. Vawdrey ought to con- fair, so lovely, so deeply dear to him generate all the power that we would already-she for whom life should be need in the event of inaugurating the her long rest. The creeping spleenwort "I have never heard him say that he che summer day of unclouded gladness electric system." -- that she should give expression to a tomb. To Vixen these things were so "Naturally. But I think he might be rooted sorrow was more than his pati-

"Violet, you must not speak thus; giver of gladness, the centre of joy and "Oh, an Irish girl would cashier such delight! Grief should never touch you; fellow as Mr. Vawdrey. But I may scrrow and pain should never come near possibly misjudge him. You ought to you. You are a creature of happiness

"Don't!" cried Vixen, vehemently "All my life,' said Violet, simply. 'I "Oh, pray don't! It is all vain-useless know that he is good, and stanch, and My life is marked out for me. No one true, that he honored his mother, and can after it. Pray do not lower yourself that he will make Lady Mabel Ash- by one word more. You will be sorry bourne a very good husband. Per- angry with yourself and me-after-

"To what end? My fate is as fixed as with me if I don't succeed. Dear love. "When I took you all over the world it truth and constancy can conquer for sport?" said Vixen, laughing. "I fate, I ought to be able to win you wonder you are inclined to trust me There is no one else, is there, Violet?" after that. If Captain Carmichael likes, he asked falteringly, with his eyes up-

A burning spot glowed and faded on her cheek before she answered him. 'Can you not see how empty life is?" she asked, with a bitter laugh. "No, there is no one else. I can stand quite alone. Death took my father from me: Despite the glorious moonlight night your friend has robbed me of my mo-

"Let me have you, then, Violet. was never a break, not a stray gleam if you knew how I would cherish you You should be loved so well that you "I would not wrong you so much as to marry you without loving you, and with a sad steadfastness that was more dispiriting than the most vehement protestation.

"Why not?" "Because I spent all my store of love had not-that speech would have spoiled

"Hail to the first new year we greet kind of girl to go round the country voice tremulous with Indignation. "I and pulling the trigger with his foot. will never forgive you for that dastard- He was said to be under the influence Carmichael, coming into the hall with | She had mounted the broad oak | cner Collison on Tuesday afternoon the Council of the Canadian Manufacturers' | vers were freely used by the crowd. A revolt is widespread and the censorship "You are wiser than I, then," Vixen a bundle of letters in his hand. "I shall stairs with light, swift foot before Lord jury returned a verdict of suicide. Association.

"Let the pheasants be at rest for the that fellow she loves. Hard upon me, when I ask for nothing but to be her slave, and adore her all the days of my life. And I know that Carmichael would have been pleased. How lovely she looked when she was angry-her Prices of Cattle, Grain, Cheese and tawny hair gleaming in the fire-light, her great brown eyes flashing! Yes, it's the Hampshire squire she cares for, and I'm out of it. I'll go and shoot the pheasants," continued Lord Mallow, savagely; "those beggars shall not have i' all their own way to-day.'

·---TERRIBLE FOREST FIRES.

(To be Continued.)

Conditions Are Appalling in the Upper Ottawa Valley.

A despatch from Otlawa says: Mr. Colin Rankin, of Mattawa, who arrived And with a languid sigh Mrs. Car- in the city on Thursday, says the forest his heaven all the more divine," said him a consul," answered the Irishman. michael wrapped her China crape fires are appalling in the Upper Ottawa "Oh, there is always a crumpled rose Rorie and Vixen met no more that Vixen thought of that long rainy dry season had such an effect on timber bushels.

from the right-of-way were practically $15.50 here, and No. 2 at $12 to $13. Company, J. R. Booth and the G.T.R.

MOTOR ENGINES FOR ROCKIES.

A despatch from Winnipeg says: Sir 19 to 19%c. Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, says the company is considering the introduction of electric engines in the Rocky 16, and twins at 13c.

In an interview here on Wednesday. ning a new chapter in the volume of he said: "We have not yet definitely de-Pangwood chimes. Rorie and Vixen Violet sat wrapped in her furred white life, and one cannot help speculating cided to place the electric locomotive kept quite apart from the rest. They mantle, watching the road as intently as to what the chapter is to be about." anywhere along the line, but if we do stood silent, arm in arm, looking across as if she had never seen it before. She | "For you it ought to be a story full justall them soon, it will be at the points of British Columbia, where the Avon and the quiet market-town, hid- She loved them with a love which was "Ah! but you don't know my history. heavy grades are. The estimates from I had such a happy childhood. I the tests so far made, show very little a woman, and there is nothing left for with our present volume of traffic. The pensive, but, of course, with an increase Sedgemoor, paying for that one act of ard of comparison. It was my first din- There was an intensity of bitterness in traffic the difference would be in in her tone that moved him beyond his favor of the electric locomotive. I think

PATERNAL LAWS FOR AUSTRALIA.

Wales' Parliament A despatch from Sydney, N. S.W. by the aid of Government subsidies, will draw special rates of interests. Premier Carruthers justifies his proposals by arguing that they "tend to uplift the community, swell the ranks of Tewnships, 21c; Quebec, 201/2 to 201/2c the friendly societies, increase the inlucement to thrift and generally aid in the battle against improvidence."

A BOY MURDERER

With Marbles.

A despatch from Baltimore, Md., says The youngest murderer in the history Tuesday, and convicted of manslaughter. He is Sydney Hollis, colored, aged nine years. He shot and killed Wm. H. Griffeths, another negro lad. eleven years, on June 1, after a quardid not display the slightest concern in the courtroom during the trial. fell asleep several times. Sentence was suspended.

FLOUR MILLS AND ELEVATORS. Preparing to Handle This Year's Crop in the West.

A despatch from Edmonton says: Plans have been completed for the erection of a flour mill at MacLeod and another at High River. Elevators of a capacity of 40,000 bushels each will be

A GERMAN'S SUICIDE.

ger With Foot.

A despatch from Winnipeg says: A per lb. chopping timber about eight miles east and culls being quoted slightly lower. would almost think that she was the to say such a thing!" she cried, her ing the muzzle of a gun next his head of liquor. At an inquest held by Cor- Canada is claimed by the Executive

REPORTS FROM THE LEADING TRAI E CENTRES.

Other Dairy Produce at Iloms and Abroad.

Toronto, June 25. - Flour - Ontario wheat 90 per cent, patents are quoted at and No. 2 northern at 90½c. Ontario or so far as they have reached the capi-wheat is steady, with No. 2 quoted at 80c tal, do not justify such a deplorable con-Since then the hotels have declined to Corn-No. 2 American corn is quoted It is true that events in the Midi have butchers are ready to serve the infantry at 61 to 61%c, Toronto, lake and rail. | taken a much worse turn than seemed as usual, but will not sell to the cavalry.

to $21 outside. CALL BOARD.

"So had Solomon, and yet he made of the porch on the other side of the cheerful feature in the scene, but hard- own limits in the Temiskaming District Oats—No. 2 Ontario white offered at time was a soldier, while two, father allowed to leave. will lose enormously. The prolonged 46c outside, with 44c bid for 20,000 and daughter, were killed in a cafe, the Corn-No. 3 American yellow, 60c bid

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

Apples-Good to choice winter stock, Beans-Hand-picked quoted at $1.50,

Hay-No. 1 timothy is quoted at $14 to Straw-$7 to $7.50 a ton on track here. with kicks and blows. With thirty Before going the soldiers had pillaged chickens, alive, 12c per to; fowl, 8 to 9c. were two officers and many soldiers. charged the populace there, but finally THE DAIRY MARKETS.

ery prints sell at 20 to 21c, and solids at at least fifty shots were fired into the the officers remained at Aude. On ar-

Eggs-Case lots sell at 17 to 18c per Cheese-Large are quoted at 12% c per Troops occupy every street and square, racks, but failing in this, they appar-

HOG PRODUCTS.

short cut, $23 to $23.50. Hams-Light to medium, 15 1/2c; do, streets around the prefecture and de- his colleagues in the Cabinet fully apheavy. 14%c; rolls, 11%c; shoulders, molishing barricades. Nobody was proved of his action. 110; backs, 16%c; breakfast bacon.

Lard-Tierces, 121/c; tubs, 121/c; pails, 12%c. BUSINESS IN MONTREAL.

Montreal, June 25.—Grain—The local market for oats was steady, and a fair A despatch from Ottawa says: A few bours later. Mr. Mills is also in the volume of business was done at 49c to days ago an employee of the Militia De- hospital suffering from burns, sustain-49%c for Manitoba No. 2 white, 48%c to partment named Martineau appropriat- ed in trying to save his wife and child. 49c for Ontario No. 2, 471/c to 48c for e. some blank checks of the department. The father's injuries are said to be not No. 3, and 46%c to 47c for No. 4 per filled them out for certain amounts, serious. bushel, ex store. Flour-Choice spring forged the names of the leading officiwheat patents $5.10 to $5.20; seconds, als and cashed them at the bank. In $4.50 to $4.60; winter wheat patents, this way he obtained some $60,000 to $4.85, straight rollers, $4.10 to $4.25; do, $70,000, and is now serving a term in Telegraphic Communication Is Entirely across the distance, with its mysterious "Perhaps you judge him by compari- you wound me to the heart. Oh. my Plans for Next Session of New South in bags, $1.50 to $2; extras, $1.60. the penitentiary. It appears that some-Feed-Manitoba bran, in bags, $21; one who is not yet known has been folshorts, $22 per ton; Ontario bran in lowing Martineau's daring forgeries and A despatch from Fort William, Ont., says: On the eve of Socialistic legisla- bags, $21 to $21.50; shorts, $22 to $22.50; has been successful to the tune of a says: From all over the district reports tion more paternal than even Austra- milled mouillie, $24 to $28 per ton; and few hundred dollars. It has ust leaked of the great destruction of property by lie has hitherto known, Premier Car. straight grain, $30 to $32. Provisions- out that over a dozen blank checks the bush fires which are raging in every ruthers on Friday announced the plans Barrels short cut mess, $22 to $22.50; have been stolen from the Inland Rev- section are pouring in and the losses are for the next session of Parliament, The half-barrels, $11.25 to $11.75; clear fat enue Department here. When the theft now reaching astonishing proportions. programme embraces pensions for inva- backs, $23.50 to $24.50; long cut heavy was noticed the banks were notified to The fire is now not more than twenty lids, subventions to friendly societies mess, $20.50 to $21.50; half-barrels do, stop payment, the numbers of the miles from this city and the homes of and the establishment of a system $10.75 to $11.50; dry salt long clear checks being given. Before this was two settlers, Robins and Playfair, residwhereby the poorest persons may pur- bacon, 10%c to 11%c; barrels plate beef, done a couple of the blanks had been ing at Slate River close to town were on chase annuities. There is little doubt $1% to $16; half-barrels do, $7.50 to used, and the money obtained. It is Tuesday totally destroyed, the owners that the proposals will be adopted. The $8.25; barrels heavy mess beef, $10; said that the name of the party on the getting out with barely their clothes on half-barrels do, $5.50; compound lard, checks and to whom they were payable their backs. They are in great want, 10%c to 10%c; pure lard, 12% to 12%c; is not known. The names of the offici- and the local relief society are now supment savings banks and their deposits, kettle rendered, 13 to 13%c; hams, 14 als were forged. To allay suspicion it plying them with clothes. to 16c; breakfast bacon, 141/2 to 15c; is said that the checks were cashed on Windsor bacon, 15% to 16c; fresh killed the 1st and the 15th of the month, Govaballoir dressed hogs, $10; alive, $7.25 ernment pay days to $7.40. Eggs-161/2 to 171/2c. Butter-Ontario, 20c; Western dairy, 18 to 18 %c Cheese-Western, 12c; Townships, 111/4

lo 11%c; Quebec, 11% to 11%c. JUNITED STATES MARKETS.

Minneapolis, June 25. - Wheat-July, 791/c; Sept., 971/s to 971/c; No. 1 hard Companion While Playing $1.01; No. 1 northern, $1; No. 2 northern, 97%c; No. 3 northern, 95 to 96c. Flour-5 cents higher: first patents, $5 to $5.10; second patents, $4.90 to $5 first clears, $3.55 to $3.65; second clears, $2.75 to $2.85. Bran-$15.50 to $15.75. Milwaukee, June 25.-Wheat-No. northern, $1.02 to $1.03; No. 2 northern, 99c to $1011/2; Sept. 951/8c. Rye-Easier. No. 1, 87 to 87/4c. Barley-No. 2, 76/4c: sample, 60 to 75c. Corn-No. 3, cash 53 to 53 %c; Sept, 53 %c. Duluth, June 25.-Wheal-No. 1 hard 99%c; No. 1 northern, 98%c; No. 2 northern, 96%c; July, 98%c; Sept.

> 991/c; Dec, 96%c. LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Toronto, June 25.-Export cattle were in demand, although the buying was all done by one or two dealers. The very choicest cattle brought from $6 40

Top quality butchers' cattle held comparatively steady, heavy, well-finished slock selling around $5.75, or only from 10c to 15c below last week's high levels. Ordinary choice sold from $5.25 le $5.40; medium, from $4.75 to $5.10; choice cows sold from $4 to $4.50; common cows, $3.25 to $3.75. Stocker trade was quiet. Choice were Milch cows were sleady at $35 to $55 for choice and $25 to $30 for common. Veal calves were steady at 3c to 6c from $3.25 to $3.50.

quoted from $3.75 to $4; lighter weights.

The market for hogs is steady and unchanged at $6.90 for selects. That more skilled labor is required in

se to my den and do a morning's letter-writing and accountancy—unless you ribly crest-fallen. "I was a brute," he multered to him THE WORLD'S MARKETS RIFLE BULLET AND SABRE

The French Government Is Facing a Serious Crisis.

A despatch from Paris says: The killed, but many persons were wounded, $3.45 to $3.50 in buyers' sacks outside news from Southern France during Fri- including a lieutenant. for export. Manitoba first patents, $4.75, day night was mostly disquieting. second patents, $4.20 to $4.25, and strong There are those who see or profess to Wheat-No. 1 Manitoba hard is quoted see an insurrection of dangerous pro- began at the arrest of Ferroul, when at 95c lake ports; No. 1 northern at 93c, portions already launched, but the facts, the cavalry roughly treated the crowd and others were arrested, but up to the the foot soldiers.

It is known, however, that seven to throw him into a nearby canal. The nesday at Narbonne. One of the vic- cavalry should not go out, and he was iron shutters of which were down. The rioters captured Special Commis- aged 20 years.

the streets is prohibited.

A VERITABLE MASSACRE

saw a crowd driving a detective along ings akin to anguish. Polatoes-Ontario, $1.15 to $1.20 per companions he succeeded in getting the the armory and carried away with them being shut, they carried him to the eers declared they were going to Nar-Poultry - Turkeys, alive, 12 to 13c; town hall, on the top steps of which boone to kill the cuirassiers who had The man asked the captain to receive they marched through the night, with the wounded detective, whereupon an drums and bugles playing at their head, Butter—Pound rolls are quoted at 17 to order was given to the soldiers and they to Beziers, where the majority of them 18c; tubs nominal at 17 to 171/2c; large lined up, ready to fire. The rescuers had been recruited, and where they arrescuers and the crowd following them, rival at Beziers the mutineers endeav-The military authorities at Narbonne ored to turn the regiment which had Beziers, Toulouse and Montauban. Bacon, long clear, 11 to 11% per to in volver shots fired by unknown men be- against them.

GOVERNMENT ROBBED.

Departmental Checks Stolen, Forged fire which followed the pouring of coal and Cashed.

Pouring Coal Oil on Fire Leads to Fatal

their seventeen months old baby Eva hold perished.

Bran-Prices nominal at $19 to $20 at first likely after the initial measures | The feeling has become so strong that the outside in bulk; shorts are quoted at $20 of the Government Wednesday morning, military authorities are not using the when Ferroul, ex-Mayor of Narbonne, cavalry, but are leaving all the work to present writing there is not sufficient | Gen. Turcas upon leaving his hotel,

HOSTILITY TO CAVALRY.

The crowd's hostility to the cavalry

Wheat-No. 2 Ontario white offered at reason for believing that the Govern- stopped to speak with some one on the

Among the victims in front of the lown hall were three men and a girl sary Dulest at Narbonne and are hold- A despatch from Paris says: Like an ing him as a hostage. All circulation on electric shock the news ran through Paris about noon on Friday that a mil-A despatch to the Petit Parisien from itary mutiny had been added to the Narbonne says the town hall square was serious developments of the situation in the wine-growing districts of the south. The report that 300 men of the 17th Regiment of Infantry had in a at about 8 o'clock, resulting in six per- lody marched out of the barracks and sons being killed and many wounded, joined the peasantry was received at One man who escaped told the corres- first with incredulous amazement, and pondent that he was near the canal and when soon after confirmed, with feel-have taken the direction of everything, replaced the Seventeenth out of bar-Fresh troops are arriving there from ently came to realize the gravity of the act there committed, and proposed to From 10 o'clock until midnight Mont- return to Aude on condition that no Dressed hogs in car lots are nominal. pelier was the scene of riot. Three re- disciplinary measures were taken case lots; mess pork, $21 to $21.50; gan the disturbances, then the soldiers | Clemenceau sent an immediate reply charged in all directions, clearing the that he accepted no conditions, and that are dead at the General Hospital from #### burns received on Friday morning in a oii on the stove. The little one died

HAVOC BY FOREST FIRES.

Practically all telegraphic communication has been cut off by reason of the burning of telegraph poles. Greer Bros.. the contractors of this place, lost 20,000 ties by fire which swept out one of their camps last week.

George Bret, of Hamilton, who keeps a candy store, was fined $10 for selling or. Sunday. A despatch from Toronto says: Mrs. The steamer Crystal Stream was Florence Mills, 32 years old, wife of burned at her dock in the St. John River Frederick Mills, a stone mason, and on Friday. Four men imprisoned in the

Fierce Barricade Fighting Between Troops and People

A despatch from Paris says: Des- A neighboring square was filled with patches received on Friday night from killed and wounded laid out in rows. Lisbon, undated, via Madrid, state that der the windows of the Hotel D'Anglepopular hatred of the system of govern- terre. Several English visitors witment by decree instituted by Senator nessed the struggle, and said the people Joao Franco after the dismissal of Par- fought for hours with sticks and stones iament has had an outcome in barricade fighting between troops and the supplied missiles to the men and urged people, with much bloodshed. The Pre- them on. Republican leaders harangued mier made a journey to Oporto in the the people to revolt. Barricades were hope of securing a popular endorsement breaking up furniture for their extemof his policy, but at every station be pore fortifications. The chief Lishen cafe tween Lisbon and Oporto crowds hissed was completely destroyed. The mob and hooted the train as it passed. fought with great fury, undismayed by Oporlo received the Premier with crare the volleys of the troops. Friday was a banners in place of flags, and with yells day of mourning for the dead. All the and insults instead of the hoped for newspapers appeared with deep black cheers. When the dictator returned to borders, and on the business offices and Lisbon there occurred a furious riot out private houses flags flew half mest. side the raftway station. The cavalry | Windows were draped in crepe. Friday charged the mob, and the infantry fired | night again the troops were firing on the into it. Officers' commands drowned the people in the public squares. Most sercries of "Death to the dictator!" Revol- lous events are expected. The spirit of young officer was mortally wounded. strict.

The principal fighting took place unagainst the soldiers, who fired volleys. Women with aprons filled with stones formed and cafes invaded, the mob