MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 1908.

C. W. RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

A TALE OF EARLY DAYS

sort of look."

CHAPTER X.

Once fairly out upon the lake in pur- "It was Tillie," exclaimed Ollin. "And suit of Tillie, Ollin Bain took a good she has gone to Mackinac?" look around him, marking the state of the weather.

"She'll scud away before such a breeze as this," he decided quickly. "She will "No, but you can ride to Detroit and feet instinctively that this is the first take a boat from there almost any day. and coffee. The coffee-pot was decosited condition of her safety. I may accord- "Ollin thanked him and hurried back on the tray. ingly look for her somewhere in the to the tavern. Then he again mounted "They are too prompt," said Ollin. vicinity of Pine Point!"

Holding his little craft to the course the half-formed hope of seeing her.

passed the long night, almost as heedless of its discomforts and perils as Tilhe had been.

the Canadian shore, about five miles to terror, until he was almost unmanned. at the table. "We have only time for the southward of Pine Point. The waves were still tossing wildly, again and again, his features working Beevil seated himself in front of the the wind was subsiding.

visible, no boat. deed what she knows about sailing a The sun was up and shining redly on inquiries in regard to the boats for ing heavily. the white yeast of waters when at last Mackinac and Chicago. he rounded Pine Point and headed his boat into the mouth of Mill Creek. The scene was scarcely less lonely by thing remained to the impatient lover with a start. "The fellow's asleep!" day than it had been by night. The old but to wait for the boat. to work. The door of the little cottage ertions, as well as weak from the in- like a fish ever since you left us!" in its shadow was open, and Ollin could juries he had received from the gover- Mr. Ward averied his face in disgust. see a woman's figure flitting about the nor. Rest, therefore, was an imperamiller's kitchen, busy at her household twe necessity, and he retired at an early have believed him capable of it."

At his first glance at the beach, he was in a sound slumber. started violently, uttering a cry of ming- He was up with the dawn, and with audible murmur. ied joy and terror.

rocks, was the wreck of his little sloop, he had undertaken. and he recognized it instantly. "Tillie is here," he assured himself,

"but is she alive or dead?" Running his boat ashore, he leaped on to Mackinac!" almost expecting to se Tillie burst out he hurried to the landing.

ucon him. The miller and his wife were both in the kitchen, discussing the mystery of the girl's arrival and departure.

They looked up at the stranger's approach, and, in response to his eager inquiries, informed him that a young lady had been wrecked there that morning at daybreak, and that their nearest neighbor, Justice Cranton, had been so fortunate as to entertain her at breakfast and learn something about her.

The Cranton farmhouse was in sight.

deorstep as the lover came up, but arose and advanced to meet him, listening nized at a glance. They were ex-Govwith much interest to the newcomer's ernor Ward and Beevil. "The young lady was here," he then, hastened to reply, "but she was in such a hurry that I sent her on her way in my spring wagon, with my son to drive her. Hope I didn't do wrong, sir-"Certainly not," returned Ollin, "Which way did she go "To St. Clair. You will find her there any time during the day. The stage must have left before her arrival, and there's a boat to Detroit only once a week, and she sailed yesterday. So the young lady will have to remain at the tavern until to-morrow." Ollin began to feel casier. He ascertained that Tillie had not been seriously injured by her plunge into the surf, gave such an explanation of her wanderings as seemed proper, and then made application to the justice for a breakfast and a horse with which to continue "Have you found her?"

his journey. The breakfast was duly served and caten, and the justice then took his guest out to the stable and allowed him to choose between two Canadian ponies, the sail-boat in which Ollin had arrived being left as security for the animal's safe return.

In less than an hour after his arrival, therefore, the lover found himself well mounted and on his way to St. Clair. Reaching the village in due course, he rode down its long street to the corner tavern at which young Cranton had rut up. That gentleman was making the most of his day of liberty by visiting his friends, shopping, and seeing the sights, and consequently was not at the inn at the moment of Ollin's arriva'. Tillie. You are welcome to come with Consigning his horse to the core of a hestler. Ollin stepped into the bar and nothing was known there of any such search for Tillie on Ollin's part. He went through all the principal streets. some bedding. These I will procure immaking inquiries, and at length found mediately. h mself on the lakeshore, where a number of men were busying themselves in lin, "If you will let me order breakload ng lumber.

ed here for her cap'n, and was right off the supplies the sloop afforded.

In desperately. "Did the Snowbird take es, while Beevil Enked his aim in that few months! How provident al that their fence of the fortress. It has taken two any passengers?"

The man suspended his labors again whiskers. along, which he did, although a govern- of ridding him elf of Ollin's company. or any other sort, my dear B evil! We eral Gerngros, and the Emperor of Ja- trade in them is quiet at present, There proprietor of the burned hotel, had him is married, but for some time has been

T + α +

The man assented.

mourning, and had a wild, sad, scared

"And no boat stops at St Clair under a week?"

and set out for Detroit. By this time he had reached a fair Is not that his your in the hall? he believed the fugitive to be steering, idea of the working of Tillie's mind. He He hurried to the door. he sped on in the storm and darkness, comprerended that she believed him to With the quickness of thought, Beevil stage he himself lost consciousness and straining his eyes through the gloom in te dead and her father a murderer, and emptied the contents of a vial into one that she had resolved to hide herself of the cups.

And it was in this manner that he beyond all possibility of being forced to He had scarcely restored the vial to bear witness against him. His heart was very full of tender love governor. and pity for her as he rode onward. He "The provisions are already going At break of day he found himself off thought of her anguish, her grief and aboard, said the latt r. taking his place Samples That Assay Seventy Dollars to "My poor darling!" he said to himself breakfast."

to bear before! How will she find drugged cup to his rival. Far as the eye could reach no sail was strength to bear all these burdens?" "She has landed before now-if in- speed, as if action were a relief to him. fee will clear my head, I hope." It was a little after five o'clock on the He sipped it while the others ate. boat has carried her through," exclaim- long, pleasant afternoon when he ed Ollin, when the day had advanced crossed the ferry from Windsor to De past his voice was silent. When they sufficiently for him to note his sur- troit, going directly o a tavern near the had concluded, his head had fallen forroundings. "I must lock for her there." principal wharf, and proceeding to make ward on his breast, and he was breath-hour, hardly reaching the bed before he Beevil arose and jostled the sleeper.

None would leave under three days, had done its work.

the recuperation of his forces had come For there, on the low-half-sunken the keenest zeat and energy in the task Governor, said the villain, smiling. "I cannot wait here!" was the thought to carry him aboard-with which he attired himself. "I must

CHAPTER XI.

Either lecause he was astir too early, or because what he wanted was not to be had, the quest of Ollin proved fruitless, and he went back to his hotel to breakfast, heavy-hearted and well-night discouraged.

Yet, after breakfast, he returned to the wharves to prosecute his inquiries. He was wandering about here disconsolately, when he beheld a trim little The worthy justice was sitting on his sloop approaching the landing. It was occupied by two men whom he recog-

After Ollin's departure on the evening of Tillies flight, the anguished fato Cleveland and hired a sloop and two men to handle her, setting out in immediate pursuit of the fugitive.

By some fatality or miscalculation, they had struck the Canada shore ten miles west of Pine Point, and had, of course, missed all trace of Tillie, They had come on to Detroit, persuaded that the girl, if she had weathered the night, was more likely to have taken that direction than any other.

The newcomers recognized Offin at almost the same instant they were recognized by him, the father's haggard face lighting up with a glow of hope at sight of his daughter's favored lover. They hastened to land.

"My daughter, Ollin?" cried the governor, before the lover could speak. "Not yet, sir," replied Offin, "but know where she is. She has gone on to Mackinac." The governor and Beevil repeated the name in chorus.

"She was wrecked at Pine Point," coninued Ollin, "and went on from there in a wagon to St. Clair, where she found a schooner, the Snowbird, on the point of sailing with government stores, and prevailed on the captain to take her. I came on to Detroit, and have been trying to buy or hire a boat in which to

The governor's careworn face softened and a kindly look appeared in his eyes. "We have a sloop," he said. "Of course we shall continue the search for Ollin thanked him warmly, while inquired for Miss Ward, but learned that Beevil scowled, pulling his side-whiskers fierce'v.

> "We are not prepared for so long a trip," continued Governor Ward, "but must lay in additional provisions and Going up to one of these men, he in- stret here-you will have time to eat my pity for him gave place to an inten e

"Not any, sir-except the Snowbird," "A good idea," said Beevil, who was son of Joel Bain!"

minds me of my pet vice," pursued Bee- upon it!" "I must invest a little in the weed before we embark. Suppose you go on, will follow as soon as possible." Ollin bowed and went on, and Beevil went into the tobacconist's. Presently he emerged, looked up the street, saw that Ollin was not in sight, and made his way into a druggist's ad-

Here he purchased a strong narcotic

Ollin was waiting for him in the deserted din'ng-room. The table was laid for three, a tray of cups, saucers, creamjug. and sugar-bowl teing placed be-his pocket when Ollin came in with the their crests tipped with white caps, but with his emotions. "She had so much tray and poured the coffee, giving the "I am not hungry," remarked Ollin. He spurred on his horse to greater "I have had my breakfast, but the co"-

Long before they had finished their re-

Beevil smiled like a demon. His drug As much as this fact fretted him, no- "What's this?" demanded the governor "Drunk, more likely," returned Bec-

"Drunk!" he exclaimed. "I wouldn't

He did not arouse; only uttered an in-"He's clear over the bay, you see,

"We shall have to get a couple of men "No. sir!" said the governor sternly. find a small craft of some kind and push "Let him bear the penalty of his vice! I was thinking I had perhaps been too out of it and hurried up to the cottage, H's whole soul absorbed in this design harsh.-But enough! We will go on.

Beevil, and leave him to sleep off his debauch! He led the way from the room, pausing at the door only long enough to pay his bill and say a few words to the Beevil took a last look at his victim. "Perhaps I gave him enough to kill bim!" he muttered under his breath. "If so. I shall be rid of him forever!" He followed the governor, the two returning to their sloop, and in another minute they were off for Lake Huron. The breeze was fine and favorable, Lou's Payette, and the little sloop chartered by ex-Governor Ward sped swiftly on her way northward, greatly to the satisfaction of MAY BUILD NEW WELLAND CANAL its occupants. "We shall make rapid progress with this breeze, said Mr. Ward, as he paced the cramped little deck with Beevil. ther and the jealous lover had ridden "We are twenty-two hours behind the transport, but she must be heavily laden! so that she wou't arrive at Mackinac much before we do. The rejected wooer assented. "My poor child!" sighed the father. She thinks young Bain is dead, and that I have been arrested and consignhas a noble, tender, loving heart, Bee-And you, Beevil, when she becomes your wife, you will be very tender of her?" Beevil's eyes glowed, his fingers straying nervously to his whiskers. "I will, indeed," he responded, "I will stand between her and all trouble. Her life shall be one long and radiant dream. made beautiful by love. I will worship her as the Hindoo devot e worships his upon you?"

daughter's rescue, after I had put his natives at ke. He in petil, knuched me. But of course that is all over. When we left him sconer see her dead than wedded to a ment transport. She was dressed in "Do you drink?" he asked abruptly, as shall have to hasten her marriage with pan by General Nogi.

"I don't drink, thank you," returned ther, she can marry the honorable man Ollin, disengaging his arm.

"By the way, this tobacconist's relies very private and quiet. I shall insist

> He spoke with a determination which No. 2, white and red in rather free supshowed that he would listen to no apply, between 86c and 87c outside; No. Mr. Bain, and order the breakfast? I peals for pity from Tillie, and the big 2 mixed, a little lower on same bas's. dandy expressed his delight in unmeasured terms, the voyage becoming from that moment one of triumph to him. (To be Continued.)

DEATH BY GASOLINE FUMES. Italian Suffocated While in Pit at Stratford Shops. A despatch from Stratford says: Ar extraordinary fatality occurred at the G T. R. shops here on Friday afternoon fore one of the corners, at the end, and when Antonio Pasquale, an Italian Beevil mentally appropriated this latter workman, was asphyxiated by gaso'ine gas while working at the botton of an The half-hour was not yet up, when underground reservoir pit. A compana colored waiter brought in the meal, ion, who was with him at the time consisting of meat, fish, eggs, toast, drawing gasolene, was also rendered unconscious, but was finally resuscitat ed. The rescued man says Pasquale complained of a headache and sat down. "The governoy is not come yet. Hark! He seated himself beside him, but could not get up. Pasquale's head dropped and then he fell in a heap. At this his memory was a blank until he opened his eyes in the outer air.

STURGEON LAKE GOLD.

cinity of Sturgeon Lake, where four pro- port level. Hickler and P. Hassard, have been work-Thursday, bringing with them some fine samples of quartz, and have registered claims in the name of their syndicate. Inferior 15c to 16c The assays show $70 to the ton. Fifteen ve'ns have been found on their claims, 10c lower. Very few Delawares are one of which is eight sect wide, and can coming through now; Ontarios, 70c to be traced for two hundred yards.

PRESIDENT ROY ARRESTED.

saw-mill was idle, its owner not liking He was tired and warm with his ex- vil, with a laugh. "He's been drinking Latest Move in the Bank of St. John

A despatch from Montreal says: An important move was made in the Bank of St. John affairs on Thursday night when Hon, Philippe Roy, former President of the bank, was arrested on a rel; mess, $18.50 to $19. charge of making false returns to the Government. It is alleged that in the 121/4c. Mr. Roy was allowed out on bail of smoked. $2,000, and will be tried as soon as the necessary steps can be taken. It is said that the liabilities of the bank amount to over $500,000, and the assets to not more than $200,000. Mr Roy is personally very wealthy, being the owne- of the St. John's waterworks and electric light plant, and other industries in the town and Province. He was Speaker of the last Provincial Legislature, and ran for Mayor of Montreal last February, being defeated by Mr. 50c; No. 4. 48c to 481/2c; rejected, 461/2c

Important Statement by the Minister in the House.

A despatch from Ottawa says: In the House of Commons on Thursday morn- 17c, and No. 2, 14c per dozen. "What anguish she must be enduring! 25 feet, and also of the cost of an en- to $1.80. ed to prison as his murder. Her idea a new canal. In reply to Mr. Lancas- backs, $23; dry salt long clear backs, Divers and pumps were set to work was, as I have mentioned, that she ter. Mr. Graham said he was prepared 11c; barre's plate beef, $17.40; half bar- as speedily as possible, under the supwould be called as a witness against me, to say that if we were to carry our own reis do., $9; compound lard, 8%c to erintendency of Admiral Lord Charles ed. As to the new canal, the scheme according to size; breakfast bacon, 14c has a heavy list, but the danger of her vil. In my grief at my wife's death I would reduce the number of locks 75 to 15c; Windsor bacon, 15c to 16c; fresh- sinking has been avoided. have neglected Tillie, but I w. make per cent., and though he could not say killed abattoir-dressed hogs, $9.25 to up for it all when I get her back again. definitely, he thought the cost would ap- $9.50; live, $6.75. proximate $25,000,000 or $30,000,000. There were advantages in the new canal owing to the shorter distances and few-

ANCIENT SHIP ON ARCTIC HILLS. Klondike Miner Brings Word of a No 3, 71%; July, 67% asked.

Strange Craft. "Enough!" interrupted the governor. A despatch from Seattle, Wash., says: $1.05% to $1.06%; No. 2 Northern, "No life can be a 'dream,' and if it could Practical confirmation of a weird story $1.03% to $1.04%; No. 3 Northern. 99% it wouldn't be worth having. Tillie has growing out of the earlier days of the to $1.02%; July, $1.02%; Sept., 87% to compelled to build a track for many to diminate knif carrying. one of those bright and sunny tempera- Kloncike gold stampede, of the find- 871/2c. Bran-In bulk, $19.75 to $20.00. ments which delight in real ties. As to ing of the hull of a ship high upon the Flour-First patents, $5.45 to $5.60; sectroubles, we must all have them. They hills within the Arctic circle, is furnish- ond patents, $5.30 to $5.45; first clears, are the essential part of our education." ed by N. J. Brown, a well-known miner, $4.25 to $4.35; second clears, $3.55 to "True," returned Beevil. "Do you just arrived at Dawson. Brown located $2.65. know. Governor," he pursued abruptly, the strange craft, which, he says, is still Buffalo, N. Y., June 16. - Wheat "that back there at Detroit I had a fear in a fair state of preservation, on a hill- Spring, easy; No. 1 Northern, $1.07 in that you were softening lowards Bain? side overlooking a chain of lakes from carloads; Winter, steady; No. 2 red, 96c. His eagerness in the pursuit, and all 40 to 50 miles from the head of the Corn-Cash, lower; No. 2 yellow, 76c; that ort of thing, rather impressed me, Chandelar River and possibly 200 miles No. 2 while, 77c. Oats-Steady; No. 2 and I presume were not without effect from the Arctic circle. Brown says the white, 55, to 55%; No. 2 mixed, 51%c. big structure has crude doors and win- Barley-60c. Bye-88c; No. 1 on track. dows in the upper works similar to Canal freights, Wheat, 5c to New York. "I did feel sorry for him, and kindly those of a ship, and bears letters or N. w York, June 16.-Wheat-Spot enough for the time being, he admit- heroplyphics which baffle translation easy; No. 2 red; 98c elevator; No. 2 red, ted. "H's promptness in going to my by those who have seen it, Russians and 1995 spot f.o.b. affort; No. 1 northern fast for you at my hotel-just up the drunk, back there at the hotel table, a'l JAPANESE HONOR RUSSIAN DEAD. quired if any craft had sailed that morn- it before the provisions can be got discust. Much as I love Tille, I would Monument Amidst the Graves of Over 14,000 Soldiers.

"Very well," said the governor. 'I tones. "I am glad the fellow made such Arthur was unveiled here on Wednes- hard to get, and were in strong demand. Queen's Hotel on May 20 last, when The prisoner was taken before Justices Where was she bound " pursued Ol- will join you at the hotel in half an an exhibition of himself before you, for day. The memorial has been erected by you will now be able to convince Tillie Japan. It stands at Antzeshan, in the for specially good ones. The poorer others were seriously injured. "For Fort Mackinac."

He separated from them, going into of his unwor hiress. Why, I have seen midst of graves of more than 14,000 grades, however, were weak, selling of his unwor hiress. Why, I have seen midst of graves of more than 14,000 grades, however, were weak, selling of his unwor hiress. Why, I have seen midst of graves of more than 14,000 grades, however, were weak, selling of his unwor hiress. Why, I have seen midst of graves of more than 14,000 grades, however, were weak, selling of his unwor hiress. Why, I have seen midst of graves of more than 14,000 grades, however, were weak, selling of his unwor hiress. Why, I have seen midst of graves of more than 14,000 grades, however, were weak, selling of his unwor hiress. Why, I have seen midst of graves of more than 14,000 grades, however, were weak, selling of his unwor hiress. Why, I have seen midst of graves of more than 14,000 grades, however, were weak, selling of his unwor hiress. Why, I have seen midst of graves of more than 14,000 grades, however, were weak, selling of his unwor hiress. Why, I have seen midst of graves of more than 14,000 grades, however, were weak, selling of his unwor hiress. Why, I have seen midst of graves of more than 14,000 grades, however, were weak, selling of his unwor hiress. Why, I have seen midst of graves of more than 14,000 grades, however, were weak, selling of his unwor hiress. Why, I have seen midst of graves of more than 14,000 grades, however, were weak, selling of his unwor hiress.

BREADSTUFFS.

Toronto, June 16 .- Ontario Wheat -Manitoba Wheat-Dull market; quotations at Georgian Bay ports, No. 1 nor-thern, $1.09; No. 2 northern, $1.06; No.

3 northern, $1.031/2. Oals - No. 2 white, comparatively steady, between 46c and 47c outside; No 2 mixed, 44c.

Corn-No. 3 yellow, offering lower at offering; quotation about 88c.

outside at $18.50 to $19; about $20.50 track here.

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

Shorts-$21 outside.

Wholesale quotations are:-Eggs-New-laid. 17c to 171/c. Honey-Strained steady at 11c to 12c per round for 60-pound pails, and 12c 1: 13c for 5 to 10-pound pails. Combs at $1.75 to $2.50 per dozen. A despatch from Port Arthur Says: A Butter-The market is strady, but pricrich gold find is reported from the vi- es are not yet down to a storage or exspectors, Messrs. T. Fay, H. Bell, C. Creamery, prints 21c to 22c do solids 190 to 20c ing. The former two came in on Dairy prints, choice 18c to 19c do prints, ordinary 16c to 18c do tub 17c to 18c Potatoes-Prices of Ontarios are about 80c; Delaware, 90c to 95c in car lots on track here.

Beans-$1.90 to $2 for primes, and $2 to $2.10 for hand-picked. Cheese-Per pound, 11% to 12c.

Baled Sfraw-At $7.50 to $8.50. Baled Hay-T mothy is quoted at $11 to $12 per ton in car lots on track here.

PROVISIONS.

Pork-Short cut, $22 to $22.50 per bar-

MONTREAL MARKETS.

Montreal, June 16.-Flour-Manifoba spring wheat patents, $6.10 to $6.20; second patents, $5.50 to $5.70; winter wheat patents, $5.25 to $5.75; straight lambs this spring, which makes a wide miles. He was marooned for a month rollers, $4.25 to $4.50; in bags, $2 to range in the prices. $2.15; extra, $1.50 to $1.75.

Oats-No. 2, 52c to 53c; No. 3, 49c to $5.75 f.o.b. to 47c; Manitoba rejected, 48c to 48%c Cornmeal-$1.75 to $1.85 per bag. Millfeed-Ontario bran in bags, $21 to $22; shorts, $23 to $24; Manitoba bran in bags, $23; shorts, $24 to $25. Butter-Is quoted at a wide range, 20c to 22%c per pound.

UNITED STATES MARKETS.

Milwaukee, June 16 .- Wheat-Ouiet: No. 1 Northern., $1.09 to $1.11; No. 2 North rn. $1.07 to $1.08%; July, 86% to 86%c. Ryc-No. 1, 79c. Barley-Dull. No. 1, 57c; sample, 47 to 58c. Corn -

Minneapolis, June 16.-Wheat-No. 1 hard. $1.07% to $1.08%; No. 1 Northern,

Duluth, $1.15% f.o.b. affoat; No. 2 hard win'er, $1.05% f.o.b. affoat.

CATTLE MARKET.

of Ollin, pulling yet more fier ely at his plan of elopment was defeated!" years to erect the monument. Defach ers. They bring from $3.25 to $4.50. | Seventher have a strong case against for preliminary hearing on a charge of "The rash, headstrong girl!" regret- ments of Japanese and Russian troops Milk cows are not wanted quite so the prisoner. They have established a arson. The big dandy not only hated the led the governor, in a tone of annoy- took part in the dedication ceremonies. much, but good ones can always de- motive and possess evidence that points | Buckberough at the time of his arrest has been a scarcity of good quality arrested for trespass. It is said that the separated from his wife, Premature Discharge of Dynamite Causes Havoc on the Transcontinental.

Buckwheat-No. 2, market pretty well ar The injured ware:-A. McDona'd thrown a few feet by the concussion, cleaned up; nominally quoted 64%c to and Patrick Shorten. Bran-Prices begin to decline; offered working in a deep rock cut, while the The work of recovering the mangled two injured were engaged in loading bodies of the dead men from under the drill holes at the top of the cut, when mass of rock under which they were the explosion occurred. The holes, buried look several hours.

nearly two boxes of dynamite had been now on the ocean on their way to Canplaced in one of the holes. The load- ada to join their husbands.

A despatch from Kenera, Ont., says: ers were using wooden tamp-sticks, 79c to 80c, but still above the market; Buried under an avalanche of rock from and what caused the explosion is a argeon,

The to 80c, but still above the market; no business.

Flour — Manitoba patents special brands, $6; seconds, $5.40; strong bakters', $5.30; winter wheat patents, casier, offering now at $3.30.

Barley—No. 2, fairly plent ful at 55c to 58c.

Peas—No. 2, practically all gone; neminal price 92c.

Rye—No. 2, some inquiry, but none offering; quotation about 88c.

Buried under an avalanche of rock from a dynamite explosion, nine men lost their lives at S mmons sub-contract of the explosion was most the Transc int in ntal Rathway construction, about two miles east of the Winnibeg River on Thursday afternoon. The dead are:— Harvey Bradley, George Munser. Thomas Burgess, Englishmen; Robert Gray, a Scott man; Christopher Wagelein, a Dutchman; Dymytro Jehendon, about 88c.

Rye—No. 2, some inquiry, but none offering; quotation about 88c.

Buried under an avalanche of rock from a dynamite explosion, nine men lost their lives at S mmons sub-contract of the investory.

The force of the explosion was most by expended at the bottom of the cut, and it seemed to shoot the rock right out on the unfortunate muckers, who were working there, and for this reason the two men at the top owe their escape from death. Eight of the men were killed outright, while the other man died what caused the explosion is a dynamite explosion, nine men lost their lives at S mmons sub-contract of the mystery.

The force of the explosion was most the Transc int in ntal Rathway construction, about two miles east of the Winnibe out on the unfortunate muckers, who were working there, and for this reason the two men at the top owe their escape from death. Eight of the men were killed to out on the unfortunate muckers and it seemed to shoot the rock right out on the unfortunate muckers. Thomas Burgess, Englishmen; and it seemed to shoot the mystery.

The force of the explosion was most the two miles east of the Winnibe out on the unfortunate muckers. The force of the explosion of the mystery. Pasqualate Trimbuli, Luigi Biribin, Itali- Denald and Shorten, the loaders, were and were badly injured about the face All the dead men were muckers, and arms. They will recover, however, > which were 18 feet deep; had been A pathetic feature in connection with "sprung" on Monday, and should have the accident, is that the wives of two been cool. At the time of the accident, of the Englishmen who were killed are Discarded Husband Perpetrator of Double Crime on Farm in New Ontario.

A despatch from Cobalt says: The live with him any longer. Shortly after village of Earlton, about 25 miles north be went away they received a letter of here, was stirred by a double tragedy saying that he would repent if his wife on Wednesday afternoon, when Chas. fore he came back he wrote and said E. Marshall, aged 32 years, shot and he would be away for a year. He rekilled his wife, aged 24 years, and then turned, however, on the Cobalt special shot himself, blowing the top of his on Wednesday morning. Instead of head off. The tragedy happened on the taking the road to the farm he struck farm of Mrs. Marchall's father, Absalom off through the woods. Lard-Tierces, 11%c; tubs, 12c; pails, Gray, about one mile from the town. Marshall's father-in-law saw him comcurrent loan columns of the returns sent | Smoked and Dry Salted Meats-Long | was attached to a regiment of the U. | wrong he started towards the house. to the Government were found promis- c'ear bacon, 10% to 11c, tons and cases; S. A., stationed in Fort Niagara, about When within a few feet of the building sory notes long since outlawed, and hams, medium and light, 13%c to 14c; five years ago. They were married at he heard four shots and on entering the which are without any value whatever. hams, large, 11%c to 12c; backs, 16c to Lewiston, N. Y., about a year ago. house found Marshall lying on the din-The arrest was made through Crown 16%; shoulders, 9%c to 10c; rolls, 10c They came to this country on a visit ing-room floor dead with the top of his Prosecutor Hibbard, who acted under to 10%c; breakfast bacon, 14e to 15c; from Niagara Falls, and returned on head blown off and his daughter in the instructions from the Attorney-General. green meats, out of pick'e, ic less than Dec. 17th last to take up their abode. kitchen dying. When he got to his

his wife's brother, James Gray.

to Niagara Falls, his wife refusing to the breast.

WARSHIP ALMOST SANK. Narrow Escape of the British Battleship Irresistible.

battleship Irresistible had a narrow es- sioner Whipple on Wednesday announc-Eggs-Selected, 18c; No. 1, 16%c to cape from sinking in Portland harbor et that the State would exact a fee from on Tuesday. The crew were engaged all Canadian fishermen fishing in New ing Hon. Mr. Graham intimated that it Flour-Choice spring wheat patents, in testing the Kingston flooding valves, York State waters along the border line, was the intention of the Government to $6.10; seconds, $5.50; winter wheat pat which finally refused to clos. The ves- The tax will be $5 for a single rod, and procure estimates of the cost of deepen- ents. $5; straight rollers, $4.50 to $4.75; sei began to fill rapidly, listing heavily 810 for a family rod. This action is ing the Welland Canal to a draught of do., in bags, $2.12 to $2.25; extra, $1.70 to starboard and it was necessary to call taken as a result of the Canadian Govfor assistance of tugs. The guns were ernment imposing a similar fee upon trely new canal. He had been told by Provisions-Barrels short cut mess, quickly trained to the port side in order American fishermen using Canadian engineers it would be cheaper to build $22.50; half barrels. $11.50; clear fat to restore the balance of the warship. waters. and the mere thought of such a thing traffic as well as American traffic the 9%c; pure lard. 12%c to 13c; kettle ren- Beresford, and finally the leakage was was enough to drive her distracted. She Welland Canal would have to be deepen- dered, 13: to 13%c; hams 12%c to 14c, stopped by collision mats. The vessel Double-tracking of C. P. R. From Win-

A TOUGH AUTO TRIP.

Prussian Lieutenant, Crossing Africa, Has Reached Rhodesia. says: Lieut, Graetz, of the Prussian ber army, who started on Aug. 10 last to cross Africa from Dar-es-Salaam in a specially built automobile, reached Serenje, Rhodesia, on May 26 after a peri- fer to the Italian court interpreter at lous passage. His route alternated with Hamilton adv sing the formation of some rocks, swamps and torrents. He was organization to carry on a propaganua

Marshall first met his wife while he ing and suspecting that something was Marshall getting work on the farm of daughter she said. "He killed me. father," and expired. She was shot About a week ago Marshall went back through the arm, right thigh, and in

All the hogs were taken for the local ing exhausted. He had to send a na-Rolled Oats-$2.75 in bags of 90 trade at unchanged prices, namely, $6, tive guide to Serenje to ob'ain a supply. fed and watered off cars Toronto, and Lieut. Graetz's health is excellent.

A despatch from London says: The

A despatch from Bulwayo, Rhodesia, in the desert owing to his petrol becom-

MUST PAY TO FISH.

A despatch from Albany, N. Y., says: State Forest, Fish and Game Commis-

BIG JOB ALMOST OVER.

nipeg to Lakes. A despatch from Winnipeg says: Excellen! progress has been made on the dcuble-tracking operations of the C. P. R. and grading will be finished this week. There are still seventy miles of steel to lay, but the officials of the company expect to be able to open the Chief Justice Mulock has written a let-second track some time early in Septem-

Chester Buckberough, Tillsonburg Blacksmith, Under Arrest.

A despatch from Tillsonburg, Ont , man nursed a passionale desire for vensoys: Chester Buckberough, a man about geance, and was heard by several per-Toronto, June 16 .- Quite a number of thirty years of age, and well known sons to assert that he would one day very select exporters' were on the mar- about town, was arrested by Provincial "get even with Mero." At the time of ket, and for these from $6 to $6.40 was Detective Miller shortly after 2 o'clock the fatal fire Buckberough was observanswered the lumberman. "She touch- decidedly hungry, and did not relish appreciate your feeling, Governor, A despatch from Port Arthur says: A paid. A few very choice butchers' sold on Thursday afternoon on suspicion of ed hanging around the locality shortsaid the wily Beevi, in his blandest monument to the Russian dead at Port at over $6. Good cows were rather being concerned in the burning of the ly after the alarm was given.

"She did take one passenger," he said. She did take one passenger, he said. The Buss'an detachment came down are all sold from Hartin at the invitation of the said. Although there was a preity liberal sold from Hartin at the invitation of the said. Although there was a preity liberal sold from Hartin at the invitation of the said. Although there was a preity liberal sold from Hartin at the invitation of the said. Although there was a preity liberal sold from Hartin at the invitation of the said. Although there was a preity liberal sold from Hartin at the invitation of the said. Although there was a preity liberal sold from Hartin at the invitation of the said. Although there was a preity liberal sold from Hartin at the invitation of the said. was pushing off in his boat, a young gal s flen ag fowards him, and had begun I hate and have long hated! I must Japanese military authorities. The Em- run of calves the morket was firm at 85 placed on the "list as a person to whom occupation, and had begun I hate and have long hated! I must Japanese military authorities. The Em- run of calves the morket was firm at 85 placed on the "list as a person to whom occupation, and had begun I hate and have long hated! I must be a person to whom occupation are long hated." I must be a person to whom occupation are long hated. I must be a p came up and asked him to take her to revolve in his mind various plans prevent any future escapades of this peror of Russia was represented by Gen- to $5.50. Sheep werd steady, but the leaver must not be served," John Mero, allowed to supply him with liquor. He

New York State Will Charge Canadians