any kind.

lining Camp

for full particu-

press (the only

, Toronto and order is received.

s any length up

Barns, Factory,

carried in stock.

Vancouver.B.

615 Pender st.

e British Flag.

AWA, Ont

ood ducts

as good. You na you buy them.

can but clean, eacly to eat.

and trouble and

th Mayornaise

yet as delicious

chicken, and

, Chicago

CONOMY

expensivo

THREE OR

9 used

meat.

and prices.

Galvanized.

teed true and

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, JULY 5, 1906.

C. W. RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

Or. The Privilege of a Princess.

· CHAPTER VII.

flesh, and the devil! I must have stared like a madman. For very fear of my own violence, I dared not move or speak. Mademoiselle Ottilie, or, to call her by her proper name, played upon me. Madame de Jennico, very composedly re which I still unconsciously clutched, straint, of womanly compassion, had herself could not have behaved with a Then she turned and looked at me as if kept from acting so base a part; and better grace than this burgher daughter waiting for me to speak first. I said in a sort of a whisper:

"What does this mean?"

I, I, Basil Jennico, would strike her, a a gentleman do more? at her, I saw that whatever charge She settled herself in the corner of the might be laid upon her-and God knows carriage something like a bird setles she had wrought a singular evil upon down in its nest, and, still with her eyes me!- the accusation of cowardice could which never looked very dark in the unnot be part of them. Her face showed certain light, fixed upon me, said in a white, indeed, in the pale light, her featione of the utmost security. tures set; but her eyes looked fearlessly "You can beat me of course, if you into mine. * Every line of her figue ex- like, and you can murder me if you are pressed the most dauntless determina- very, very angry; but you cannot undo tion. She was braced to endure, ready what is done. I am your wife!" She self. This was no craven, rather the fection of impudence. She was like Stammering and protesting, my wrath overflowed my lips.

insane fraud.—what is its object? What ing; we were already on the mountain trait of my uncle, stern and solitary. I to 19c; Windsor bacon, 16 to 161/2c; is your object? You encouraged me-you incited me. Confusion!" I cried and a glimmer of moon again, the rain-beat room that night to have met the look to $10.75; alive, $7.75 to $8 per 100 lbs. clasped my head. "I think I am going was silent on the panes, and I could of his single watchful eye.

would like to see me settled in life," said ordered for the bridal welcome. my bride, with the old look of derision on her face.

She met my look-and it must have me, not I her. I would keep her for a been a terrible one-with the same space at least, and let no man suspect dauntlessness as before, and answered that she was not my choice. And then, after a little pause, with cool delicera- in the ripeness of time, when I would

"Yes, it was the Princess's plan." The carriage drove on through the why, then my lady Princess should Policemen Were Attacked With Knives f.o.b affoal; No. 1 Northern Duluth. rain; and again there was a silence be- bave her maid of honor back again, and tween us. My pulses beat loud in my see if she would find it so easy to settle ears; I saw, as if written in fire, the her in life once more! What pity should whole devilish plot to humiliate me for I have upon her who had no pity for my presumption. I saw myself as I, me, who had sold her maiden pride in my presumption. I saw inject the such a sordid barter for a husband? This separate cell with a deep cut over the must appear to that hightborn lady— such a sordid barter for a husband? This left eye as the result of a riot which a ridiculous aspirant whose claim was was no mere tool of a woman's scorn. broke out at the Grand Trunk station too absurd even to be seriously dealt No! Contemned by her I had wooed. with. And she, the creature who had played with, no doubt I had been; but leant herself to my shame, without I had seen enough of the relations of whose glib tongue and pert audacious the moving and to know well who was geant and detective badly handled. counsels I had never presumed, who had dared to carry out, smiling, so gross This lady had had an eye to her own a fraud, to wear my ring and front me interests while lending herself to my still-how was I to deal with her? These were the thoughts that surged with as cool a brain as I might, — and backward and forwards in my mind, fu- cace I had settled upon my resolve, the tile wreckage on stormy sea, in the first frenzy of my rage died away,- I "You know," I said at last, and felt rico lied when she said it was altogeth-last., "that this is no marriage." Her countenance expressed at this the that in this I had guesed but a third of most open amazement and the most

"How, sir," she cried-"has not he to the first post where my over-docile priest wedded us? Are we not of the and zealous retainers were already raissame faith, and does not the same ing a fearful clamor, and I must per-Church bind us? Have not we together force assume some attitude to face the received a most solemn sacrament? Have people, I turned to my strange bride not you. Basil, and I. Marie Ottilie, and said to her: sworn faith to each other until death do "Do you think then, it is the right of us parl? You may like it or not, Mon- a husband to strike or slay his wife? If sieur de Jennico, but we are none ihe so, I marvel that you should have been less man and wife, as fast as Church so eager to enter upon the wedded can make us." As she spoke she smiled again, and looked at me with that dimple coming and going beside the curve of her sip. The tears welled into her eyes and her As they say men do at the point of some violent death, so I saw in the space 6f a second my whole life stretched before me, past and future. I saw the two alternatives that lay to and here, the little demon! it seemed my hand, and their full consequences, she could not refrain from a malicious I knew what the audacious little de- smile under the very mist of her tears, ceiver beside me ignored-that it rested - "but because you are an Englishman, upon my pleasure alone to acknowledge and incapable of harshness to a woor not the validity of this marriage. Let man.' me take the step which as a man of honor I ought to take, which as a Jen- disinterested asservation a whit, but nico and my uncle's heir I was pledged with a queer feeling at my heart at once in conscience to take, it was to hold my- bitterly angry at each word that bein conscience to that I traved the determination of her deceit Special Constables Appointed to Enforce pilgrim, selling images of saints. should lay bare before a grianing world, and her most unwomanly machinations.

the whole extent of my pretentions and and yet, and yet strangely melted to her, "it is reckoning on my weak good-On the other hand let me keep my se- nature that you have played me this constables have been appointed by the their requital, my disappointment so heart-breaking, see you unhappily married, and the this work during the three months be- struck by a Grand Trunk train at Harbut that I had been able to find tempor- other Otillie would have made you a ginning July 1. The names of the new risburg on Wednesday night, thrown ary compensation in the substitute with whom she had herself provided me.

I burst out laughing, for, by the whom she had herself provided me.

I burst out laughing, for, by the whom she had herself provided me.

I burst out laughing, for, by the which was sounded by the whom she had herself provided me. I burst out lauguing, for, by the war sounded with the street firing a re- to have been due to a buffet firing a re- liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has been someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians, has been someone in a small boat on the river liable to a fine of $240,000, at the rate of working pedestrians. through the fear of ridicule than through tion was comic! And she fell to laugh- Queensville, and Eleazer Frisby, Aurora, as a warning to him.

put my arms around her and kissed it. $4 to $4.10; bakers, $3 to $4. As my lips touched hers I knew I was!

age, laughing faces. If I had cursed myself for my happy thought before, I situation had to be accepted. And the 1 al. the temptations of the world, the way in which my bride, blushing crimson from my kiss-she who had no blush My resolution was promptly taken; my to spare for herself before this night revenge would be more exquisite and adapted herself to it was a marvel to subtle than the trick that had been me, as indeed all that I was to see or learn of her during our brief moon of I would take her to my home, this wedded life was likewise to prove. moved her veil from her hair, pushed damsel whom no feeling of maidenly re- tack her hood, and withdrew her hand damsel whom no feeling of maidenly re- tack her hood, and withdrew her hand damsel whom no feeling of maidenly re- tack her hood, and withdrew her hand damsel whom no feeling of maidenly re- tack her hood, and withdrew her hand damsel whom no feeling of maidenly re- tack her hood, and withdrew her hand damsel whom no feeling of maidenly re- tack her hood, and withdrew her hand damsel whom no feeling of maidenly re- tack her hood, and withdrew her hand damsel whom no feeling of maidenly re- tack her hood, and withdrew her hand deposit of the solids.

therefore with other eyes, I deemed I for a while at least, not all the world amid the wild peasants and their almost should guess but that in winning her Eastern fashion of receiving their liege my dearest wish had been accomplish- lady. ed. Afterwards, when I had tamed that Within a little distance of the house "It means, Monsieur de Jennico, that, insolent spirit, when I had taught this became impossible to advance with the for your own good, you have been de- wild tassel-gentle to come to my hand carriage, and we were fain to order a and fly at my bidding-and I smiled to halt and alight all in the stormy wind, Quebec, $1.10 to $1.15. " There was a little quiver in her voice. myself as I laid that plan which was and proceed on foot through the throng Was it fear? Was it mockery? I full as cruel as the deception that had which had gathered thick and close changed at 9.50 to $10 per ton for No. thought the latter, and the strenuous teen practised upon me, and which I about the gates, and which even I timothy and $7.50 for mixed or clover. control I was endeavoring to put upon am ashamed to set out in black and Schultz's stout cane failed to disperse. my seething passion of fury and bewil- white before me now-afterwards when My wife-I did not call her so then in are quoted unchanged at $5.50 to $6 per derment broke down. I threw up my I chose to repudiate the woman who my mind, but now I can call her by no ton. arms, the natural gesture of a man had usurped my name through the most other name-my wife passed through driven beyond bounds, and as I did so barefaced imposture, if I knew the law them as if she had done nothing all her felt the figure beside me make a sud- both of land and Church, I could not life but receive the homage of the peoden, abrupt movement. I thought that be gainsaid. I had warned her that this ple. She gave her hand to be kissed to she shrank from me-that she feared lest marriage was no marriage. What could balf a hundred fierce lips; she smiled at the poor women who clutched the hem from over the cable. woman! This aroused me at once to a A sudden calmness fell over me; it of her gown and knell before her. The sense of my own position, and at the struck me that the laugh would be on flush my kiss had called into being had 42½ to 42%c; No. 4, 41½ to 41%c. not yet faded from her cheek; there was | Corn-No. 3 mixed, 56%c; No. 3 yelfor her. But as I wheeled round to gaze My companion was first to speak. a light in her eye, a smile upon her low, 57%c, ex-track.

al reception, and a royal reception she $1.50 to $1.70. his instructions. We sat down to a Ontario bran, in bulk, $17; shorts, $20 to face, what she had drawn upon her- gave a little nod which was the percould not eat. The acclamations and ton some wild thing of the woods that has But the bride-enigma to me then as in car lots; cornmeal, $1.30 to $1.40 per "In God's name," I cried, "why have never seen a human being before, and now-sat erect in her great chair at the bag. is absolutely fearless because of its ab- other end of the great table, and smiled "And did you think," she said, look- solute ignorance. I ought to have piti- and drank and feasted daintily, and met to $9; clover, mixed, $7.50 to $7, and my eye now and again with a sort of pity, ect her, seeing how young, how childish, my eye now and again with as pretty "that princesses, out of fairy tales, are she was. But though there sprang in and as blushing a look as if I had choare well-born; but for all that, princess- Only I told myself that my revenge the courtyard rose now and then to a to 141/2c for No. 2. es do not wed with such as you, sir!" would be sweet. And I was half dis- very clamour of enthusiasm. Schultz, Provisions-Barrels of heavy Cana-Every drop of my blood revolted traught, I think, between the conflict of with a truly German sentimentality, had dian short cut pork, $23; light short against the smart of this humiliation, pride, disappointment, and the strange presented his new mistress with a large cut. $21.50 per barrel; clear fat backs, so betrayed me was yet beginning to them turned me faint. I knew that in adian pure lard, 11½ to 12c; kettle uniform on State occasions. The description of them turned me faint. I knew that in adian pure lard, 11½ to 12c; kettle uniform on State occasions. The description of the transformers in the uniform on State occasions. the great room beyond, all illuminated rendered, 12% to 13c; hams, 13% to 15c. "But this deception,—this impossible, The speed of our horses was slacken- by a hundred wax candles, was the por- according to size; breakfast bacon, 17 in full to-day, show clearly by their by a hundred wax candles, was the por- according to size; breakfast bacon, 17 adoption of the motte. road which led to my castle. There was would not have dared to go into that fresh killed abattoir dressed hogs. $10.50 see from a turning in the road the red And yet. O God! how are we made "Her Serene Highness thought she gleam of the torch-bearers whom I had and of what strange clay! What would I not give now to be back at that hour! The monstrous absurdity of the situ- What would I not give to see her there Wheat-Spring dull and casier; No. 1 their demands received the respectful ation struck me afresh, and my resolu- at the head of my board once more! Northern, 87%c; Winter, dull; No. 2 consideration of the commander of the tion grew firmer. How could I expose What is all the world to me-what all hard Winter, c.i.f shipment. 84%c. Corn division, Gen. Ozeroff, who, arriving the "It was the Princess's plan, then?" I myself, a poor tricked fool, to the eyes the traditions of my family-what even -Stronger; No. 2 yellow, 58c; No. 2 next day, promised to satisfy some of asked in a whisper; and it seemed to me of that people who regarded me as some- the knowledge of her deceit and my huas if everything turned to crimson be- thing not unlike a demi-god? No, I miliation, compared with the waste and 2 white, 44c; No. 2 mixed, 42½c. Rye- iors. would keep the woman. She had sought desolation of my life without her! (To be Continued.)

ITALIANS RIOT AT KINGSTON.

sell his old rook's nest and betake me home to England as a dutiful nephew.

"And so," said I, not believeing in her and Pistols. A Kingston despatch says: Twenty itoba, 91c f.o.b afloat, Italians are in police quarters, and Vinseparate cell with a deep cut over the on Thursday afternoon, in which knives with prices firm all around.

and pistols were used and a police serthe moving spirit in all their actions. the Italians repairing the G. T. R. tracks at from $5 to $5.25; medium to good, to exceed $500, one year's imprison-near White River a few days ago, was afternoon rioting was resumed, and the $1.75 to $2. told myself that the new Madame Jen-afferwards heard from her own lips In the meleee which followed Sergt. stock bulls, $2 to $2.25. Robt. Nesbitt, of the Kingston police Milch Cows-$25 to $50 each. Choice And now, as we were drawing close force, and Detective McRae were bad- sold at $40 to $50; common, $25 to $35; 1; stabbed. Nesbitt was slashed down springers, $25 to $40. the arm, and deeply cut on the breast | Calves-Prices ruled steady at from and on the leg. The doctors fear his 31/2 to 6c per tb. lung is punctured. McRae is in the Gen-and a hurry call was sent to the artillery barracks. In a short time 50 mounted and armed regulars arrived at the station, but by this time peace had the first time her composure wavered. been restored and the Italians had dispersed to their quarters. Ten arrests were quickly made, and a dozen of the 'No," she said; "and therefore I chose rioters who fled were pursued by a devou, Monsieur de Jennico, not for your fine riches, not for your pedigree," rested at Cataragui Shortly before 8 o'clock Dr. Evans positive in their identification. SPEEDING TO BE STOPPED.

Automobile Law. A despatch from Toronto says: Five my wife: the whole point of the cursed "No, sir," she said, flushing, "I reck- purpose of enforcing the provisions of oned on your manliness." And then she the Act to regulate the speed and opfor her was not so overpowering, nor city: "I liked you, besides, too well to highways. They will be engaged in the like work during th ing too-my servants must have thought we were a merry couple! And as she laughed and I looked at her, knowing + her now my own, and looking at her

Toronto, July 3 .- Flour-Exporters are dubbed her false and shameless and as patents, buyers' bags, for export: deceitful a little cat as ever a man could millers ask $3.25 to $3.30. Manitoba-I meet, yet the dimple drew me, and I First patents, $4.40 to $4.60; seconds, Bran-About steady at $16 outside Wheat-Ontario-No. 2 red and white Wheat - Manitoba easier.

is quoted at 85c and No. 3 nominal at Peas-Nominal at, No. 2, 82c. Corn-No. 2 yellow, 591/2c, Toronio. Rye-Nominal at 60c. Barley-Nominal at 52c.

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

Butter-The market continues easy in try. tone, with receipts heavy. do, solids 19c to 20c ervision, no real knowledge of the sci- April 7, 1836. He was educated at employee who has been in the service Dairy, prints 16c to 17c ence of meat preservation, and no sani- Prince of Wales College and Acadia for a year. Tubs 14c to 16c chance to think worth while. Cheese-11%c to 12c per it for new. Eggs-Unchanged at 171/2 to 18c. Potatoes-Ontario, $1.25 to $1.30;

Baled Hay-Prices are quoted un-

MONTREAL MARKETS.

Oats-No. 2, 431/4 to 431/2c; No. 3, lip. As I looked at her and watched Flour-Maniloba spring wheat pa-I could not but admit that there was no lents, $4.60 to $4.70; strong bakers', need for me to feel ashamed of her, that $4.10 to $4.20 winter wheat patents. $4.10 to $4.30; straight reliers, $3.90 to I had sworn to give my bride a roy- $4.20; do, in bags, $1.85 to $2; extras,

Millfeed-Manitoba bran, in bags, sumptuous meal which would not have to $20.50; milled moune, $21 to $25; misbefited the Emperor himself. I straight grain mouille, $25 to $27 per that they want no more police duty enthe rejoicings struck cold upon my ear. Rolled Oats-Per bag, $2.10 to $2.20,

Hay-No. 1, $9.50 to $10; No. 2, $8.50

so ready to marry lovers of low degree, to my heart strange feelings, and that sen her among a thousand. The gypno matter how rich or how gallant? Oh. dimple tempted me more and more, sies played their maddening music—the I know what you would say—that you there was no relenting in my angry soul music of my dream—and the cries in stock, 16% to 17c for No. 1 candled, 14

BUFFALO MARKET.

Ouiet: No. 1 offered at 66c. Canal freights steady.

NEW YORK WHEAT MARKET.

New York, July 3 .- Spot, steady : No. 2 red, 93%c elevator; No. 2 red, 94%c 93%c f.o.b. afloat; No. 1 Northern Man-eagerly taken up at $5 to $5.20, a few any poisonous or deleterious substance.

CATTLE MARKET.

The trouble began this morning, when lots bringing $5.25. Choice are quoted It prescribes for each offence a fine not refused to go to work near Collins Bay, $4.85 to $5; bulls, $4 to $4.25; bulls, ment, or both, and for each subsequent on Thursday morning sentenced to the estate is to go demanding higher wages. They grew light, $3.50 to $4; cows, $3.75 to $4.25. offence a fine of not less than $1,000 or three and a half years' imprisonment in demonstrative, and the city police were Butchers' Cattle-$4.65 to $5 ;medium one year's imprisonment. called, but by the time they reached the to good, $4.40 to $4.50; bulls, $3.25 to Section two prohibits the introduction Rioux threw struck a passenger on the depot quietness reigned. Again in the $3.50; cows, $3.25 to $3.75; canners, into any State or any foreign country head, necessitating his removal to men, who were in a very rebellious mood, Stockers and Feeders - Choice de- of any article adulterated or mis-

Sheep and Lambs-Export ewes are eral Hospital with a bad wound in the quoted at $4.25 to $4.40, with prospects groin, with possible injury to the for even lower figures; bucks at $3.50 to $4, while spring lambs were from

Hogs-They are quoted at $7.50 for selects and $7.25 for lights and fats, fed tachment on a handcar. Nine were ar- Much-Wanted Anarchist Captured Spanish Province.

A despatch from Madrid says: An brought in another Italian he had cap- Anarchist, who is believed to be Parros tured on the Perth road. He is alleged Avino, wanted in connection with the He was hiding in a vat in the garden "Canada is the best agricultural coun-Wednseday at Ubeda, Province of Jaen. of a well known Carlist. The man try I have yet seen, and I have travelled has been going about disguised as a over a considerable portion of the

BRANTFORD MAN KILLED.

A Brantford despatch says: John

MARKETS LONDON WORSE THAN CHICAGO The Slaughtering Plants are in a Bad Æmilius Irving, K. C., of Toronto, Re-

> A despatch from London says: Jacob Meyers, editor of the Butchers' Advo- the long list of King's birthday honors cate, of New York, after a fortnight's are Hon. Mr. Turgeon of Quebec and investigation here, declares that the ma- William Lyon Mackenzie King of Otin a worse condition than those in New and St. George; Hon. R. L. Weatherbe, Wednesday, "the assembling of cattle, Knights; Sir Charles Parsons, on the into beef, pork and multon take place commanding staff of the regular forces hogs and sheep and their conversion with a tribe of leaping peasants, the Northern, 87c, track, lake ports. No. 2 in broad daylight, and anybody may private slaughter-house and petty pack- of the Companions of -e Order of the ing places are hidden away in remote Bath; George L. B. F. Fraser (Chief lanes, where the inspectors Clerk of the Department of Justice), L seldom or never go. The cheapest K. Jones (Secretary of the Department meats, coming from nobody knows of Railways), Juchercau de Saint Denis Health at 2,181. where, are bought in the open market Lemoine (Sergeant-at-Arms in the Seto be ground up and preserved in tin, nate). Joseph Pope (Under Secretary of earthenware and glass, and then sent State), and E. Sutherland (Assistant condition. by the tens of thousands of packages to Auditor-General), are all appointed to the small shops throughout the count the Imperial Service Order.

"I am compelled to believe that most Bar in 1863. He became Judge of the that everything points to a splendid of the outcry in England is made with Supreme Court of Nova Scotia in 1878. wheat harvest. tainted commercial motives. If so, the instigators are incredibly foolish, for the meat-packing business, irrespective SIR JAMES HECTOR'S MONUMENT. of nationality, will be involved in common disaster.

"We feel that no impartial man, accustomed to weighing matters carefully. could confirm the sweeping denuncia- A despatch from Vancouver says: Dominion Government has no intention tions which have caused so much mis- High up in the Bocky Mountains there of selling the military training grounds chief. The English trade will get the has just been erected by scientists and at Niagara-on-the-Lake. full force of the boomerang before long, railway men of Canada and the United Thomas Lee Sing, a Hamilton China-Montreal, July 3.—Grain—No improve- and then the people on this side will States monuments to the memory of man, who prosecuted Chang Sing a few ment in the demand for Manitoba wheat have some conception of this loss and Sir James Hector and his son of New days ago, has asked for police protecsuffering needlessly caused America."

GUARDS DEFIANT.

Favored Regiment of the Czar in Disgrace-Commander Censured.

belong the men who recently held a that his Indians thought he was dead, Charles Harriss of Ottawa. meeting in the guard camp at Krasnoye- and were preparing his grave, when ne Schultz had generously carried out $16.50 to $17; shorts, $20 to $21 per ton; Selo and drew up resolutions, addressed to their commander, upholding all the buried alive. Mount Hector, one of the tailing the slaying of brother or father, has been severely reprimanded by the shadow of that towering hill.

This is the most honored regiment in the Russian service and the reprimand is the clearest comment possible on the Engineer in Supreme Court Building ure. Cattle are beginning to die for the serious spread of the revolutionary propaganda in the army. The Preobajensky is the oldest regiment of the Guards and has first choice Hill, engineer of the Supreme Court each year in the selection of recruits Building, Bank Street, had a remark- taining 200 dynamite blasting caps, in mands of the men, which were published Supreme Court engineering room. A kile several workmen. adoption of the motto, "One for All, All the flames. On the fire being subdued. gineered by revolutionists. The deted at a meeting held in the barracks recovered in a short time. The arm was taking vigorous measures to protect the vard in open defiance of their officers. badly burned. Buffalo, July 3. - Flour - Quiet. Instead of this entailing punishment.

FOR PURE FOOD.

Bill Is Agreed on by Senate and House of Representatives.

Wednesday, and was reported to the against Baillargeau.

Senate just before adjournment, The bill, as agreed upon, makes it a Toronto, July 3.-Trade was good at misdemeanor to manufacture, sell, cr medicines, or liquors which is adulter-Export Cattle. — Choice cattle were ated or misbranded or which contains or the shipment to any foreign country Port Arthur Hospital. were ordered away from the station. manded $3.50 to $3.85; common, $2.75 branded, under penalty not exceeding like a man who touches solid earth at er the Princess's plan; and indeed I They refused, and the police attempted to $3.25; short-keep feeders, $4.75 to a fine of $200 for the first offence and both, for each subsequent offence. Concerning shipments to a foreign country it is provided that no article try for which it is intended.

> AGRICULTURAL EXPERT. Representative of German Government Touring Canada.

A Toronto despatch says: Dr. Hucho, representative of the Department of Agriculture of the German Government, A despatch from Winnipeg says: All machinist, was arrested on Wednesday was at the Parliament Buildings on four by-laws voted upon on Thursday night for setting fire to the Dake House in Wednesday obtaining general informa- passed with good majorities. This in- stables. He was seen lighting matches tion and statistics from the Department sures a Sunday car service and the cs. and firing hay in a stall. Revenge beof Agriculture on the farming industry tablishment of a civic electrical power cause of being put out of the hotel, of Ontario. He has travelled through- plant at a cost of $3,500,000 and the in- where he registered with a woman not out the western part of the province, auguration of a Board of Control. The his wife, was the cause of the act. The and intends spending a year travelling expenditure of $200,000 for school exten- fire was extinguished without much globe." After touring Canada Dr. Result of Explosion Near Amherstburg Hucho will go to the United States. Indirectly he said his reports of Canada Provincial Government for the special John Wonch Struck by a Train at ing more Germans to settle here. Amherstburg, on Wednesday after- at least one large lumber company, and "Fifty years ago it was the United States

KING'S BIRTHDAY HONORS. CONDENSED NEWS ITEMS

ceives a Title.

Emilius Irving, K.C., Toronto, to be ing Horse Pass.

dilion, which discovered the Kicking

Horse Pass, through which the Canadian

RECEIVED 2,000 VOLTS.

Had a Narrow Escape.

MAY BE CRIPPLED FOR LIFE.

Essex Farmer Committed for Brutal

Years in Kingston.

FIND NEAR WENDIGO LAKE.

Per Cent.

WINNIPEG BY-LAWS.

Sunday Cars and a Civic Electric Power

ONE DEAD FROM SHOCK.

-Caused by a Bullet.

trict promises good returns.

HAPPENINGS FROM ALL OVER THE A London despatch says: Among

GLOBE. jority of English slaughtering plants are tawa, to be commanders of St. Michael Telegraphic Briefs From Our Own and Chief Justice of Nova Scotia, and Other Countries of Recent > CANADA. Winnipeg assessors place the populaon of the city at 101,057. Mayor Dayville of Aurora has been appointed Sheriff of York county.

Occurrence.

Deaths in the Province for May are reported to the Provincial Board of Dr. Sheard reports that the abattoirs of Toronto are generally in a first-class

Over twelve thousand people will be placed by the Salvation Army in Can-Sir Robert Linton Weatherbe, Chief ada this year, most of them in Ontario. "This part of the industry is of an Justice of Nova Scotia since 1905, was | The Hudson's Bay Co. has given a dian Recorder, and was admitted to the favorable. All the C.P.R. agents agree

Creditors of the Atlas Loan will receive a little over forty cents on the dollar. There will be absolutely nothing Memorial of the Discoverer of the Kick- for the shareholders. A letter to Premier Whitney from Sir Wilfrid Laurier is to the effect that the Zealand. The former is a memento of tion. He claims that the Highbinders' the great services rendered by Sir James | Society has put a price of $400 on his Hector as scientist of the Palliser expe- head.

Pacific Railway runs. The Kicking Hamar Greenwood, M. P. for York,

Horse River was named after an inci- has been called to the Bar. dent of this expedition, when Sir The King and a vast audience attendcomander of the ultra-loyal Preobajen- James Hector was laid low by a kick ed on Wednesday, the British-Canadian sky Regiment, Gen. Alasnite, to which from a horse. So badly injured was he Concert at London, organized by Mr.

UNITED STATES.

came round just in time to avert being Three small children of Charles Wuesactions of Parliament and declaring highest peaks of the Rockies, is named thorn, of Harrison, Onio, were burned after the veteran explorer. The monu- to death by the explosion of a gasoline ment to his achievements is under the stove at their home. Their mother was painfully burned in trying to rescue

Reports from all sections of Southern Texas are that as the result of the drought the corn crop is an utter faillack of water in the coast districts where it has not rained since the middle

A despatch from Oltawa says: William throughout the whole Empire. The ably narrow escape from death by elec-Emperor is titular Colonel of the regi- trocution on Wednesday. He received Company's plant at Garfield. N. J., leads ment and almost invariably wears its a shock of over 2,000 volts. Lightning the authorities to believe that an attempt was made to blow up that plant and for One," that the movement was en- Mr. Hill went over to the switchboard The revolutionary spirit is spreading to cut off the electric current and receiv- in the Russian army. mands of the first battalion were adop- ed the shock. He fell unconscious, but The Ministry at St. Petersburg are

GENERAL

> The Douma will be asked to authorize a foreign loan of £7.500,000 for faminestricken provinces of Russia.

> > A MURDERER'S RELICS.

A despatch from Windsor, Ont., says: Brisk Bidding for Diamond Rings and Magistrate Bartlet on Thursday commit-Other Effects. ted Zepher Baillergeau, a farmer living at Puce, near this city, for trial for a A San Francisco despatch says: The brutal assault committed upon his wife diamond rings and other personal effects several days ago, and from the effects of Milton Andrews, slaver of Bessie of which she may be crippled for life. Boulton, at Mount Cutler, in Colorado, A Washington despatch says: The She is still confined to bed, and Crown and who, with Nulda Olivia, lured Wm. Pure Food Bill was agreed upon by the Attorney Rodd found it necessary to go Ellis from Australia to Berkeley, where conferees for the Senate and House on to her bedside to secure the evidence they attempted to take his life, were sold in Oakland on Tuesday at public auction by the public administrator. THREW STONE AT TRAIN. The valuables were those left by Andrews and the Olivia woman last winthe City Cattle Market this morning, offer for sale any article of food, drugs, Hit Passenger and Gets Three and Half ter when he killed his companion and himself to escape the clutches of the police. The bidding for the gems was A despatch from Port Arthur, Ont., brisk, and from these relics of a life of ing a stone at a Canadian Pacific train crime the estate of the noted criminal Kingston Penitentiary. The stone which the East.

WIFE REFUSED HIM MONEY.

Double Tragedy Followed at Buffalo Last Night.

A despatch from Buffalo says: Fred $4.90; heavy feeders, $4.60 to $4.70; $300 or one year's imprisonment, or The Surface Ores Assays Twenty-three Haas, of Cleveland, on Wadnesday night shot and instantly killed his wife, Maud Haas, probably fataily wounded A despatch from Cobalt says: Another Mrs. Ida McElroy, of 139 Oak Street, shall be deemed misbranded or adul- splendid find comes to light from the and then shot himself through the head, terated when no substance is used in Wendigo Lake district. The find was dving a few minutes later. Mrs. Haas' conflict of the laws of the foreign coun- made by three young men a few days refusal to supply her husband with ago. The assay shows 23 per cent, sil- money was the cause of the murder. ver, and this is considered an excellent showing for a surface assay. The dis-

CAUGHT IN THE ACT. Attempt to Set Fire to St. Thomas

A despatch from St. Thomas says:

CUTTING SMALL TREES.

Serious Charge Against a Lumber Firm in Quebec.

A Montreal despatch says: For some A Windsor, Ont., despatch says: As time reports have been reaching the to the German Government would affect a result of the explosion of dynamite Provincial Government that cutting of immigration to this country, in induc- and nitro-glycerine at Fox Island, near immature trees was being practised by noon, Mrs. Mary Moore is dead, while as a result A. Morency, the expert Prothat attracted Europeans," said the doc- a number of other persons are suffering vincial culler of Sherbrooke, has been from the shock of the explosion, which commissioned to make an inspection was felt for a distance of nine miles or and report thereon. It is said that as many as 80,000 trees have been cut by The cause of the explosion is believed one firm. Should this be true and the

LET HAS KILLED

ral Stores