The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing hope to the public in the belief that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ of the prize ring as well as in life. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach we are utterly indifferent to, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Doctor Lee's Golden Medical Discovery, and you'll never be in your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad skin and piles; blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sauer's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Golden Medical Discovery" as a constitutional remedy.

The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Annie Ivory, of Omemee, and during the signing of the register Mrs. W. R. Wildless, of Lindsay, sang in her usual good style, "Islands of Dreams."

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold necklace with pendant to the little flower girl, Marguerite Wildless, of Lindsay, who looked very sweet in white organza trimmed with lace and insertion, and carried a basket of carnations and lilies of the valley, a bar pin with ruby and pearl setting, and a ring bearer, Gordon Lamb, of Peterboro a pearl pin.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornell left for Fortino and Mikokka on the 5.20 train, where the honeymoon will be spent, the bride travelling in a brown broadcloth and made suit with Persian trimmings and braid, with Panama hat to match. Congratulations.

DUG UP A SKELETON.

While working on Mr. Wm Balfour's farm last week, Messrs George B. Fee, Percy E. Race, and Gabriel R. Balfour struck—not gold mine nor for higher wages, but—a skeleton, which is supposed to be that of an Indian, whose brothers had probably buried many years before Columbus discovered America.

Dominion Day was righteously celebrated in Omemee. The foot ball match between Bethany and the locals resulted in a tie. The game was hotly contested. The races, including egg, sack, three-legged, bicycle and fat man's races, proved exciting and interesting. There was a tug-of-war to witness the sports, and a general all attended the garden party on the beautiful lawn of the Presbyterian Church. The grounds were made very attractive with tenting, etc. The excellent supper provided by the ladies was relished by all present. The girls' band rendered several difficult numbers very creditably indeed, and the vocal solos, and readings were also much enjoyed. Altogether the day was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Bethany items are unavoidably held over till next week.
