

hock. Not the Rider Ribbon, Cleveland, Per-

TORONTO, CANADA FOR CATALOGUE NO. 7

e Main 1311 DS. exchanges

cash.

remises

Feet Each Insurance.

Large

supply the demand. send to us to-day, and wo satalogue.

ca Co., Limited, Toronto, 6... mipeg. Vancouver

ER'S VOICE .

CRAMOPHONES from $12.50 to $2.40. Write OPHONE COMPANY treet, Toronto.

Cleaning! send your work to the HOAN DYEING CO." ur town, or send direct.

MILLBROOK AND OMEMEE MIRROR

Durham and Victoria Standard

VOL. 20. NO. 7.

$1 per annum.

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, JULY 9, 1908.

C. W. RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

A TALE OF EARLY DAYS

CHAPTER XV.

Reaching the wharf at Mackinac, Ollin Bain made fast to it and went ashore, leaving Captain Tripp in charge of their craft, and proceeded to search the town in quest of Tillie, but failed to get the squaw's eyes glittered greedily. least trace of her. He was not at all discouraged by this result, however. "What would she have naturally began retracing his steps to the wharf. "If she landed soon after sunset from ar. Indian cance, where would she have gene? Not to any hotel, lest the captain of the transport should look for her. ried back to the store, where he pur-She would have been as secret and silent as possible. She was not to end her journey here by no means. She her idea was that he would be arrest- the merchant's desk and write a letter lempted her to land upon it." ed for murder and that her testimony to Governor Ward, detailing his discould find her. I have heard her speak search for her.

a trip she took in this region a year ment. He quickened his steps. It seemed to ed. "Here come our supplies." him that he was nearing a clew. been to procure a sail-boat or canoe. raised to the breeze. She would then have laid in provisions and- I have it! No one has inquired for her at the stores. I must do so!" the business part of the town.

At the first store he visited his inquiries were fruitless, but the second be en- Lin reported, with radiant face and shintered was that in which Tillie had made ing ejes. "An Indian cance took her Now, as then, the proprietor was be- Snyder, and, please God, I shall find them. hind his counter. He was alone, and her!"

briskly and came forward, all urbanity, to greet and wait upon a supposed cussaid Ollin respectfully, speaking with an and waters, and I shall certainly find eagerness that impressed the storekeep- her.

er. "I am looking for a young lady who The little sloop sailed on, and in a transport Snowbird. I have reason to of Mackinac behind it. think that she left the island soon affer sunset in a small boat, and that she laid in a supply of stores before starting, face, as he started in quest of Tillie, re-Have you seen any such girl?"

The storekeeper looked thoughtful, and lo him with the certainty that she was then shook his head slowly. "Yet, stay!" he said, with a sudden! "The field afore us is a wide one, start. "How did she look?"

"She was slender, with a childlike gloomity. "There's the Michigan shore, face," replied Oilin, "and would have and the Straits, and Canady, and the - struck you as being very pretty and islands, and the Injun reservations, and very sad. She was attired in deep goodness knows what all!" mourning, and may have looked a lit. "It does seem a wide field, Captain, the wild and troubled.

The storekeeper seemed startled. think of it," he said. "I remember notic- erly, you know, and a delicate young land down Containt Hard Hard down Containt Hard if shrinking from observation!"

er hastened to tell all he knew. "She had on a black dress," he re- big choice left." that there bleached shirting! She and east," pursued Ollin, "so as to avai rice, flour, and such-and she bought time keep near the land, with a view

"No, she was perfectly sane. Do you lie to have taken. knew where she went after she left

"I don't. She had two red Injun charts, "and must tie up at night, lest blankets with her, which she put into we miss her.' the wagon. She went out, drawing the wagon, and that's the last I saw of her." chored at nightfall in the bay of a lit-ling a cance lately?"

"Let me see! The wind was westerly fair fugtive. last night?" said Ollin musingly.

The storekeeper reflected. "You are right." he said.

There was nothing more to learn here, forenoon arrived at Drummon! Island,

"Now to find where she got her boat," isk garrison.

"Don't go! Leni, don't go! she was We will quest on their owners." pleading. "Too much fire-water! Leni have big drunk since last night. Leni les were fruitless.

The Indian waved his hand at his resumed their course to the castward. stouse with a sort of drunken dignity. "We've seen where Mss Ward isn't." squaw know about drunk? Go 'way!' | remains to se where she is. When you grasp, and disappeared into the saloon. Gengian Bay and the islands into them The squaw crouched upon the ground, -ver farty thousand in number-you'll heaving a sigh. She was loaded with realize that we've entered upon a piece bashels and moc asins and many other of business that'll last us the term of

"How much for these?" he asked, in- paid to kick at his vittles; but I'm jest dicating a couple of baskets. The squaw named her price, which evitable d'sappointments which are sure the buyer counted out to her. "You have a big load," he said. "Has Lot do squaw's work."

Ollin. "It takes money to buy drink." | afloat or landed." The squaw nodded gravely. Takes much money," she affirmed. ed and the sky darkened, the clouds nearer to the nameless, rock-bound There was an enquiry for feeders, 800 recovered, all of whom are badly burn- ly towards the current 200 feet below. make the flight on Wednesday. It is Ollin's heart gave a bound.

"Leni sold cance last night?" pursued Ollin. "Let the squaw tell the truth and she shall have this silver dollar." He held up the coin to view, and the canoe, and Leni paddled ashore. Girl paid cance thirty dollars."

"Where is the pale-faced girl now " "Don't know." Ollin gave her the dollar, and hurchased a considerable supply of provisions, ordering them to be sent aboard

de was to hide herself where no one alive, and that he was continuing the ment of the sloop. When he looked up of some of the islands of Lake Huron | Dropping this letter into the post-office | sight behind them. as the loneliest spots in all this north- he hurried down to the wharf, where he ern wilderness, and she had some ac- communicated his discoveries to Captain

"We must be off at once," he conclud-The provisions were taken aboard, the "Her first act," he mused, "must have sloop pushed off, and the flapping sail

"Run alongside the transport, Cap- ened or maddened creature. He turned and walked swiftly back to came to the side of the schooner to see what was wanted.

sitting upon a stool. He sprang up; "Not drowned?" returned the captain. "Some one has fooled you!"

Ollin shook his handsome head. "No," he replied. "She is somewhere "I wish to make a few inquiries, sir," in the great Huron wilderness of islands

> CHAPTER XVI. The joy and hope expressed on Ollin's gulre no description. New life had come

Commodire," remarked Captain Tripp returned Ollin cheerfully, "but we can fore him, "here's an island that isn't shorts. $24 to $25. soon narrow it down some. I consider put down on the chart!" "There has been such a girl here-just the Straits and the Michigan shore out about the time you mention, now that I of the question. The wind has been westthat she had drawn a shawl rather girl would not have rowed long against Hard down, Captain! Hard down!' Ollin caught his breath sharply, ap- to the westward, and that to go in that pearing so interested that the storekeep- direction would be to encounter them."

sumed. "And her face was the color of "She must have gone to the north hands. Lought quite a bill-coffee, lea, sugar, herself of the breeze, and at the same a willer wagon to draw 'em in. She, to seeking safety upon it in the case of paid for them all regiar, and counted storms or other danger." her change sensible. There wasn't no- This reasoning, partly incorrect, satisthing wrong about her, Colonel? She fied both men, and they headed their craft in the direction they supposed Til-"We must stop at every shore and island," added Ollin, consulting his In accordance with this idea, they an-"You haven't heard of any one's sel- il- island just off the shore of the pe-pinsula, and spent the evening in mak-The storekeeper answered in the nega- ing inquiries in the vicinity, but of course without hearing anything of the After a good night's sleep, they sailed at daybreak, continuing their route to the eastward, and in the course of the on which was a trading-p st and a Brithe said to himself, stepping off briskly. "We shall not find Miss Ward here, He had not taken twenty steps, when Captain, said Oilin, as he steered the a slight incident brought him to a half, sloop into the Little bay. "The island An Indian wrapped in a searlet blan- is too well occupied to suit her purpose. ket, was in the act of entering a saloon, But we may come across some one who ward. and a squaw, also in a scarlet blanket, has seen her. Youd rare several small fishing-boats and some ndian canoes. He proceeded to do so, but his inquir-

Steering out of the bay, the couple ever her. "Squaw go home," he muttered. "What muttered Capta n Tripp, "and it only He tore his blanket loose from her reflect onto the North Channel and Tripp cast a stratled glance in that di-wares of her own making, and Ollin he- our natural lives. Not that I'm grumbling; it'd ill become a man as is weit! pregaring you, Commodire, for the in-

Soon after dinner the breeze freshen swept the sloop, advancing nearer and per cwt. cance. Thirty dollars. Leni rich. Leni more and more anxious during the next ers of spray breaking upon it. The inhour or two. Calves were weaker, w

the whole western horizon. "Here comes The arrival of a sharp gust of wind reminded Tripp that it was time to make all snug, and he invited Ollin to the tiller, hastening to stow his jib and take a double reef in his mainsail. Then he resumed his place at the tiller, re- Prices

"That's the fust step in the war, and new to make a good fight of it. We're going to have a reg'lar summer screech-

A few preliminary gusts succeeeded, and then, with an indescribable rush and roar, the storm burst upon the sloop in all its fury. For a few minutes Tripp kept away before it, hardly daring to lift his eyes from the duties devolving upon him, and it was not long before an anxious look crept into his features. "This is rather more than I 'lotted on, he muttered. "It's too late now to go ashore of our own accords, and in a "Give me dollar," she said, holding Christian manner. At this 'cre time the cut her dusky hand. "Pale-faced girl on land's our wust enemy. That's Cockship. Called Leni with hand-so! Leni burn Island to the left and behind us. went close to ship. Girl dropped into They sped and on before the wind, Gran Manitoulin, with its clothed precip ces and heavy pine forests, soon looming up before them. "That island yonder is Green Island," was the next remark of Tripp. "It's lonely enough for any one to hide on. Ollin scrutinized it earnestly. "Perhaps Miss Ward is there," he he could not help remarking. "As you ers', $5.30; winter wheat palents, sold believed her father had killed me, and His next movement was to stand at say, it looks lonely enough to have at $3.15. Tripp do not answer, he having u.s. might hang him. What she wanted to coveries, and declaring that Tille was hands full just then with the manageagain, Green Island was fading out of creamery solids, 21c to 22c; dairy prints, quaintance with them, as the result of Tripp with much exultation and excite- gle with it. "t's getting more to the north'ard." The storm—the same which Tillie had witnessed from the Beevil cabin-con- dozen in case lots. tinued to rage with constanty increasing fury, and the Island Princess continued to fly away before like a fright-

"The Duck Islands are now only a Potatoes-Ontarios, 75c to 80c; Delawe go to the north or to the south of

"We cannot do either in this gale replied Tripp, "but must run between rel; mess, $18.50 to $19. ashor. I am on her track, Captain They continued to scud before the gale, in an anxious, watchful silence. "Shall I help you at the tiller?" resum ed Ollin, after a long pause. "No, Admiral, Only keep a lookout ahead. It's sharp work now, and all show all there is afore us." For a little while both were silent. The smoked. arrived in Mackinac last evening in the few monutes more was leaving the Bay Duck Islands were close at hand. They passed to the northward of the Great Duck Island-the island of Mrs. Ward's terrible captivity-steering clear of its spring wheat patents, $6.10 to $6.20; plague. rocky northern point, and again they second patents, $5.50 to $5.70; winter rushed on a long time in silence.

They swept onward through the chan- 46c to 46%c; rejected, 45c; Manitoba re- A circus lion escaped at Reading and "Another!" Tripp hastened to obey, as one startled 9%c; pure lard, 12%c to 13c; kettle ren- lowed several, and died in thirty min- the Parliament of the west of the old glance showed him the peril. In fact, ne dered. 13c to 13%c; hams, 12%c to 14c, utes. hurled himself upon the tiller so des- according to size; breakfast bacon, 14c to The United States Treasury's excess of perately that he split the head of the 15c; Windsor bacon, 15c to 16c; fresh expenditure over receipts for the fiscal rudder-post, and went sprawling into killed abattoir dressed hogs, 89.25; fresh year just ending will approximate $60,- trate man and helping him up. "Here few cables from across the water.

He was right. A moment the fierce wind raged in Butter—Finest creamery quoted at 23c High School without missing a day or others were more or less seriously in- ble somersault into the water, he shot the sail with the fury of a wild beast, to 23%c in round lots and 24c to gro- being late. as the sloop's bowsprit veered into it. cers. Receipts for the week amounted James Gilman, a rancher, near San fireworks in the S. Kresge five and tenand then, with a fiercer roar, it swept is 23.510 packages, compared with 17.- Jose, mentally unbalanced for seven cent store on Ontario Street on Friday. Shore that he was hurt, and his brother

The two men had seen in time what was coming, and had both leaped desperately to the windward, securing a firm hold of the bulwarks, to which they

"She'll never come up with all that hamper!" cried Ollin, as he cast a comprehensive giance over the scene. must bring an axe-from the cabin and cu! away the mast."

"Do so, if you can," said Tripp. when it was caught up by the fierce wind and sea, with all its rigging, and driven by the fierce wind and sea, with all its rigging, and driven away to lee-

A long rause followed, during which it was d ubtful whether the sloop would York. right or turn over. But she at length veered slowly into the gale, her deck regaining its level, but every wave broke

"This is horrible!" exclaimed Ollin looking around in dismay. "The gale is driving us directly upon those rocks settles our hash for us!

desperation. "You don't mean it!" "But I do, though! In five minutes we shall be dashed upon this island!"

"But can't We-"No we can't," interrupted Tripp, with cwt. "You mustn't get discouraged, Cap- the emphasis of despair. "How can we For picked butchers' cattle the detain," said Ollin, bringing out of the steer without a rudder? And how can mand was active at $5.60 to $5.75 per

"We're booked for a storia. Commo- pired when the fated craft was hurled lambs were unchanged.

TRADE CENTRES.

of Cattle, Grain, Cacese and Other Dairy Produce at Home and Abroad.

BREADSTUFFS. Toronto, July 7 .- Ontario white oats were sold to-day at 42c, outside, and other lots are offered at 43c on the same | ed at Welland.

Ontario Wheat-No. 2 white, red or Manitoba Wheat - Market quotations at Georgian Bay ports, No. 1 northern, 81.07%; No. 2 northern, $1.04%; No. 3 the St. Clair River near Sarnia. northern, $1.021/2.

79c, all rail. Barley-No. 2, 53c to 55c. Rye-No. 2, none offering; quotation about 88c.

65¢ to 68c. side; shorts, $19; quotations for deliv- eighteen-foot skiff. ery in bags. $2 more. Flour - Manitoba patents, special may be fatally injured as the result of

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

Butter-Creamery prints, 22c to 23c; choice, 19c to 20c; dairy prints, ordinnounced Tripp, after another long strug- inferior, 16c to 17c. Cheese-1216 to 12%c for large, and 13c for twins.

Eggs-Quotations are 17c to 18c per Beans-Primes, $2 to $2.10; handpicked, $2.10 to $2.15. Honey-Strained, 11c to 13c per pound; combs, per dozen, $1.50 to $1.75.

PROVISIONS. Pork-Short cut, $22 to $22.50 per bar-

Lard-Tierces, 11%c, tubs, 12c; pails, sity. es hams, medium and light, 13%c to tee of the House of Commons. 14c; hams, large, 11%c to 12c; backs, 16c the more so because our charts don't loc to 10%c; breakfast bacon, 14c to 15c; her sister ship, the Indomitable, making dren. green meats, out of pickle, ic less than just under 27 knots.

MONTREAL MARKETS

Montreal, July 7.—Flour—Manitoba ties in Michigan fear a grasshopper "We're all right now," finally remark- lers, $4.25 to $4.50; in bags, $1.95 to offence 2. 49c to 50c; No. 3, 47c to 47%c; No. 4 tornado in Minnesota.

"Some nameless Duck! Straight backs, 832; dry salted long clear backs, dam in Stevenson, Mich., last week. rels do., $9; compound lard, 8% to found a box of strychnine pills, swalthe cockpit, grasping the tiller in his killed abattoir dressed hogs, $9.50; live, 000,000.

to 18c; No. 2, 14c per dozen.

UNITED STATES MARKETS. Minneapolis, July 7.-Wheat - July, $1.06; September, 911/c; No. 1 hard, mitted assaulting deceased. $1.091/4; No. 1 Northern, $1.073/4; No. 2 Northern nominal; No. 3 Northern, $1.01%. Flour-First patents, $5.30 to $5.45; second patents, $5.20 to $5.35; first clears, $4.15 to $4.25; second clears, $3.50 to $3.60. Bran-In bulk, $18. Buffalo, July 7.-Wheat - Spring unsettled; No. 1 Northern carloads, store from a mild attack of diphtheria. $1.11%; Winter steady; No. 2 red 93c; No. 2 white, 94c; No. 2 mixed, 93c, all and starving as the result of floods in track. Corn-Higher; No. 3 yellow, 76c; South China, No. 4 yellow, 74c; No. 3 corn, 721/2 to The Czar has expressed his pleasure 73c. all track; No. 3 white, 761/2c. Oats at the work of the Duma during the pre--Higher; No. 2 white, 561/2c; No. 3 sent ression. white, 54%c, all track. Barley-Feed to It is reported from Brazil that hunmalting, 58 to 63c. Rye-No. 2 on track, dreds of persons have been killed in 81c. Canal freights, wheat, 5c to New street fights in Asuncion.

Milwaukee, July 7-Wheat-No. 1 Northern, $1.11 to $1.12; No. 2 North- caused the loss of 600 lives. -No. 2, 66c; sample, 52 to 64c. Corn- from the earthquake fire in Kingston. No. 3 cash, 70 to 71c; September, 70%c Jamaica.

New York, July 7 .- Wheat-Spot firm; winter, $1.01% f.o.b. affeat.

LIVE STOCK MARKET. Toron'o, July 7.-The few good exporters were sold at $6 to $6.25 per cwt. Export bulls brought $4.75 to $5.10 per

The woman pointed into the saloon.

"Leni is there." she said: "He does dinner. "We shall find some trace of founded island towards which we are $5.25 to $5.45 per cwt. Medium butch- Russia, says: A terrible explosion of gas ent Leech, of Chippewa, Ont., from the Leech is 45 years old, and about 10 coursed in the Rokoveky mine on Wed. "Then he must have money," said to have seen her, whether she kept As painful as the truth was to Ollin, $4.40 to $5; common cows, $2.50 to $3.60; nesday evening, in which a large num- of the lower river. It was just 1.10 by the rapids trip. He has since been terval named by Tripp had scarcely ex- Calves were weaker, while sheep and the men were rescued alive on Thursday, than a half minute he had made the Years ago another party dropped

WORLD'S MARKETS GONDENSED NEWS ITEMS THE THE LEADING HAPPENINGS FROM ALL OVER THE GLOBE.

Telegraphic Briefs From Our Own and Other Countries of Recent Events.

CANADA.

A tack and nail factory is to be erect-London has paid off $60,000 of its bonded indebtedness. Creosote block pavements will be giv-

A new shoal has been discovered Bush fires are doing great damage Corn-No. 3 yellow offered at 78c to near Charlton on the T. & N. O. In London, in June, there were 100 births, 54 marriages, and 50 deaths. Peas-No. 2 quiet, nominally quoted Two White Star steamers will run to Montreal from Liverpool next summer. A cable across Niagara is suggested to prevent boats from being carried over Buckwheat - No. 2, nominally quoted the fells. Two young men named Dunn and Me-Bran - Offered at $15 in bulk out Donald ran the Lachine Rapids in an brands, $6; seconds, $5.40; strong bak- an auto scaring his horses. Business in Nova Scotia, according to The Halifax Chronicle's reports, is in an exceedingly prosperous condition. Two Canadians were fined $15 each by United States officers for fishing in Nagara River without a license. The Department of Canals announces "Wind's shifting a little, I think," an- ery, 180 to 19c; dairy tubs, 18c to 19c; will be respended for traffic on July 10th. that it is expected the Cornwall Canal William Paul will be hanged at Port been condemned to pay six dollars for

James White of Delaware township

The report of the survey of the Otlawa-Georgian Bay ship canal places the

GREAT BRITAIN.

Lord Rectorship of Edinburgh Univer- three pigs belonging to Wm. Honey. At The daylight bill, which proposes to coe the ravages of the disease are worse; Smoked and Dry Salted Meats-Long encourage the use of daylight in Britain, it is feared that other dogs have been clear bacon, 10%c to 11c, tons and cas- has been approved by the select commit- infected. So far no one has been able The new battleship Inflexible, on her ed the trouble and the community is to 16%; shoulders, 9%c to 10c; rolls, trial trip on the Clyde, did better than in a state of terror for fear of the chil-

> UNITED STATES. Schoolcraft and some adjacent coun-

The Louis ana Legislature has passed wheat patents, $5 to $5.50; straight rol- a bill making bomb-throwing a capital ed Tripp. "We're between the Great $2.10; extra, $1.50 to $1.70; rolled oats, Two hundred persons are homeles Duck and the Western Duck, and the $2.75 in bags of 90 pounds; oats, No. and scores destitute as a result of the

, peering through the mist and spray be- 824; Manitoba bran, in bags, $22 to $23; collision on the Missouri Pacific near Provisions-Barrels short cut mess, Slurgeons weighing from fifty-eight to $22.50; half-barrels, $11.50; clear fat eighty-five pounds were trapped at the

The Health Department reports that Result of Explosion of Pireworks in "God help us! it's all up now!" cried | Cheese-Easterners are quoted at 12c more than 60 per cent, of the children Ollin springing to the side of the p:os- and westerners 121/2c to 121/2c, with a in Chicago public schools are physically. Eggs-Selected, 19c to 20c; No. 1, 171/2c George Mamagona, an Indian boy, says: Five girls and a five-year-old boy c. St. John Harbor. Leaping from the

Nowell of Toronto, is said to have ad-

GENERAL. The Shah of Persia has proclaimed a general amnesty. Cholera is spreading at an alarming rate in the Philippine Islands. Queen Amelie of Portugal is suffering Thousands of persons are homeless large number of over-loaded toats, and ern, $1.09 to $1.10; September, 87%c Some English insurance firms offer asked. Ryc-No. 1, 74% to 75c. Barley to pay 50 per cent. of claims resulting

Two hundred and fourteen bodies New York, July 7.—Wheat—Spot hrm; have been recovered from the No. 2 red, 96% to 97c, elevator; No. 2 Yusovo, Russia, where the explosion oc-Two hundred French solders were taken suddenly ill in Cochin China, as the result, it is believed, of an attempt at wholesalie poisoning.

> 200 MEN PERISH IN MINE. Tragedy in Russia Was Caused by Ex-

Joseph Liston Tried to Burn a Store Full of Women.

A despatch from New York says: did not know this the saleswoman into the store, his term having expired bore him to the floor. at noon time. He went to the lace cur- There were hundreds of shoppers in tain department. He did not look like the store, mostly women, and on heara man who knew anything about lace ing the screams they made a dash for curtains. He asked one of the saleswo- the stairs and doors. They were headmen to show him some curtains. The ed off, however, and a panic averted, saleswoman turned around to take from When some of the women learned that a shelf a box of curtains when she Liston had tried to set fire to the store

When Joseph Liston, alias James whirled around to tell him he must put O'Brien, was sentenced last September out his cigar or eigarette. To her horto nine months on Blackwell's Is'and for lighted match among a lot of lace curhurling a stone through the plate glass tains on the counter. There was a flickwindow of the Berlin department store er and the curtains blazed up. Emat Broadway and Willoughby avenue, pioyees, hearing the saleswomans Williamsburg, he swore he would be screams, managed to crush out the blaze, and then they pounced on Liston. On Tuesday afternoon Liston walked, There was a desperate fight, but they heard the noise of the striking of a they tried to reach him, and but for the match. It is against the rules of the presence of several policemen he would store to smoke, and thinking the man have been roughly handled.

MAD DOG STARTS SCARE.

phobla in Norfolk County. A despatch from Villa Nova, Ont., A despatch from London says: Acsays: An epidemic of hydrophobia cording to The Iron and Steel Trade which is killing off the stock in Norfolk Journal the English and Scottish steel Arthur on Sept. 18 for the murder of County, is causing consternation manufacturers have decided, after all, amongst the farmers in this district. not to join the proposed international Chief of Police Randall of Guelph has Many farmers have lost cattle and pigs combine, but to ally themselves with confiscating some short-weight butter on Burt, a veterinary surgeon of Simcoe, ing formed to fight the international has telegraphed to Ottawa for the assist- trust. This amalgamation, The Journal ance of an expert in fighting the dis- declares, will soon be established. it ease. The trouble was started by a dog will consist of the principal American, few miles ahead of us," said Ollin, con- wares, 85c to 95c in car lots on track dred million dollars, not including land living a mile east of this village. The panies, and fierce competition, both here dog suddenly went mad, bit three of the and elsewhere, with a slump in prices, cows and started towards Simcoe. Olm- may be expected to result from the anstead's cows died, as did three belong. I tagonism of the two combines. Dr. Osler will be a candidate for the ing to a neighbor named Greig, and SWALLOWED PIECE OF BONE. Tyrell and farther south towards Sim-

to capture or kill the dog which start

A Special Centenary Issue on Sale This Week. A despatch from Ottawa says: The Port Arthur. special postage stamps to be issued in commemoration of the tercentenary celebration at Quebec are now on sale. Man Who Offered Situations at Winni-The stamps are of most artis'is design, and are larger than the ordinary size, nel, the two islands showing but dimly jected, 47c to 471/2c. Cornmeal, $1.75 to was captured by a policeman, who scription of each denomination is as to publish advertisements offering alto allow of adequate representation of "By heaven!" suddenly shouted Ollin. in bags, $20.50 to $21.50; shorts, $23 to Prince and Princess of Wales; one-cent, to flood the mails, and the authorities green, portraits of Champlain and Car- had their attention attracted to it. The tier; two-cent, red, King Edward and Postal Department at once held up the Queen Alexandra; five-cent, blue, repre- mail, and at present have six thousand sentation of L'Habitation de Quebec; letters from all parts of Canada, the seven-cent, yellow, pictures of Montcalm | United States and the old country coand Wolfe; ten-cent, mauve, picture of ralled, but the advertiser has disappear-Quebec in 1700; fifteen-cent, picture of ed. He will be prosecuted if caught. regime; twenty-cent, green, picture of a courier du sois with Indians.

NEW POSTAGE STAMPS.

SIX PERISH IN FIRE.

Cleveland Store. away everything before it, hurling the 9.9 packages for the corresponding week years, recovered his sanity after being A panic among the hundreds of clerks Harry and another man swam to him and customers followed the explosion. Joseph Liffio, held by the New York It was not known until nearly two few minutes later. Internal hemorrhage police on a charge of murdering Albert hours after the fire was out, when the firemen began searching the building that any lives were lost. The fire was started when one of the clerks was demonstrating one of the pieces of fire- One Year's Deaths on the Roads of works, a spark from which ignited the FIVE KILLED BY TORNADO.

New Mexican County. A despatch from Sante Fe., N. M., Association, an organization formed in says: Five persons were killed, 40 in- June, 1907, to lessen the dangers attendjured and many rendered homeless by a cut on reckless automobiling. Of this ternade on Thursday night at Fort Sum- number twenty-one were in automobiles

TWO STEEL COMBINES. Cattle and Swine Have Died of Hydro- They Will Fight for the World's Mar-

North Bay Man Expires in Hospital at Port Arthur.

A despatch from North Bay, Ont., says: Harry Hell, jr., traveling representative of the Heintzman Piano Co., of Toronto, for territory between Orillia and Fort William, of North Bay, died at Port Arthur hospital Thursday, July 2. from an abscess formed by piece of tone swallowed which perforated intestines. He is survived by a widow and infant child. Interment was made at peg Has Disappeared.

ALLURING ADVERTISEMENTS.

A DIVER KILLED. George E. Pike Attempted to Turn a

Double Somersault. A despatch from St. John, N.B., says: Geo. E. Pike, aged 18, of St. John west, and brought him to land. He expired a

AUTOS KILLED SIXTY-TWO.

Massachusetts. A despatch from Boston says: Sixtytwo persons were killed by automobiles within the State of Massachusetts dur-Forty Injured in Storm . Which Swept ing the year ending to-day, according to the first annual report issued on Thursday by the Safe Roads Automobile merset, Guadeloupe County, New Mexi- and forty-one were not. In addition 640 persons were seriously injured.

Chippewa Man Accomplishes the Feat in Safety.

A despatch from Niagara Falls, Ont., I struck out to swim, and within a few he was forced to accept it. On and on bulls, $3 to $4.25; canners, $1.50 to $2 ler of miners were at work. One hun- o'clock that Leech sprang out from the abroad. Those who knew of his rapids says: More than 2,000 people who had minutes friends in a row boat had gathered at Niagara Falls on Wednesday picked him up and taken him to the

Leni has much money—Leni sold hiding the sun, and the captain grew shore, which semed alive with the showto 900 pounds, at $3.75 to $4 per cwt. cd. but it is believed that the death roll As he fell he opened a large parachule, said he will repeat it, if permitted, on

"Leni has sold his cance, then?" he dere." he at length ventured, "and a into the seething abyss before them, and Hogs were firm at $6.40 for selects, of the shaft. There is great excitement softness that hardly caused a splash. ber cable that broke the fall, but no perexclaimed. And the pale-faced girl lively one, too, or I'm no judge." in another moment was going to pieces. fed and watered, and $6.15 per cwt. for here, and troops have been called to That he was in no way overcome was son has ever made the leap unaided evident from the fact that he quickly and lived,

o, Ottawa, Quebes