

EYES THAT TIRE

The normal eye should be able to do a normal amount of work. If your eyes readily become tired it is because seeing calls for abnormal effort. This is eyestrain and if neglected may end in complete loss of sight. We can give you eye comfort.

THE LATE MRS. J. H. PEEL.

Once more death has visited this village and removed another of our most highly respected citizens in the person of Mrs. James H. Peel, nee Miss Mary Ann Lang.

Deceased was born in the Township of Manvers, forty four years ago. She was a daughter of the late Alexander Lang, who was born in Fermanagh, Ireland.

Mrs. Peel was a faithful member of the Methodist Church, and a true Christian.

During her long illness, while residing in Omeme, she bore up with christian fortitude and patience. She underwent an operation for tumor, and although it proved quite successful at the time, it left her condition so weak, that she was not strong enough to withstand her last illness of about two weeks' duration.

Deceased was of a kindly disposition and was beloved by all her acquaintances. In the home, where now there is a vacant chair, she was a most affectionate wife and mother.

The funeral on Saturday to Gardiners Cemetery was largely attended, the solemn and impressive services at the house and grave being conducted by Rev. G. R. Clare.

There are left to mourn her loss, a husband, one daughter, Lillie May, and one son, Wilbert Henry, besides four brothers, Messrs. Fred Lang of Cavan, John in the North West, Alex and Edward of Manvers, and four sisters, Mrs. Wyn Payne of Methven, Man, Mrs. John Trengrove of Moonstone, Mrs. J. Wade of Hope, and Mrs. Wm. Rowan of Bethany, all of whom have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Falling hair means weak hair. Then strengthen your hair; feed it with the only hair food, Ayer's Hair Vigor. It checks falling hair, makes the hair grow, completely cures dandruff. And it always restores color to gray hair, all the rich, dark color of early life.

WEDDING BELLS.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henderson, "Gold Hill Farm," Cavan, was the scene of a quiet, but very pretty wedding, when on Wednesday, July 10th, their youngest daughter, Edith B., was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Mr. Chancelor T. White.

About 6 p.m. the immediate friends of the bride and groom arranged themselves on the lawn to witness the tying of the nuptial knot, skilfully performed by the Rev. Dr. Marvin, M. A., Ph. D., of Bethany, under the old apple tree, with a background of evergreens and ferns.

Precisely at 6 o'clock the groom entered the circle, and was assisted by Rev. Edward Rowland, of Omeme. The bride also entered the circle leaning on the arm of her father, during which time the wedding march was played by Mrs. A. Kennedy. The bride looked charming in a costume of cream crepe de chene, with Irish Point lace and chiffon trimmings. She also wore a bridal veil and carried a shower bouquet of maiden hair ferns and lily of the valley.

The bridesmaid, Miss Emily Wade, of Rochester, N. Y., cousin of the bride, looked very pretty in a dress of cream french netting, with lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome silver tea pot, and to the bridesmaid a gold fleur de lis pin set in pearls.

After congratulations were extended by the well wishing friends, all repaired to the dining room which was most beautifully decorated for the occasion with ferns and roses. A sumptuous repast was served, after which the happy couple (the bride dressed in her traveling suit of brown soieine, with hat to match,) left midst showers of rice and good wishes for their future home in Manvers, where they will be at home to their friends after August 15th.

The presents were numerous and costly, showing the high esteem in which the bride is held.

One Hundred Guests Present.

Rev. Dr. Chown Officiated.

An event of more than passing interest took place on Wednesday, August 2nd, at the pretty home of the bride, when Miss Henrietta Reid was joined in the holy bonds of matrimony to Dr. Samuel W. Clarke, both of Millbrook.

At 2:30 p.m. the bride, attired in a beautiful gown of white net, mounted on liberty satin, and wearing the conventional veil, entered the drawing room on the arm of her brother, Mr. C. Reid, to the strains of Lohengrin Wedding March played by Miss Mabel Clarry.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss B. Reid, Miss Farrow and Miss Argue, who were becomingly gowned in light blue silk, with lace trimmings, and carried bouquets of pink roses. The groom was assisted by Mr. Lamprey, Manager of the Toronto Bank.

The ushers were Messrs. Ernest Buchanan and Watson Clarke.

The Rev. Dr. Chown, Toronto, a cousin of the groom, performed the ceremony, after which some ninety guests sat down to a dainty dejeuner, served by six young lady friends of the bride.

Miss Ethel Richardson sang twice in her usual delightful style.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a watch and chain and to the bridesmaids, pearl rings, and a gold pin to the best man.

Dr. and Mrs. Clarke were accompanied to the station by a host of friends. They left by the 5:10 train for Toronto, and will go from there on Saturday on an extended trip to Kingston, Thousand Islands, Montreal and Quebec.

The happy couple have the hearty good wishes of all their friends.

The guests from a distance were Rev. Dr. Chown of Toronto, Dr. W. H. Clarke, Mrs. R. W. Clarke, Mr. Jas. Courice, Rev. and Mrs. L. Phelps, of Lindsay, Miss Leith and Mr. Wm. Leith of Onitla, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Weeks of Woodville, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clarke of Meaford, Mr. Ernest Buchanan of Toronto, Mr. D. Henry of Cavan, Miss Laura Farrow of Goderich, Mrs. Henthorn, Misses Maud and Lillie Mowray, Mr. and Mrs. Miss Florence Reid, Miss E. Tully of Peterboro, Mr. and Mrs. C. Reid & Mr. Bert Reid of Newtonville, Mr. C. L. Rice, Miss Brand of Port Hope, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hamill of Garden Hill, Mr. Long of Peterboro, Mr. and Mrs. T. Jamieson, of Mt Pleasant.

The Methodist S. S. Excursion.

The excursion to the beautiful Chemong Park, on Tuesday, under the auspices of the Millbrook Methodist Sunday School, was a grand success.

The weather was excellent, and the crowd very large. Four boats having been necessary to accommodate the excursionists.

Mr. R. W. Clarke, the efficient Superintendent of the S. S., and Rev. G. R. Clare, the Pastor of the Church, did all in their power to make the excursionists comfortable, and the happy faces of all was sufficient evidence that they had succeeded.

The Citizen's Band added much to the pleasure of the outing by their excellent renditions.

The scenery along the route was all that had been advertised. Each and all were highly pleased. A large number from Bethany and Omeme were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Maycock spent Sunday with Bailieboro friends.

Mrs. James Evans and children, of Covan, are guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Sothorn.

The Germs of Catarrh

Not only attack the passages of the head and throat but finally reach the lungs and cause consumption. Nothing destroys catarrh so quickly as frequent heating Catarrhoxone which relieves the cough, stops the discharge, takes all soreness from the throat. "I consider Catarrhoxone has no equal as a cure for catarrh and lung trouble" writes Jas. E. Wetherall of Brighton. "It cured me after many good doctors failed to even relieve my trouble." Catarrhoxone can't fail to cure—it's guaranteed. Two months treatment $1.00; trial size 25c.

Mr. Slater, Inspector, was in town this week, and the Millbrook Fire Company were given a false alarm, but responded heartily and in a few minutes had a stream of water going over the town hall. A practice about once a month would be a great benefit.

AN OPEN LETTER FROM MR. W. J. GAGE.

Toronto, Can., Dec. 1, 1904.

DEAR FRIEND,

We again come to you with our story of trouble, but a story of surprising and encouraging results.

No apology is necessary; the great work of the National Sanitarium Association, carried on at the Muskoka Cottage Sanatorium and Free Hospital for Consumptives, is now well known.

The 1,500 patients cared for in these two Homes plead for your help.

The large number of lives saved, of those who a few years ago were supposed to be "under sentence of death," gives a right to your sympathy.

In helping to rescue a number great enough to constitute a large prosperous village, the giving back to home and friends a regiment of workers, surely will arouse interest in this work of mercy.

Each patient cared for in our Consumptive Homes, removes a source of danger, so that the life of every citizen in Canada is more secure.

The marvellous decrease of 40 per cent. in the three years in the death-rate in Ontario from consumption proves that the fight against this dread disease is no losing one.

The Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives, for which this appeal is made, without any endowment keeps an open door to all who are poor and sick, as long as a vacant bed remains.

Nearly 400 patients have been cared for in this Hospital since it was opened less than three years ago. This has only been possible because of the continuous stream of gifts that have come to us from every part of Canada.

Remember, too, these were patients that other hospitals as a rule refuse.

Almost every trade and profession has sent its representative, and of every age—from the young schoolboy of 12 to the widowed mother of 70.

$26,000 was received last year by the
