Powder Fire ACENTS

was something em, in speaking of ncert. "Why, the oud that I actually nyself talk." "How aimed Miss Cutting. y Soap (a powder) said Dr. Quack. with the under-ns and flannels.-

ou sorry for this!" ring to do?" asked retire from pracstekness in children gives relief by re-Give it a trial and SHOPPING.

there's somethingto buy." what I thought." you think so?" a have some moncramps and kindred make their apcucumbers, melons, mpting things, but a if they have Dr. entery Cordial and water. It cures. ra in a remarkable to check every dis-

FACT. wise word is Jumpuppe-"Yes. mpare with the nes that are spo-

Cough get rid of and the neglect. ption and surely -stop the lungs and and $1.00 a lettle.

EXTLY. isn't he, doc-re is anything er with him. such a way nd it."

MITTEROOK AND OMEMEE MIRROR

Durham and Victoria Standard

VOL. I7. NO. 11. $1 per annum.

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, AUGUST 10, 1905.

C. W. RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

The Fair Captives

THE SECRET CABINET

Here he places her gently on her feet, but still with his arm round they grope their way to the road. where he finds the carriage waiting. having carefully placed her in the standing wide open. No servants tone of dismay. "Oh, why didn't I "Never mind. It was a mean questhing you said about me very short- 30 to $5.50; No. 2 do., $5.10 to near future, to prevent the large a severe attack of hiccoughs, on meet them, and drawing her with think of it before! Go away, go up- tion. Of course, I couldn't expect ly after we first met? I have $5.20, and strong bakers', $4.90 to number of objectionable marriages at Friday. quick impetuous steps into the room stairs at once, and change every- you to tell only-" on their right hand, he deliberately thing on you. You will catch your "I could tell you, if I could tell "Well, don't think of it any more," death of cold!"

A brilliant fire is blazing on the

of blood, still wet.

the word is command. The strain of the past terrible hours has been too severe, and now she sin's beneath it. She bursts into yes—I'll promise to take some wine." do like a real love affair; none of me back." tears. prehensively, releasing her.

When a few minutes have gone by he spea's again.

"I don't know. I shall never know. I can't remember when it began. But-' she pauses, and stirs, restlessly yet happily. "I think it must have been always-always." Vera makes short work with her toi- on the other."

with me." says he presently, with a appearance-a gown far too lovely coldly. half-laugh; "I used to think I had for a simple evening at home with there is nothing. It is the great Surely it was made for you only, Senton as an idiot if he had let him. Vera! Here we are! Here we are !! Here we so much to say to you and now only a cousin to entertain. utter, horrible hopelessness, to such Downstairs, seeing him standing self be drowned last night." happiness as I believe no man has awaiting her, upon the hearthrug, ever known before. I suppose it is she goes quickly to him with a you here against my heart." Well, actual shyness. whatever comes after this I shall re- "My beloved!" whispers he; "I volume. When you saw he would d'ye do, Scaton? I brought Tom, Montreal, Aug. 8.—Grain—Market ALBERTA CATTLE EXPORT. Something in his tone troubles her: fore, I always knew you were lovely, what did you do?"

nervo sly.

ask you to marry me. Not now, nor 'to-night I lead you captive." any other time. I shall not ask you that you repent of makes me out. I should certainly to $5.15 in wood; in bags, $2.40 to spoil your life. There is always He has gone down to the village your maction at that supreme mo- have been in time for your wedding, $2.50. Feed—Ontario bran, in bulk, ports for August are put at 11.000. this stain on me-that I am my fa- next day, to keep his appointment not marry me!" "But-" begins he.

"No, no, no, I will have no buts! top of you. it wasn't, however." generous enough to-" ever had anything to forgive. But, how to expect you. Perhaps, that's seriously, Vera, have you thought all what makes you so nice. That wreck this out to the end? You cannot last night must have upset you."

rupting him eagerly. "But what has "By Seaton; so we have heard. It it all to do with you and me? No will be in all the papers to-morrow. one knows about it except Griselda I should think his undoubted Iluck and Tom, and even if they did-if the should melt even so determined a whole world were to shout it abroad hatred as yours.' I should not care. You would still | Vera blashed crimson. be vou."

"you are now in a position to make of grace. After all, I believe I was a very distinguished marriage. People | right, and Scaton is not the demon | not? Tom will be more than pleased will remember that. I know how you have always rainted him."

"A demon! I don't think I ever since."

look at it in that light for anything. "Why should you think that?" says Vera, who has come out upon the "I suppose I must go in," says What! to think now, that your love Vera. should live if I thought that?"

"Well, you needn't die." says she, see him after the rescue?" to death-and all for a mere poltry tone.

you do."

"Other people will consider for it was horrible!" she covers her eyes from the wood. you, if you refuse to be sensible for with her hands. yourself. Griselda--'

"Sometimes, I confess, I have been your trying to deceive me. Something | "I thought you still in London," jealous." "Pevton--" till night; that is why I am so fond hear all." of him."

"Lady Riversdale?"

CHAPTER LXI. "Pouf! If you can find nothing better to suggest than that, you are her, and, always in perfect silence, "You are determined then?" carriage, and covered her with furs to try and restore some warmth to says; "you will take me? Sweether chill frame, he seats himself be- heart, if you could only know how side her, and the short drive home than ful I am to be taken!" reached. Always holding her hand, wakes to a certain fact. he assists her out of the carriage, "Your clothes are wet; you are did it all come about?" and leads her into the hall-the door positively drenched!" she cries in a "Oh, I don't know," coloring.

closes the door behind them.

"Speak!" he says in a hoarse tone. He is ghastly pale, white as the death from which he has just now so narrowly escaped, and across his right temple there is a slight streak

"(h, yes, yes, yes!" In a moment his arms are around her, crushing her against his heart. "Darling, darling!" whispers he softly. "I am too happy! I do not know what to say. I cannot speak." And then again, "May I kiss you?" He does not wait for permission, but presses his lips to hers.

"Was it lately!" he asks.

she lifts her head, and regards him but now---" with the fishermen, when Griselda, "Stain! What stain? What has true to her promise to carry away it got to do with you?" cries she Vera with her to her happy home at indignantly. "Ch, do not speak to Girtonmore, makes her appearance. me like that! It makes me feel as if "Was there ever such a night as -you had not forgiven me. If there last night?" exclaims she when she is a stain on you, it shall be on me, has tossed her hat on to a sofa; too. Surely you belong to me, and "it kept me awake half my time. I to you! Ch, do not say you will When I wasn't dreaming bad dreams, I lay awake dying with fright, lest

Are you doing this to punish me? Ah, | I know only too well how heartily I "Your spirits are better," says deserve it, but I hoped you would be Mrs. Peyton; "you were down in "My darling, what folly! As if I a balloon to-day. One never knows

"I have forgotten nothing," inter- five poor people were saved."

"There are other things," he says; ton; "you are as red as fire-a sign they regard you already."

"I know how I regard myself, as a called him a demon," murmurs Vera robber-yes, a bare-faced thief. Come, inervously. see it in another light-say I don't | "No, the word, as I recollect it, How sweet, how clear, how cool love you at all, but that conscience was even much stronger. But you is the fresh spring wind. April is they certainly gave me to understand has driven me into marrying you, know the veriest sinner unhung has well begun, and a warm sunlight is that my room was, at all events, as just for the sake of restoring you his good point. Courage is Seaton's, no longer a novelty. At Greycourt, good as my company. Spoony peoyour own property, which I meanly Poor fellow! his life is so spoiled, great openings in the o'd yew hedge ple have no manners; I thought the possessed myself of, some little time that I dare say he was sorry the sea have been cut, through which the most ignorant knew that!" "Ch, no," says he; "I wouldn't end to his troubles."

wasn't mine! Po you believe I "Why shouldn't I? By-the-by, did down the garden feasting her eyes "I must catch the next train back hand, like two little children.

"Nc, A still uprears itself."

parting with her at her doorway.

CHAPTER LXII.

"I am going to consider you for Yes, I dare say, to be there - day! the future, and nothing else," says watching-waiting-fearing lest every As Vera reaches the lowest terrace turns she. "Do you know, that, as make another fortune. wave should swallow him-them. Oh! she sees Dysart come towards her each morning comes, I--

"Adores you!" triumphantly. firmly. "Vera, there is no use in ward, and gives her hand to Dysart. you enough yesterday." has happened; get it over at once. she says; "I did not think you would her to his heart. It will save time, and nothing else, come down to The Friars until to-"Sings your praises from morning as I shan't stir from this, until I night, and I did not dare hope to ou were on the spot watching lest the waves should swallow him. Where was the spot? The beach?" "Yes," falters Vera.

"But Griselda-" "But me no buts. For one thing, lifts her face and kisses her fondly. | 038,000.

ing? No, no, my Vera, there was wear them to-morrow." something more.'

"Weil, what?" demands Vera. "There was Seaton! And I verily must have cost a fortune!" are crying! Is it-can it be true were my mother's," replies he.

"Yes, it is true," says Vera. a doomed man. Why, she is your devoted servant; she has never forgiven me for having usurped your rights. Perhaps she will take me > do you remember? All the horrid lette?" things I said of him?" stupidity! Fancy any decent person he softly.

anyone-and you only," says Vera. says she. "Cold? I defy it," returns he radi- "You see it was in this way. He "Why not? I don't mind thinking at $18 to $19. Manitoba bran, in hearth, and three or four lamps are antly. "My heart is warm enough was going out in the lifeboat with of anything now. You said you knew sacks, $17 and shorts at $19. turning cheerily. For the first time to-night to conquer a second deluge, the other men to rescue these poor it would only take time to teach you releasing her, he unfastens her cloak But you, darling," anxiously, "I creatures, and I was down on the to utterly detest me." and hood and fings them on the should not have touched you, wet as beach, and when I saw the raging "Why do you remember that toground. Laying his hands on her I am, and all that exposure—that sea, and then the frail few planks day of all days?"—her eyes are discooking apples, $1 to $1.50 per bbl. sion of the Temiskaming Railway The Sailors' and Longshoremen's shoulders he turns her more directly cold, terrible time on the beach- that stood between him and it and tinctly reproachful. Vera, I implore, nay, I command yes death, I-I-Oh, Griselda, I "Because I am rather proud of it to $1.75, and hand-picked at $1.75. nesday, the chairman, Mr. C. B. an increase in wages from $1.50 to to take some wine, or a little brandy thought I should have gone mad! than otherwise. You have had time Hops-Choice lots quoted at 24 to Smith, and Mr. D. Murphy being $2 a day. And then somehow all at once I knew and yet-you don't detest me, do 27c. "Co up to your room," says she I knew everything. I knew that my you?" imperiously; "I'll send you some pretended dislike had been but folly, "Oh, love,j' says she. "will you ed, and at $1.50 to $1.75 per dozen, cated to its proposed junction with with a view to shipping 50,000 tons brandy there. Command, indeed! though it was folly strong enough to ever forgive me entirely, do you combs. Your turn has not come yet, let me deceive even myself for a long time, think? It seems to me that it must. Hay—Car lots of No. 1 timothy are of 275 miles. By next year 200 Directors of the Lake Superior Cor-touch me with that wet coat, and- Griselda encouraging her largely. "I I loved you, but so many things held track, Teronto. "Do you know that we have had you rushed forward, you threw your- suffered-" no dinner," says she, 'and it is now self bodily upon him, and forbade "Ah, I suffered too!" nearly half-past ten? Come, let us him to tempt Providence, by rushing "All we have suffered has only both get ready for it, though I sup- to a watery grave, when there was made this present happiness the pose we shall have to call it supper, some one ashore to whom this par- sweeter. Perhaps I should not have not that I think I could eat any- ticular sea-dog was-"

"When we see it we may," says needn't!" says Miss Dysart rather thoughts seem yours, I cannot keep Seaton. They go upstairs, hand in affronted. Mrs. Peyton laughs.

"You're so slow about it," she "Well, I defy you to make me sad "Don't be long!": entreats he, on says; "a little push was all I meant. to-day," says she with a little laugh. I thought it might help you on. "Come, let us go to the end of the stand how you felt when you saw are doing." They wander away in In obedience to this ardent request, the sea on one hand and an idiot happy idleness to watch the workmen

> "It shouldn't be called so, of low, closely followed by Tom Peyton. dium, 131 to 14c; do heavy, 13c; course. But, considering how mat- "There's Vera!" cries she. "At rolls, 111 to 111c; shoulders, 101c;

"Well, he didn't," says Vera. enough for me to see you-to hold charming accession of color, but no him from my scathing sarcasm. Go "And how are you, darling? No need

"You have changed your mind?" wear my heart out till his return." body out so." says she gaily. "Come, this after- "What, nothing! And was that all "It's very unfair," says Tom, in a patents, $5.40 to $5.50; strong bak- A Winnipeg despatch says: Cattle "Listen to me, Vera. I shall not noon you refused to dine with me that occurred to you to sit down melancholy tone. "I don't think I ers', $5 to $5.20; Winter wheat pareturns for Alberta for July show and grin and bear it? But I should am such an unmitigated hore as she tents, $5.50, and straight rollers, $5 that 9,000 head were exported dur-nantly. "Of course I know you are get on without me and so-" only amusing yourself, but still-" Never mind him," says Mrs. Peysolerin. If you like a man, isn't it trousseau go, Vera. Any chance of better to demean yourself a bit ra- the wedding garment turning up in I know he adores you, and there is all but told Grace that-" this old ruin was tumbling in -on something about him that assures me "That she certainly wouldn't dis- 17c; No. 2, 14c. Butter-Choicest your boots yesterday, you are up in "I think you would hardly know garment lying on my bed."

him, says Vera. "It was awful!" returns Vera; "but not have known him, so happily wedding-gown." choly face.

Vera flushing warmly. "You're blushing," says Mrs. Pev-"you will come with us, will you fully.

CHAPTER LXIII.

to welcome his new brother."

did not swallow him up, and put an delicate rays rush merrily upon the But after all neither Vera not Dyopening flowers within.

terrace, and is now moving slowly Vera reluctantly. "And you?" And to-morrow will be her wedding- love me?"

see you until to-morrow."

"Ch, Scaton, the workmen," expostulates she," "don't you know they THE WORLD'S MARKETS MUST REGISTER MARRIAGES CONDENSED NEWS ITEMS are everywhere!"

"Except here," says Seaton with a "At that hour! And do you im- rather uselessly careful look around agine, my good child, that I will now, considering that the crime has telieve that purely philanthropic feel- been accomplished. He had indeed Prices of Cattle, Grain, Cheese, J. Hanna, through Dr. C. A. Hod- Telegraphic Briefs From Cur Own ings drove you out of a warm house forgotten all about them. "I wanted in a storm that could have razed to bring you these," bringing two St. Paul's to the ground, merely to or three jewel cases out of his pockknow how a ship in distress was far- ets. "I thought, perhaps, you would believe-Oh, Vera, oh, darling, you 'I have only had them reset. They

"Ah, I thought there was a look about them one never sees in modern "And when-when-did you know? jewels," says she, and forthwith When did it happen? It just ar- seats herself upon one of the stone ranges everything. And do you know steps, the better to admire her new all through I liked him, you will re- treasures. "And if they look well now," cries she naively, "how will "And you," shamefacedly, "what they look when I am en grande toi-

"I am glad you will wear them "My dear, to credit me with such first upon your wedding-day," says is commenced. At last the house is It is at this moment that Vera now-a-days remembering anything There is a pause whilst she is rethat was best forgotten. But how placing them in their cases, and

> "Do you remember, Vera, some flours unchanged; No. 1 patents, $5 .- the marriage laws amended in the teen years of age, died as a result of thought of it so often since."

madness possessed me in those days! and No. 2 at $6.50.

"You look very pale," says he ap- your wishy-washy sorts, but a bona- "I don't regret it now," says he, fide. stick-at-nothing romance! Well, "all I have gone through, all I have > reminded you of those past "I really think, Griselda, you-you just now, but, somehow, all my anything back from you."

Well, never mind! I can quite under- terrace and see what the men there "I don't know what is the matter of a gown that she next makes her called idiocy," says Vera rather down the hilly path through the to $21.

> Aren't you glad to see us? After all, Lard-The demand is fair, and we were able to come quite early." prices unchanged. We quote:-Tierces "No. That fact just barely saves By this time she is in Vera's arms. 91c; tubs, 91c; pails, 91c. on, Mrs. Dysart, I pine for the third to ask, Seaton is with you. How never saw you dressed like this be start in that unpleasant lifeboat, too, because he'd be sure to be late for oats was steady at 48 to 181c if he waited for to-morrow, and any- for No. 3 in store and 49 to 491c 9,000 Head Sent Out During the more encouraging.

Vera, if I sat up all night to make at $14.50 to $15; shorts, $17.50 to The export business showed signs of "No, I don't," says Vera indig- sure of it. The fact is, she can't

"I'm not indeed. I seldom felt so ton. "Well, and how does the ther than lose him forever? It's a time? You know I always warned large subject. I allow, and— Well, you against that woman. She is so lard, 91 to 92c; kettle rendered, 101 let it go by for to-day, at all events. ultra-fashionable that she thinks it to 11c; hams, 12, 13 and 14c; bacon, Darling girl, if I talked for ever I her duty to disappoint two people 13 to 14c; fresh killed abattoir hogs, could not tell you how glad I am. at least in the year; and besides, she $10; alive, $7.25 for mixed lots, $7.-

he will make you happy. "I need not appoint me," interrupts Vera laugh- creamery, 221 to 23c; undergrades, ask, but I suppose he is quite an- ing. "If you go in and up to my 211 to 22c; dairy, 18 to 20c. Cheese

"It's come! It's on view! ye At this moment the door opens and gods, and here have I been wasting Seaton enters the room. His first my time!" cries Griselda. "Vera, you glence is for Vera. Griselda, regard- can follow if you will, but I for one No. 1 Northern, $1.10 to $1.11; No. ing him keenly, admits the truth of can stay here no longer with such a 2 Northern, $1.05 to $1.09; Sept. Verals last words. Truly, she would temptation offered to me as a new 84%c bid. Ryc-No. 1, 60c. Barley-transfigured is the erstwhile melan- "Wait, and I'll race you to the -Sept., 54tc asked. house," cries Peyton; "wait, can't | St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 8 .- Wheat-"Griselda has come to take me you? Well, I do call that unfair." Cash, 81c; Sept., 81%c; Dec. 83%c. back with her to Gritonmore," says He puts forth his strength and soon Minneapolis, Aug. 8.-Wheat closed overtakes her. "I think you needn't |-Sept., 89%c; Dec., 87%c; No. 1 Nor-

"Left me alone there with them." "Why? Did they threaten you? molest you? show any desire to reduce you to powder?"

"They looked every bit of it; and sart are thinking much about them.

you hear any particulars? Did you lovingly upon this exquisite scene, to The Friars. It seems too bad To-day, how different it is from the that I must leave you, but there is thriving. The people have gone mad above. It also contained a small thriving. The people have gone mad above. It also contained a small "but are you going to condemn me "Yes," in a rather constrained ocean she never can forget, with its always a happy thought somewhere. over gambling, the miners taking expense account. Officer Wilson turnwild white, raging surface; and yet To-morrow will come and than I chances on anything. Large amounts ed the garments over to Supt. Perry. Japanese in Saghalien are pursuing "Oh!" says Griselda. "Anything to it, too, she bears no ill-will, for shall never have to leave you again. are being lost. Just before he left "It isn't that, but I think you the matter, ducky? I never saw you did it not give him back to her, in Darling, sweetheart, forgive me the a miner came in with $40,000 worth ought to consider things more than look so queer before! That wreck, spite of all its seeming treachery? question, but—are you sure you of gold. Within a week he had lost

> "Well, darling? As each day A quick happy flush mounts to comes-?"

> > "Oh, Vera!" whispers he, straining THE END. ---The acreage of woods and planta-

REPORTS FROM THE LEADING TRADE CENTRES.

and Other Dairy Produce at Home and Abroad.

Toronto, Aug. 8.-Wheat-No. 2 and 19,000 marriages each year, and white and red quoted at 85 to 86c from 600 to 800 of these are not in the price of leather. "Oh, Seaton, how delicious!" cries outside, while new wheat for Septem- registered, while many are delayed, she. "You extravagant boy, they ber delivery is quoted at 77 to 78c. in some instances 15 months. Under Manitoba wheat is nominal at $1.10 the old regulations all licenses were for No. 1 Northern, Georgian Bay held in the possession of the officiatports, at $1.06 for No. 2 Northern, ing clergymen, but under the new and at 90c for No. 3.

> Barley-No. 2 new quoted at 43 to 44c outside, and old at 46c outside. Peas-No. 6 quoted at 73c outside, Formerly the issuers of licenses reand milling peas at 75c. Corn-American No. 2 yellow, 631c and No. 3 yellow, 63c, lake and rail,

Toronto. Rye-Prices nominal. Flour-Ninety per cent. patents are quoted at $4.15 to $4.25 in buyers' plied to issuers of licenses for the resacks east or west; straight rollers turn of information, and for the use two promoters of the fight were finof special brands for domestic trade, of the clergyman officiating. in bbls., $4.50 to $4.65. Manitoba Some efforts will be made to have Miss Lizzie Duffield of Ottawa, nine

$5 on track, Toronto. Millfeed-At outside points bran is quoted at $11.50 to $12, and shorts Line to be Located to Juncion

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

"Speak!" says he again, and now tell you. It is I who shall command and that I loved him with all my be impossible for you to do it. What quoted at $8 to $8.50 on track here, miles of road will have been comporation deny the story that the You know you said you oughtn't to "Yes, go on, it's beautiful!" says All through, do you know, I believed Straw-Car lots quoted at $6 on now operated by the commission. negotiating for the purchase of the Potatoes-New are quoted in bbls. as well as the tourist travel, has S. D. McMicken, a C. P. R. comat $2.50, and at 75c per bushel. been very large.

Poultry-Chickens, 12 to 13c per

THE DAIRY MARKETS.

Butter-Pound rolls are jobbing at 18 to 19c; tubs, good to choice, 16 A Montreal despatch says: Mont- acres will be bearing. The growers to 22c, and solids at 211 to 22c.

HOG PRODUCTS. at their task, and scarcely have they 111c per lb. in case lots; mess pork, gard was of recent inauguration. In Steel Corporation would not erect lette. And set it is in a very marvel "I don't think heroism should be done so, when Griselda trips lightly at $16.50 to $17; short cut, $20.50

BUSINESS AT MONTREAL. "What could I do? Nothing, but body late at a wedding puts every- for No. 2. Demand is light and so are stocks. Flour-Manitoba Spring $18.50; Manitoba bran, in bags at becoming freer, but reports of declin- Winston Churchill was refused per-$15.50 to $16; shorts, $19. Beans ing market are di couraging the mission to introduce a bill limiting -Choice primes, $1.75 per bushel; shippers. $1.65 in car lots. Provisions-Heavy Canadian short cut pork, $20 to $21 light short cut, $18 to $19; American cut clear fat backs, $18.50 to $19; Anxious to Leave Vatican and Re-

> UNITED STATES MARKETS. Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 8.-Wheat-

"But not alone," says Griselda, have done that," says he reproach- thern, $1.07; No. 2 Northern, $1.04 Man's Upper Garments Picked up signed. The new chief has risen from to $1.05; No. 1 hard, $1.09. Flour-First patents, $5.95 to $6.05; sec-75 to $13.

KLONDIKE GAMBLERS.

Dollars in a Week. it all at the gambling tables, and "I wish I was not so sure." re- had started back to the fields to operation toward that end.

KILTIES FOR WINNIPEG.

New Regulations That Will be Enforced by Registrar-General.

A Toronto despatch says: Hon. W. getts, has issued new regulations respecting the registration of marriages. There are between 18,000 law these must be endorsed and for-Oats-No. 2'quoted at 40c at out- warded to the department of the registrar-general. All marriages must be registered by official card, giving full details to the division registrar. tained the affidavits, but in future these will be filled out by the issuer or the back. Both affidavits and licenses will be placed on file in the department. Envelopes will be sup-border points.

TEMISKAMING RAILWAY.

With Grand Trunk Pacific. Beans-Prime beans sell at $1.65 Commission was held here on Wed- Unions at Kingston are agitating for present. After the meeting, it was | Canadian owners are arranging to Honey-New at 61 to 7c for strain- announced that the line will be lo- develope the Atikokan fron areas, pleted. About 113 miles are being United States Steel Corporation is The traffic on the completed section, steel plant at the Soo.

lb.; turkeys, dry picked, 13 to 14c HAVOC OF WHITE PLAGUE. Montreal's Death Roll From Tuberculosis.

to 18c; creamery prints sell at 211 real's death roll from tuberculosis is are trying to capture the market of a long one. Last year there were Western Canada. Eggs-Ordinary stock sells at 171c, 692 deaths from this cause. 580 beand guaranteed fresh at 18½ to 19c ing due to consumption. When ask- tion against the Canadian Pacific ed on Wednesday whether this figure Railway at Montreal for $5,000, for Cheese-Prices firm at 111 to 111c was unusually high, Dr. Labergne, the loss to herself and child of her Medical Health Officer, said that husband, who was killed about a while it was heavy, no comparison year ago by a hand-car of the comwith preceding years was possible, as pany near Mattawa.

tion of the fatal "white plague." Instances are given of the annihilation of almost entire families within the space of a few years.

POPE HOMESICK

turn to Venice. A despatch from Rome says:-In July 13 Vatican circles it is asserted that the! A New York girl fell three stories. Pope is homesick. Members of his but alighted on a clothesline and household say that he is showing saved her life. signs of fretfulness and even a great- There have been 283 cases of yeler disturbance of his usual demeanor, low fever in New Orleans and two owing to his longing for Venice, suspected cases in New York. room, you will find that spotless -Ontario, 111 to 113c; Quebec, 111 lieved he will leave the Vatican ow- years of age has just completed the ing to this nostalgia and perhaps construction of his own tomb. pay a visit to Venice, accompanied: A Chicago man charged with the by his favorite niece, Gilda Parclin, murder of his wife and child says betrothed to a Venetian nobleman, that he committed the crimes while who, however, is without means, asleep. This news comes from an authorita- John J. Callahan, chief clerk in tive source, but it is certain that the foreign branch of the New York

SWEPT OVER THE FALLS?

at Suicides' Point.

ond patents, $5.75 to $5.85; first A despatch from Niagara Falls, N. clears, $4 to $4.10; second clears, Y., says:-It seems highly probable $2.65 to $2.67. Bran-In bulk, $12.- that a Paterson, N.J., man has gone down to death over the American plan to bar Great Britain from the Falls, for early on Wednesday after- Baltic Sea. noon Officer Thomas Wilson, of the A Russian Commission has found State Reservation force, picked up that a tunnel under Bering Sea would One Man Lost Forty Thousand a man's coat and vest at what is be a danger to Russia. known as "Suicides' Point" in Pros- Maud Gonne, the "Irish Joan of A despatch from Essex says:-Ar- pect Park. The garments are a mix- Arc," is suing her husband, Major thur Milne, who has been in the ture of light and dark blue. There McBride, for divorce in Paris. Klondike for the past eight years, was a small memorandum book, in Sweden has arranged for a loan was successful, and has invested in which were written the names of sev- of $25,000,000 to provide for condireal estate in the vicinity of Cal- eral companies in various cities, tions arising out of the separation gary. He says the best kind of "pay where possibly the man had sought a from Norway. dirt" in the Klondike is a hotel or position. This book bore the name gambling resort, both of which are Frank Lewis, and the address as ----

PROF. MAVOR'S REPORT. London Board of Trade Publishes Bay or surrender. It in Pamphlet Form.

A despatch from London says:-The Board of Trade publishes Prof. | A despatch from Tokio says:-Nor-Mayor's report on the Canadian thern Corea is suffering from floods "Him?" repeats the astute Griselda Vera's brow as she goes quickly for- "I wonder how it was I didn't love Order of Scottish Clans Taking its wheat production for export. He threaten Russian communications on Steps to Form Regiment. draws the conclusion that great im- the Tumen. A despatch from Winnipeg says:— provement in the productive power The Order of Scottish Clans is tak- of the country and a considerable ining preliminary steps-toward the crease in the effective population is formation of a Highland regiment for necessary before the North-West will "Strange things happen in this Winnipeg: and is arranging with be able to produce sufficient wheat world." "Yes. I went on a picnic "To-morrow!" says Dysart. He tions in the United Kingdom is 3,- other local societies for joint co- to satisfy the wants of Great Brit- excursion once when it didn't rain tain.

HAPPENINGS FROM ALL OVER

THE GLOBE.

and Other Countries of Re-CANADA.

A marked advance has taken place During the year ending June 30,

So far this year Winnipeg building permits aggregate in value $7,700,-The reductions in liquor licenses

146,266 immigrants entered Canada, throughout the Province will not ex-A company has purchased land in Hamilton on which to erect 300 dwellings for workingmen. The Michigan Central Railway has appropriated $100,000 for improvements to their shops at St. Thomas. Two young men were sent to jail for prize-fighting in Montreal, and

The food inspectors of Montreal last week confiscated a ton and & quarter of bad food products, mostly meats. Investigations under Government auspices show that 25 per cent. of the food stuffs sold to Canadians are six months' imprisonment at Moose Jaw, Monday, by a magistrate for the theft af $3 in fares. A Winnipeg despatch says the fruit area of British Columbia is 14,000

ductor, was fined $30 and $100 or

Bacon, long clear, sells at 11 to the taking of statistics in this re- The story that the United States the report of the Tuberculosis a plant in Canada because the Govyew hedge to the gravelled walk be- Cured meats-Hams, light to me- investigation on the part of the from them is officially denied from league's officials has proved that the Ottawa. The bounty will be paid overcrowding of houses is a great to any company that will manufac-

GREAT BRITAIN. The total liability of bankrupts in Great Britain during 1904 was over $60,000,000.

The London Times' commercial review says that the trade reports are T. W. Burgess, an English long distance swimmer, for the second time failed to swim the English Channel.

for the Empire. the time of the British Parliament to five years.

UNITED STATES. There have been two hundred cases of yellow fever in New Orleans since

No. 2, 52c; sample, 40 to 50c. Corn the majority of the cardinals will postoffice, was arrested in connection not allow the Pontiff to leave the with the disappearance of money Captain John M. Collins has been appointed chief of police of Chicago

GENERAL Emperor William is credited with a

STILL PURSUING ENEMY

the remnants of the enemy southward. The Russians must continue fleeing southwards towards Patience and nobody got crippled for life."

FLOODS IN NORTHERN COREA.

MODERN MIRACLES.

ups