or mixed farming. Full application to Gray

BEGETS HAPPINESS. as five elevators, with 000 bushels. Co. of Carlyle, Assinthey solicit your corresther information and fully given.

R DYEING nd Kid Gioves cleaned These, lo per on the best place is RICAN DYEING CO. JAKETHO

our Proparty WITH-GUISHER te for descriptive circular

owder Fire AFENTS

orento, Ont. WANTED

UBSTITUTES

EXCURSIONS. July, August and hicago and North sell from Chicago. on tickets to San Angeles, Portland, ke Excursion), Seencouver at very espondingly cheap oints in Conada. est of train serpovers and liberal ates, folders and can be obtained t, General Agent, Foronto, Ont. 31 orator of the the his topic, no Miss Cayenne.

SULT.

periodical attacks dysentry or diaruse great precauks. To such per-If a few drops are ouble will be ex-say that my is mark in the Mrs. Newriche. wasn't the only who couldn't eplied Mrs. Upp-

the frat symporder, Parmelee's before going to es of one or two the train of that neans are simple ford in this dicord, pa?" Peck-Il you. AShe croup dangerous thing s it is liable to Give them ption ung will cure them inpleasant after

Sá $1.00 a bottle.

MITTER(I) () K AND OMEMEE

Durham and Victoria Standard

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, AUGUST 17, 1905.

C. W. RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

The....

VOL. 17. NO. 12.

Laird's Secret

&1 per annum.

CHAPTER I.

On the afternoon of an autumn day forty odd years ago, a singular scene might have been witnessed in the streets of the seaside town of Linne, on the south-west coast of Scotland. Townfolk, fishermen, tish-wives, old men and women, lads and lasses, were gathered in a crowd near the Cross in the main street, gaping, an extraordinary-looking figure who flourished in one hand a long, ragged of banner, composed of an old towel or dish-cloth, and held in the other forty and fifty-who uttered an a huge Scots bonnet, very much the along, bare-headed and bare-footed, talking loudly as he went, and now and then pausing to address the lie, parring the blow with his stick waking or sleeping, He's watching. "I said the same thing to Robert cording to quality. crowd, in tones now shrill and stri- and seizing the horse's reins. "What Eh, but He's looking down on a Owen once, when we were walking to the nature of his discourse.

was strong and springy, and, de-siller to gie to the poor!" addressing the crowd, he drew him- wish me to treak my neck?" step, stood towering a full head and stanes?" shoulders over the little sea of heads | Something in the words uttered, that were turned up to hear him.

from door to door, "Willie Macgill- the rider furious. With a sharp preaching up and doon the town!" over the cars with his riding-whip People ran from the shops where and forced it to spring forward, nearthey were making purchases, the her- ly overturning the mendicant in its ring fishers left their nets on the career; then, at a hand gallop, he shore and their boats on the quay, passed rapidly up the street and out the landlord of the Tam o'Shanter of sight. inn came out to his door, the ragged children ran from every lane and allev with eager cries.

and addressed the crowd.

gillvray! In the name of Willie the appearance, he was, nevertheless, a Robin, when a body drumm'd to Robin, panting and looking up to Hermit! hearken to the words o' gentleman by birth, and in his early them on an old tin can or a sauce- him. "I thought he would have been clipped at 461c; new crop. No. 2 611c. Canal freights steady. wisdom, spoken to a foolish and a life had taken orders as a minister pan lid? Well, that's what He who counit frae the saddle." feeble generation! Open your lugs, of the Scottish Church. If the truth made the world is doing now, only "He would have gotten his des- 3, 38c to 39c per bushel; new crop ye rogues and ye hizzies, and take must be told, drink had been at the it's a kind of a harp He's playing, serts. Robin. I'll tell you this-a feed barley is quoted at 49c to 50c, heed to the emblem I wave before bottom of his eccentricities. ye-av, look upon it and take heed!" Those who knew, said that Willie kind o' a still, small sound!) and the heart!"

a voice. "What is't? A dish-cloot, and wide. Willie, my man?"

The prophet's eyes twinkled scenes, described in the preceding into His byke at the grey of the Canadian Northern Issues an En- $16; shorts, $19 to $20 per ton; Onstrangely. "Av. a dish-clout, and what for along the sea-shore beyond the town, canna' count them Himsel'; and yet. no? What would you have, Tammas, trailing his banner along the ground Robin my man, each star's a world According to the weekly crop report $24 per ton, as to quality. ye sinner? Would you have a brand like the tail of a dog in disgrace, and like this, spinning round and round issued on Wednesday by the Cana- Oats-The demand for rolled oats from your smithy fire? Would ye oscillating wildly in his gait. He to you heavenly playing! And the dian Northern Railway, dealing with is limited, and prices are unchanged do cows 2.50 have the Royal Lion o' Scotland, walked on unsteadily, muttering to priest can blether, and the minister conditions at 54 stations on the at $2.40 to $2.421 per bag. The Bulls 2.50 eml lazoned in gold on a crimson himself, till he had left the town can sneevel, and the kirks battle to- main and branch lines in the wheat market for commeal is quiet but Feeders 3.60 kail runt from the garden? I take ward with lack-lustre eyes. Between the hearing o' you awful music. Look ther in general has been fine and $7.50 to $8; clover, mixed, $6.50 to $8; clover, mixed, $ my flag where I find it—a sark the promontory and the path he had up again, Robin! Strain your een. warm, and the wheat which is in $7, and pure clover, $6 to $6.25 for do rough to com.... 2.50 bleaching in a hedge, or a young followed, stretched many miles of my doo, and ye'll see glints of light head is developing rapidly, and shows car lots. lassock's petticoat from the linen- rocky sands and reefs of crimson coming and going, and a shining as signs of coloring in man; of the dispress, or an old wife's hushion from weed left bare by the tide, which was of a wonderfu' gate o' gold." the armchair. Away, ve limmers! at its lowest ebb. away, ye sinners! away, ye scum o' He walked on for some minutes, Egypt and o' Scotland, and get ye then, pausing again, threw his banner dish-clouts and cold water from the down, and cast himself full length well, and wash your souls clean! on the shingle, closed his eyes, and gillivray, am his prophet!" and changing his tone, he held out and absent-minded, that it was some

a mendicantone bawbee! Gold I cannot take, scanty grass which fringed the and silver I will not take; but I shingle's edge, stood a tiny figure,

There seemed to be no response to of seven or eight years old, whose his solicitation. The people nudged dress consisted of a single garment each other, and grinned, and laugh; like a girl's frock-which indeed it ed; but not a copper was forthcom- might once have been-who wore neiing-so that the voice again pealed ther shoes nor stockings, and whose shrill and angry, and the banner was long golden hair had no covering of waved impatiently in the air. any kind. "What, ye limmers, nothing! Not | Willie started, looked yound, and a doit, not a bawbee! Will I curse greeted him with a curious smile. ve with bell, book, and candle, like "Is that you, Robin?: he said a priest o' Rome! Will I sneevel out gently. "I took you for a fairy, to ye the threat o' hell-fire, like the Robin, with the light shining on clocking hens o' the kirk! No. ye your honnie golden hair, and your limmers; no, ye hizzies; no, ye ig- eyes of elin blue. Come, and sit norant loons; I'll tell ve the true you here by my side." tidings that came to me from the | The boy sprang down and seated mouths o' the leaders o' mankind. himself on the loose shingle. in the name of the prophet, Willie "What ails you, Pobin?" asked Macgillvray, who sat at the feet of Willie. "What brings ye here, and Robert Owen o' Lanark and drunken where rave ve been?" the words o' wisdom from the lips "Up the toon, Willie! I saw ye o' William Fulton o' Kilmarnock! among the folk, and followed you There's one is coming to clean the hereawa'." world, and what for no' with a Willie's face fell. dish-clout! It's recking and stinking "I did not se you, Robin," he with dirt! It's as foul as a midden said softly. and as black as a common sewer! "But I saw you, Willie; and I saw Will you tell me that the guld wife the folk making fun o' ye! and I o' Rome can clean it-she's tried her thought shame o' ye when I saw test for eighteen hundred years, and ye drinking at the public-hoose!" what's she done but spilt the pot | "I had just tw: 'q asses, Robin," into the fire and filled the house replied the man, apologetically. with reek and fume? Will you tell "Ye had mair than twa," said the me that Rome can clean it, or Pres- boy, firmly. "Ye were drunk, Wilbytery, or Free Kirk, or any kirk, lie, and you're half-drunk noo!" for that's a lie! The one that is "You're right, Robin-I'll not deny coming to do the job-with a dish- it. The spell was on me, and I clout in her hand-is neigher bedizen- yielded to the tempter, as you say.

land lass that milks the kye! Shall I tell ye what they call her? Will you hearken to her name? Her name, then, is Common Sense, own sister to Christian Charity, and first kissen by blood to Sisterly Love! Hearken to that, now! Hearken to that, bonnie?' now hearken to that ye that have no sense, and no charity, and no love!" Suddenly he paused in the middle of the road, in front of a man on laughing, and jeering, while following horseback, who was coming along at a slow trot. The horse paused suddenly and swerved aside, nearly stick, attached to which was a sort throwing the rider-a thin, cleanshaven, keen-eyed man of between angry exclamation, and aimed a worse of wear. He shambled slowly blow with his riding-whip at the mendicant's bare head. "Gently, laird, gently!" cried Wilails you this bonnie morning?" Then, he might have passed for sixty, so for the laird o' Castle Hunger! Room and made folk wiser, and kept men and say without trembling "there is freights. worn and woe-begone, so grey and there, you imps and loons, for the for ever young, and saved them from 100 God'?' Man, Robin, ye should wild, did he appear; but his step great man with his pouches fu' o' spite his awkward galt, he had all "Out of the way, you drunken to be God, and to think of the re- call me an atheist, Mr. Macgillyray," the vigor of one in his prime. In fool!" said the horseman, with a walking, he bent forward, narrowing scowl, while his horse planted its chest and shoulders, but when he fore-legs firmly, and stood panting and begin it all o'er again with a ship no form of evil, and respect no paused, flourishing his banner and before the waving banner. "Do you loving lad and lass, not naked, but tyranny, be it human or divine." I self to his full height of six feet up- "Not for worlds, laird! Lord forwards. Talking, gesticulating, flour- bid I should rob creation of a shinishing his arms in the air, with his ing light and an example! And you ragged coat blowing in the wind and a lonely man, without an heir! Who showing a hairy, naked breast and would inherit the flesh-pots and the sinewy throat and arms, he continu- red wines o' Castle Hunger, if the ed on his way, till he paused at the laird o' Linre died without issue and Cross, and stepping on the stone broke his braw neck on the causeyand more particularly in the man-Meanwhile the cry was running ner of utterance, seemed to render

CHAPTER II.

William Macgillyray, better known His back to the old Cross, his face as Willie the Prophet, was one of to the sea, the man lifted up his those extraordinary characters only right hand flourishing the banner, to be found in the kingdom of Scotland, and rapidly dying out even up. "In the name of the prophet, Mac- there. Mean and ragged as was his | "Did ye ever see bees thronging, "I saw ye scaur the laird," cried

Never heed your faces this day-look seemed to go to sleep. Presently, to your souls, for the Lord's coming however, he sat upright, and, after down this way, and I. Willie Mac- passing his hand wearily across his brow, gazed at the sunset, with a Here, suddenly sinking his voice look so long, so wistful, so dreamy the great bonnet, and continued like time before he perceived that he was not alone. "All that I ask for my pains is Just above him, on the rough and seek just one bawbee from each and looking down upon him, as silent and moveless as himself: a little boy ed like the Scarlet Woman, nor clad But I'm sober now, Robin! It's like this, and he was waving his lights angels?" two hands and beckoning me to "They're ghosts o' dead men and come: and who think you was the women coming and going, and watchbairn but wee Willie Macgillvray- ing the thronging o' the stars! Eh, Willie, as he was thirty years syne, Robin, it's a sad sight, you, to a a laddie like yourself, Robin? He's sinful man-a man sadden'd with the 77c to 78c for No. 2 red and white, living yonder, and waiting till I curse o' drink. But never believe the come; for there's sense as well as blether about angels and such like nonsense in what the ministers say chimeras o' the poets! There's one about 'except a man be born again. Milton pictures them like muckle he canna' enter the kingdom o' sodgers, with swords in their hands, I Robin listened and nodded; then, pointing seaward, he cried-"See till the sun. Willie! Is it no'

The wistful look grew on the man's wan features, which shone as

"Yon's no the sun, Robin!" said, smiling. "Yon's God!" The child started, as if somewhat afraid; then, catching his friend's kenned this, and put it in his longsmile, he cried-

"Is God in the sun, Willie?" "God's vonder, Robin. I can see Him plain-His face, and His eyes, and His hair, and the shining of His smile, He's watching you and "No wonder!" returned the man, 2 outside. Barley-New and old heap o' dirt and wickedness, and at gloaming on the banks o' Clyde. drawing back, and bowing low with wondering, maybe, why He made it! They tell me you're an atheist, Mr. the curse o' drink and such abomin- have seen the look he gave me; and No. 2, outside. sponsibility! If I were God, I'd he said, 'because I believe in no bags; 25c more for broken lots here tempt them to wander astray!"

cert or astonish the child, who, see- heap o' vulgar superstition." A'body kens that!"

The boy stooped down, and lifted him. the banner, placing the stick across . Why did you not tell me before his shoulder that he might bear its that she was seeking me?" weight the more easily; then, side vray's hereawa'! Prophet Willie's oath, he struck his horse smartly by side, the curiously assorted pair turned inland, crossed an arid patch of meadowland, and reached a nar- ence; but presently as he hurried row country road.

peculiar to him-

"I'm wearing awa', Jean, Like snaw when it's thaw, Jean; I'm wearing awa, to The Land o' the Leal."

(hearken Robin, and ye can hear-a broken neck is better than a broken ex-store. A huge roar of laughter interrupt- was by no means so hair-brained as stars are thronging out with a hum! he pretended to be; and, for some hum! hum! and flying round and "We're taking heed, Willie!" cried reason or other, he had friends far round Him; and they'll throng and throng all night, ave growing thick-An hour or so after the scene, or er and brighter, till He gathers them chapter. Willie was wandering alone dawn. No man can count them; He standing yonder at the gates o' "I see the lights, Willie, but nae LEADING and powder guns, and cannon to ly quoted at $1.05, No. 2 northern blow each other into space; and the being $1.02 and No. 3 northern 871c De'il himself a kind o' Napoleon to 88c, lake ports. Bonaparte, haranguing the sodgers

"I dinna like to look at the stars, Oats-New, 32c to 33c, according Willie! They make me fear'a!" ations? It must be an awful thing do ye ken what he replied? 'They snuff the world out like a candle, God, but goodness; because I wordecently clothed, and nae De'il to took off my bonnet till him then and there-like this! He was a grand Even this raving did not discon- man, Robert Owen, and dispelled a hold a firm tone.

ing an occasion to point a moral in- | "Cone awa'!" whispered Robin, pulling the man by the coat-sleeve. "The De'il made whiskey, Willie! "Mither's wanting ye, Willie. She sent me into the roon to seek ye." "But God made the De'il!" cried Willia hastened on by the side of Willie, with a grin, rising to his feet. the boy, who ran to keep up with

> "Because you were drunk, Willie!" replied Robin, sententiously. Willie took the home-thrust in sil along, he muttered to hinvse.f-As they passed along. Willie began "Not so drunk either! I had my dull at $6. to sing, in the clear, pathetic tones ears and my eyes! . . . I ding'd the bit song, and got a handsome col- car lots on track here. lection. . . . And I scaur'd the laird o' Linne, on his road to Castle Hunger! . . . Not so drunk, but maybe drunk enough for one that All at once he paused and pointed was preaching the religion o' common sense."

(To be Continued.!

THE HEAVIEST CROP.

couraging Report. A despatch from Winnipeg says:tricts.

What Japan Will Gain by the War

BREADSTUFFS.

Toronto, Aug. 15.-Wheat-Ontario-The new crop is quoted at outside, the old being at 83c to 84c, with little business. Goose and spring are 73c to 75c at outside

Manitoba-No. 1 northern nominal-Flour-Ontario-A fair business and riding about on a charger-for being worked in flour from new wheat for export this month at $3. show! That's foolishness, Robin- 20 to $3.30, buyers' sacks, east and foolishness and havers! Yet the an- west. Manitoba-First patents are gels are men and women, an i the quoted $5.30 to $5.60; seconds, $5 de'ils are men and women! The to $5.30, and bakers', $4.90 to $5.one thing in you daft chiel Sweden- 10.

borg that pleases me is that he Millfeed-Ontario-Bran has been according to quality. Manitoba The boy gazed up in his face, won- bran $16, and shorts $19, at Toronto and equal points.

me and the world, whether we're standing bareheaded under the sky. | quoted at 40c to 45c, outside, ac-Rye-58c to 60c, outside. Corn-Canadian, 53c to 54c. Chato freights; old, 37c to 38c for No.

He was a man about forty, but mock reverence, he added, "Room Could He not have made it better, Owen; can ye look up at yonder sky, No. 2 or No. 3 yellow, lake and rail Peas-Wanted; 73c to 75c bid for

Rolled Oats-$5 for cars of barrels on track here, and $4.75 for cars of

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

Butter-The market continues to Creamery, prints 21c to 22c do solids 20c to 21c

Dairy Ib. rolls, good to choice 17c to 181c do medium 15c to 16c do tubs, good to choice 16c to 17c do inferior 14c to 15c Cheese-The market is quoted unchanged at 11te to 11te per 1b. Eggs-Continue firm, with the bulk of business at 171c to 18c. Potatoes-60c to 75c per bushel. Baled Hay-$8 per ton for old No. 1 timothy in car lots on track here, and $7.50 for new. No. 2 is very Baled Straw-Is quiet and untruth into them; and then I sang a changed at $5.50 to $6 per ton for heavy; No. 2 white are quoted at No. 2 mixed, 27%c. Barley, feed, 461c to 47c per bushel; American 441c. Rye quiet and weak; No. 2, white, to arrive, 39c to 40c, and No.

MONTREAL MARKETS.

Flour-Manitoba spring wheat patents, $5.30 to $5.40; strong bakers', $5 to $5.10; winter wheat, $5.50; straight rollers, $5 to $5.15, and in bags, $2.35 to $2.45. Millfeed-Manitoba bran in bags, tario bran, in bulk, $14.50 to $15; Butchers' picked 4.20 shorts, $19 to $20; mouille, $21 to cut pork. $20 to $21; light short

Regarded as Too Severe By the Envoys of the Czar.

H., says: The Japanese peace terms thority over Corea. are at last known to the Russian en- to More astonishing to the Russians voys. They are regarded by the than any other thing in the state-Czar's envoys as unnecessarily severe ment of terms submitted by Baron and humiliating, but there is yet a Komura and Mr. Taskahira, was lingering hope of a successful termin- that the Japanese did not ask for ation of the negotiations. It is any specific indemnity. They do only a lingering hope, however, if make it plain, however, that they in prosecuting the war. the Liaotung Peninsula to Japan. The evacuation of Manchuria.

railroad as far north as Harbin. No demand was made for the dis- quest that an adjournment be taken mantling of Vladivostock or recog- until it could be examined.

cuts, $18 to $19; American cut clear | Export ewes, per cwt. 4.00 fat backs, $19.25 to $20.75; compound lard, 5%c to 6%c; Canadian pure lard, 101c to 11c; kettle render- Spring lambs, each ... 5.00 ed. 11c to 12c, according to quality; hams, 12c, 13c to 14c, according to size; bacon, 13c to 14c; fresh killed abattoir hogs, $9.75 to $10; alive, $7.35 for mixed lots, $7.60 for se-

Eggs-Straight stock, 17c to 172c; No. 2, 14c. Butter-Choicest creamery, 221c to 221c; under-grades, 211c to 22c; Tie-up of Montreal Building Trade dairy, 18c to 20c.

BUFFALO GRAIN MARKET.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

better class cattle. Export cattle, choice..$4.50 do good to medium.. 4.20 good to choice 4.00 fair to good 3.50

A despatch from Portsmouth, N. inition of a transfer of Japanese auone is to judge from the expressions expect to be compensated for the of apprehension and dismay that are losses incurred by them in their conbeing uttered in the Summer hotel flict with Russia, which is interpretannex, where the Russians have their jed in some quarters to mean that the European belligerent is expected They are depressed, decidedly de- to pay in full for the enormous pressed, those among them who expenditures which Japan has made. have seen or heard the conditions But the failure of the Japanese to which Japan asks to impose upon insist upon the payment of a speciher enemy as to the price of ending fic sum holds out a chance of com-Although not officially announced, among many of the Russian repreit is learned that Japan's demands sentatives that the conditions admit of discussion. M. de Witte and Bar-An indemnity commensurate with on Rosen did not indignantly withthe monetary losses sustained by her draw from the conference when Baron Komura and Mr. Takahira let it The cession of Port Arthur and be known what their Government desired from Russia in return for an agreement to stop hostilities, as The cession of the Island of Sag- some expected. They acted as courteous gentlemen would act, po-The central of the Russo-Chinese litely receiving the communication of the Japanese envoys with the re> do bucks, per cwt.... 3.00 do culls, each 3.00 Calves, per lb. 31 do each 2.00 Hogs, selects, per cwt 7.25 0.00 do lights 7.00 do fats 7.00

MAY BE GENERAL STRIKE

Threatened.

A despatch from Montreal says:-It is quite probable that the carpen-Buffalo, Aug. 15 .- Flour-Quiet and | ters on strike may involve the thoueasy. Wheat-Winter uneasy; No. 21 sands of men connected with the Montreal, Aug. 15.-Grain-The de- red, 84tc; No. 2 white, 84c. Corn building trades. The strike leaders mand for oats is increasing, and sell- dull; No. 2 yellow, 61c; No. 2 corn, say they have used every legitimate ing for local consumption is fairly 60c. Oats weak; No. 2 white, 291c; means to secure a conference, and have decided, should it be necessary, to resort to extreme measures which in the majority of similar cases have resulted in a general strike of all building mechanics. In the event of a strike being declared, work on Toronto, Aug. 15 .- Trade at the all buildings in Montreal and vicinity Western Cattle Market was slightly will be stopped, which would result better this morning, especially for in serious inconvenience and great loss. Before taking such drastic ac-34.75 tion, however, those in charge have 4.40 decided to call a mass meeting to 4.30 discuss the situation.

MASSACRES IN CHINA.

French Catholics Slain in the Province of Honan.

3.50 A despatch from Pekin states that 4.00 a thousand Llama priests have killed 3.60 and wounded many French mission-3.50 aries and other Catholics in the Pro-Bulls 1.75 2.50 complaint to the Chinese Govern-

JAPAN'S NAVY IS BUSY

4.50

4.20

Vessels Despatched to Points in Eastern Siberia.

IN EASTERN SIBERIA.

Admira! Kataoka reports that he Tunaitcha, which is about twenty has despatched one naval squadron miles east of Korsakoff. The garrito Kamchatka and another to Ok- son of 123 men surrendered, and the hotsk, in eastern Siberia, north of position was occupied by the Japan-Sakhalin Island, and that they are ese army. now engaged carrying out their in- It is officially announced that 118 structions in regard to the work to Russian officers and men surrendered be performed at their respective des- to the Japanese on Aug. 8 at Mora, tination

THE VARIAG RAISED.

A despatch from Tokio says: The Imperial Navy Department has announced the successful floating of the cruiser Variag on Wednesday afternoon. In view of the difficulty Portsmouth, troops continue to be encountered, there is a strong feeling of general satisfaction over the raising of the vessel. The Russian cruiser Variag and the Russian gunboat dise will not be accepted for trans-Korietz were sunk by the Japanese portation on the trans-Siberian in the harbor of Chemulpo on Feb- Railway, all the cars being devoted ruary 9, 1904.

TURNED BOTH FLANKS.

A despatch from St. Petersburg says: Gen. Linevitch, in a telegram | A despatch to the London Teleto the Emperor, reports that the graph from Yingkow says that Russian forces operating to the east- heavy rains and the Russian retreat ward of the Mandarin road advanced have postponed the expected general towards a defile near the village of engagement. The mud is three feet Chagon, 24 miles south of Taulu, deep in the roads along the front. The Japanese assumed the offensive Gen. Mischenko's cavalry remains in and turned both flanks, compelling Eastern Mongolia, trying to attack the Russians to retreat to the north- the Japanese flank and rear. ward. The Japanese followed in pursuit and again encountered part of the Russian force, which had halted in the Nadoulin Gorge, but after a hot fusillade they returned

A despatch from Tokio says:-Vice is possible will soon be decided.

Admiral Kataoka reports that after two hours' firing a Japanese lake A despatch from Jqkio says: Rear- flotilla compelled the surrender of in the Island of Saghalien.

TROOPS IN MANCHURIA.

A despatch from St. Petersburg says: Despite the fact that the peace negotiations are now under way at sent to the front in Manchuria in increased numbers. After the end of the current week general merchanto the use of the military.

MUD THREE FEET DEEP.

TO HOLD TUMEN RIVER. The Moji, Japan, correspondent of the London Telegraph says it is estimated that there are 50,000 Russians on the Pumen River. They are commanded by Gen. Besadora. He hopes to defend his position and maintain communication along the Kirin-Changchun line. Whether this in silks and satins like a lady, nor ragged and dirty like you, ye drabs and fish-wives of the town! She is modest in Ler demeanor, and wise in her speech, and bonnie of blee, with a sweet mouth and a loving cheek, and all she wears is the petticoat and short gown of a fair-hair's low—

The complete success of Japan in the war continue with the same success of Japan in the war with Russia is almost absolutely as hitherto, Japan will probably personal and short gown of a fair-hair's low—

The complete success of Japan in the war continue with the same success of Japan will probably personal and shifter of the Island of Sakhashit, he continued—

The complete success of Japan in the war continue with the same success of Japan will probably personal and shifter of the Island of Sakhashin and shifter of Japan will probably personal and shifter of the Island of Sakhashin and shifter of the south. The flux of the south. The flux of the war continue with the sam shifter of the south. The flux of the war with Russians in the sa

The complete success of Japan in the the war continue with the same success cession back to China of Manchuria,

SAKHALIN TO BE CEDE

MANCHURIA TO SE HANDES

KOREA OVER WHICH JAPANESE

BACK TO CHINA