WHEN CHILDREN SHOULD WEAR GLASSES. A child who is old enough to study is old enough to wear glasses. Do not chance marred eyes. Do not chance wearing the life of the child by neglecting the sight. Eyestrain always renders study difficult and ultimately injures both body and mind. Glasses are not expensive. H. A. Turner, Millbrook.

SHE WAS WILD WITH PAIN. From Willow Creek, Ont., Miss E. Diegel writes: "A few years ago I was drenched with rain and got lumbago; it was like a steel rod piercing my back. I also had earache and was just wild with pain. I applied bathing soaked with Newtine to my ear and rubbed on Newtine for the lumbago. That rubbing relieved and in a few hours I was well. No other liniment would do this." It's the penetrating power of Newtine that makes it superior to all other liniments. Nothing beats it, 25c. at all dealers.

Robinson, Stoughton. The young couple are very well known and exceedingly popular in church work and social circles. Mr. Bullied having been for many years head clerk in Coad's general store, and Miss Robinson for some time prominently connected with the musical life of the community. The marriage ceremony took place in the Methodist church, which was most beautifully decorated for the occasion. The pulpit and choir loft was a perfect bank of flowers, while over the head of the happy couple hung a large floral bell which rained flowers upon them at the conclusion of the ceremony. The nuptial knot was tied by the late pastor of the church, Rev. P. I. Thacker, now of Napinka, assisted by Rev. Geo Noble, of the Pennsylvania M. E. Conference, uncle of the bride. To the strains of a wedding march, played by Miss A. Noble, of Oxbow, and preceded by two little flower girls—Ruby Robinson and Mabel Noble—and her bridesmaid, Miss Louise Robinson, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her away. The bride looked very beautiful in a charming gown of cream silk figured eolienne, with silk trimming and chiffon filling; she wore a bridal veil of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore a very becoming gown of mauve silk eolienne, with silk trimming and carried a bouquet of carnations. Mr. W. Mannably supported the groom, while Mr. T. Henderson and Mr. J. Ross acted as ushers. At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of E. J. Coad, uncle of the bride, when fully seventy-five guests sat down to a dainty wedding supper. Toasts were called for and ably responded to in various amusements. The bride and groom were the recipients of a large number of beautiful and costly presents. The happy couple left amid the best wishes of many friends and showers of rice for Winnipeg and other points. They will make their home at Carrievale—Gainsboro Post and Carrievale News. See the Bank of Toronto adv. in this issue. 35c. for Mirror to Dec. 31st next. A GREAT BAND CATCH. The prime musical attraction at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto this year, will be the band of the 2nd Life Guards, His Majesty the King's favorite band at all state levees and high functions. ASTONISHED THE DOCTOR. Mrs. Eaton Recovering. Although Her Physician said She Might Drop Dead at any time. "The doctor told me I had heart disease and was liable to drop on the street at any time," says Mrs. Robert Eaton, of Dufferin, Ont. "My trouble began four years ago with a weak heart. I was bothered with nervousness, shortness of breath, dizziness, loss of appetite, smothering and sinking spells, and I could not sleep. "Sometimes a great weakness would seize me and I would have to lie down to keep from falling. My hands and feet would seem to go to sleep and a sort of numbness would come all over me and perhaps immediately after the blood would rush to my head and a series of hot flashes would envelop me. "I took all kinds of medicines, but kept gradually growing worse until about eight weeks ago, when I began using Dr. Leonard's Anti-Pill. From the start I improved until now my appetite has returned, I can sleep well, and have no nervousness, dizziness, palpitation, faintness or any of my other troubles. They have all entirely disappeared. I feel much stronger, look better, and altogether Anti Pill has made a new woman of me. "I am entirely cured and cannot say too much for this wonderful remedy. I would most heartily recommend Anti Pill to any one suffering as I did. All Druggists or the Wilson Fyle Co., Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont. 40c.

NO MAN IS STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH. Let the greatest athlete have dyspepsia and his muscles would soon fail. Physical strength is derived from food. If a man has insufficient food he loses strength. If he has no food he dies. Food is converted into nutrition through the stomach and bowels. It depends on the strength of the stomach and bowels if food eaten is digested and assimilated. People can die of starvation who have abundant food to eat, when the stomach and its associate organs of digestion and nutrition do not perform their duty. Thus the stomach is truly the vital organ of the body. If the stomach is weak the body will be weak also, because it is upon the stomach that the body relies for its strength. And as the body, considered as a whole, is made up of its several members and organs, so the weakness of the body as a consequence of "weak" stomach will be distributed among the organs which compose the body. If the body is weak because it is ill-nourished that physical weakness will be found in all the organs—heart, liver, kidneys, etc. The liver will be torpid and inactive, giving rise to biliousness, constipation, weak nerves, feeble or irregular action of heart, palpitation, dizziness, headache, backache and kindred disturbances and weaknesses. Mr. Louis Pave, of Quebec, writes: "For years after my health began to fail, my head grew dizzy, eyes pained me, my stomach was sore all the time, while everything I would eat would seem to lodge in my stomach. The doctors claimed that it was indigestion, but I tried all sorts of food and prescribed for me, and although I took their powders regularly yet I felt no better. My wife advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—and stop taking the doctor's medicine. If the stomach is weak, we soon found that I began to improve, so I kept up the treatment. I took on flesh, my stomach became normal, the digestive organs worked perfectly and I soon began to look like a different person. I can never cease to be grateful for what your medicine has done for me and I certainly give it highest praise." Don't be wheedled by cheap imitations. Get dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "as good as gold." To gain knowledge of your own body—in sickness and health—send for the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A book of 1008 pages. Sent in one cent stamps for paper-covered, or 50 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. W. Pierce, 603 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y. A Millbrook Citizen Robbed. A number of parties from this town and vicinity were relieved of their cash at Peterboro to-day by pickpocket 'gentry.' One man is said to have had $75 stolen, another $23, several others smaller sums. There was a big crowd there to attend the Circus, which gave these 'light fingered' sneaks a good chance to get in their work. One of them nearly had his neck broken by being thrown from a moving street car by one of our citizens. The sneak tasted 'dust' in which there was no gold, and made himself scarce before he could be captured. About 200 from this vicinity took in the Circus, some are pleased but 'others' are sorry. The marriage of Miss Mary A. Farrow, to Mr. Walter W. H. Gray, of Manvers, took place at the residence of Dr. J. D. Deyell Millbrook, on Monday, at 5:30 p. m. In the absence of Rev. Wm. Johnston, Rev. W. H. Bradley, B. A., of St. Andrew's Church, Berlin, Ont., who is visiting here, and is also a good Presbyterian, performed the ceremony. Mr. W. J. and Miss Susie Farrow acted as groomsmen and bridesmaid. Dr. and Mrs. Snelgrove, Mrs. Bradley were also witnesses of the pleasing event. The happy couple left for their home in Manvers, and have the best wishes of a host of friends. Mr. John McBride has removed to the store lately vacated by Mr. Moore, next door to the Mirror office. Look him up when you want to inspect first class pianos, organs and sewing machines. He is also agent for Chambers Marble Works, Lindsay. Mrs. Wm. Mitchell has returned from a pleasant visit at Ethel. Won't Stand for a Higher Rate. A meeting of the Electric Light users was held in the Council Chamber, Millbrook, on Monday evening, and a number decided to quit using the electric light if the advance in price was charged after Aug. 15th inst. Mr. Gillott, Town Clerk, was instructed to notify Mr. DeLong that the Village contract term has not expired and they expect it fulfilled before the village would consider the proposed raise of 25 per cent, which would mean $150 extra in a year. ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION. The Millbrook Citizens' Band recently met and presented Mr. Norman H. Dunford with a handsome gold ring, nicely engraved. The following is a copy of the address as read, and a copy of which was printed on Saturday and given to Mr. Dunford, who feelingly replied in a few well chosen words, thanking the Band for the handsome gift, and he would always retain pleasant memories of the time he was associated with the Millbrook Band. To Norman H. Dunford, Esq., DEAR COMRADE,— We, your brother members of the Millbrook Citizens' Band, having learned of your intention to remove from our Town to take a position in the Union Bank at Newboro, Ont., desire to express to you our sincere regret at the separation. You have been a valuable member, always taking a deep interest in the welfare of the Band. Your departure will create a vacancy hard to fill, not only in regard to the Instrument on which you have performed so often and so well, but also in the hearts of those who will greatly miss your assistance and cheerful companionship. Kindly accept this Ring, not for its intrinsic value, but as a slight token of the high esteem in which you are held by your associates in the Band. We trust that as you wear it that it will arouse pleasant recollections of the time spent with the Millbrook Band, and that it may perhaps be a stimulus to urge you on to greater success. We unitedly and heartily wish you happiness and prosperity in your new home. Signed on behalf of the Band, Charles Thorndyke, Secretary. MILLBROOK, JULY 20th, 1906.
