HEALTH FOR RUN DOWN WOMEN

From the experience of Mrs. John Panke, Saskatoon, nothing compares with Ferrozone. "At times I was confined to my bed and couldn't do any work. I was run down in flesh, lost strength, my appetite failed, my color was pallid. Weak and cast down, it seemed I couldn't catch my breath. I started a new kind of life in my blood, built me up, vitalized and strengthened my nerves, and finally cured my heart and stomach pains." ADDRESS THE NUNG LICET PRESS 42 West Coulter Street, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Northfield General Conference

We are indebted to the Rev. Wm. Johnston, the popular Pastor of the Mt. Cook Presbyterian Church, for the following Mr. Johnston will no doubt give his congregation the benefit of the information acquired at these gatherings:

The 24th annual session of the Northfield General Conference for Christian Workers began at Northfield on Aug. 3rd, with one of the largest attendances ever recorded on an opening night. Mr. W. R. Moody, (eldest son of the late D. L. Moody) chairman of the Conference, presided at the short address of welcome, in which he outlined the purpose and scope of the Bible Conference, introduced Dr. A. T. Pearson of Brooklyn, editor of "The Missionary Review of the World," who delivered the address. Mr. George C. Stebbins, the noted hymn writer and the only remaining active survivor of the old school of gospel singers and evangelists, of which Moody & Sankey and Whittle & Bliss were members, was in charge of the singing and led the thousands with some of his old time fire and enthusiasm.

The Conference will be in full swing tomorrow morning when Dr. H. C. Mabie, of Boston, will speak, and it is expected that Dr. Johnston Ross of Cambridge, England, will preach in the forenoon, and a missionary address will be delivered in the open air on "Round Top" in the evening. Dr. Campbell Morgan, of London, Eng., will arrive at Northfield on Monday next, and will begin his course of daily Bible lectures on Tuesday.

The Conference remains in session until Aug. 19th, when it will be followed in September by a series of Post Conference addresses by Dr. G. Campbell Morgan. Dr. Morgan is one of the most gifted speakers that has ever stood on a platform on this continent. His services are in demand everywhere during his visit he will occupy the pulpit on Sundays, of 5th Ave. Presbyterian Church, New York City. He is a ripe scholar, a fluent speaker and stands in the front rank as an exegete. He is intensely spiritual, were one to hear no other speakers while here the science would justify the effort; but there are a host of speakers and singers, so one can pick and choose, and select what is most beneficial. The meetings are in full swing now and continue every day from morning until night. The attendance this year is far in excess of former years, and every available home and tent is taxed to accommodate the eager visitors.

Whose Say-so is Best?

With nearly all medicines put up for sale through druggists, one has to take the maker's say-so alone as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party, accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives. Dr. Pierce's medicines, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to this rule. Their claims to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely upon their makers' say-so of praise. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each separate bottle wrapper. Thus invalid sufferers are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence. Scores of leading medical men have written enough to fill volumes in praise of the curative value of the several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.

Amongst these writers we find such medical lights as Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Boston Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hale, of the same city; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Dr. Governor Cox, of New York; Dr. Bartholomew of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, and scores of others equally eminent.

A SYSTEM FOR KEEPING YOUNG

"Here is a summary" writes Harriet Martin in the NEW IDEA WOMAN'S MAGAZINE for September, "of a number of rules that can keep the busiest, the most beautiful, the plainest, the cleverest, the stupidest woman young all her life: Have conscientious determination to keep sweet mentally, a determination to use your brains, few or many as the case may be, to develop them in every possible way in order that your increasing mentality as the years pass may show in your countenance, have a determination, having developed your brains, so to use them that your words and actions may be reasonable and therefore suitable to your time of life, and that your dress always evidence a fitness of taste in keeping with your general good judgment. Having thus attended to the only part of your life later which you really have the responsibility, await events, never attempt to hurry them, remembering that "thy date is hurrying after thee."

The reason that so many jokes are made about woman's age lies mainly in her strong dependence on her looks. Men, vain as they are, are vain more of their strength than anything else, strength does not fade as do women's charms, such as delicate beauty and slenderness of form. So the men getting on in years have the advantage, just as soon as women in their looks—face and figure and dress—learn how to become more, rather than less, attractive, the joking will cease."
