a small piece of the flavor.

40c, 50c and 60c per lb. At all Grocers.

SELL

so on exhibition at Ottawa Fair in the BISSELL, Dept L. ELOPA. ONT

rices varying from $2.85 to $5.10 This is the most durable covfor Houses, Barns, Stores, Elelay the "OSHAWA" shingles. A of the kind under the British buildings throughout Canada.

ING-PROOF. ng sheets, Conductor Pipe and es of "OSHAWA" Shingles.

Winnipeg, Man. | Vancouver, B.G. t. 76 Lombard st. 615 Pender st.

PEOPLE.

D WORKS-OSHAWA, Ont

More Safe and Sure

ment in Estate.

lock of new solid bric per cent. net: most cenis owner has other houses

e Street West, Toronto.

Canada Two cornering sactions, select ed lands in s from two railways, C.P.R. & G.T.P. action Head, Spring creek, no sloughs, action Head, Price $10.50 per scre cilesley Street, Toronto, Canada

WANTED

WOMEN everywhere, housekeepover and over again, now used in a Send post card for ten cent packe quick. Spencer Company, Barrie, ARM OR SMALL BANCHE FOR SALE.

E. GODDARD, Cochrane, Alta-

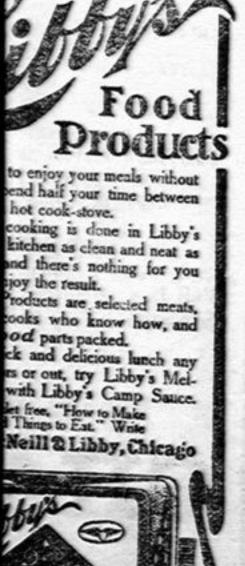

NT PLEASE EVERYONE. o landiord): "Do you allow r hotel?"

"Yes, sir, bring all the ant to." "I'll have to go somewhere sland dogs. ourist: "Do you allow dogs (having learnt a lessom:

on't have a dog about the

"I'm sorry. My wife has a thinks more of than she th customers.

VOL. 18. NO. 14.

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, AUGUST 30, 1906.

Durham and Victoria Standard

MILLBROOK AND OMEMEE MIRROR

C. W. RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

$i per annum.

Or. The Privilege of a Princess.

PART II.

CHAPTER IV.

Narrative of an episode at White's Club, in which Captain Jennico was concerned, set forth from contemporary gathering round sundry of these boards; back some of my 1 O U's."

two of the party now and again turned boy; 'tis providential compensation. upon the different doors, it was evident "You surprise me, gentlemen," said et, suddenly, stretching out a great paw galling to a man in being shot at from here. but slightly powdered, was of a fair in his affections." Jeature which almost amounted to five to Jack." coarseness; hardly yet in the prime of "Mr. Jennico has certainly shown me the countenance of the Chevalier de had shown himself so daring a player me his confidant."

in the corner, this foggy night, was na- your I O U ready, Master Carew." another slice of his patrimony to the choice if you like, and as fresh as Ros- with gloom, to see his cheek wear the hazard. His opposite neighbor, Beau alinda's last admirer-eh, John?" Carew (as he dearly loved to hear him- "I am not fond," said the Chevalier much. But in his demeanour to-night river they knocked together a rough self dubbed), was a man of another dryly, of hearing those discussed who, was more than the usual sombreness, on boat, on which they placed all their be- offering at the City Cattle Market to-day kidney, and fifteen years of nights, sys- bein High Born, have the right to claim his countenance other than natural pal- longings, and then embarked. When in tematically turned into days, had left respect and homage. But I confess to lor. As he stood for a moment respond- mid-stream a crocodile atacked the boat for some time, and the prices of inferior their stamp upon features once noted some interest in my friend Mr. Jennico." ing absently to the Chevalier's hearty and upset it, Bennett and Warman both butcher cattle suffered accordingly. for their beauty. Though ready now with a sneer or jest for his companion's flicking a grain of snuff from the ruffles tation of "All hail!" it became further They struck out for the opposite shore, 85, medium to good, $4.40 to $4.60; Consul-General. youthful eagerness, his 'eyes wandering of his pouting bosom, "I cannot prom- apparent that his dress was discolored restlessly from the clock to the doors be- ise to spare your scruples concerning that his ruffles were torn and blood

"Devil take Jennico!" cried the Baronet of your own German royalties; but since so ominously stained here and there. at last, striking the table so that the you wish the story, you shall have it. "Gadzooks, man!" exclaimed Carew, dice leaped in their box; "'pon my soul There is then a certain Dorothea Maria his bleared grey eyes lighting at the it's too bad! He gave me an appoint- Augusta Carolina Sophia, etc., etc., prospect of a new wholesale scandal for guineas?"

promptly.

Carew duly dropped ten pieces.

swear he gets more swollen day by day, ily mounting to the throne on the towards him, was hardly able to re- were scrubbed only once a year. while we grow lean-eh, Carew?- like strength of his wife's pretensions! Ha, strain his eager hand from fingering "The water goes to the river, as the French say, in spite of all our drains," valier gravely; "and then?" spiggered Carew; "but as for me I am content that you should go on playing the flutter in the dovecot over him. My anxiety. with Jennico so that I may back him; Lady Jennico, his mother, was blown "Great God, my friend! what has hapmy purse has not been in such good out with pride, swimming in the higher pened?" condition for many a long day. Poor regions, a perfect balloon! Gad, she The stentorian tones of Sir John Beddevil! How monstrous unfortunate his would no longer bow to any one less does, who saw an opportunity of repmours must still be! I only wish," than a Duke! She ran hither and thither trieving his fortunes, here broke in

"Yet you have lost on him now,' re- the best authority-to the Lord Cham- Lady Sue," and aroused Mr. Jennico's torted Beddoes, tapping his breast pock- berlain to know what precedence the attention. et, "and if you back him to-night, you young couple would be given at the next "I should be loath to spoil sport," he lose on him again, I warn you. I am Birthday. She called at the College of said, "but I advise no one to bet on in the vein. I tell ye! But there is the Arms to inquire about the exact marsh- my bonnes fortunes. This scratch-for till half-past, Carew. Fifty?"-"Done," said Carew quietly, noting royal crown!" down the entry. "He is erratic, I grant valier? But he has a taste for the table, that, Carew." though I believe he'd as soon lose as win, were it only for the sake of change, wit. Tis about all he cares for-the dullest "Very droll," repeated M. de Ville- known." dog! Bet you there is not a man in the Rouge, with impassive muscles. room has heard him laugh."

"You won't find any fool to take up ly accommodate myself with a little of deed, never discovered till he had his melancholy at the price.'

Highness," had rung out over a feg-swathed Lon- does, with a grin. "D'ye think I'd have happy pair arrive, and I have had secret, round to look at him with surprise; perdon; yet, despite the time of year, un- a chance with Augusta? Twenty past! but absolutely incontestable, information ceiving which he went on, laughing to fashionable for town life, despite the Let him keep away till the half-hour that the Princess laughed till she had conceal an evident embarrassment: butter is active. unpropitious weather, the long card- now. Zounds! 'twould be a mean trick to be bled." room at White's was rapidly filling. The if he failed me on my lucky night; M. de Ville-Rouge smiled at last in tables, each lit by its own set of candles, though I don't want him for ten minutes evident appreciation of the humor of the prepared to be glad to lose rather than shone dimly like a little green archipe- yet. He has fairly cleared me out; the situation. lago in a sea of mist. Groups were team will have to go next if I don't get the dice had begun to rattle, voices to "Why, it would be a very good thing well acquainted with the matter? Sure- to the Baronet. "No, Sir Beddoes, ring out. The nightly scene was being for thee, Jack, if he played thee false. I ly my poor friend Jennico has ill-chosen am going to recede from the wager." repeated, wherein all were actors, down say so though I should lose most damn- his confidant." to the waiters, who had their private ably by it. Thy team will go, thy coach- "Devil a word have I heard from Jenbets, and lost and won with their pat- es will go, thy carts, thy grooms, thy nico," said Carew. "Faith, he has dog, thy cat. Why, man, thou must even been the same cheerful, conversa-Somewhat apart in the seclusion of lose-'lis as plain as the nose on Lady tional fellow you wot of, and it would a window-recess, cosily ensconced so as Maria's face. And he must win, poor take a bold man to question him. But to profit of the warmth of the great yel- wretch, and I too, since I back him. truth, you know, will out-truth will out low fire, sat three gentlemen. A fourth Ask the Chevalier if it is not a text of in time." chair remained vacant at their table; truth all the world over; beky at cards, "Ay," said the Chevalier, and was and from the impatient glances which unlucky in love. Never look so sulky, shaken with silent merriment.

that the arrival of its expected occupant the Chevalier, with a strong gutturnal and snapping his fingers under the was overdue. The third gentleman, accent, lifting as he spoke his heavy lids beau's face. who bore a stamp of a distinctly foreign for the first time. "I was not aware race,-although his hair, which he wore that Captain Jennico was so afflicted look at the clock with some discomhue, and his face rather sanguine than "You surprise me, Chevalier," return- fraction of a minute-the half-hour has dark,-seemed to endure the delay with ed Carew gaily. "I deemed you and he not struck. And, by Heaven, here's our complete indifference. His attention such friends. Why, I won a hundred man! Had you not better sup with me by the Park gateway in Piccadilly. was whollly given to the shuffling of a from Lord Ullswater but yestereven by Rosalinda to-night?" pack of cards, which he manipulated wagering him that you would be the Sir John, in the act of looking round at villainy. The next will be that with exereme dexterity, while he listen- only man in the room to whom Jennico pettishly-he had not yet reached that ed to his companions' remarks with would speak more than ten words with- enviable state of mind in which a gamimpassive countenance. He was a hand- in the hour. The counting was not bler declares that the greatest delight some man, despite a bulk of frame and difficult. He said sixty-four to you and after winning is that of losing-found life, with full blue eyes and full red both kindness and sympathy," said Che- Ville-Rouge, which presented at that lips, which took, when he spoke or valier, who had now folded his strong moment such an extraordinary appearsmiled, a curious curve, baring the white hands over the pack of cards, and ance that the young man forgot his canine in almost sinster fashion. The sat the very embodiment of repose, irritation, and remained gazing at it Chevalier de Ville-Rouge, introduced at Doubtless our having both served in the in open-mouthed astonishment. White's by the Prussian Ambassador, as same part of the world, though under The features, usually remarkable for a distinguished officer of the great Fred- different standards, has somewhat their set, rather heavy composure, were erick visiting England for his pleasure. drawn us together; but he has not made perturbed to the verge of distortion.

as to be welcomed among the most not- "And so you don't know the tale of purple, the veins of the forehead swoled gamblers. He had lost and won large Jennico and the Princess? "Tis a dashed len like whipcord. sums with great breeding, and had in fine tale. Carew, you are a wit, or think Sir John Beddoes's' wils were none his six weeks' stay contrived to improve you are-it comes to much the same of the sharpest, but it was clear even an imperfect knowledge of an alien thing: tune up, man, give your version; to him that the emotion thus expressed tongue in such fashion as to make in- for," turning to the Chevalier again, was one of furious disappointment. rent as days in the month. 'Tis twenty- an explanation of this sudden humor venge." The youngest of the trio at the table five minutes past; you had better get in a man who was neither winner nor loser by Basil Jennico's appearance, the turally the one to display his feelings "I have three hundred chances yet," face of the Chevalier resumed its wonted most openly. A clean-faced, square- said Carew. Then turning to the foreign- indifferent expression and dulness of built English lad, fresh it would seem er, "Would you really, sir, care to hear hue with a rapidity that altogether confrom the playing fields of school, yet the true story of our friend's discom- founded the observer. master of his title and fortune, and fiture? I am about the only man in By this time the tall figure of the cornet in the Life Guards, Sir John lown that knows the true one; but all new-comer had wended its way down Beddoes was already a familiar figure that's old scandal now-town talk of the room and was close upon them. All in the club, as indeed his finances could last year, as stale as Lady Villiers's nine turned to greet him, and poor Sir John bear doleful testimony. The green cuff- virgin daughters. There are a dozen found his feelings once more subjected guards adjusted over his delicate ruffles, new ones since. Would you not rather to a shock. the tablets and pencil ready at his el- hear the last of his Royal Highness the The acquaintances of Basil Jennico were bow, it was clear he was itching to put Duke of C. and Lady W.? That is accustomed to find his brow charged

"Begad, then," responded Mr. Carew, greeting, and Carew's bantering salutrayed an almost equal anxiety to be- scandal in high quarters, for the heroine stained, that his brocade jacket was "Bet he comes before the clock wherever that may be; ay, that's the best not inquire perhaps! Beddoes, lad strikes," interposed Mr. Carew; "ten name-one of your two hundred odd see you he has got reasons for his

"Tis the first bit of luck the fellow lion that he is as rich as Cræsus. He at Almack's last night."

"Tis a droll story," said the Che- the right the Chevalier as unsuccessful-"Oh, then!-ounds! you can conceive manifesting, it would seem, a genuine with a conscious wriggle, "he could cackling the news like the hen that has hastily upon Carew's flow of words: laid an egg. She sent-I was told on Bet you double or quits it was not

"When," continued Carew, "lo and be- me enter the bet," said the Baronet ing.

it—poor Lady Jennico's egg! Ah! well, alier expressed unbounded amazement we know pride must have a fall. Your that such a state of things could exist, fair compatriot, sir, had but amused above all in England. "It is even so," resumed Basil, turnwhich I would be loath to blame her. + She gave him, it is said, indeed, every vent to some of his pent-up irritation. pledge of her affection. But when he "I confess that when I returned to my began to prate of rings and marriage native land I did expect to find at least lines, and pressed her to become Mrs. a quiet life. Why, in my house at Tol-Jennico, she found him a little too pre- lendhal, where those who surrounded sumptuous-at least, I take it so; and me were half savages, ruled by the stick being, it would seem, of a merry turn and the halter, where it was demeed of mind, devised a little joke to play imprudent for the master to walk upon him. Pretending to yield at last roads without his body-guard, there to his urgency, she gave her consent was never so much as a stone thrown to a secret marriage, and in the dark after me. But here, in old England, my chapet palmed off her chambermaid up- life, I believe, would not be worth backon him! Ha, ha! So the poor devil, ing for a week." He looked round with carrying off his bride by night in high a smile in which melancholy and disthat bet, Carew. Heigh-ho! I'd willing- glee, thinking himself a fine fellow in- dain were blended "Now, d- me!" cried Sir John,

"Better look up a princess for your- ing. sausage-nosed, carroty maid, daugh- den warmth and sympathy, "nay, now self then, Jack," said Carew; "perhaps ter of the Court confectioner, called in d- me, Jennico! I will take any the Chevalier here can give you an in- baptism by the Princess's names, like man a hundred guineas that you are troduction to some fascinating German half the girls in the town. The story alive this day month." goes that the Princess with all the Court "Done!" said the Chevalier, with such

The tenth hour of an October night "Won't it do over here?" asked Bed- were waiting at his house to see the unexpected energy that all three turned "Your betting habits are infectious. but while I will not withdraw, I am gain for once." He fixed Basil across "It is, on my honor, a most comic the table with his brooding eye as he Inferior 17c to 18c spoke, and bowed to him, then turned story," he said. "But how come you so

This, as a wager worth recording, was forthwith entered into the club at 16c to 17c per dozen. book. Basil looked on, half in amusement, half in bitterness.

"Tis likely, after all," he said, address- bushel, ing Sir John, "that you may win and l that the Chevalier may be afforded the charmed life. Perhaps," he added with a sigh, "because I care so little for it. "Half-past eleven," roared the Baronbehind a hedge and set on in the dark; in not knowing where the murderer "Zounds!" cried the wit, turning to may be lying in wait for him, at what street corner, at what turn of the road behind what havrick. If I have no kept my appointment over punctuall to-night, it is because a rogue has had There is more here than mere accident shall see murder in my own servant's eyes. Or, who knows, find it lying a the boltom of my cup. Pah! I am as bold as most men; I would welcome death more readily than most; but, by Heaven! it is unfair treatment, and have had more than my share of it." "Why, Jennico," said Carew, "you posure: "no, Jack, no, there is still a his attention unexpectedly arrested by never spoke a word of this before. A fellow has no right to keep such doings $21 to $22. dark. Tell us the details." "Ay, tell us all about it," said Sin John, with round eyes to start from their orbits.

The whole face was stained with angry "True," said Basil, "you have now ar interest, Jack, in knowing what sort of odds are against you. Well, you shall learn all you wish; but let us go to supper, gentlemen, meanwhile, that we may lose no further time and start better fortified upon the evening's business, tercourse with his English companions "there are now as many versions cur- . But while he cudgelled his brains for if Beddoes is still anxious for his re-

(To be Continued.)

EATEN BY CROCOUILE. English Trader Seized While Crossing a

A Salisbury. Rhodesia, despatch says: An Englishman named Warman, formerly employed at Salisbury Railway Station, has been eaten by a crocodile. Warman and a companion, Mr. H. E. Bennett, decaued, at the end of last month, to go on a trading trip across the Kafue River. On arriving at the gallor of one who sleeps little and thinks being left floundering in the water.

around he saw the crocodile seize War- to $3.50; cows. $3.50 to $4. man's leg and drag him under the of the romance is, it would appear, one jaggedly rent upon the left side, and al- water. Bennett had to travel 300 miles

KNEADED DOUGH WITH FEET.

Denounced. A despatch from Berlin, Germany. principalities—you know all about it, delay. Who knows but that you may says: The Government Medical Depart-"Done with you, Dick," said John I don't-and Jennico, who, as you are have a chance to-night after all. A ment has issued a report on the sanieware, was in the Imperial service, met deadly dig, well aimed under the fifth tary condition of the Prussian bakeries The bet was registered, and five min- this wondrously beautiful Princess at rib, a true Benedick's pinking; or shall and slaughter houses, to which the utes passed in watching the timepiece some Court function somewhere. They we say goring?—ahem! Have a care, newspapers are giving sensational promon the mantel-shelf; all the young Bar- danced, they conversed, she was fair Jennico, these wounds from horned inence, one of them using the caption onet's eagerness being now against the and he was fond-fill it in for yourself. beasts are reputed ill to heal. Ah, sad "America in Prussia." The report says event he had been burning to hasten. He thought himself a tremendous cock dog, sad dog! I will warrant thou hast that many of the butchering establish-The strokes rang out. With a smile he of the walk; to be brief, he aspired to had the balance nevertheless to thy cre- ments were found in a very unclean held out his broad palm, into which act King Cophetua and the beggar maid, dit. Now do I remember a little lady condition. The Government inspectors turned the other way, with the excep- was casting very curious looks at you found the conditions in the bakeries to has brought me yet. Gad, I believe my made so sure of the lady's favor that he Basil had flung himself into the chair town boys kneaded the dough with be particularly objectionable. In one luck has turned! Why the devil don't wrote over to his mother to announce that had so long waited him, and seem- their feet and one bakery was found to he come, that I may ease him of a little the marriage as a settled thing. A roy- ed to lend but a half-appending ear to be occupied by cats and hens. One of that superfluous wealth of his? I at alliance, with the prospect of speed- the prattler on his left, who, as he leant baker admitted that his floor and vats

> the hurt so unmistakably evidenced. On RIOTERS LOOT CAPE TOWN SHOPS. ly pressed him with earnest queries, An Army of Unemployed Do Extensive

A Cape Town despatch says: Remarkable scenes were witnessed here on Friday. For some time past "unemployed" agitators have been vigorously and a deputation waited on Dr. Jameson, the Premier, demanding employquarter! Rot him, I believe he is going alling of the coat of Lusatia with that it is nothing more, Mr. Carew, and I three white agitators incited a crowd of both sides of the post-office and no one There has been no decision yet regardto rat after all! Bet you he don't come of Jennico. He, he! And whether the would show it to you with pleasure in 700 colored hooligans to loot the shops. heard the explosion, resultant monstrosity would comport a reward for your flattering interest, but Riots followed, and continued through-"Faith, that's a good one," said Sir neatly, and it would be a pity to disturb large number of shops were looted, and you-he, he, he!-did you note me, Che- John, with a guffaw; "I had not heard his handiwork-is but the sixth of a the police charged the crowd, several 120 years old, died at Ottawa, Kansas, series of attempts on my life, made conflicts occurring. Nine arrests were on Tuesday night. Se could tell many "Fact, fact, I assure you, smiled the within the last six weeks, by persons made. Very few white men are impli- incidents in the life of George Washingunknown, for the purposes likewise un- cated in the riots, the looters consisting ton, whom she insisted she had seen Some of the business houses here re- of scarcity of labor in Nova Scotia, a

BREADSTUFFS.

Toronto, Aug. 28.-Flour-Ontario -Exporters are bidding $2.75 for 90 per cent. patents, buyers' bags, outside. Flour-Manitoba-Large milling companies quote $4.40 for first patents, $3 .-90 for second patents and $3.80 for Bran-Firm at $14 to $15, in bulk, outside, shorts $18 to $18.50. Wheat-Ontario-No. 2 white at 70c and red at 69c, outside. Wheat-Maniloba-Firmer, at 801/2 for No. 1 northern and 78c for No. 2, lake ports. Oats-New white is 30c for August and 31c for September shipment, outside; old firm at 36c to 36%c. Toronto. Barley-No. 3 extra 44c, No. 3 42c, out-Rye-59c outside. Peas-70c outside. 59c, at Ontario points.

COUNTRY PRODUCE. Butter-Holds firm in tone. Receipts continue light and the demand for goods Creamery, prints 24c to 25c do solids 22c to 23c Dairy, prints 20c to 00c Cheese-Holds firm in tone at 13c for large and 13%c for twins.

Eggs-Dealers are axious to dispose of holdings and prices are easy in tone get in provisions, and water again is in fear of which many families are leav-Potatoes-Deliveries were not heavy and prices hold firm at 70c to 75c per

Baled Hay-Prices all round are unchanged at $9 to $9.50 per ton for No. pleasure of losing, for I seem to bear a | 1 in car lots here; old is firm at $10.50 for No. 1 and $7.50 for No. 2 mixed. Baled Straw-Unchanged and quiet at Though to be sure there is something $5.50 to $6 per ton for car lots on track

MONTREAL MARKETS.

Montreal, Aug 28.-Grain - There is an improved demand for oats for local ness was done, with sales of car lots the people of the city to points to the of No. 2 white at 38c, No. 3 at 37c, and north and south. No. 4 at 36c per bushel, ex-store. Flour-Manitoba-Spring wheat patents, $1.50 to $4.70; strong bakers', $4 extra, in bags, $1.25 to $1.50. -Rolled Oats-$2.20 to $2.25 in bags. Cornmeal-$1.40 to $1.45 per bag; sum. granulated, $1.65.

Manitoba bran, in bags, $18 to $19; shorts empowered to shoot on the spot. The ture. Beans-Prime pea beans in carload ergy in the protection of property. lots, $1.45 per bushel; hand-picked, $1 per bushel.

Peas-Boiling, in broken lots, $1.20 per bushel. Potatoes-40c to 50c per bag of 40 Honey-White clover, in comb. 13c to 13%c; buckwheat 10c to 11c per tb. sec-

BUFFALO MARKETS.

Buffalo, Aug. 28. - Flour - Steady Wheat-Spring, nothing done: Winter strong; No. 2 white, 75c. Corn-Easier; cable despatch filed late on Tuesday No. 2 yellow, 56%c; No. 2 corn, 55%c. night by the agent at Valparaiso of Oats-Steady; No. 2 white, 34 to 34%c. Huth & Co., says that slight shocks was standing near, witnessed the first Canal freights-Steady.

NEW YORK WHEAT MARKET. New York, Aug. 28.-Wheat, spot easy; No. 2 red, 77%c elevator; No. 2 red, 79c f.o.b. affoat; No. 1 northern Duluth, 86c

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

Toronto, Aug. 28.—The run of cattle was decidedly heavier than it has been Export Cattle-Choice at $4.65 to $4.which Bennett reached, but on looking bulls, $3.50 to $3.75; bulls, light, $3.25 Butcher Cattle-Choice are quoted at

Stockers and Feeders-Stockers, choice l

$4.20 to $4.35. Milch Cows-Prices are unchanged at at $6.25 to $7.

BURGLARS LOOT POST OFFICE. Professional Thieves Pay Ridgeway lower prices.

A despatch from Ridgeway, Ont says: Thursday night burglars pried open the front door of the post-office here and blew the safe up, taking about building, but the safe was badly wreck. ed. I. L. Pound also missed his horse and buggy on Friday morning, and he at work, spreading Socialistic doctrines, at once communicated with the chief of police at Fort Erie, and received word that his outfit was there. It is supposed ment. At a certain stage of the inter- that the burglars drove to Fort Erie and view Dr. Jameson promised food and crossed over to Buffalo. The blowing shelter to the genuine unemployed, but up of the safe was no doubt done by a recent law practically drove all forafter the deputation had gone two or professionals, as there are houses on Mahala Lewis, a negress, said to be chiefly of a low type of colored hooli- many times. Mrs. Lewis was a native opened on Thursday for the first time condition which is curtailing the opera-"Dash it, Jennico, you might have let gans. Order was restored in the even- of Virginia, and was unable to read or since the earthquake. Telephone and tions of the coal mines, and to some Damage By Earthquake Estimated to be From $25,000,000 to $50,000,000.

A despatch from Valparaiso says: ago has been re-established, but the From the plaza de la Victoria as far as bnes are almost exclusively used by the the plaza in the section called Las De- Government officials. The city is still licias four-lifths of the houses are com- under martial law, traffic ceases at pletely destroyed, and the remaining 6 o'clock in the evening, and everybody fifth are badly damaged. From the is compelled to take some part in the Plaza de la Victoria down to the Custom work, under the direction of the Min-House only about one-third of the houses isters of the Interior and Industry, assustained damage. The banks and the sisted by the local Government officials Corn-American No. 2 yellow 58% to- customs warehouses were not damaged, it restoring normal conditions here. As With the exception of Espiriti Santo all a first instalment the Government has the city's churches were destroyed, as appropriated $4,000,000 for the relief of were the hospitals and the theatres. The the destitute. The Custom house was number of dead is more than two thou- reopened on Thursday, and traffic by sand. The offices of the Havas agency, water and by rail has been resumec.

> The tragic scenes of the San Francisco disaster were reproduced here. There was the fight against fire, the lack of all the cemeteries were destroyed. A water, and robbery and pillage.

ALL THE FIRES OUT.

The authorities now are beginning to utmost in order to avoid an epidemic being supplied. All the fires are out, ing the city. The first shock lasted four minutes and a half, and the second two minutes. Most of the houses were thrown down by the second shock. Estimates of the company to facilitate the raising of the damage range from $25,000,000 to $50,- money necessary to reconstruct the 000,000. "he Almendral quarter has city.

been absolutely destroyed. lack of food is not yet serious.

ANOTHER ESTIMATE.

The loss of life by the earthquake of formed, in its vicinity. to $4.20, and straight rollers, $3.90 to Thursday, August 16, probably will not Valpariso is still without street lights $4.10 in wood; in bags, $1.85 to $1.95; be short of 3,000, while the properly at night, but order is maintained, thanks destroyed is estimated at $100,000,000. to the severity of the authorities, who and possibly is far in excess of that continue shooting all persons who are

Millfeed-Ontario-Bran, in bags, $18 utmost severity by the military, police the time of the earthquake are the Pato $19; shorts, in bags, $20 to $21.50; and armed citizens' patrols, who are lace of Justice and the Maritime Prefecauthorities are showing the utmost en-With the first terrible shock of the earthquake buildings collapsed, their walls falling with tremendous noise. The inmates in many cases were unable to escape. The shock was followed almost immediately by a fierce storm, the Crazed by jealousy, Henry Anderson, wind prostrating walls that had been a m---e-aged man, employed in the weakened by the earthquake, and these yard of the Parry Sound Lumber Comtion; extract, 7c to 7½c; buckwheat, 5½c. broke trolley wires, which flashed in- pany, on Tuesday night shot his wife

SLIGHT SHOCKS CONTINUE.

A despatch from London says: A

AN OPTIMISTIC PREDICTION.

Adolfo Ortusear, Consul-General for She turned round facing her infuriated f.o.b., afloat; No. 1 hard, 79%c f.o.b. Chile, said on Wednesday that he be- husband as he advanced upon her. Then lieved Valparaiso would be rebuilt with- taking deliberate aim Anderson fired in six months, and that trade would be again, the bullet striking her in the completely re-established before that centre of the forehead, kiling her intime. The Chilean representative's op- stantly. timistic prediction as to trade was favorably seconded by several merchants committed was a new one and had who do business with the stricken city, evidently been recently purchased. though they did not believe that the damage done by earthquake and fire been happy for a long time past, and could be repaired in the time set by the he is reputed to have been cruel and

HORRIFYING DETAILS.

A despatch from Santiago says: Some $4.40 to $4.75; medium to good, $4.25 of the horrifying details of the terrible to keep the peace after he had repeatedbefore he reached a white man's abode to $4.40; inferior to medium, $3 to $4; disaster came here on Wednesday in bulls, $2.25 to $3; cows $2.50 to $3.50; the first mail that has been received fitful and violnt temper and subject to since the earthquake began. Fifty chil- fits of violent jealousy. Two children, ment here at ten to-night, and it wants daughter of some Duke of Alsatia, his little retail shop "What has hapDirty Condition of Prussian Bakeries to $2.40; bulls, $1.75 to $2.25; short-keep ing to rescue those in the ruins, were dren in one house were crushed and feeders, $4.35 to $4.50; heavy feeders killed by another shock, which brought the remainder of the building down. The only light on the first night of the earthquake was that thrown by the Provincial Inspector Rogers Has Gone Calves-Prices are easier at 3c to 6c feeble rays-from the ships in the harbor. The street were filled with wild. Sheep and Lambs-Export ewes are shricking people. The crash of falling quoted 10c to 25c per cwt, higher at $4.- buildings on all sides and the noise of Inspector Rogers will investigate the 50 to $4.75, and bucks 10c up at $3.50 breaking glass was a terrific din. The Haileybury fire on behalf of the Atterto $3.75. Lambs are about 15c higher, next morning brought a terrible sight, ney-General's Department. Hon, J. J. Bodies lay exposed on all sides. No Foy received a private telegraph mes-Hogs-$6.90 per cwt. for selects and one has had the time or inclination to sage from Haileybury Tuesday to the President Riesco has sent a telegram fire inquest. The Attorney-General's to the Rothschilds, declining their offer Department is strongly possessed of the and aid, saying that Chili can rise un- idea that the destructive blaze at Haileyassisted. Congress is awaiting further bury was of incendiary origin. information as to the extent of the dis- The Provincial Government may be aster before acting on the proposition called on to assist the people of the for raising a loan. Commercial inter- burned town, which was the place -f ests are opposed to a scheme for the suspension of payments, claiming that the proposed issue of 80,000,000 pesos said to be a scarcity of lumber for re-aire, Mr. Edwards, lost 40,000,600 pesos (about $15,000,000) alone. Small islands have appeared in Val- assistance has been authorized by Hon. paraiso Bay, and incoming ships con- J. J. Foy, Acting Premier, where needed. firm the reports of depressions on the and the conditions at Haileybury will to

The Chilian insurance companies will sustain heavy losses by the disaster, as mg the payment of losses. The Mayor has forbidden the erection oughfares. PLAGUE IS FEARED.

telegraph communication with Santi- extent also of the fron and steel r although seriously damaged, is still be- The post service is also in operation. One of the greatest difficulties encountered by the authorities is the burial of the bodies recovered from the ruins, as the temporary morgue heaps of coffinhave accumulated. The work of recovering the bodies is being pushed to the COMPANY TO RECONSTRUCT.

A movement is on foot to organize

All the provinces of the north and The people are still camping on the south, which have not suffered from surrounding hills and the streets and the earthquake, are sending supplies of plazas, and are calm and courage re- food and money to the stricken cities turning. The declaration is made that and towns. The Department of Public 80,000 persons will leave the city. The Works at Santiago has appropriated $100,000 for the construction of sheds to Telegraphic communication with San- shelter the refugees from Valparaiso tiego was re-established on Tuesday, and elsewhere, who continue to arrive consumption, and a fair amount of busi- Several steamers are engaged in moving at the Chilean capital in large numbers. The railroad line between Limache and Quilpue, in addition to suffering severaly from the earth shocks of August 16, has several enormous crevices, newly caught committing robberies.

Order is being maintained with the Among the buildings which fell at

MURDER AND SUICIDE. Parry Harbor Man Used Ilis Revolver

With Terrible Effect. A Parry Sound, Ont., despaich says: cessantly. The second shock was even dead at the door of a neighbor's house in Parry Harbor, and then returning to his own house placed the revolver to his head and ended his life with a bul-

A relative of the dead woman, who continue, and that further large fires act in the tragedy. Anderson fired twice, both bullets taking effect. The woman was entering the door of the neighbor's house when the first shot A despatch from New York says: was fired, striking her in the shoulder.

> The weapon with which the deed was Anderson's family relations have not overbearing towards his wife. He had been at one time arrested for beating and ill-treating her, and on one occa-

> > TO HOLD FIRE INOUEST.

a boy and a girl, are left orphans as a result of the double tragedy.

id Haileybury. A Toronto despaich says: Previncial $6.65 for lights and fats, fed and water- remove them, and they have been there effect that an investigation should be ed. Dealers say the prospects are for since. Many squares are now piled held, and in consequence he has decided to have Inspector Rogers hold a residence for nearly all those engaged in Cobalt mining operations. There is building purposes, and the Government may be asked for special and immediate umber concessions in the new Onlario district. It is understood that special

LABOR SCARCE IN NOVA SCOTIA.

eign companies out of the country. Curtailing Operations of Coal Mines and Steel Works, XX

A despatch from Ottawa says: Mr.

inquired into by the Government.

of tents in the streets and public thor- John McDougald, Commissioner of Customs, has returned from a tour of inspection of the leading ports of the Maritime Provinces. Mr. McDougald A despatch from Valparaiso, Chilisays: confirms the reports already received

ONI