Who Can Beat This?—Postmaster Vance left a few vines of peas at the Mirror Office on Monday, that measured 8 ft. in length. This is a remarkable growth considering the dry season and if any one can beat it, why bring along your vines and we will put them on exhibition alongside of those now displayed in the Mirror's show window. Mr. Vance has lots of vines 8 ft. long. We might state that we have a good place to exhibit big potatoes, pumpkins &c. Bring 'em along.

"Couldn't Have Been Better."
The Methodist S. S. Excursion on Tuesday was a pronounced success. From all sides we could hear the happy and contented excursionists congratulating themselves on the weather, the selection of the trip, and most of all, pleased with their own wisdom in availing themselves of this splendid opportunity for seeing the beautiful and picturesque waters of the celebrated Kawartha Lakes. "Couldn't have been better," was the unanimous decision for the day.

Our train left the Millbrook Station sharp on time, making it necessary for a few belated passengers to lay aside their dignity and run, or else go home and eat their lunch under their own vine and fig tree.

We took the boat at Lakefield, went through the Locks at Young's Point, from thence on through Clear Lake and Stoney Lake, cruising about among the beautiful islands, enjoying the varying scenery, now rugged and grotesque, and then again softened and graced by nature's own mantle of moss and vine and waving boughs.

We disembarked at Buleigh Falls, where we spent a pleasant dinner hour, then on again through Love's Locks to Buckhorn. On our return we took another route and were thus enabled to take our tea at Mt. Julian, from thence on to Lakefield.

The success of the day was largely due to the members of the Band who discoursed sweet music to us, and also to the care and forethought of our Superintendent, Mr. R. W. Clarke, who spent the day in an endeavor to make everybody comfortable and happy.

The Millbrook Methodist Sabbath School are to be congratulated upon having such an up to date Superintendent, indefatigable in his labors for their welfare, both temporal and spiritual.

Mr. Wm. Grant, proprietor of the Port Hope Times, was in town today on business and gave The Mirror a call. Mrs. Grant accompanied him here.

A very large congregation assembled in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday evening. The Pastor preached a forceful sermon on the "Power of God," which was listened to with rapt attention. During the taking of the offertory Mrs. F. Markham, of Toronto, sang in good voice that beautiful solo, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought." Mrs. Markham was an entire stranger to Millbrook, but should she return in the near future, she will be greeted with appreciation by the community.

Mrs. Markham also assisted the Methodist Church Choir at the morning service. Her solo was greatly appreciated by those who were present.

One of the worst electrical storms that have visited this part occurred on Tuesday night. The chimney on Rev. W. C. Allen's house was struck, and it badly shattered. There was a strong smell of sulphur pervading the house in the morning. We have heard of no other damage being done in town or immediate vicinity.

OBITUARY.
Died at her home in Millbrook, yesterday morning, little Francis Geraldine Donnelly, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Donnelly, aged 10 months.
"And Oh, when weary, may we be so bleat,
And snuk like the innocent child to rest,
And feel ourselves clasped to the Infinite breast,"
Thus over a happy home the shadow of a little grave has fallen; and, as another has said, "it is wonderful how long a shadow a little grave can throw." This beautiful baby life was so very precious, so fraught with blessing to her parents that she seemed a flower of paradise permitted to bloom for a brief season by their side, then recalled to its native skies, leaving the earth road for them dark and lonely indeed. And when the me messenger came from the unseen lands to claim the dainty darling as his own:
She only crossed her little hands,
She only looked more meek and fair,
We parted back her silken hair,
We wove the roses round her brow,
White buds, the summer's drifted snow,
Waft her from head to foot in flowers,
And thus she went out of this world of ours.
The Mirror joins with a large circle of friends in extending sincere sympathy to the bereaved parents in their irreparable loss.
