assistance in introducing d goods we give, withine Household Furniture. Watches, etc. Your Epportunity to ur Home Without Any ight. Don't wait. Send catalogue to-day.

ONIAL SALES CO oronto, Ont.

. This is a specialty with the ERICAN DYEING CO. by post and we are sure to salisfy 3 Cox 168, Montreal.

OIL ECONOMY arnia Vhite

to buy the more expensive OD BURNER is used KEPT CLEAN. BIG LIGHT-THREE OR GAS JETS IN ONE-

ueen BEAUTIFUL LICHT

gmi picest Oil Made is 'S ASTRAL ale by Dealers.

CITY OIL CO., LIMITED

THE RESERVE TO THE RE teaches a select school ooking over the copy-Fanny, aged eleven, envelope addressed to ly. "I hope, Fanny," er, holding up the enthis does not contain "Why, what an Fanny: "I have outfoolishness years and

F SUBSTITUTES

a the System .- Parmoroots and herbs upon many instances that purily the blood, and norbid accumulations

They are easy to oung lady and her nother were walking together when they nen whom the moow much your dayyou!" exclaimed sely you resemble exclaimed the thich of these two n think was invited

ner Cough d to get rid of and the nd to neglect. mption he Lung tly and surely-stop hen the lungs and 50c and $1.00 a bottle.

VOL. I7. NO. 15. $1 per annum.

Durham and Victoria Standard

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1905.

C. W. RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

The....

Laird's Secret

CHAPTER VII.

The cause of this sudden and embarrassed pause was a young girl. The old man nodded, and, taking who, clad in a dress of plain home- a candle from the table, led the way spun cloth, stood upon the dining- slowly, and calmly to a dismal room hearth, gazing abstractedly to- chamber at the top of the house. wards the door. As the young man | "Mind and blaw oot the light," appeared, she bowed slightly, but were his parting injunctions. he, without returning her salutation, continued to stand and stare stupid- "We hae nane. The laird forbids ly at her.

She was quite a girl, not more ye want to burn us a' in our beds?" than eighteen years of age, with By noon the next day Edward eyes of azure blue and a skin like Linne found himself closeted with his alabaster. Her figure was slight, uncle. but full of lissome curves, which The laird of Linne was now a man were revealed by the clinging folds of about sixty years, with ill-health of her tightly-fitting dress. But for written in every line of his countenher delicate hands and Strangely ance. He lay back on an old tapwhite complexion, she might have estry couch in his bedroom, and fixed been taken for some peasant maiden. his eyes upon his nephew's face, as Her hair was bound up in a simple if to read his very soul. her neck and over her bosom.

When the young man had made his appearance she had stood calm and self.possessed; but as that curious gaze remained riveted upon her from the doorway, the hot blood suffused her face and neck, and she quickly turned away.

young man, stepping forward; then, old man, peevishly. "I ken your I think I see him now! Had I done me, and let me try to sleep." ded. quickly, "Allow me to intro- What I want is to make you prom- be kneeling here this day, and all I and kissed him; then, turning to the turn, he was disappointed. The men are; but I have come to years threw himself back upon his pillow, encountered Edward Linne upon the and, with a cold inclination of the ried your mother; and yet—and yet Marjorie. "You will make yourself landscape. He met Willie's scornful Receipts are increasing.

Edward Linne was not the sort of The young man laughed uneasily. young man to be easily put out. Al- "I suppose I shall succumb to my vray said so, and he was right. 1 age, he knew as much of life as "Say ye so?" said his uncle, grim- heart, and the bairn upon my knee; most men of fifty, but this sort of ly. "You mean-when you wear my but I was o'er proud, proud as made him feel anything but at his For a time the old man lay lookease. Had he been left alone with ing at the fire, then he turned again a bonnie bairn, weel-faced and comethe girl, he confidently believed that to his nephew. he would have soon succeeded in "Edward Linne," he said, "it was a voice like running water. Had he breaking through the ice. As it was never with my consent that they lived, he would have been a man o' he felt that his conduct was being filled your head with all this folly. men!"

girl's wonderful self-possession. Who numberless follies, and was told that do an act of justice; and, sick with diphtheria or typhoid. could she be, so calmly and so cold- they regarded you as my heir, I despair, she went away to join her The number of deaths from all ly to do the honors of the house? laughed in my sleeve, and used to folk in Canada. I would have called causes was 1,871, a slight increase bag. She was dressed little better than a think how bravely I would deceive her back, but it was o'er late. Twas over the total for July last year, Pearl Hominy-$1.85 to $1.90 in peasant, yet her manners were those them. But when your father died, the year o' the great storm, and was 1,840. Smallpox, 8 cases, no hags of 58 pounds. of a somewhat reserved young lady. and broke the shameful chain which the ship was lost, with every soul deaths; scarlet fever cases, 2 deaths; Cornmeal—$1.45 to $1.50 per bag. Could his uncle, the laird, have mar- heart was kinder towards his son!" He paused again, and, stretching measles, 85 cases, 3 deaths; whoop- $14.50 to $15; shorts, $19 to $20;

uncle, and they had never been on I was willing to regard you as my very good terms. Some days before, relation by blood. Your subsequent he had been summoned from Paris, conduct was told to me, and once where he was then amusing himself, or twice I was on the point of hood was upon me, at the time Vanderbilt's Project for Quicker to come at once to the Castle, to striking your name for ever from when the curse fell! An Edinburgh which in all his life before he had my will, but in the end I refrained. artist painted it for five pounds and ing dinner. All the young man's at- you have no affection for me or and bigger. Lonesome years foltempts at small talk proved unavail- mine. I know it's only the hope of lowed. I had no friend, no man to ing. The girl was cold as an icicle, my death which brings you here whom I could open up my heart, but sorry when at length the ordeal ly, "is it so hard to trust me? Can something to keep and rear incame to an end, and the girl rose you not believe that when I tell you stead." quietly from her seat, and with an I repent, I speak the truth?" icy bow left him.

served water at dinner, and I am night before.

turned the old man, grimly.

years." me who the young lady is who sat down with me at dinner?" the reply.

doing here?" "That's name o' my business," re- face with a curious smile.

curious, ask the laird!" old man left the room.

Linne. "They may well call it a shifty eye and a treacherous heart, cried Marjorie, "All I want is to Castle Hunger." Mutton broth, boil- I'm thinking; eh, Marjorie? Did remain with you, and be your ed mutton and carrots, for the gentle you se how he glowered when you nurse." board, and not a drop of wine. The came creeping in? He's wondering, "Poor lassie! poor lassie!" mutold miser! Well, I suppose I must I'll swear, whether you are kith tered the laird. "You've grown

He suited the action to the word, thing?" and began to smoke. He had not "Nothing," answered Marjorie. bright as the mistletoe-berry. My been so occupied many minutes, "We have hardly spoken to each own daughter could not seem closer says:—Three hundred representatives you put oot that tobacco? The choked me with the sumes of his to- daughter." smell o' the filthy reek is filling the bacco, the graceless loon! Yet, for "Ay, ay, ay! And you shall be a Province of Saratov and Samara,

"Here, show me my room," he cried; "I'l go to bed."

MILLBROOK AND

"Stop, give me some lucifers!" lucifer matches intil the hoose. Dae blood in you ever to do much good God's will, to the bottom of the and point his ill face southward, to white kerchief was laid lightly round in the world," he said. "A young sea!" lad who gambles and bets and has The giel looked at him in wonder. "I sent for him,:' said the laird, likely ever to be a credit to his fire.

lip, tapped the floor impatiently, with his foot, and said nothing. "I beg your pardon," said the face to deny these things," said the Marjorie: The golden-hair'd laddie! is ill to trouble a dying man. Leave "I am glad to see you lack the

"Of course, uncle, I will promise, If by this information he expected said the young man, eagerly; "I would be his own." to ascertain the girl's identity in re- have been wild, I know; most young seat at the head of the table. and laird, eagerly, "do you ever intend "I must speak! The secret's smiled and nodded to Marjorie as he quietly but keenly watched by the and made you live a useless life be- "But what became of him, sir?" solemn-faced servant who stood be- cause of my wealth, mind that! asked Marjorie. "Did he die?" hind the girl's chair, and he was When my brother married your mo- "Drown'd, drown'd! Moth r and ther, he was dead to me. When I son went down, with a curse on me! fatal. The disease claimed more vic-He was staggered, too, by the heard your wild extravagances and I betrayed my promise; I refused to time, in fact, than scarlet fever,

It was years since he had met his of what your father once was to me. prime of life, with a dark, forbidding

"Weel, weel, I will try to believe jorie. "Who the devil is she?" he solilo- it; yet your past life promises but "Your own father and mother were quized, when he found himself alone, ill, I'm thinking. There, go now,"

"The laird," returned the ser- eyes lit up with such a light of af- hour." vant, with a snort, "allows nae fection as made the young man Tears were streaming down the ther's?" Then, without waiting for vard!"

CHAPTER VIII.

"Sandie says he asked for strong "I am your daughter, sir, am I Petersburg met at Terijoki, Finland, H "The laird's compliments, and will drink last night, and he nearly not? Indeed, I love you like a recently. One of the speakers dedo lights and fats .. 6.25 than water, and he's the heir of it. But oh, Marjorie, if I had seen sands of peasants, with arms, were the mails between Canada and Great the disappointment caused by the of lava. Deep rumblings are heard in seems, how would you like him for a "For a husband!" cried Marjorie, better and stronger already." "The hand of Death is on me: the blood runs cold as quicksilver at lie Macgillvray, as worn and seventy years. I'll soon be lying in begone, as ragged and wild, my grave." "No. no!"

"Ay, and why not? You are a lonely lass, and he will be the laird the fold? Who comes here like a "But you will not go! You are birthright?"

not ripe, do you think I would be upon him, his figure was have been a sinful man. Thirty and musical, his manner full years ago, I was graceless as you strength and power. young limmer, but I have repented; "Is that you, Willie Macgillvray? and if there is hope for me, there said the laird, nervously. may be hope for him as weel. Let brings you at this hour?" that stand. You ken, Marjorie, I

"I know that, sir," "But do you know all? You know have seen him!" snood, her robe was simply cut, and "You've o'er much of your father's and bone of my bone was cast, by inherit? Let me show him the door, > disgraceful amours (ah, ye see I His face was set like granite, but sharply. "He will stay here till I know!) at five-and-twenty, is not his eyes were dilated and shone like bid him go."

> "There was a lass as bonnie as but at a look from Marjorie he de-The young man colored, bit his May morning. She was a poor pea- sisted. Falling back upon his pilguiled her under promise of marri- hand towards the door-I have age been a saving man), the chamber.

to dispel her momentary confusion, "So had your father when he mar- "Po not speak of all this," said and indolently surveying the dreary grawing me, Marjorie! Twas a went by. judgment upon me! Willie Macgill-Herod; and now, like him, I'm eaten An Unusual Outbreak of Great ried, after all, and have a family, He paused a moment, and cenout a lean hand, pointed to a rude ing cough, 80 cases, 21 Manitoba bran in bags, at S17 to justment will be arranged later. John Monkman, of Unionville, will Lose on Eve "I excused your follies for the sake bed; the portrait of a man in the consumption, 164 cases, 144 deaths. Hay-No. 1, $8.50 to $9 per ton ter retains the road, are to be al-"Look yonder, Marjorie! That and declined conversation. For now; but, if I gain your promise of amendment, if I thought that the day, ten years syne, he came to me, certaining the best locality to confat the fat back, $19.25 to $20.75; confat bac Altogether, he was not at all "Uncle," said the young man, gent- under the sea, he said; 'here's

"Yes, I remember," sighed Mar-

"She isn't a wife, for she doesn't he said, waving his thin hands im- world. The moment I saw ye, my says:—A general strike has been Butter—Choicest creamery, 221c to framing of the treaty, says no sec- going through last week. Another "Sour milk! Nice lively liquor in was lying, and took her seat on the wish to stay, I inclined to keep streets. this climate. Have you no wine?" small footstool by his side, her blue you; and stayed you have till this wine or fermented liquor intil the wonder still more. Then, as the old girl's cheeks. Her eyes were full of Baron Komura Has Accepted hoose. He's been teetotal these ten man again signalled for him to de- dreamy retrospection, all her face | part, he quietly moved from the full of sorrow. - Stooping forward, "Humph! Perhaps you can inform room, and left the two together. the old man patted her hand, not ungently, as he said-

"She's just Miss Marjorie." was No sooner were they left alone has been a cheerless life, I ken, here frid Laurier, the Canadian Premier, Export cattle, choice..$4.40 "Dry your tears, Marjorie! It cepted an invitation from Sir Wil- tle Market to-day. than the manner of the old man alone with me; but all is for the to visit Canada on his way to San do bulls . "But who is she? what is she changed, and, taking the young best. You have had schooling from Francisco to take passage for Japan. girl's hand in his, he looked into her the deminie, and Willie Macgillvray Most of the transcontinental jourhas taught you the Latin and moral ney will be made over the Canadian man. "If you're "It's an ill task, Marjorie," he philosophy, and you have a tongue Pacific, with the Japanese pleniposaid, "waiting for dead men's shoon. like a lady. And a lady you shall tentiaries as the Dominion Covern-And, with another grim bow, the Hew like you you slip of my bro- be, when I am lying in the kirk- ment's guests. Mr. Takahira, Baron and kin. Have you told him no- round my heart like a mistletoe Tens of Thousands Armed in Rusto my heart, Marjorie."

hoose, and the laird can scent it in all that, Marjorie, blood is thicker lady yet; I have set my heart upon Russia, saying that tens of thou-still fixed with a curious expression drown'd! Will I meet him, I'm upon her. Wondering, when the sea gives up its LEADING MARKETS He lay back upon his cushions, moaning and muttering to himself. Suddenly he started, and Marjorie sprang to her feet, for a voice in the

"Who comes here like a wolf intil thief in the night, to steal my boy's Standing erect and bareheaded the middle of the chamber was Wilever, and covered now with snows and frosts of many years. But "But ay, Marjorie! But if I was though old age had set its marks gathered? Now, listen, Marjorie. I straight and hale, his voice deep

> "I came to see the limmer who would steal the birthright," was the reply. "He's down yonder, and nothing! 'Tis a secret that rests 'You mean my nephew Edward? till this day between Willie Macgill- Weel, he is my nearest kin." vray and me. Years before you "The hawk lies wounded on the came to this house, flesh of my flesh ground, and the corby-crow would > the land whence he came." Willie was about to speak again, sant; I was a rich man; and I be- lows, Mossknow cried, waving his age. She bore one bairn, a son, "Go! leave me-both of you! It Creamery, prints ........... 22c to 23c have, all I have saved and kept (for mendicant, drew him gently from Passing downstairs in silence, they at 111c to 131c per lb.

threshold, leaning against the porch at 18c to 19c.

(To be Continued.)

FATAL WHOOPING COUGH. Malignity in Ontario.

usual outbreak of whooping cough of great malignity, the total number of cases in the Province being eighty, with twenty-one of them

TUNNEL UNDER NIAGARA.

Transit Through Canada. West through Canada. Civil en- 9c; in 60-pound tins, 7c to 8c.

TROOPS PATROL STREETS.

heart went out to you; for you had brought about here by the order for 22½c; under-grades, 21½c to 22c; ond treaty will be made here. Later harvester, Frank Manners, slipped As he spoke, he touched a small my son's clear skin, and blue eyes, mobilization of troops. No factories dairy at 18c to 20c. He rang the bell, asked the ser-handbell, which stood beside him, and golden hair. But at first I was are running, port loading has been Ashes-Firsts, $5.02\frac{1}{2}$ to $5.07\frac{1}{2}$; tiated. Meantime a prok sion will Port Arthur and had his foot badly vant if his uncle would see him that and almost immediately, in answer mad with Willie Macgillyray, and discontinued, and the street rail- seconds, $4.55 to $4.60; first pearls, be inserted in the present treaty, as cut and mangled. He was placed in negative. The laird had already re- the dark doorway the fair, cold face door. 'Who is she?' I asked, 'The Steam railroad communication has of the young girl who had graced the bairn of a better man than you or been interrupted and there are no "By the way," he said, "you only dinner-table with her presence the me, the rogue replied; one Alexan- newspapers issued. The arrival of somewhat thirsty. Can I have She bowed to the young man as me, and died a minister o' the kirk.' tricts has added to the confusion as steady. Wheat-Winter, (asy; No. 2) der Glenny, who was at college wi' reservists from the neighboring dis- Buffalo, Sept. 5.-Flour-Quiet and other. coldly as she had done on the pre- Then you began to sob and cry, well as to the possibilities of disor- red, 84c; No. 2 white, 81c. Corn-"Ye can hae some soor milk," receding night, but when she reached fear'd of my frowning face; and that der. The situation is growing tense, Light demand; No. 2 yellow, 59½c; A despatch from Tokio says: Tokio A Melbourne dispatch states that, the couch whereon the laird of Linne pleased me, and, since ye did not and many soldiers are patrolling the No. 2 corn, 584c. Oats—Stronger heard of the peace at midnight on speaking on the Government propos-

Laurier's Invitation.

A despatch from Portsmouth, N. Toronto, Sept. 5.-There was an played on every and the slightest oc- rived for Australia to frankly aban-H., says:-Baron Komura has ac- unusually heavy run at the City Cat- casion. "Pleasant quarters!" muttered her to reply, he continued, "He has "Do you think I care for that?" his official duties as Japanese Min-Komura's colleague, will return to

RISING OF PEASANTS.

sian Provinces. A despatch from St. Petersburg I

Toronto, Sept. 5 .- Wheat-Ontario -Sales of new No. 2 white are reported at 76c, with 75c to 751c for new No. 2 red, Old is at 77c bid. Wheat-Manitoba-No. 1 northern $1.02, No. 2 northern, 99c. and No. 3 northern, 84c to 85c.

Flour-Ontario-$3.10 for 90 per cent. patents, buyers' sacks, east or west. Manitoba unchanged First patents are quoted by the two big companies at $5.30 to $5.40, second patents $5 to $5.10, and bakers' at $4.90 to $5.

Millfeed-Ontario bran $11.50 to $12 per ton in car lots at outside at Torento and equal points. Oats-Sales of No. 2 new are reported at 281c low freight for ex-according to quality, at outside easier at 62c for No. 3 yellow Toronto, and 621c for No. 2. Peas-65c at outside points. Rolled Oats-For car lots in barrels $4.75 on track here, in begs $4.50; 25c more for broken lots here and 40c outside.

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

Butter-Holds firm on an active will therefore obtain as an indirect export demand. do solids ...... 21c to 21½c Dairy Ib. rolls, good to choice ...... 18c to 20c do medium ..... 17c to 18c do tubs, good to choice 17c to 18c do inferior ..... 15c to 16c Cheese-Quotations are unchanged

Potatoes-55c to 60c per bushel. Baled Hay-No. 1 timothy is sell-for car lots on track here.

MONTREAL MARKETS.

Montreal. Sept. 5.—Flour—Mani- asked Russia to bind herself not to to impose this aim, it is considered Komura has agreed to the immedi-A despatch from Toronto says:- winter wheat patents, $4.80 to $4.- the railroad to the money. In addi-The returns to the Registrar-Gener- 90, and straight rollers, $4.45 to tion to turning over the money ob- 11 o'clock on Thursday night Mr.

> New crop oats are quoted at 37c to changing the gauge. 38c for No. 2, and at 36c to 37c for No. 3. Rolled Oats-$2.40 to $2.42 per

WHERE RUSSIA SCORES.

3.00 and, above all, it is understood that

2.25 the Emperor was greatly averse to

3.25 ing all the newspapers except the 6.00 Kokumin decided to display flags at 10.00 half-mast when the official announce-

6.50 defer extended comment upon the 50.00 further bloodshed.

5.50 ment is made.

of the system of Chinese Imperial ments of the details by the two el; No. 3, 361c, new crop.

called the "granary" of the province, pure lard, 10%c to 11c; kettle rendered, 11c to 12c, according to quanorthward. lity; hams, 12c 13c to 14c, according to size; bacon, 13c to 14c; fresh Strike Follows Order for the Mob- alive, $7 to $7.25, mixed lots. killed abattoir hogs, $10 to $10.25;

BUFFALO GRAIN MARKET. asked. Canal freights-Steady.

- LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Dutte	0.00
do medium	3.00
Go light	3.00-
do coms	3 00
Butchers' picked	4.25
do choice	4.00
do medium	3.50
do light	3.00
do Duils	1.75
Stockers, choice	3.00
do common	2.50
do bulls	2.00
dilch cows, choice	-20.00
do common	20.00
Sheep, export ew	es., 4.00
do bucks	3.00
do culls	3.00
ambs, per cwt.	5.50
alves, each	2.00
do per cwt	3.50
logs, selects	6.75

my son. The bonnie laddie, flesh o' organizing for a movement to be Britain will be renewed with the Al- agreement is deepening. There have the interior of the crater, and lava

BREADSTUFFS.

of Arrangements Regarding the Eastern Railway.

A despatch from Portsmouth, N. | maintained during the war has dis-H., says:-The Associated Press is appeared, and a term of intense anable to give one additional and in- ti-Government agitation is beginning. The Nichi Nichi Shimbun reteresting as well as important depoints, and shorts $17 to $19. Man- tail in regard to the conditions of diplomatic triumph. It says the peace. Most important of all is the Russians not only adroitly used the fact that the formal recognition of good offices of France and Germany, Japan's possession of the Chinese but also the new Anglo-Japanese port. Old sell at 34c to 35c at out- Eastern Railway below Kuenchengtse potentiaries. treaty, to worst the Japanese plenithe junction of the branch to Kirin, The Chuo points out that the con-Barley-Old and new 37c to 14c, involves a payment by Russia to cessions are mutually humiliating, China of a sum estimated at $75,- and says if anyone is satisfied it is Rye-56c to 57c at outside points. 000,000. This is the Chinese inter- President Roosevelt, he having suc-Corn-Canadian nominal. American est in the road, and for it China ceeded in a difficult job.

The Kokumin says that Japan has at must be remunerated. The question apologetically got what she fought of the ultimate possession of the for. She is especially assured of road is a matter to be settled be- the safety of her national existence. tween Japan and China. Japan can It expresses the nation's gratitude keep the road or surrender it to will and for his efforts to end hostil-China, demanding in return the ities. It says that the question of money paid by Russia to China. If indemnity was important, but was she elects the latter course Japan not sufficient reason for continuing "spoil of war" from Russia the HOW CZAR RECEIVED NEWS.

above-mentioned sum, in addition to The St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Daily Mail professes reimbursement for the cost of mainto describe the manner in which the taining the Russian prisoners of war, | Czar received the news of the confor which Japan will present an clusion of peace. He says: "The itemized bill. Japan is known to despatch was handed to his Majesty have given her word to China not at 11 p.m. Admiral Abasa was to retain the railroad, which was listened until the end was reached. Eggs-Quotations are unchanged really built for strategic purposes. Then he gave a deep sigh of relief But if China prefers the money to and crossed himself, saying: Thanks the railroad Japan could not be ac- be to God. My poor people will cused of bad faith. Inasmuch as Ja- now again become tranquil. He ing at $7.50 per ton on track here pan was desirous even before the ment to the room of the Empress. then hurried with suppressed excitewar of extending the then projected On his return he dispatched a mes-Baled Straw-$5.50 to $6 per ton Corean Railroad, which is already senger to the Dowager Empress, in operation, so as to eventually who is said to have wept from joy connect with the Eastern Chinese and on hearing the news." Chankaikwang roads, and in the ne- JAPAN AGREES TO ARMISTICE.

gotiations which preceded hostilities A despatch from Portsmouth, N. $5.40; strong bakers', $5 to $5.10; likely that she would herself prefer Komura, has agreed to the immedial's Department for the month of $4.60, in wood; in bags, $2.15 to tained from Russia, China, if she Takahira went to Baron Rosen's took the railroad, would therefore room and explained that he and Grain-Old crop oats are selling at have to reimburse Japan for the ex- Baron Komura had received instruc-421c for No. 2 white and at 411c pense incurred by her in restoring tions to arrange terms of an armisfor No. 3 do. per bushel ex store, the road, rebuilding the bridges and tice. Baron Rosen immediately communicated with M. de Witte, and it is probable that a meeting will be held at once for the proclama-Whether it remains in the hands of tion of a complete suspension of hos> railroads, a traffic arrangement must generals upon the battlefield. be made with the part still in the possession of the old Chinese Eastern

Japan or ultimately becomes a part tilities preliminary to the arrange-on the track; No. 2, $7.50 to $8; lowed to have "railroad guards" for says:-The special trains of harvesclover, $6 to $6.25; clover mixed, the protection of the railroad pro- ters from Toronto passed here on perty, and in case of disorder calcu- Thursday. All look like good har-Cats-No. 2, 37c to 38c per bush- lated to threaten its interests, are vest hands. Notwithstanding that mutually to be permitted to send the harvesters has behaved them-Beans-Choice primes, $1.65 to troops, but the number is in no case selves in a gentlemanly manner on never received an invitation. His Weel, I am willing to forget and his keep, and folk say it is weel A despatch from New York says:

Peas—Boiling, none; No. 2, in car
The Vanderbilts have practically do.

Peas—Boiling, none; No. 2, in car
The Vanderbilts have practically do. dinary love of solitude had long your hand in mine and promise never ghaist of the wicked past. Weel, I for the purpose of socuring quicker to soc.

Honey-White clover, in comb, 12c This, likewise, is a very important one of a party of Italian navvies for Scarcely a word was spoken dur
Signature of the signature of gincers representing the Michigan Provisions—Heavy Canadian short still in Russia's possession, would in forehead and seriously injuring him. southern line as far as Kuenchengtse John Monkman of Unionville, on the Miss Maxam of Roland, Manitoba. was also cut by a stone, but her Another important provision is injury was slight, and she proceeded that Japan's succession to the Port west on the train. Trainmen account Arthur and Liaotung leases, which for the acts of the Italians by saying Russia surrenders, is conditional they must have thought they were stated by the Associated Press giv- the hospital at Port Arthur.

ing each country the benefit of the "most-favored-nation" clause in its commercial intercourse with the AUSTRALIA'S DEFENCES.

for higher grades; No. 2 white, 29c; Thursday. The cable despatches an- als to increase the personnel of the No. 2 mixed, 274c. Barley-Offerings, nouncing it were delayed here nine partially paid forces by 1,300 men light. Rye-No. 1, in store, 65c hours. When the receipt of them be- and to store a two years' supply of came known in the forenoon there ammunition, Mr. J. W. McCay, exwas absolutely no demonstration. Minister of Defence, made a power-There was a marked absence of the ful speech in Parliament on Wednesflags which hitherto have been dis- day, declaring that the time had ardon the attempt to provide de-Undoubtedly there is deep disap- fences entirely out of revenue. The pointment. The press and the pub- Commonwealth, he urged, must bor-3.75 lic generally cannot comprehend why row at least three-quarters of a 3.25 the demand for an indemnity was million sterling, immediately, to re-3.50 abandoned. It is rumored that the arm the forts. Australia could no 3.50 Cabinet will resign. The better in- longer burke her responsibilities. The 4.40 formed classes and the farmers gen- speech created a deep impression, and erally express more sober opinions. was approved by all parties. Mr. 3.80 They consider that Baron Komura Deakin, Premier; Senator Playford, acted for the best. The original ob- Minister of Defence, and Mr. Ewing. 3.50 jects of the war have been attained, Vice-President of the Executive Council, are now working out the details in co-operation with the Council of Defence to complete the Upon the announcement of peace a far-reaching effect. Mr. Deakin pro-4.15 flag was hoisted at half-mast at the mises a public statement in a month's time.

VESUVIUS GETS BUSY.

A majority of the newspapers here In Full Eruption, Throwing Out Masses of Lava. conclusion of peace, preferring to A despatch from Naples says:-

oath, Edward Linne threw his cigar "Yes, sir," said Marjorie, uncom- my flesh, bone o' my bone, that made in the Autumn. Cossacks and lan Line for a period of five years been no celebrations whatever. The is flowing down the right side of the