

OR SALE. Reason for selling, illstand in lown; five-year

R. W. O'BRIEN & SON,

ree, Cape Cove, Grand River, , and Charlottetown, P.E.L

BRIDGE & CO., Agents. w York.

great reef in New York

nines produce 300,000

more delightful than Holloway's Corn Cure

it and be convinced.

s tons of coal to make -day the work is done

al IL-Time tests all to man's welfare perproved Dr. Thomas' rom a few thousand y days of its manud has risen so that a is running into the ands of bottles. What ht for must be good. er 8,000,000 persons sickness at an aver-375 a head.

fer spins a web ef ngth of the strands 36--67.

"OSHAWA"

GALVANIZED EEL SHINGLES

MARVEL Whirling Spray The new Vaginal Syringe.

300 sheets of sticky paper

OCERS AND CENERAL STORES et, or 3 packets for 25c. ta whoic season.

CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY OF THE LIMITED.

ses in Cool Latitudes

"Campana," with electric NTREAL ON MONDAYS at September, and fortnightly u, N. S., calling at Quebec, ns, $35, by the new Twin 27th November, Tempera-

ERN, Secretary, Quebec.

Scottish breeds of catilled Angus, Galloway, Vest Highland.

as removed by a single vered no less than nine yearly, worth about thing more annoying r corn stepped upon?

Spain had in 1708 16. rly two centuries later skin disease grows. Scrofuand all eruptions may be Cerate, assisted internally eg, one man is killed s for every million is worthy lives; that at 21/4 miles.

monastic gate in a little-more than an worry, you very naturally lament her burgiarious invader to steal at Less We had no domestic peace while she Tourelles, and bolts and locks were was with us." rarely used. Miss Skipwith was reading | "But she is not to stay away forever, in her parlor, a white Persian cat doz- Conrad. I cannot be separated from ing on a cushioned arm chair beside nov daughter forever. That would be her, some cups and saucers and a black to dreadful." teapot on a tray before her, and the "'Forevere' is a long word," answerrest of the table piled with books. There ed the captain, coolly. "She will come was no sign of Captain Carmichael. | back to us-of course."

MILLBROOK AND OMEMEE MIRROR Durham and Victoria Standard

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1907.

C. W. RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

$1 per annum.

C0000000

CR, A HAPPY MARRIAGE.

CHAPTER XXXIII.—(Continued). "If I had Arion here, and-Rorie, I dice. tthink I could be almost happy," Vixen

VOL. 19. NO. 16.

said to herself, with a dreary smile. "And Rorie!" fast in the barren path of honor; where | ly protested. or hypothetical continent of the south- to brew it for me." ern pole, where she could not have been happy with Roderick Vawdrey? She thought again of Helen Rolleston and her love on the South Sea Island. Ah, what a happy fale was that of the consumptive heroine! Alone, protected, cherished, and saved from death by her devoted lover. Poor Rorie! She knew how well she leved him, now that the wide sea rolled between them, now that she had said him nay, denied her love, and parted from him forever. wood, dimly lit by the young moon. car coiled on the chair beside her. She lived again those marvelous moments-the concentrated bliss and pain of a lifetime. She felt again the strong grasp of his hands, his breath upon her cheek, as he bent over her shoulder. altribute of the female theologian as servatory, or amend the sanitary ar-Again she heard him pleading for the the bird of the goddess.

"I had not loved thee, dear, so well,

Loved I not honor more."

swered before. "His mother despised me," she reality. to know that I am not utterly without It is too dreadful."

the instincts of a gentlewoman."

herself to ask her way. it can't much matter," she thought. me. Miss Skipwith will be deep in her girlhood's friend. universal creed, and Captain Carmi-longing to it." She roamed on till she came to an open seashore-a pretty little harbor surrounded with quaint-looking houses: two or three white villas in fertile gardens, on a raised road; and, dominating go without wishing you good-bye." all the scene, a fine old feudal castle, with keep, battlements, draw-bridge, porticullis, and all that becomes a fort-

This was Mount Orgueil, the castle empty; her faithful little waiting-maid in which Charles Stuart spent a short was dismissed; her dog's deep toned period of his life, while Cromwell was thunder no longer sounded through the ruling by land and sea, and kingly house, baying joyous welcome when hepes were at their lowest ebb. The his mistress came down from her early good old fortress had suffered for its morning ramble in the shrubberies. loyally, for the Parliament sent Admir- Arion had been sent to grass, and was a' Blake, with a fleet, to reduce the re- running wild in fertile pastures, shoebellious island to submission, and less and unfettered as the South Am-Mount-Orgueil had not been strong erican mustang on his native prairie.

Violet went up the sloping path that inhabited; and even they looked blank led to the grim old galeway under the and empty and strange without her. It gloomy arch, and still upward till she was almost as if a whole family had same to a sunny battlement wall above departed. Vixen's presence seemed k the shining sea. The prospect was have filled the house with youth and more than worth the trouble. Yonder freshness and free, joyous life. Within the dim distance, were the towers out her all was silent as the grave. of Countance Cathredal; far away, mere Mrs. Carmichael missed her daughter spots in the blue water; were the smal- screly. She had been wont to complain her the vellow sands were smiling in the blank her absence made struck a the sun, the placid wavelets reflecting chill to the mother's heart. She had dog's neck, as he stood on end, look- vaguely for a footstep; and the figure ing over the parapet, with a deep inter- | she looked for at the door, and the footest in possible rabbits lurking in some steps she listened for in the corridor cavity of the craggy cliff below. If! were not Conrad Carmichael's. It was

She lingered long. The scene was of her daughter she yearned for. beautiful, and there was nothing to lure | One day the captain surprised her in her home. Then, at last, feeling that she | tears and asked the reason of her melwas treating poor Miss Skipwith badly, ancholy. and that her prolonged absence might "I dare say it's very weak of me, Congive alarm in that dreary household, rad," she said, piteously; "but I miss she retraced her steps, and at the foot Violet more and more every day." of the eraggy mount asked the nearest | "It is uncommon weak of you," an-

way to Les Tourelles.

"I'm afraid I'm rather late," Vixen said apologetically. She felt a kind of half-pilying respect ance. Perhaps you would like a cup of supplied the Abbey House larder with Skipwith poured out a weak and tepid don. He was an enthusiast at billiards eculd she not have been happy with | "If I am to exist at Les Tourelles, I every newspaper and periodical of mark the companion of hir childhood, the must at least have decent tea," she said that was published. He rode a good 14%c. one only love of her youth? Was there to herself. "I must buy an occasional deal, and drove not a little in a highever a spot of land or sea, from Hud- pound for my own consumption, make wheeled dog-cart-quite an impossible son Bay to the unmapped archipelage friends with Mrs. Doddery, and get her vehicle for a lady. He transacted all arm-chair, and tried to get upon inti- precise and punctual manner. He wrote $4.40 to $4.60; strong bakers', $4.30 to mate terms with the Persian. He was a good many letters, and he smoked $4.50. a serious-minded animal, and seemed six or seven cigars every day. It must inclined to resent her advances; so she be obvious, therefore, that he had very left him in peace on his patchwork little time to devote to his pretty, midcushion-a relic of those earlier days dle-aged wife, whose languid airs and when Miss Skipwith had squandered her vaporish graces were likely to pall up-of needlework. slied, as she looked at the old lady in no ground for complaint. What fault the black cap, bending over a ponder- could a woman find in a husband who

"Minerva's Vogel war eine Katz." The Persian cat seemed as much an dinner, lay out a garden, stock a con- per bushel.

life-long union her soul desired as the Vixen went to her room soon after crness; who never neglected a duty tomost exquisite happiness life could give. | dark, and thus avoided the captain, who | ward wife or society? did not return till ten. She was worn | Mrs. Carmichael could see no flaw in out with the fatigue of the voyage, her the perfection of her husband's characlong ramble, the painful thoughts and ter; but it began about this time slowmanifold agitations of the last two ly to dawn upon her languid soul that, Those two familiar lines flashed into days. She set her candle on the dres- as Captain Carmichael's wife, she was her mind as she thought of her lover. sing-table, and looked round the bare not so happy as she had been as Squire To have degraded herself, to have dis- empty room, feeling as if she were in Tempest's widow. honored him! No-it would have been a dream. It was all strange, and un- Her independence was gone utterly to dreadful. Were he to plead again, homely, and comfortless-like one of She awoke slowly to the comprehension she must answer again as she had an- those wild dream-pictures which seem of that fact. Her individuality was thought. "If people in a better world | "And I am to live here indefinitely- er influence in her own house than the are really au courant as to the affairs for the next six years, perhaps, until I lowest scullion in the kitchen. She had

"If I lose myself on my desert island, Vawdrey, and the hand that held hers but the captain had persuaded her of as they stood side by side in the sun- the folly of such an arrangement.

chael would be very glad for me to be eight and nine next morning, she found you want it, or to give me your bills. lest. My death would leave him master Miss Skipwith pacing slowly to and Whereupon the bride of six weeks for life of the Abbey House and all be fro the terrace in front of the drawing- had yielded graciously, and the balance notes of her yesterday's studies. "Your step-father has been gone half account at the Union.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

Violet was gone. Her rooms were enough to hold out against its assail- Nothing associated with the exiled heiress was left, except the rooms she had ler fry of the Channel Islands; below frelfully of the girl's exuberance; but all the color and glory of the change- fancied that life would be easier without · | Violet; that her union with her husband "This wouldn't be a bad place to live would be more complete; and now she found herself looking wistfully toward She paused, with her arm round her the door of her morning room, listening

Ah, what a big "if" that was! It meant the buoyant step of her daughter she missed; it was the bright, frank face swered the captain, with agreeable can-The nearest way was altogether dif- dor, "but I suppose it's natural. People ferent from the track by which she had generally get attached to their worries; come, and brought her back to the old and as your daughter was an incessant hour. She opened the gate and went absence. I am honest enough to conin. There was nothing for the most fess that I am very glad she is gone.

"When, dear? "When she is older and wiser." This was cold comfort. Mrs. Carfor Miss Skipwith as a harmless luna- michael dried her tears, and resumed her crewel-work. The interesting va-"My dear, I dare say that as an abso- riety of shades in green which modern lule fact you are late," answered the ari has discovered was a source of comlady of the manor, without looking up fort to the mother's troubled mind. from her book; "but as time is never Moved to emulation by the results that too long for me, I have been hardly had been achieved in artistic needleconscious of the delay. Your step-fa- werk by the school at South Kensingther has gone down to the club at St. Iton and at the Royal Tapestry Manucostly orchid upon kitchen toweling. It was a dull and lonely life which him in such a wise purpose," she told the mistress of the Abbey House led herself.

in these latter days of glowing summer weather; and perhaps it was only the distraction of crewels and point lace which preserved her from melancholy long a bachelor to renounce the agreeable habits of a bachelor's existence. His amusements were all masculine, and more or less solitary. When there THE THE TOTAL THE TOTAL THE TOTAL THE TOTAL THE TOTAL TOTAL Was no hunting, he gave himself up to fishing, and found his chief delight in Helier's to see some of his old acquaint- the persecution of innocent salmon. He fish, sent an occasional basket to a Vixen replied that she would very friend, and despatched the surplus promuch like some tea, whereupon Miss duce of his rod to a fishmonger in Lon-Alas, poor child! faintly, feebly stead- infusion, against which the girl inward- and would play with innocent Mr. Scobel rather than not play at all. He read the business of house, stable, gardens, And then Vixen knelt down by the and home-farm, and that in the most first patents, $5.10 to $5.20; seconds, precious hours on the feminine inanity on an ardent temper after a year of Creamery, prints 23c to 25c married life. Yet, though she found Vixen thought of the German Volk- ber days lonely, Mrs. Carmichael had She thought of that scene in the pine cus volume, with the solemn-visaged was always courteous and complimen- twins at 12% c in job lots here, tary in his speech, whose domestic tastes were obvious, who thought it no trcuble to supervise the smallest details of the household, who could order a rangements of a stable with equal clev-

so appallingly real in their hideous un- blotted out, or absorbed into her husband's being. She had no more power of this, I should like Lady Jane Vawdrey come of age and am my own mistress! given up her banking account, and the receipt of her rents, which in the days She went to bed and slept a deep and of her widowhood had been remitted wo She wandered on, following the wind- comforting sleep, for very weariness, her half-yearly by the solicilor who toling of the lanes, careless where she and she dreamed that she was walk- lected them. Captain Carmichael had went, and determined to take advant- ins on the battlements of Mount Orgu- taken upon himself the stewardship f No. 1 at 18c to 181/c, seconds at 14c to age of her liberty. She met few peo- e'i, in the drowsy afternoon sunlight, his wife's income. She had been inple, and of those she did not trouble with Charles Stuart; and the face of the clined to cling to her check-book and 17%c per dozen. royal exile was the face of Roderick her banking account at Southampton;

"There is no one to be anxious about shine was the broad strong hand of her | "Why two balances and two accounts, dairy at 20c per to. when one will do?" he argued. "You When she went down-stairs, between have only to ask me for a check when room windows, conning over the pencil had been transferred from the South-

> an hour, my dear," said the lady of the But now, with Theodore's unsettled manor. "He was very sorry to have to account of four years' standing hanging backs. $11 to $11.50. over her head by the single hair of the penny-post, and likely to descend upon her any morning, Mrs. Carmichael re- 50 lbs., 10%c to 10%c; tubs, 50 lbs., net groups. gretted her surrendered banking ac- 10%c to 10%c; wood pails, 20 tbs., net. count, with its balance of eleven hundred pounds or so. The captain had managed everything with wondrous wisdom no doubt. He had done away 11%c to 12%c; parchment-lined boxes, with all long credits. He paid all his bills on the first Saturday in the month, save such as could be paid weekly. He had reduced the price of almost every- 20 ths. gross, 11%c; tins, 3 to 10 ths. in thing supplied to the Abbey House, from the stable provender to the waxcandles that lighted the faded sea-green draperies and white paneling of the drawing-room. The only expenditure over which he had no control was his 2 red, 94c. Corn-No. 2 yellow, 72c; wife's private disbursement; but he had No. 2 white, 70c. Oats-No. 2 white habit of looking surprised when she | 56c; No. 2 mixed, 52c. Barley-Nominal. asked him for a check, and a businessike way of asking the amount required, which prevented her applying to him often. Still, there was that long-standing account of Madame Theodore's in the background, and Mrs. Carmichael felt that it was an account which must be settled sooner or later. Her disinination to ask her husband for money had lended to swell Theodore's biil. She crything from that tasteful purveyor, good quality cattle, but for the and had even obtained the somewhat stuff, of which there was more convenience which she could hardly and prices weaker. cpe to enjoy gratis.

> > Like all weak women, she had her $3.50. the smooth tyrant. The income was export ewes, $4 to $4.40. hers, she argued with herself sometimes.

Bayenx tapestry than did Mrs. Carmi- She had but a brief lease of her pre- ordinary to good butcher cattle at $3.75 chael, in the effort to immortalize the sent wealth, and he was laboring to it $4.50; common butcher cows and fleeting glories of woodland blossom or lay by a provision for the days to come.

"It would be wicked of me to thwart

(To be Continued.)

BREADSTUFFS. Toronto, Sept. 10 .- Ontario Wheat-No. 2 white, 851/2c to 86c, outside. Manitoba Wheat-No. 1 northern

Are Being Called to Council by Dowager $1.03; No. 2, $1, lake ports. Corn-No. 3 yellow, 71c to 72c, Toronto; No. 3 mixed, 69c to 69%c. Ban'ey-No. 2, 53c to 531/2c; No. 3 extra, 51% to 52c; No. 3, 50% to 51c. Oats-Manitoba, No. 2 white, 44c to 45c on track at elevator: No. 2 mixed. Peas-Nominal at 75%c for No. 2. Rye-65%c to 66e outside. Flour-Ontario, 90 per cent, patents. about nominal, $3.45-to $3.50; Manitoba

COUNTRY PRODUCE. Buller-Supplies are moderate, but the demand is heavy and prices firmer. do solids 21c to 221/20 Dairy prints 21c to 22c do solids 19c to 20c Cheese-Large quoted at 12%c and Eggs-Prices firm at 181/2c to 19c. Poultry-Live chickens are quoted from 9c to 11c, and hens from 7c to Sc. Polalogs-Market is firm at 65c to 75c

Baled Hay-Prices firm at $14 to $14.-50 in car lots on track here. Baled Straw-$7.50 per ton in car lets on track here.

PROVISIONS.

Dressed Hogs-$9.25 for lightweights amount of nearly $4,000 abstracted. The received an order to run one hour late reached. and $8.75 for heavies.

rels; mess, $20 to $21. clear bacon, He to 11%c for tons and and proceeded from floor to floor, col- cident occurred, and I felt the brake ness had already been working about cases; hams, medium and light, 15%c lecting movable valuables and jewellery. held. This made a reduction of 7 hs. eleven hours at the time of the accident. to 16c; heavy, 14%c to 15c; backs, 16%c The house was practically stripped of 11/2c; out of pickle, 1c less than smoked.

MONTREAL MARKETS. Montreal, Sept. 10.-Eggs-Sales of selected stock were made at 21c to 22c; 16c and straight gathered at 17c to Butter-Buyers' prices here for finest townships creamery are from 21%c to 23c Quebecs are quoted at 211/2c and the tin fields of Petersburg district in Cheese-Prices range from 121/8c to and 11%c to 11%c for Quebecs. Pork-Heavy Canada short cut mess. n tierces, $33 to $33.50; heavy Canada short cut mess, in barrels, $22 to $22.ampton bank to Captain Carmichael's 50: Canada short cut backs, $22 to $22.-

101/2c to 103/4c; tin pails, 20 tbs., gross 10c to 10%c; tins, 3 to 10 fts., in cases, 10%c to 11c; pure lard, tierces 375 lbs., 50 hs. net, 12c to 12%c; tubs, 50 hs. net, 12%c to 12%c; parchment-lined wood pails, 70 lbs. net, 121/c; tin pails. lad, named John Stewart, lost his life.

cases, 11%c to 12%c.

BUFFALO MARKET. Buffulo, Sept. 10.-Wheat closed-No.

NEW YORK WHEAT MARKET. New York, Sept. 10 .- Spot firm; No. 2 red, $1.021/2 elevator; No. 2 red, $1.031/2 affoat; No. 2 hard winter, $1.06% f.o.b.

LIVE STOCK MARKET. Toronto, Sept. 10.-Trade was good ad bought gloves, ribbons, shoes, ev- and active and prices steady to firm for Lake, a distance of three miles, has expensive materials for her fancy work usually large proportion in the market price is about $550,000. Tenders are through Madame Theodore, a temporary to-day, trade was quite draggy and slow, Low being asked for section 1. The mixed cattle easier, at $3 to $3.50. Light stockers-market dull and easier at $2.75 to $3.

Good butcher cows steady at $3.25 to occasional longings for independence. Sheep and lambs-Good grain-fed her moments of inward revolt against lambs are quoted at $5 to $6 per cwl.;

Heavy feeders-Steady demand for good feeders, 1,050 to 1,100 tbs., at $4 to Calves-Market slow at $5 to $10 each. Hogs-Market easy, selects $6.25, ights and fats, $6.

Milch cows-Market steady to firm, with a good demand for heavy milkers at $45 to $50, common $25 to $30.

CHINA'S STRONG MEN.

A despatch from Pekin says: The Dewager Empress has appointed Yuan Shikai to be a member of the Board of Fereign Affairs and a Grand Councilfor of the Fourth Class. In the for- Peel, appeared on behalf of the Crown. releasing the brake. eign Office he will rank as third Minhas also been appointed a Grand Coun- faied train, was called, and immediatecilior of the Fourth Class. The Vice- Iy he got on the stand his counsel, Mr. 16, was summoned to Pekin recently Echinette, K. C., had entered a formal year, but had had experience as a fire-subject Yuan Shikai has been consult- say to incriminate himself. ing will her Majesty. The Dewager Empress, in thus sur- be well to allow the witness to give his "I took one train up the night before. rounding herself with the strongest and evidence in this way, that if he objects There were passengers on it. That was most eminent men of the empire, has to answer a question because it might the only passenger train I had run over surprised even those who were aware incriminate him, then he has the pro- this line."

to the utmost.

Ottawa Man Loses $4,000 of Plate and

Jewellery by Burgiars. residence of Mr. D. M. Finnie, assistant to Orangeville, which we reached at general manager of the Bank of Ottawa, 8.55. There were three cars added there was burglarized on Wednesday, and and we left between 9.05 a.m. and 9.06 | Between Caledon and the slow board diamonds, jewellery and plate to the a.m. We reached Caledon at 9.20, and | 20 miles an hour was the highest speed burglars, evidently experts. had first of the original schedule. We left Cale- Replying to a juror, witness said he Pork-Short cut, $22.75 to $23 for bar- made sure of the fact that the family on at 9.21, and before reaching the lad been on continuous duty since 10.15 were absent and went about their work curve, and about 150 yards from the life previous night. He had had a good Lard-Firm; tierces, 12c; tubs, 12%c; systematically and deliberately. The slow board, I slowed down and shut off rest the previous day. His hours of thieves gained an entrance to the pre- steam. I applied the brakes about a work average 9 or 10. Smoked and Dry Salted Meats-Long mises by the rear basement windows quarter of a mile from where the ac- The coroner pointed out that the witto 17c; shoulders, 10%c to 11c; rolls, everything of value of a movable nature.

WORK TIN FIELDS FOR STATE. Transvaal Government's Solution of Unemployed Problem. A despatch from Johannesburg says The Transvaal Government, with the view of helping to solve the problem of the unemployed, has decided to work the interest of the State. General Botha, Premier of the Transvaal, has gone to 12%c for westerns, 12c for townships that district with engineers and representatives of the Rand unemployed. The mediately behind the baggage and mail ter point to Saskatoon 85 per cent, is miners' scheme is to advance wages to the men to enable them to obtain tools. The northbound express was ten min- and 800 teams at work on the 462 miles The workmen are also to share in the utes late at Norris, where the freight between Winnipeg and Saskatoon. The profits, according to the miners' scheme. rels, $11.25 to $11.50; Canada short cut Prospectors who are already on the months along at terrific speed in an effort to men, as large numbers of laborers have ground and have been waiting for it to make up time. Just as the locomotive left to take part in the harvest for which

SHOT DEAD BY BROTHER.

Minnedosa Lad Victim of a Hunting Accident. A despatch from Minnedosa, Man. says: A shooting falality occurred here him. He received a shot, from which he expired almost immediately. ----THE TRENT CANAL.

His twin-brother, Bert, was shooting blackbirds with a 22 rifle and did not nctice his brother running in front of Another Half-million-dollar Contract Has Been Awarded. A despatch from Ottawa says: Another contract has been awarded for the construction of the Trent Canal. The section on the Rice Lake division. section 5, from the highway bridge at Campbellford, to deep-water in Crow poor been given to Brown & Aylmer, who were the lowest tenderers. The contract intention is to prosecute the work with

The number of typhoid fever cases in Winnipeg is much fewer for August Export market steady: medium ex-1 than for the same month last year.

ail possible despatch,

Swears That Train Was Travelling at Rate of Less Than 20 Miles.

is every indication that the investiga- was sufficient, in my opinion, to steady tier, into the cause of the Caledon disaster is to be a very thorough one. The principal evidence was that adduced by

Engineer Hodge, who was driving the Mr. T. C. Robinette, K. C., appeared on behalf of Engineer; Mr. Angus Mc-

Murchy represented the C. P. R., and the north, and as he had his hand on County Crown Altorney McFadden, of the brake it would have the effect of

THE ENGINEER'S STORY. Chang Chitung, Viceroy of Shangsha, George Hodge, the engineer of the :11to consult with the Dowager Empress objection to Hodge giving evidence, co man since December, 1902. He had Manchu sentiment in China, on which concerning anything which he might one passenger train over this line. He

of the throne's apprehension and its de- tection which he craves. That answer termination to fortify the Government | could not be used against him." ed from answering any question which and he could not had anything to acmay be asked you here.

"I am quite satisfied with that," Mr. Robinette replied. The examination of Hodge was then | "I couldn't say." proceeded with. He deposed:-"I left A despatch from Otlawa says: The Markdale at 7.34, and had a good run

A despatch from Toronto says: There on the air pressure of the brake, which the train. Just before the accident I was about to release the brakes." "Did you release the brakes?" "No. sir. Not intentionally." Describing the accident, Hodge said he felt the engine give a sudden lurch, and found himself out on the ground. Hodge explained that at the time the engine gave a lurch he was thrown to HODGE'S EPERIENCE. Replying to Mr. Robinette, Hodge said he had been acting as engineer of a freight train since January of this regarding the alarming growth of anti- as to obtain the protection of the court only previously to last Tuesday run was between 23 and 24 years of age. "I think," said the coroner, "it would In answer to Mr. McFadden he said:-

BRAKES WORKED WELL. "At the same time," remarked the The brakes were working well. He coroner to Hodge, "you are not excus- examined fan Blake after the accident > count for the accession! "What do you think yourself and the cause of the accident?"

"The engine was all right?"

"Yes." "And the roadbed was all right "Yes."

EXPRESS TRAIN WRECKED.

sons were killed and twelve others in port received by the Government on jured in the wreck of an express train Friday as to the progress of construcon the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific | tior. on the G. T. Pacific Railway up to Railroad at Norris, Iowa, on Friday. the end of August shows that the steel The express train, northbound, jumped had been laid for 124 miles westward the track while going at full speed, and from Portage la Prairie, of which 87 crashed into a freight train standing on miles is ballasted, one-fifth of the gradthe siding. All of the dead and injured ing between Winnipeg and Portage la were in the smoking car, which was im- Prairie is completed, while from the latcars. The smoking car was demolished, finished. The company has 1,100 mentrain was awaiting. The express came company could employ many more Lard—Compound, in tierces of 375 handreds of around of the passenger train was about to higher wages are paid. hs., 10c to 10%c; parchment-lined boxes hundreds of agents of the big mining pass the freight locomotive the trucks moving engine crashed into the engine of the freight, wrecking both locomotives and telescoping the baggage and the

LATEST REPORTS ENCOURAGING.

mail cars, and demolishing the smoking

Menday evening in which an 11-year-old Grain In Canadian Northern Districts been ascertained, leaped to death from Looks Well. A despatch from Winnipeg says: The . N. R. crop report is fully as encour- Falls, and it is thought the intense light aging as all previous reports from var- of the projectors so dazed the unfortuious sections during the week. The most nate man that he did not know what he optimistic feeling prevails as to the ultimale outcome of the harvest. There has from the railing of the bridge to death ___ been no frost in the majority of places and the weather promises to be all that could be desired. Some rains fell during the past few days, but not enough to cause any damage or seriously interfere with the cutting. There is a scarcity grain has been ready for a week or FIFTEEN BURNED TO DEATH.

of men in some districts, where the Hotel at Shelton, Washington, Destroyed says: Fire destroyed the Webb Hotel at that he knew the man who murdered Shellon, 20 miles from Tacoma, on Ellen Quinn a few years ago, as well as Wednesday night. It is reported fifteen a Chinaman two months later. Both persons perished. Miss Bailey and Mrs. crimes have remained unsolved. The Mudge, both of Shelton, are known to weapons with which the crimes are albe among the lost. All the other victims | leged to have been committed were have been recovered.

G. T. P. CONSTRUCTION. Twelve Persons Killed at Norris, Report Shows Good Progress in Various

Waterloo, Ia., Sept. 6.-Twelve per- A despatch from Ottawa says: A re-

DEATH IN NIAGARA GORGE. Unknown Man Plunges from Upper

Steel Arch Bridge. A despatch from Niagara Falls, N.Y., says: At nine o'clock on Wednesday night a man, whose identity has not the centre of the upper steel arch bridge. There was a crowd on the structure at the time, viewing the illumination of the was doing. Many witnessed the plunge in the river, 200 feet below.

TWO MURDER MYSTERIES. Search of a Quarry Near Montreal May Solve Them.

A despatch from Montreal says: Acting under the instructions of Provincial Detective McGaskill, a quarry in the neighborhood of Montreal is being drained to ascertain whether a St. Vincent de Paul convict's story of two mur-A despatch from Tacoma, Wash., ders is true. This man told the detective are believed to be men. Seven bodies thrown into the quarry afterwards, according to the convict's story.

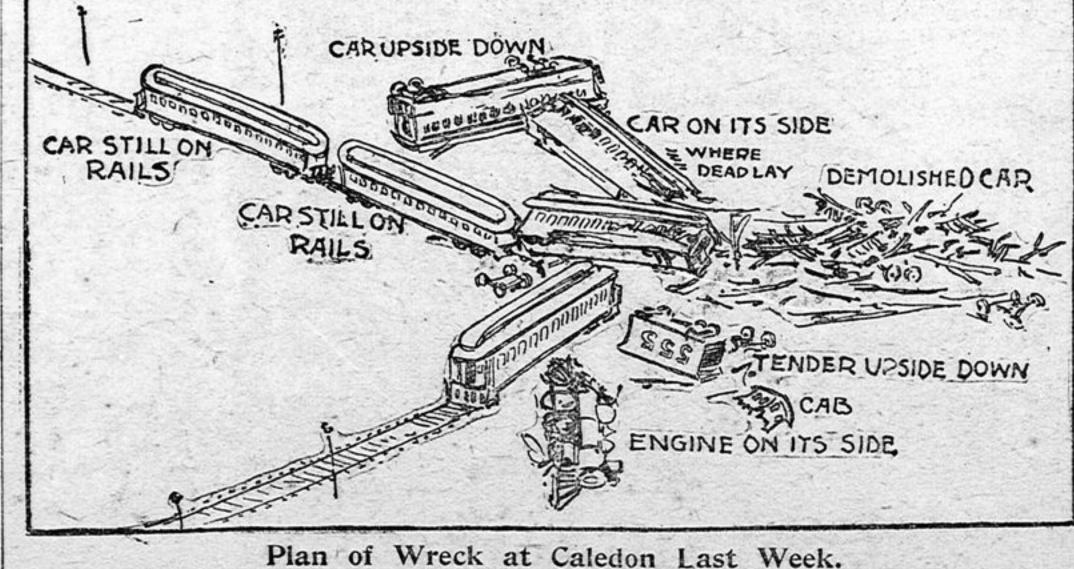

A CRACK IN THE BRIDGE

Painter Gives Startling Evidence at the Quebec Bridge Inquest.

Quimet, one of the bridge workmen: exact spot at which he had observed the Ouimet, who was a painter, had gone to crack. the land for a drink of water, and was The meeting of the citizens to lake returning when he saw the bridge be- steps to provide means to relieve the gin to settle. He at once started back to pressing wants of the families of the land, but had one of his heets caught bridge victims was held on Wednesday and crushed. He stated on Wednesday afternoon, Mayor Garneau presidio that he had known of a crack three- The Mayor announced having received

A despatch from Quebec says: The this crack since May last, but had never sensation of the sitting of the Coroner's said anything about it, as he had not inquests in connection with the bridge thought that there was any danger. The disaster was the testimony of Alexander witness pointed out on the plans the quarters of an inch while and twenty a number of subscriptions for the disinches long in one of the arches starting tressed, and nearly a thousand defrom the main pier. He had known of was immediately sub-rived.

From The Toronto Telegram).