Friday and Saturday there was a large movement to Lindsay and its great Fair which was the best ever held and exceeded in financial returns the Fair of last year by $500. Competition in all the departments was keen and the speeding contests were unusually ADDITITION interesting and exciting It was regrettable that the base ball tournament, which had been called off U1 owing to wet weather on the opening day, was not brought on some later time as m ny were as eager for this as for the other premier attractions.

Omemee was pretty well represented on the grounds; some were on duty in various callings and many were competitors for prizes. Saturday evening saw the return of a very large crowd of tired but happy visito s from the Fair where they had spent a very profitable and enjoyable time.

There were mary admire s of the honest and successful effort of Ashmore's . Lou Keswick' to laid the prize in the 2.40 class, while Omemee had two good representat ves in 'Village Girl' and 'Tenie

MAGEE-FAIRBAIRN.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fairbairn, Wellington-st, Lindsay, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 3 o'clock on Wednesday, Sept. 22nd, when their youngest daughter, Ethel. was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Henry Magee, of Emily.

Rev. W. G. Smith, of Bobcaygeon, assisted by Rev. Jas. Wallace, pastor Collector's roll: of St. Andrew's Lindsay. The marriage ceremony was performed beneath | R Winn, sr. 1 my an arch of evergreen and asters. The bride was attired in an Empire gown T and Colynn, I day of white silk mull, with dainty trim mings of lace, and wore a tulle veil with a coronet of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white asters and maiden hair fern She entered the drawing room on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march Catherine Piggott, I day played by Miss Ella Switzer, of Bethel. Little Miss Gladys Kelly, neice of the Call at C. IVORY'S for up- bride, carried the ring in a basket of te date goods in every department of flowers. She was dressed in taffeta
