FARMERS, ATTENTION.

ou want to buy a Farm? Before doing so, of Farms to choose from. We can satisfy DYEING ed Cleaning. This is a specialty with the SH AMERICAN DYEING CO.

Practical Every day Lessons on FARM AC COUNTS For 750, post paid. FARM PUS. HOUSE. Box 425; Chatham, Ont

BASTEDO & CO., 77 Km; East, Toronto. FUR MANUFACTURERS Ladies' and Misses' Fur and Fur-lined Coats anp Jackets. Everything in Furs. Send We buy Raw Furs and Consing Send for Price List.

OFITABLE BORDERS.

the very rich have fences their farms in Japan. The se do not like to spare the feet a fence would take up. order around a field is necesis made of mulberry trees. ves of which are good for ms. It is said that 190,000 at would otherwise be taken fences are thus used.

BING THE NEEVES with opium you ough but the indammation goes from se. Allen's Lung Balsam, containing seated affections of throat and lungs.

Prune-"I ain't seen your tl of late." Mrs. Pebblespoor girl is gone. boil one of Hiram's celluars and it exploded and we n her since."

Prolong Life.-De Sota, the whither he went for the purthat then unknown country. Thomas' Eclectric Oil tuate youth, it will remove the ins which make the young old eir time and harass the aged

But are you sure her comgenuine?" Belle-"Posisaw the box; on the lid None genuine without our and there was the sigght enough." _

Lunacy seemed the only alfor a well-known and highly slady of Wingham, Ont., who lled over two continents in a th for a cure for nervous dedyspepsia. A friend recomouth American Nervine. One ped, six bottles cured, and her tten testimony closes with ds: "It has saved my life."- said an inquiring youth. hen sits on an egg for ks and it don't hatch, is poiled?" "As an article of son, it is henceforth a at for political purposes it morbus, cramps and kindred annually make their apthe same time as the hot een fruit, cucumbers, melons, many persons are debarred ot abstain if they have Dr. gg's Dysentery Cordial and drops in water. It cures and cholera in a remarkable is sure to check every disthe bowels.

Mother-"Now, Harold, you love most, papa or ittle Harold-"Papa." ther-"But yesterday you oved me most." Little les; but I've thought it and decided that we men together."

not be expected to have faith in Shileh's tion Cure, the Lung Tonic, as a cure for oughs and all diseases of the air passages, we not tried it. We have faith in it, and co you that it will cure you we gramater locan't cure you it costs you not me. If costs you 25c. That's fair. Try it many thousands of the most of streate we do not houtate to say that it will care Coogh, Throat or Lung trouble. If we cheve this we would not guarantee it mide test without failure. In a thot proof ive properties. Further the many testimenistis of the who have and been cured. Mirs. Archae Taylor. a bottle of Shillshis Commercian Com it very beneficial. Thave two children had a temble cough. I gave them could think of, but they got no better coing my huberd bought a bottle of c gave it to the children when they A and they slept all night. It cored sletchy. I shall always keep it in the UE NO. 42-05.

MILIBROOK AND OMEMEE MIRROR

Durham and Victoria Standard

VOL. 17. NO. 22. $1 per annum.

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1905.

C. W RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

The....

Laird's Secret

CHAPTER XV.

ing interviewed by the stranger from Canada at the entrance to his cave, the gloom and sorrow were deepen- said; "keep back! I have someing over Linne Castle; for the laird thing to say to the laird." was rapidly nearing his end.

For some time after the stranger old man's ear. Then he looked into had left the sick room the old man the filmy eyes again. lay motionless, with his dim eyes on her knees beside the bed, pressed kens!' the thin, cold hands, and sobbed But even as he spoke, the laird utpiteously, naming his name, but he tered a deep sigh, and his jaw fell. neither moved nor spoke; while on ward Linne, watching with a curi- "say a prayer, if you can; the laird ous expression the heavy, stertorous is dead!" breathing of the dying man.

Presently attracted by the pitcous stepped hastily forward and laid and her eyes were full of tears. and lifted her from the ground. to beat. you."

But Marjorie resisted. "Den't take me away from him!" him.

she cried, hysterically. "Indeed, indeed, I must stay!" "Then you must cease fretting." Castle. he whispered. "Come, be brave.

has come." which stood near the bedside; then out the house, despite the moving he went to the bed, placed his fin- hither and thither of the servants gers on the old man's pulse, and who were in attendance on the body again looked with cold curiosity at of the laird, there was that hushed heir?"

he said nervously shrinking back. above the body of the old laird was and kin; all the world kens that." bedside. She clasped the thin hand dead, in the dining-room below be true, I suppose. Well, yes; I 50 to $18.50 at Toronto and equal in both of hers, and gazed tenderly stood the young laird, his heart ex- dare say that I am the laird o' points. down upon the old man. As she did panding with joy at the position he Linne. And what then?" so, the light in his eyes grew softer, believed he had attained. and his lips moved.

to say to me?"

old man's lips.

but she could not hear a word. while the laird, still making violent old man's death. Well, I've time to ther not have faced it, but since you efforts to speak, turned his eyes in have something to eat, and then I'll are here is no help for it. piteous entreaty from one face to slip off; no one will see me. And Well, then, the laird's death will another. "What shall I do?"

peace."

and cannot.' he will speak again." For the eyes servant start and stare at him in were already becoming dim, and wonder, ordered a repast to be prewere fixed again into that vacant pared for him at once. tinued, again placing the girl in was retiring. "How is Miss Mar- The words were spoken slowly and 85c per bag on track and 90c out of as shown by the much worn teeth. of scene for you; but, if you will "She's lockit up in her ain room, armchair and the bed, so as to hide way as she was before the laird Edward Linne!" she said. the girl's view of the dying man; died. but it was unnecessary, for Marjorie's face was buried in her hand- ward," said the old man, groaning kerchief. For some time no one as he left the room. spoke; Linne was soon in his own | "And now," said Linne to himself, thoughts, and Marjorie lay ex- when the door had closed and the lines?" hausted in the chair.

a hurried footstep on the stairs, and another visit upstairs. Well, it are waste paper!" He continued: 35c for No. 4 ex-store. Manitona to temporary hospitals, and the to give color tone to the dinner. the next moment the figure of Willie isn't a pleasant performance, but it "I should not have promised to barley is firm and in good demand at people by lantern light in the pour-Macgillvray stood in the doorway. won't have to be often repeated, and marry you at all, only you were a 48c for No. 3 and 46 cream and butter and boil the squash parents. She awakened and cried, to meet him, but the old man, whose Assuming a becoming air of sad- Then I made you promise to keep it Flour-Manitoba spring wheat ta- of Sorento numbers 1,100 persons. manner was full of strange excite- ness, he opened the door, and passed secret, because I dreaded the truth tents, $4.90; strong bakers', $4.50; ment, quickly put her aside, and ap- quietly up the stairs to the room becoming known. Well, I went old winter wheat patents. $4.65 1.7

"Are ye living, John Mossknow?" gave no sign of recognition. "He lives, but he doesna hear statue upon the bed.

me," said Willie, sorrowfully, "Tell me, Marjorie, my doo, has he been Macgillvray, soliloquizing aloudlong like this?"

and tried to speak to me, but only just a day too soon. Well, the of that? I was a fool last night, he never speak again?"

want to be with him alone!" plied, "I refuse to leave the room, in the world to mourn you."

curious expression, full of contempt looked at each other with no very you can begin a new life." and dislike. "You craw o'er soon, and you're no' the master yet, young man," said he. "But gang your ways; or lie, with mock politeness.

"No. Marjorie," he answered; "but utes at the corpse.

speaks till ye, make a sign."

He watched earnestly, but no sign Turning on his heel, he left the man, and that my father did right ed, 311c. Rye-Firm; No. 1, 72c. ways sold under its proper name. came; except for the regular breath- room, and went straight to his own when he drove me frae my hame. Canal freights-Strong. ing the man showed no indication of bedroom. life. Willie thereupon moved from "Heavens! what a ghost I am!" Linne! may God forgive you for the NEW YORK WHEAT MARKET. the bedside, and walked excitedly up he said, surveying himself in the lee!" and down the room, muttering to glass. "One would think to look at | She turned away, covered her face firm; No. 2 red, 91 c in elevator and himself. Now and again he paused, me that the old fellow's death lay with both her hands, and sobbed 931 f.o.b. afloat; No. 1 northern Duand gave a curious look at the at my door. Well, I confess it has piteously. He waited until her grief luth, 95%c f.o.b. afleat; No. 1 northvoung man who stood so calmly been a fatiguing job waiting for it; became more subdued; then he said ern Manitoba, 94%c f.o.b. affoat. watching the death-throes of his but now my penance is done, I can "Of course it's hard to lose the kinsman. Presently Willie approach- put off sackcloth and ashes and be position you have always looked uped the bed again; this time he ut- myself again."

tered an exclamation of delight.

> "Keep back, both of you!" he He bent low and whispered in the

"He kens what it is I'm saying,"

It was indeed true. As Linne could not; sobs choked her throat, sobbing of the girl, he went to her, his fingers upon the pulse, it ceased | "I wish to heaven you had "Come away, my girl," he said, "Yes, he is dead," he repeated tinued, "and found me out at Persuaded by Willie, Marjorie was these confounded places." You have been expecting this for induced to retire to her room, where, "Maybe we'll no hae to wait weeks. It is better for him that it thoroughly exhausted with the fa- lang." said the girl. "They say the tigue of the night, she at last sob- laird is sair spent." He placed her in an armchair bed herself to sleep; while through-

The head moved slightly, as if in jorie? I know what I should like come!"

"What is it?" she asked again, I'm bound hand and foot. . . . And | "Mary," he said, "I want to speak me again to-night; and I must keep me?" The heavy breathing continued, the tryst, too, or heaven knows "Ay, I'll listen," she said gently. what the little babbling fool may be "Well, then, I must tell you-"Oh, it is terrible!" she cried, induced to do if she hears of the had better do it now; I would rasuppose they do? who has a right make no difference to you. I cannot "You can do nothing," said to question my movements now? No acknowledge you as my wife." Linne, "but leave him to die in one. I am master of the situation- | She stared at him blankly for a absolute master; only, to avoid a few moments; than she repeated his "But he wishes to say something, scandal, I must keep the girl away." words. "No," said Linne; "I don't think tone of command which made the old your wife?"

"Come, Marjorle," he con- "Stay," he said, as the old man are not my wife at all!"

stay, you must be reasonable. If Mr. Edward."

you cry so much you will make "Well, tell your wife to remain in passed away now, and the features a firm tone at $8 per ton for car | Eight Persons Killed in an Illinois | Dread with the oyster liquor, add years old, fell into a tub of water pepper, salt, a touch of onion, sage at her home here, on Thursday, and He placed himself between the that she should be treated in every

"I'll do as you bid me, Mr. Ed-where his uncle was lying. while the old man, his grey hair I was too great a coward to tell the rollers, $4.15; do. in bags, $1.90 :0 The eyes, still fixed and vacant, smoothed from his brow, his hands truth; but I thought the truth would $1.95; extras, $1.75. crossed upon his breast, lay like a dawn upon you, and that I should Millfeed-Manitoba bran, in bags, There has now been marketed in the

But beside the bed stood Willie sion." "Yes." answered the girl. "A know," he said. "We have long ex- words last night." while ago he recovered consciousness pected the end, and yet 'tis come "I do think of them; but what amiable eves.

"I take off my hat with all hukeep away from me, lassie, for I "If he led a strange life, he con- ened me was the knowledge that I have something to say to the laird." tracted questionable friendships," he was your wife, that I was an honest Wheat-Spring easier; No. 1 North-lyst suggests that manufacturers has reached the boiling point stir in Experiments by French War Office Then, bending over the old man, muttered at last. "Well, his friends lass, and that, when the day came, ern, 891c; Winter strong, No. 2 red, and importers be required to dis- the dissolved gelatine and the yolks must be free of the Castle while he I should be able to hold up my head 851c. Corn-Unsettled; No. 2 yellow, tinguish each brand by a perfectly and sugar. Let boil up thoroughly they shall trouble it no more."

his hat and left the house unseen by | "I dinna want your money," any one. Being somewhat late, he said, rising and turning away. walked quickly. When he reached the place of meeting on the seashore Mary was already there.

his eye fell upon her all his ill- I have said; and While Willie, the hermit, was be- Once more the eyes were full of re- humor returned, so that, when, have made up your mind as to what with face aglow, she sprang up to it will be best for you to do, let meet him, he put her aside in anger. "Don't play the fool!" he "I didn't come here for that." "Edward, what is wrong?"

asked, amazed. "What is wrong?" he answered, irritably. "Nothing is wrong-that fixed in a death-like stare. Marjorie, cried Willie. "Thank the Lord, he is, nothing more than usual. But friendless, it might be the very best that is the way you women always go on if a man isn't eternally making a fool of himself. You begin "Marjorie, my bairn," said Willie, to cry, and ask if anything is the the other side of the bed stood Ed- as he reverently bowed his head, matter. Well, now, the question is, what am I to do about you?" The girl did not answer.

mained where you were." he tenderly. "This is no place for with a sigh of relief. Then he more convenient time! But here turned nervously away, as if to you are, and something must be shut out the ghastly sight before done, I suppose. One thing is certain; you can't hang about the So the shadow which passes from neighborhood; and we can't condwelling to dwelling fell upon Linne tinue to meet, or people will begin

"The laird?" he is dead!"

"Yes; he died a few hours ago." "Then you-you are the laird's settled; first patents unchanged at story over again-"Le Roi est mort; "But you ken weel it's true, Ed- Millfeed-Ontario-Bran in carlots, "He has recovered consciousness," Vive le Roi!" for while in the room ward. You-you are his only kith $12.50 to $13 per ton at outside In a moment Marjorie was by the receiving the ghastly honors of the "And what everybody knows must itoba bran, $16 to $17; shorts, $17.-

"And what then?" answered the and 321c to 33c east. "I'm glad it's over-very glad it's girl, cagerly. "That is a' you bade "He is speaking!-he wishes to over," he said to himself; "for at me wait for. Hae ye forgot your say semething!" cried Marjorie, times I began to be afraid the old words yestreen? It's ill wark to re- 44c for No. 3, at outside points. bending low, that she might catch man might recover, and so disap- joice owre the death of the puir the words of the dying man. But point me after all. And now the gentleman, but the Lord kens weel she heard nothing. "What is it, question is, what am I to do? Sell what I have suffered: and if I seem sir?" she asked, softly. "Do you up and be off, or linger here a bit, a bit glad, He will pardon me. Ed- side. wish to speak? have you something and live like a country squire? And ward, dear, speak kindly to me, noo Marjorie-what is to become of Mar- that my time o' happiness has to do with her, but unfortunately But he only scowled angrily.

as she placed her ear closer to the that reminds me! Mary is to meet to you seriously. Will you listen to

He rang the bell, and assuming a "You canna acknowledge me as "No: it is impossible."

"But why? Tell me why?" "For a very simple reason; you deliberately, and while he spoke store, them he kept his eyes fixed upon the Baled Hay-The demand for No. 1 DEATH IN TORNADO'S PATH. "You ken weel you are lying to me

He shrugged his shoulders. "I assure you I speak the truth." "Then tell me this," answered the girl: "if I am no' your wife, hoo comes it that I hae my marriage away. Do you think, if you had $4.75; straight rollers, $4.30 to $1 .-How everything was changed! The been my wife, I should have left you 40, and in bags $2 to $2.10. New Increase of Wheat Marketed Over he said. "Tell me, are ye living, room was now in perfect order; year after year without a sign? No, winter wheat patents, $4.50; straight

"You're no' in earnest, Edward,"

his lips moved, for I could not hear |Lord have mercy on ye, if your sins and kept up the old farce because I a sound. Oh, Mr. Macgillvray, will in the past bring more misery on hadn't the courage to tell the truth. them that survive you! 'As ye sow But I have thought it over since "The Lord knows," answered the so shall ye reap,' saith the Lord; I knew that the farce could not be old man, reverently. "And now and you have died a miserable, prolonged, and that since you had leave the room both of you, for I friendless death, just as you lived a found me, I must face the tacts and miserable, friendless life. Ay! ay! tell you how matters stood. But Marjorie looked at Linne, who re- ay! There's only one human being don't mistake me, Mary! I don't want to be unkind to you. Since heavy Canada short cut back pork, and should like to know by what He looked up, and saw Edward your father is dead, you are not $21 to $22; heavy Canada long cut Department Finds 50 Out of 88 slices of hot buttered toast, garnish-Linne standing in the doorway, cold- bound to Scotland; I will give you mess pork, $21 to $22; heavy Can-Willie looked up at him with a ly regarding him. The two men money to take you to America, and ada short cut clear pork, $20 to

She laughed aloud. forward, and standing on the other the heart you have broken? A' the backs, 15c. side of the bed, gazed for a few min- years of sorrow that I had the ae thing that comforted and strength-May God forgive you, Edward

"What are you going to do?" "Dinna ask me. Wait and see." "Mary, Mary!" said Linne, "look She was seated on the rocks, look- the matter in the face like a ing out upon the sea. The moment sensible lass. Think over what > me know, and I'll do what I can." But without a word she turned and left him. As she went, he Stockers, choice 3 00 smiled nervously. "She is the sort of a women who might commit suicide." he said.

since she is homeless and thing she could do!" (To be Continued.).

BREADSTUFFS. Toronto, Oct. 24.-Wheat-Ontario

Manitoba-One No. 1 hard, 248 No.

741c to 751c, with No. 2 white 76.

ding $3 for 90 per cent. patents, a cargo of wheat. She was in tow $3.05 to $3.10 asked. Blends for was also towing the barge Melrose. ton at outside points. Manitoba un-points; shorts, $16 to $17.50; Man-

Oats-Firm; No. 2 white, 32c west Barley-48c to 49c for No. 2, 46c to 47c for No. 3 extra, and 43c to Rye-Firm; 64c to 65c, outside.

Buckwheat-Firm; 53c to 54c, out-Rolled Oats-$4.75 for barrels on track here and $4.50 in bags; 25c

Peas-70c to 71c outside.

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

Dairy lb. rolls, good to choice 19c do tubs, good to choice 17c 18c Cheese-121c to 121c per lb. Eggs-Unchanged at 19c to 20c.

Potatoes-Ontario stocks are quoted at 60c to 70c per bag on track, and 75c to 80c out of store. Now lots on track here. No. 2 is dull at

MONTREAL MARKETS.

be spared the pain of this confes- $16 to $17; shorts, $19 to $21 par Canadian Northwest, along the line ton; Ontario bran. in bulk, $15 t., of the C. P. R., 14,500,000 bushels ments. Drain again. Put a layer of same tub that she drowned on $15.50; shorts, $20 to $20.50; milled of wheat, as compared with 7,000,- this into a baking dish, then a layer Thursday. "It's all over now, John Moss- persisted the girl. "Think of your mouille, $21 to $24 straight grain 000 bushels for the corresponding of grated cheese. Another layer of mouille, $26 to $27 per ton.

> $7.50 to $8; clover, mixed, $6 to wheat have reached the Fort Wil- boiling. Bake for about half an $6.50, and pure clover, $6 per ton, liam elevators over the C. P. R., hour. Serve with hot buttered crackgoods at 22c to 23c. Provisions-Heavy Canada short cut mess pork, in tierces, $31 to $32;

$21; heavy flank pork, none; light

BUFFALO MARKET.

New York, Oct. 24 .- Wheat-Spot

CATTLE MARKET on as your own, but it shall be made | Toronto, Oct. 24.-There was an-largest sawmill on the Pacific coast. flavor. Bake in very small gem pens the mountains.

she cattle, 1,705 sheep and lambs, 1,400 hogs, and 110 calves.

do light 2 75 do cows 2 75 Butchers' picked 4 25 do choice 4 00 do medium 3 60 do light 2 75 do bulls 2 00 do common 2 00 do bulls 2 25 Heavy feeders 3 50 Short-keep 3 75 Milch cows, choice ..40 00 do common 28 00 Sheep export, ewes . 3 85 do bucks 3 00 do culls 3 00 Lambs, per cwt. 5 90 Calves, each 2 00 Hogs, selects 6 00 do per cwt. 3 50 do lights and fats . 5 75

-No. 2 red and mixed are quoted at ALL HANDS WERE DROWNED.

seen the Minnedosa go down. The boat was owned by the Montreal

Transportation Co., of Montreal. The storm was one of the most severe in recent years. As far as returns are obtainable ten vessels have been completely wrecked and 12 to 15 others more or less severely damaged. Twelve lives are known to have been lost.

SCARED BEAR UP A TREE.

more for broken lots here and 40c says: The largest black bear that but to have dishes to suit the indi- home fruits. Nuts and candies, to Butter-The market holds steady, Neil spotted the bear on the side of water until perfectly tender. Have Delicious home made candies can with receipts in all lines fairly large. a mountain, and after a race of five ready a thin cream sauce made of 2 be made by beating stiff the whites Creamery, prints 22c 23c hundred yards outflanked him and tablespoons melted butter, 2 table- of 2 eggs, adding confectioner's sudo solids 21c 211c succeeded in treeing him. Collett spoons flour and milk added slowly, gar until of right consistency, and a mounted guard at the foot of the until right consistency is obtained. 20c | tree, while McNeil rode to the ranch | do medium 17c 18c house two miles away to secure a gun. The bear made several atdo inferior 15c 16c tempts to escape, but Collett scared him back. On the arrival of Mc-Neil with the gun the bear was Poultry-Fat hens, 6c to 7c; thin, twenty feet up the tree. Collett put 5c to 6c; chickens, 8c to 9c; thin, two shots in him before he fell, when with tomatoes (canned) salt, pepper parlor. 6c to 7c; ducks, 7c to 8c; turkeys, McNeil put the finishing touches and a drop or so of Worcestershire with a revolver. The bear tipped sauce. Sprinkle bread crumbs over "HARD LUCK CHILD" DEAD. the scales at nearly five hundred top. Bake in fish shells until set. pounds, and measuring six feet ten Brunswick potatoes are quoted at inches. The animal was an old-timer from five to six hours first in a slow

A despatch from St. Louis says:

Amount Last Season. A despatch from Montreal says: period of 1904, and 100,500 cars macaroni and so on until the dish is Rolled Oats-$2.25 to $2.30 | or have been loaded with that cereal filled, having the top layer of cheese. and sent eastward to the lake front, Pour over the whole a cream sauce Cornmeal-$1.45 to $1.50 per bag. as against 4,650 cars last year. Hay-No. 1, $8.50 to $9; No. 2, No less than 5,500,000 bushels of flour, with 1 pt. milk stirred until and 5,300,000 bushels have been ship- ers, salted. Butter the crackers, Eggs-18c to 19c, and selected ped from that port to Georgian Bay sprinkle a little salt over the butter

FERTILIZERS TESTED.

A despatch from Ottawa says: The Canada short cut clear pork, none; Department of Inland Revenue has moved), half hidden in a nest of let-"Begin a new life!" she said; hams, 28 lbs., 13c; do. 12 to 18 lbs. completed the examination of 88 tuce. Thick mayonnaise dressing is 28 in number of savings banks. It is mility to the new laird," said Wil- "that is sae easy, is it? You talk 18c; do 8 to 12 lbs., 13c; boneless samples of fertilizers, and found 50 served in a dressing bowl. o' a new life, Edward Linne; but hams, rolled, 15c; English boneless of them to be genuine. Ten were beif ye will not gang then stay and Taking no notice whatever of the can you mend the auld one. Can breakfast bacon, 15c; Wiltshire bacon low guarantee, four were doubtful, inexpensive dessert. Soak half box 000,000. The postage stamp issue speech or the speaker, Linne came you gie me back the past and heal 50-lb. sides, 14c; Windsor bacon, and 24 were not registered. Much gelatine in 1 cup cold water. Place was $6,202,834, an increase of over difficulty was found in identifying to boil one qt. sweet milk. Beat $500,000. the samples purchased, and the in- the whites and yolks of three eggs spectors have in many cases been separately. Stir into the beaten Buffalo, Oct 24.-Flour-Firm uncertain as to identity. The ana- yelks half cup sugar. When the milk "If ye ken who is by ye and who is here, I suppose, but after that amang the best. And noo you tell 611c; No. 2 white, 60c. Oats-Firm; distinctive name, as is already done and then pour into the beaten whites, me that I am a sinful, wretched wo- No. 2 white, 33 to 331c; No. 2 mix- by many manufacturers, to be al- not letting them cook at all. Flavor the course of further experiments

A BIG LAND DEAL.

Vancouver Island.

at low freights. Goose and spring, Barge Minnedossa Goes Down in ies on national lines. The people surround the throne. Saginaw Bay.

bound for a Lake Ontario port with from above. buyers' bags, at outside points, with of the steamer Westmount, which The tow lines broke during the storm, and the Melrose and West- of the London Times says that Count tension of the franchise, pointing out again looked with cold curiosity at of the laird, there was that hushed the face. The eyes were now looking silence which ever accompanies if don't know. Yes, I suppose to $4.60, and bakers', $4.40 to $4.- bor at Harbor Beach late in the afbor ably Editor Hessen, of the Pravo, tors. mount were separated from the Min- de Witte is holding informal confer- that the capital, with a population. nedosa. They managed to make har- ences with influential reformers, not- of 1,409,000, has only 13,000 elec-

Held the Frightened Animal Til They Got a Gun.

has ever been seen in the Nicola vidual taste. Valley has just been killed near Celery Soup-Cut two heads of ed in four little baskets similarly Quilohena. John Collett and J. Mc- celery in small pieces and boil in hot fixed. little squares of toast. small pieces and moisten thoroughly ed either at the table or in the Baled Straw-Quiet and unchanged Information has been received that at $6 per ton for car lots on track a tornade swept through the Village of Scrento, Ill., on Tuesday night. Eight persons are dead, many injured, and 40 to 50 houses demol-Montreal, Oct. 24.—The market for ished. So violent was the tornado stuck in the center, if the table de- When she was two years old she had oats is very firm, and prices hare that some residences were swept corations are to be red; and by the cholera infantum, and it was beold man was out of hearing." "I "It was a false marriage." readvanced it to 37c for No. 2 white, away completely. Houses that reway, nothing could be prettier than lieved the attack would be fatal. Suddenly both started. There was suppose I shall be expected to pay turned Linne. "Your marriage lines 36c for No. 3 white and 34½c to mained standing were converted incident and the line of the standing were converted incident and the standing were converted incident and the standing were conver

MULTIPLIED BY TWO.

terminals, Buffalo and Montreal.

Samples Cenuine.

says: A syndicate of Minnesotans these eggs can be used for the salad ties. has completed negotiations for 43,- dressing. Cream butter and sugar,

He made a hasty toilette, and despect of the dining-room, where generous; I will supply you with he found his dinner waiting. After money, and, as I said, you can go to don't wish to be unstantially other heavy run of over 100 cars of stock at the City Cattle Market to-day. The total receipts were 102

Export cattle, choice $4 40 to $4 50 do medium 4 15 4 25 Government Will Lead the Reform Movement.

The St. Petersburg correspondent and Gen. Kouzmin, who expounded 3 00 of the London Telegram claims to their programme at great length. 2 25 know that ukases are impending They received assurances that the 3 25 granting certain important liberties will give precise indication on this 2 25 in connection with the establishment meeting the wishes of the nation. 2 50 of the National Assembly, to which Count de Witte declared that the 3 70 every reasonable facility will be Czar's greatest desire is to become a 4 00 given for making the political condi-constitutional sovereign. His ideal 50 00 tion of the people practically as free is King Edward, who rules over loyal 33 00 as that of their Western neighbors. subjects without the terrible burden 4 25 Wide-spreading changes will be made of responsibility imposed by an au-3 50 in the Russian administration, after tocratic regime. He hesitated to 3 50 which the Government will try to grant a constitution solely because 6 10 lead, instead of following, the reform he is yet unconvinced that the namovement, adopting lines of policy tion desired it. Count de Witte inwhich will run parallel with the re- timated that it would be the high 6 00 forms demanded by the Moderate mission of the National Assembly to express the people's will in this re-The aim will be to allow the peo- spect, but he urged moderation, so ple, through their chosen representa- as to avoid playing into the hands tives, to work out their own destin- of the reactionary counselors who will be permitted to elect freely mem- | The correspondent adds that it is 1 northern, 83 No. 2 northern, 7 No. The barge Minnedosa, of Kingston, addresses and deliver speeches, the foundly sceptical and suspicious of A Detroit, Mich., despatch says: - didates will be allowed to publish overtures. The Reformers are so probers of the National Assembly, can- difficult to foresee success for these 3 northern, and 71 other grades. No. Ont., was lost at 2 a.m. on Friday, restrictions on the press will be rettee Covernment that they may per-1 hard is quoted at lake ports at in Saginaw Bay, with all her crew pealed, and the people generally will sist in their present intention of en-86½c to 87c; No. 1 northern, 83c to of eight, including Capt. Phillips be treated with confidence. In a tering the National Assembly to deto talk. They always do talk in 831c, and No. 2 northern, 81c to and wife. The Minnedesa was coming down from Fort William, Ont., may be described as a revolution ties. The Congress of Reformers, to be held at Moscow on Wednesday.

EDWARD IS CZAR'S MODEL.

The St. Petersburg correspondent day. Several speakers urged the ex-

THE MENU.

garnished with parsley.

Broiled quail should be thoroughly basted with butter and served on Bird's nest salad is made of hard-ed with lemon.

in a hot oven. Ice with chocolate icing: Melt 2 squares chocolate, add a little boiling water and add powdered sugar until thick enough, 1 teaspoon lemon extract. When icing the cakes put 1 candied cherry in the center of each before the icing harwill give precise indication on this point. The first electoral meeting was held in St. Petersburg Wednes-

Mince pies should be heated in the oven just before serving, and sprinkled with sugar.

Thanksgiving Day means good cheer and groaning tables. Below is given The centerpiece of the table at the a menu in which the recipes are all Thanksgiving dinner can be a big tried and tested. It is not intended open work basket, with a red ribbon A despatch from Vancouver, B. C., merely to be a well-balanced menu, run through, filled with the harvest carry out the same idea, can be serv> few drops of any desired flavoring. Mash celery through colander into Take small lumps of this paste and this sauce and beat together thor- roll into oblong shape. Remove the oughly. Season with pepper and a stones of dates and put half of the dash of celery salt. Serve hot with date either side of this ...ixture. When done these are delicious. Codfish baked with Tomatoes-Boil Afterdinner coffee should be very fresh codfish until tender. Pick up in strong and black, and may be serv-

A good-sized turkey should roast Drowned in a Tub After Six Years of Accidents. oven for at least two hours. Make the oyster stuffing as follows: Mois-A despatch from Vineland, New and savory, 2 tablespoons lemon was drowned. Her death ended a juice and 1 pt. oysters slightly chop- long series of mishaps and sickness. ped. If not moist enough, 2 table- She was known in the neighborhood spoons melted butter adds flavor. | in which she lived as the "hard luck The cranberry sauce should be made child." Her first year of life was the day before and placed in a mold uneventful enough, but about the so it will turn out in shape. Serve time she was a year old she came ris for the injured. The population a long time until very tender. It is her mouth, so that she was almost then delicious if highly seasoned. Both potatoes and squash can be smothered. When she was four years old she fell from a second-Macaroni baked with cheese makes story window without being seriousa delicious side dish. Use sufficient ly harmed. The next year she fell macaroni, broken into 2-inch pieces, into a well, and escaped with bruisto about half fill a pudding dish, es and a fright. She was six years Boil-rapidly in salted water for old in August, and a few days later about 20 minutes. Drain and allow fell into a washtub filled with water > and Other Services. A despatch from Ottawa says:-The financial statement of the Postoffice Department for the year ending and heat for a few minutes in the Sune soun, shows a surplus of vices is now included in the ordinary expenditure. Those services caused a deficit of $100,940. The year's transactions show an increase of 419 in the number of post-offices, 841 in number of postal note offices, 260 in estimated that 285,541,000 letters

> POST-OFFICE STATEMENT. made of 1 tablespoon butter, 1 of Surplus Shown-Deficit on Yukon

> > BALLOONS IN WAR.

-Dropping Projectiles.

A despatch from Toulon says: In with lemon or vanilla and set into with the huge Lebaudy dirigible balloon, constructed under the patron-Delicious little chocolate cakes can age of the War Office, the aeronauts be made as accompaniments: Whites on Tuesday succeeded in dropping Minnesotans Buy 43,000 Acres on of three eggs, 1 cup powdered sugar, dummy projectiles upon the forts, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 cup milk, 2 demonstrating the possibility of aircups flour, 2 teaspoons baking pow- ships being able to completely de-A despatch from St. Paul, Minn., der, lemon flavoring. The yolks of stroy military works during hostili-

600 acres of lumber lands on Van- add beaten whites of eggs and milk. The two British officers captured couver Island, and will erect the Sift flour with the baking powder by Moorish brigands are still held in