The graduating recital of Miss Myrtle Newton at the Toronto College of Music last night was a particularly bright affair. Miss Newton is an eclectician of exceedingly attractive presence and much personal magnetism. Her readings are remarkably free from staginess. She has a genius for being natural. The selections she gave, pathetic, tragic, humorous, were admirably adapted to display her versatility. Her feet without doubt, humor. In the selection entitled "Shady Rooney" composed by this clever young reader, kept her hearers in ripples of laughter, while in all dialects this charming graduate almost convulsed the audience. Mail and Empire. Town Hall, Millbrook, Friday Dec 1st, Admission 25 and 15c.

Omemeé and Vicinity.

One of the most delightful and profitable evenings ever spent in the Presbyterian Church, Omemeé, was on the occasion of Mrs. (Rev.) Kannaui's visit here last Monday, under the auspices of the local branch of the W. F. M. S. Mrs. Kannaui kept the large, appreciative and intellectual audience on all denominations in the village, spell bound during her well delivered and pointed address on Foreign Mission work. Rev. Messrs. Tenev, McCullough, Johnston and Whitelaw also delivered appropriate addresses, the latter gentleman acting as chairman in his usual happy manner. The ladies of the Society decorated the Church, and served dainty refreshments. Altogether it was grand success. Those present were delighted to meet Mrs. Kannaui, who formerly resided here, but now at Woodville, where she and her husband, Rev. W. M. Kannaui, have won the hearts of the people by their zeal in church work, and by their courteous disposition. Happy to meet, but sorry to part, was the verdict. The collections were liberal, and the report of the Society, read by Miss Jardine, the efficient Secretary, showed it to be flourishing. We hope to have Mrs. Kannaui again soon.

Sprained Her Ankle.

"I slipped on an icy step and sprained my right ankle very badly," writes Miss Minnie Barcoze of Glenwood. It swelled to a tremendous size and caused intense pain. I applied Polson's Nerveine and got prompt relief; the swelling was reduced, and before long I was able to use my foot. For sprains, swellings and muscular pains Nerveine is the one sure remedy. Strong, penetrating, swift to destroy pain—that's Polson's Nerveine. Fifty years in use.

Nervousness a Calamity.

Many who don't realize what lies beyond, treat an attack of the nerves with indifference. Others consider it will soon pass away. But in every case nervousness is a calamity. Energy and strength is instilled into every part of the system. You get well—keep well—nervousness forever departs, because you've used Ferrozone. Price 50c. per box of fifty tablets at all Dealers.

WEDDING BELLS.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shaw, Fairview, Otonabee, on Thursday Nov. 23rd at four o'clock in the afternoon, their eldest daughter Iva May, was married to Norman Maxwell Henry of Hope Township. Promptly at four o'clock Miss Cummer began to play the wedding march, as the sweet strains of the music filled the home, the groom entered the parlor accompanied by his brother James F. who was groomsman; presently the bride entered leaning on the arm of her father, followed by her bridesmaids, Miss Ada Shaw and Miss Olga Brand. Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, B.D., of Ashburnham, tied the nuptial knot, after which the congratulations of the guests were extended to bride and groom. The bride looked charming in a gown of white silk eolienne over white tulle, with bridal veil. Miss Ada Shaw in champagne eolienne, and Miss Olga Brand in blue eolienne. The bride carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and the bridesmaids pink chrysanthemums.

The bride's travelling suit was of mulberry cloth with velvet turban to match. The groom's present to the bride was a substantial cheque; to the bridesmaids pearl rings, and to the groomsman a pearl pin.

Supper was served by the Messrs. Long Bros., caterers, Peterboro, about seventy-five sat down, to partake of the feast of good things provided, which everyone united in saying was all that could be desired. Rev. Mr. Langfeldt then rose and proposed the health of the bride, in a speech full of wit and humor, at the close of which he asked all to join in singing "She is a jolly good fellow." Rev. Mr. Johnston of Millbrook was next called upon; in a brief speech he spoke of the pleasure it gave him to be present, having known Mr. and Mrs. Shaw when residents of Cavan, he deplored the fact of so many bachelors continuing in their lonely way, and joined in wishing the bride and groom happiness and long life, with never a ruffle in home or business to induce the groom to ever give expression to his feelings saying "ohshaw." Mr. H. Lawson defended the bachelors in a speech to the point, in the course of which he said, God made the bachelors, but the ministers made the married men. At the request of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Johnston sang a duet in their usual pleasing style.

The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful presents, among which was $50 in gold from the bride's parents. They received from the groom's parents a solid mahogany bedroom suite, the presents were beautiful numerous and costly, and were an evidence of the esteem in which the happy couple are held by their host of friends. Ottawa, Toronto and other cities were represented by gifts. Amid showers of rice and the best wishes of the throng gathered at Fairview the bride and groom left for the nine o'clock train for Toronto; intending to visit the Queen City and other western points before their return.

PUBLIC WARNING.

The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal this week warns the public against falling into a simple error. There is another paper in Montreal with a somewhat similar name, but it is by no means the Family Herald and Weekly Star. When any canvasser calls be sure your receipt is for the Family Herald, the word "Family" must be used to get what you want. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is the big family and farm paper which gives that beautiful picture, "Queen Alexandra, Her Grandchildren and Dogs," free to all subscribers. It is the biggest dollar's worth ever offered. The Family Herald and Weekly Star have also issued the Farmers' Manual and Veterinary Guide, a book no farmer can well afford to be without. There is an enormous rush of subscriptions to the Family Herald and Weekly Star this season, and the publishers are asking present subscribers to renew well in advance, to help them out in the great which will grow too when their beautiful pictures are scattered throughout the country. The picture alone is said to be worth more than two dollars, yet one dollar will buy the paper for a year and the picture.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Henry were called home on account of the illness of his father; who was seriously ill last Monday, we are glad however to report that he is very much improved and is able to be around again.

Without good red blood a man has a weak heart and poor nerves.

Anemia means thinness of blood. It is common in men and young women and all those who work indoors who do not get enough outdoor air and young women in their lugs.
