the most durable cov-Houses, Barns, Stores, Elethe "OSHAWA" shingles. A he kind under the British -PROOF. heets, Conductor Pipe and

"OSHAWA" Shingles. EOPLE,

Lombard st. | 615 Pender st. RKS-OSMAWA. Ont

LLE CURTAINS inds of house Hangings, also THE DYED & CLEANES LIKE NEW. ite te us about jours. AN DYBING CO., Sex 153, Montrosa it in your locality, earn ir spare time selling our os, Toilet Requisites and tracts, articles that are y in every home: 50 per this for you. Write us. ger Company, Toronto.

ADIES!

wers, Attention

andard Apple Trees 4 to 5 fees sardy and thrifty stock for Fall for $15.00 per hundred. GERVAIS, Prop.,

WINNIPEC.

clean unbroken prairie. land on earth, on the ed River, 45 miles from miles from two railway an acre takes it, $5,000

asy. No better farm, no H & BEATTIE, nts Bank Building.

DEFERRED.

mipeg, Man.

adboit, I've borrowed a sums from you at one er. Do you know just you?" alacrity): "Yes; it's en let me have $5, will make it an even hunbe easier for me to re-have periodical attacks era, dyseniery or diarto use great precauhe disease. Change of nd green fruit, is sure attacks. To such perrecommend Dr. J. D. ry Cordial as being in the market for all nts. If a few drops r when the symptoms other trouble will be

THE DAY FOR HIM. oman, on her deathhusband to her side. d, "I've a last ray-fuse ye annything, sponded the sorrow-

Mary, solemnly, "I e mother ride in the to me funeral." ye're askin' of me, was determined on finally yielded to her-Il lave her ride beised, weeping bitter-Mary, darlint, 'twill, me entoirely, that it.

sy supplied the Monthol sithol Plaster, which ree, hearlache, neuralgia, ears old is half the ver reach.

1. I don't supposear little Fido in the when we go out?" n; Oi loike I' have. in things go wrong r up it's a moighty.

cure those those suffering from hronic Bronchitis r Asthma. EE SAMPLE u that we have a stay cured.

MILLBROOK AND OMEMEE MIRROR

Durham and Victoria Standard

VUL. IS. NO. 23. $1 per annum.

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1906.

C. W RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

Or, The Privilege of a Princess.

might the tighter feel the rope.

ly planted by our side in the snow.

der, and descended again.

the cold struck no chill.

"It shall be so," said I; "but there i

"No, we must have Janos with us," there the party that would come on the manœuvre, however, was only manifest sight, we paused.

 PART III.

CHAPTER V.

tected solitude, now fell into a deadly a grenadier sergeant; nevertheless, the horses been well fed? On receiving af- ed for a car, spot, Toronto. bent her ear to listen. The knock was "Who is it?" cried Ottilie, in a strangled voice, "I had said I would be "Tis I, child," came the answer in the well-known deep note; "it is Anna,

I thrust my sword back into its scab-bard; my wife drew a long breath of of bor to the rope and showed her "Now you, sir," said Anna, and jog-I thrust my sword back into its scabpressed to her heart.

"Anna, thank God! We can admit feet, and then, climbing over the bal-"Anna, thank God! We can admit cony, supporting myself by the project- for whom she was responsible, and that

Anna opened the door, stood an in- able to guide the slender body down us in silence; a faint smile hovered is hot and the heart on fire one can do about her hard mouth. Then, without wasting words on futile warnings, she night impossible. made fast the lock, deposited on the floor a dark lantern she had concealed under her apron, walked to the window, which she closed as best she could, and drew the curtains securely. Indeed, her precaution was not idle: through the silence of the outside world of night, mufflled by the snow, but yet unmistakable, the tread of the first batrolling round now grew even more disfinelly upon our ear, passed under the terrace, emphasized by an occasional click of steel, and died away round the corner. With the vanishing sound melted the new anxiety which had clutched me, and I blessed the falling snow which must have hidden again, as soon as registered, the tell-tale traces of my footsteps below.

Anna listened with frowning brow; when all was still once more, she turn- hid under her cloak, and, all three clingthat softened voice I remembered cf tern as noiselessly as shadows.

"I have told your ladies that you had bidden me attend to you this night, and that you must not be disturbed in the morning," and then turned to me: "All is ready, sir; we have till noon before being discovered. And now, child," she continued, as Ottilie, still closely clinging to my side, looked up inquiringly, "no time to lose; there is death in this for the gracious lord, if not for us all

"What does she mean?" asked Ottilie, and seemed brought from a far sphere of bliss face to face with cold reality.

"Oh, Basil, Basil, to leave me again!" ous. I have arranged otherwise." cried I, touched to the quick at the at least discuss, when Ottilie, who had change which had come upon the proud hitherto permitted herself to be led whiif you fear the perils of flight, the hard- tone to let Anna have her way: "Believe ships of the road, or even," said J, me," she said, "you will not repent it." though it was only to try her and taste I would have gone anywhere at the comonce again the exquisite joy of loving, mand of that voice. humble words from her lips, "if you cannot make up your mind to give up Janos, and we cannot leave him in the your high state here, to live as the wife lurch." of a simple gentleman, I am content to die at your side. But leave you, never tender reproach in her tear-dimmed secluded turn at the bottom of the lane, eyes and upon her trembling lips; then where, true to his promise, I found the she answered with simplicity that re- heiduck and his conveyance.

buked my mock humility: "I am content to go with you, Basil, of the carriage had not been lit, but we were it to the end of the world."

could see its bulk rise in denser black At this I could not, in spite of Anna's against the gloom before us, and feel presence, but take her to my heart the warmth of the horses steam out upagain, and the nurse, after watching us on us, with a pleasant stable odor, into ent for all its ruts. The cousin crack-Spring, quiet; No. 1 Northern, 81%c; and jealousy in her hollow eyes, sud-There was a rapid colloquy between denly and somewhat harshly bade us cur two old servants. Janos, the cunremember once more that time was ning fex! at once and appreciatively agreed to Anna's superior plan of ac-

"You," she went on to her lady, per- tion, and indeed his old campaigner's emplorily, as if conscios of being her- wits promptly went one better than the self the true mistress of the situation, peasant's shrewdness: instead of merely "drink you of that broth and break some dismissing the carria as she suggestbread, and drink of that wine, for you ed, he bade the coachman drive out by have not eaten to-day. And you," she the East Gate of the town and, halting added, burning to me, "make ready with at Gleiwitz, awain at the main hostelry

Impatiently and sternly she stood by morrow. And in the dark I could see us until we prepared to okey her or- him emphasize the order by the transfer of some pieces, that clicked knowingly

We owe a very great debt of gratitude in the night silence. The point of the My wife sat down like a child, watch- to me when, turning to follow Anna's ing me, sweet heart! over every mouth- uead again down a side alley, the felful of soup as one who fears the vision low breathed into my ear with a may fade. As for me, appreciating all chuckle: the importance of immediate action, I "While your honor was away I took threw from me the perilous temptation upon myself to despatch his carriage Several Mounted Police Posts Have 10 84; lig o' lelling myself go to the delight of the with our luggage, to meet us, I said, at moment—a delight enhanced, perhaps, Dresden. That will be two false scents A despatch from Ottawa says: The by the very knowledge of environing for them-and we, it seems, take Mounted Police Department is making $2.25; cows, $2.50 to $2.75; bulls, $2.50 danger. Opening my cloak, I unwound the south road to Prague! We shall sweeping changes in the Yukon with a to $2.85. the length of rope from my waist, cau- puzzle Budissin yet." tiously slipped out again on the balcony On we tramped through the deserted to Major Cuthbert, two others of the $3.40; common, $2.50 to $2.75; bulls, $2 and fastened one end to the iron rail. Eye-streets. It was only when we were commissioned officers, Capt. McDonnell to 82.25; heavy feeders, $3.65 to 83.75; Remembering the precious burden it stopped at last, in that self-same poor and Dr. Fraser, are to be transferred short-keeps, $4 to $4.10. was to bear, I could not be satisfied little mean lane, before the self-same to the prairie provinces. The district Milch Cows-Choice, $40 to $50; com-without testing every knot, and finally poor little mean shop, faintly lit inside police posts at Mayo and Glacier have mon. $25 to $35; springers, $25 to $40. into Parliament for the suppression of throwing trying its strength with my own weight by a dull oil lamp. that I recognized the been closed for the winter, as well as Calves-31/2c to 61/2c per 1b. by descending to the terrace. It works scene of my morning's interview with the police hospitals at White Horse Sheep and Lambs-Export ewes are ed satisfactorily, and the distance, for Anna-that interview which seemed al- and Dawson. Police patients will be quoted 25c higher at $4.50 to $4.75; bucks tunately, was not excessive. Then leav- ready to have passed into the far re- cared for in the other hospitals of these ing it dangling, in three leaps I was gions of my memory, so much had I towns. up again and once more in the warm fived through since. room, just in time to see an exquisite We met but few folk upon our way, alone occupied the services of eleven hogs are again casier, and 12%c down the depths of the fur boot which Anna we entered into the evil-smelling room, and it is the intention to dispose of a and $5.87% for lights and fals. was fastening with all the dexterity of stepping down into it from the street, large number of horses and dogs kept

And, indeed, my sweet love submit- lantern and turned upon us a trium- work to be carried on during the comted to be turned and bustled and ma- phant smiling face, I felt that our chief ing winter will be the sending of a pa- Blythfield, Man., have just finished a nipulated with an uncomplaining docil- peril was over. The shop was empty, Irol from Dawson to Fort Macpherson, very successful season, having threshed ify as if she was again back in her but she was not disposed to allow us at the mouth of the Mackenzie, as was 86,000 bushels in a 40-days' run. Some babyhood-although in truth I have rea- even a little halt: she marshalled us successfully done last year. These heavy yields resulted, but the average, and have beard since, that not even which I had already made acquaintance. Yukon to a considerable extent.

with a leathern tent. By the flash of the lantern I saw that to it were hara pair of great raw-boned chestveloped to the ears in sheepskin, with Milheed — Bran, dull and scarce; California were accorded their full a limp felt hat drawn over his brow $15.50 to $16 in bulk, outside; shorts, rights under the treaty of 1894, including was left visible. The waggoner was Montreal freights. evidently expecting us, for he came for- Corn-No. 2 yellow, 53c to 531/2c, To- with the President, and it is likely that ward, withdrew his pipe, touched his ronto. hat, and made a leg.

"My cousin," said Anna to us, and added briefly and significantly: "He asks 1 hard, 82%c asked.

him. Had he placed fresh hay in the waggon according to her orders? Had lake ports, 81c asked, 80c bid.

The action against the causes given for the waggon according to her orders? Had lake ports, 81c asked, 80c bid.

The action against the causes given for the waggon according to her orders? in a deep hood; the sablelined cloak and the must she handed over to me with the abrupt command: "Throw them out! he received from her sister the ham, and the blankets? Had the extra, 47% bid, C.P.R.; No. 3, 51c ask-count Aoki, and he made no attempt Government candidates.

In a denote a sked, soc bid.

Barley—No. 2, 50c bid, east; No. 3 regarded as extremely serious by Vishier efforts to procure the election of number of arrests have been made in a connection with the mutiny here last room. I took Ottilie by the hand, the hood I caught a glimpse of Ottilie's faint smile, as lighted by the lantern rays she mounted upon the wooden stool and "Will you trust yourself, love?" said disappeared into the dark recess of the . She gave me no answer but a shaft of her old fearless looks and yielded her she went, and a far-away fragrance of waist to my arm, and thus we stepped ged my elbow. where to hold, and where to place her I believe at that moment we were to

she would have as readily combed our hair and washed our faces as if we were each swinging rung; for when the blood still of a size to be lifted on her knee. I obeyed. And truly, as I crawled forthings that would otherwise appear wellward in the dark, amid the warm straw, groping my way to the further end till? Safely we reached the ground. I enlaid my hand on Ottilie's soft young veloped her in the cloak which Anna's arm extended towards me, when I heard forethought had provided, and after her laugh a little laugh to herself as we granting myself the luxury of another snuggled in the nest together, I felt a embrace I was preparing to ascend the happiness that was like that of a child. blessed rope again for the purpose of all innocent of past and improvident assisting Anna, when I discovered that of future. Nevertheless at one and the incomparable woman solidly and stolidsame time my whole being was stirred to its depths with a tenderness my man-"All is right, gracious sir," she said in hood had not yet known. a hoarse whisper; "but it would be as In those foolish bygone days I had well to take away that rope, since you loved her, the sweet soul, with the uncan go up and down so easily without worthy, mad passion of a lover for his mistress. When she left me I had Recognizing in an instant the wisdom mourned her as a man mourns for his of the suggestion-it was well some one wife, flesh of his flesh, bone of his had a waking brain that night!-I clambered up once more, and in a few seclad and maid together; our love, after market for oals is steady in tone. onds had flung down the tell-tale ladall the sorrow and agony we had passei through, seemed to wear the unspeakable freshness of a first courtship, store, It was written that good measure was Oals-On spot, No. 2 white, 41c to A despatch from Moosomin, Sask., ing together, we hastened to the possnow fell, but the wind had all subsided, and the air was now so still that Outside the postern, seeing no one in "I have told Janos to be at the botshe pocketed the key after turning the ward end, we heard a jingle of bells, a $1.55, lock. And then to my wife, who hung close and silent to my arm: "It is but a little way, and then you shall rest." irresponsibility and delicious mystery. lated, $1.55.

spirit of my beloved; "but if you will ther I would, like one in a dream, suddenly cried to me in an urgent under-ling lights. Ottilie lay against my side the ghost-like houses and the twink- er, $10.50 to $11 per ton, in car lols. shoulder, and I felt her light breath 18%c to 19c for No. 1 candled. upon my cheek.

how long-there was a halt; there came 50 clear fat back, $23.50; long cut heavy a shout from our driver, and an an- mess, $20.50; half-barrels do., $10.75; swering shout beyond. I knew we had dry salt long clear bacon, 121/c to 123/c; come to the Town Gates. That was a barrels plate beef, $12 to $13; half-baragain! Ah! my God, once was too me, children." And uncovering her lantern with her shirts well killed up, she heavy beating of the pulses in my ears lard, 8c to 9%c; pure lard, 12%c to 13c; said Anna; "but that is easy. Follow palpitating moment of anxiety as the rels do., $6.50 to $7; barrels heavy mess would not allow me to follow. Next kettle rendered, 131/2c to 14c; hams, 14c the rough cadence of a jovial laugh fell to 15%c. according to size; breakfast loud upon the air, and then-sweeter bacon, 15c to 16c; Windsor bacon, 15c to music I have seldom heard!-the clank 16%c; fresh killed abattoir dressed hogs, For the greater security the lamps of the gate's bar. Once more we felt 89 to 89.25; alive, $6.25 to $6.50, ourselves rumbling on slowly till we had passed the bridge and exchanged the cobbles of the town for the surface of the great Imperial road, more lenibroke into a heavy jog-trot. "In the name of the Father, and of mixed, 362ce: the Son, and of the Holy Ghost," said Anna suddenly from her dark corner, in a loud vibrating voice, "give thanks to God, you children!" She leant forward as she spoke, and pulled aside the 2 red, 79% elevator; No. 2 red, Ste 1.

With the rush of snowy air came to f.o.b. affoat. us framed by the aperture a refreating vision of Budissin, studded here and there with rare gleams of light. Thus did my wife, the young Princess of Lusatia. · leave her father's dominions, her prospects of a throne, for the love of a simple English gentleman!

To be Continued.) CHANGES IN YUKON FORCE.

view of reducing the force. In addition | Stockers and Feeders-Choice $3.25 !

and as Anna shot back the slide of the at the Dawson post. About the only across the court-yard into the back like There stood a country waggon

Toronto, Oct. 30 .- Flour-Ontario nown better service in their days-no $2.75 asked for 90 per cent. patents,

Peas-78c bid, C.P.R. or G.T.R. him then immediately produce the chair, Oats—No. 2 white, 35%c bid on 5c nations," said he, "it seems too bad allies, but where there is no chance for Buckwheat-54c bid, G.T.R. west.

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

Butter-Prices on practically all grades of butter are now 3c per to. higher than they were a year ago, and dealers do Overpower Guards and Make Their, measures to hamper the campaign of were wounded. Seventeen convicts sucnot expect to see any moderation this Creamery 25c to 26c 14c to 14%c for twins. Eggs--21c to 22c.

eastern, 65c to 70c per bag, on track Poultry-Very little doing.

do live 4c to 6c Ducks, dressed 8c to 10c Geese, dressed 9c to 11c Turkeys 14c to 16c Baled Hay-$10 for No. 1 timothy on track here in car lots. Baled Straw-Prices are steady at $5.50 to $6 per ton in car lots here.

MONTREAL MARKETS.

bone. Now, however, we seemed to be Montreal, Oct. 30.-Grain - The local Corn-American No. 2 mixed, 57c ex

After a while-it would be hard to say 822 to $24; half-barrels, $11.75 to $12,- Remarkable Presence of Mind and Reso-

BUFFALO MARKET. ed his whip again and bellowed to his Winter nominal, Corn-Dull; No. 2 yelcattle; after infinite persuasion they low, 52c; No. 2 corn, 51%c. Oats -

> NEW YORK WHEAT MARKET. New York, Oct. 30 .- Spot steady; No. f.o.b. affoat; No. 2 hard winter, 82c

> > CATTLE MARKET.

grade, with which the market seems al- lows:-ready overslocked.

Butcher Cattle-Choice, $4.40 to $4.-75; medium, 83.75 to 84; common, 83 to and cuils, $3 to $3.50; lambs, $5.25 to gleam of silk stocking disappear into who paid little attention to us. As men during the summer, has been sold at $6.12\% per cwt. for choice selects son to believe, from what I know of her through the dark narrow passages with changes will reduce the force in the it is expected, will be 22 bushels per carry

PROTEST FROM JAPAN.

Against Treatment of Japanese Chil-A despatch from Washington-says

Viscount Aoki, the Japanese Ambassatill only some three-quarters of a $18.50; Manitoba bran, $18; shorts, $21 the right of children freely to attend shrewd empurpled, not unkindly visage in car lots, bags included; Toronto and the public schools of San Francisco.

PRISONERS ESCAPE.

A despatch from London, England, do solids 23c to 24c says: When a warder in the jail at dairy prints 22c to 23c. Gloucester noticed that the light was Democrats and the more radical parties do pails 19c to 20c out in one of the cells between 8 and the various Governors are directed to do tubs 18c to 20c 9 o'clock on Thursday evening, he in-knocked him down, rendering him unconscious. The convict then seized the Potaloes-Ontario 55c to 60c per bag; warder's keys and released convicts from their cells. The governor of the jail was aroused by the turnult and hurried conclude the elections before the Rus- ridges. to the spot. But the convicts seized him sian-Christmas, hence the Government Regarding the repeated rumors that Chickens, dressed 8c to 10c and threw him into a cell with the unmay disregard the six weeks' interval the Government is contemplating the do live 6c to 8c Conscious warder and locked them in. which, according to law, must elapse issue of another loan, it is authoritative. The freed convicts then hurried to the between the publication of the election tively stated that no loan, foreign or main entrance, overthrew a warder lists and election day. If the lists of domestic, was contemplated, except the who tried to stop them there and strip- voters on the borderlands and elsewhere internal loan to be issued about Dec. ged him of his keys and money. Five succeeded in escaping, the others make public announcement of the elecbein seized. The five rushed to the bank tiens may not be issued. of the River Severn and demanded of a boatman that he row them across. He refused, and they then left the river) and fled into the country.

BODY FOUND IN SLOUGH Buckwheat-56c per bushel, ex store. Supposed to be That of James Greenley, Forget, Sask.

ing James Kenan discovered the body of terrorists, who are now serving the ing over! I took it with a thankful Peas-Boiling peas, $1 in carload lots a man in a slough about a mile south The cart swayed and creaked as Ja
The cart swayed and creaked as Ja Flour—Manitoba spring wheat, $4.25 vanced stage of decomposition, having thorities are preparing rigorously to artillery officer, has been sentenced to nos and Anna mounted and settled to $4.60; strong bakers', $3.90 to $4.- been in the water some five or six themselves at our feet, drawing the hay 10, winter wheat patents, $4.10 to $4.25; months. Apparently the unfortunate high over themselves. Then came an- straight rollers, $3.60 to $3.70; do, in man had allempted to make his way other creaking and swaying in the for- bags, $1.65 to $1.75; extras, $1.50 to across the slough, which is a large one, ward end, we heard a jingle of bells, a $1.55.

crack of the whip and a horse shout; Millfeed-Manitoba bran, in bags, $19 late date to fathom, he fell where he completely contained by the body of th Even as I spoke I turned to lead her, at a grave pace we rumbled over the $21.50 to $22; milled mouille, $21 to $25; business address of Dr. McDougail, at "I have thought better," she said. "To there through street after street which Rolled Oats—Per bag, $1.95 to $2 in Grand, Moosomin, shows that one James | Grand, Moosomin, shows that one James | Forget, Sask. The register of the Hotel UAPPENINGS FROM ALL OVER TUB England will become a Socialistic lane. leave the town in a carriage is danger- we could not see. And in the midst of car lots and $2.10 in joining lots. | Oreenley registered there on June 4th "Leave you! I will never leave you," I was about, I believe, to protest, or our hay we felt a sense of comfortable Comment—Feed meal, $1.25; granu- last. The authorities at Forget have been communicated with in order if pos-Ali in the inner darkness we were dim- Hay-No. 1, $12.50 to $13; No. 2, $12; sible to fully identify the unfortunate Telegraphic Briefs From Our Own and

MATES CHOPPED HIS LEG OFF.

A despatch from Winnipeg says: at La Salle, Man. Caught beneath his engine in the C.N.R.

wreck at Eli, B. F. Unger coolly gave by-law in January. the directions by which his companions chopped off his leg to save his life. ment in Edmonton. Steam was escaping from the shattered British Columbia mills cut 473,713.986 boiler, and the imprisoned man was be- feet of lumber last year. ing slowly roasted." He charged the Smallpox is prevalent among Indians fireman to tie a rope around the upper around Fort Saskatchewan. part of the limb that he might not bleed | Windsor's stone crusher has crushed to death, then with one terrific blow of 45,000 tons of cobblestones at a cost of an axe the leg was chopped free and 28c per ton. the engineer removed from the steam A $70 fine was put upon W. Bell of bath. He retained consciousness the en- Weyburn, Sask., for scalping a Hartire time, and gave the orders that vester's ticket to Penelanguishene. caused the appropriation of a hand-car The Grand Trunk Railway Company

GREAT GROWTH OF WEST.

Hospital on Wednesday morning.

leathern curtains that hung across the o.b. affoat; No. 1 northern Duluth, 86% Shown by Census of the Three Prairie Provinces.

A despatch from Ottawa says: The Alberta returns of the quinquennial census of slanding or troubles, will be over the three prairie provinces demonstrate 1,250.0.0 tons. Toronto, Oct. 30.-Trade was not any that Manitoba's population has in- A serious outbreak of smallpox is retoo good at the City Cattle Market this creased 40 per cent. in the five years, ported at Middle Southampton, N. B. morning. The run was fairly large, Alberta 65 per cent, and Saskatchewan Seven families are afflicted, and there with altogether too much of it poor 180 per cent. The figures are as follere twenty cases.

Export Cattle-Choice, $4.50 to $4.65; Maniloba 225,211 364,000 from taxation on condition of establish-1901. 1906.

> GAMBLING IN NEW ZEALAND. Drastic Bill to Suppress it Introduced Into Parliament.

A despatch from Wellington, N. Z.

NEW YORK'S BIG BUDGET.

Will Cost $125,000,000 to Run City for to seven years in the penifentiary. a Year. A despaich from New York says: The Board of Estimates has agreed upon a tentative budget. It will cost about $125,000,000 to run the city Government of Greater New York next your.

doubt at one time had felt the trooper's spurs. Boot on Thursday made the request on toba — First patents, $4.50; second patbehalf of his Government that the United Methods by Which the New Parliament Is to be Elected.

representations will be made to the authorities. The Ambassador said the December 30 as the date for homing the Wheat-Manitoba-At lake ports, No. exclusion of Japanese children from San election of members to the new Parlia-Then in a severe tone of command 70 per cent. points, 70c bid outside; States. He was inclined to discount the throughout the empire. A circular has hundred or more soldiers of the garrison she proceeded to address several to mixed, 70c bid. G. T. R. or C. P. R. other causes given for the sentiment been sent to the various provincial here have been arrested on the charge

ed. Next she gave me the lantern—she that the lady and the gentleman might rate to Toronto; 35c asked on 9c rate that the poor innocent little Japanese the election of these candidates the inschool children should be subjected to fluence of the Government will be thrown on the side of the Regenerationists in order to deafeat the constitutional De-

> CAMPAIGN METHODS the opposition parties, including the ceeded in making their escape. deportation and imprisonment of pernicious agitators. As practically the campaign organs.

NEED OF HASTE. There is a strong desire to take ad- workmen, who carried off the greater vantage of the present tranquility and part of the revolvers and 8,000 cariare delayed in coming in the ukase to in order to balance the budget on the

WHOLESALE ARRESTS.

A despatch from Warsaw says: Whole- because he had betrayed his party. He sale arrests and domiciliary searches had just recovered from a wounld into be paid me to compensate for past 41%c; No. 3, while, 40c to 40%c; No. 4, says: At an early hour on Friday morncontinue here. The police, aided by flicted on him by Revolutionists. troops, are vigorously running, down stamp out the slightest disturbances. | five years' imprisonment at hard labor Owing to the postponement of the ex- for having bombs in his possession.

A despatch from St. Petersburg says: ecution of certain terrorists, the Social-As a result of recent conferences the ists have withdrawn their proclamation connection with the mutiny here last

CONVICTS ESCAPE

A despatch from Irkutsk says: An attempt of the convicts here to breaks out of jail on Tuesday night led to a serious fight, during which nine con-

WORKMEN RECOVER FIREARMS.

A despatch from St. Petersburg says: At Tashkent, in Asiatic Russia, a detachment of gendarmes, who on Wednesday seized a shipment of 238 revolvers and 16,000 cartriages destined for the revolutionists, were later attacked and defeated by an armed party of

REVENGE ON TRAITOR.

A despatch from Lodz says: The post A despatch from Mitau, Courtland, lice on Tuesday night searched 143 hous- says: A man named Sprogge, once a es here. Doctors, lawyers and business prominent revolutionary leader in the men to the number of seventy were ar- Baltic provinces, was killed here on Thursday, while on his way to America,

HAD BOMBS IN HIS KEEPING.

Other Countries of Recent Occurrence. CANADA.

Measles are epidemic in West Lon-An epidemic of diphtheria prevails Brantford will vote on the local option

Col. Edwards is forming a city region which he was brought to Winnipeg. Will apply to Parliament for power to Firm; No. 2 white, 371/4 to 371/2c; No. 2 For seven hours he sustained the awful establish a pension and superannuation pain, only to die in the St. Boniface fund for their employees.

Fourteen Grand Trunk conductors running between Toronto, Montreal and Portland have been discharged by the John Erickson, a Fernie bar tender, threw himself in front of a moving train at Sentinel, B.C., and was cut to pieces.

It is estimated that the output of the ines this year, notwith-

Saskatoon has given a flour mill $4; light bulls, $3 to $3.25; cows, $3.50 Saskalchewan 91,560 257,000 Bran!ford's population, as shown by Assessor Thorburn, has fallen off about 600, while the voters' list has an increase of 200 names.

> B.C., the terminal of the G. T. P., will ten of the gold standard. The news-The London Electric Light Com- Parliament, especially the enactment of guilty of robbing and assaulting a woman named Summers, and sentenced The five-year-old son of Charles Stevenson, Calgary, drank a big potion Explosion of Go of whiskey and died. The child got the stuff during the night from a bottle which the father had taken to bed with

Hon. L. J. Tweedle, of New Bruns wick, announces that r w the sursidy had been increased, salaries to leach-ers will probably be increased, and a fund founded for leachers who had served the public faithfully

GREAT BRITAIN. General Sir Redvers Buller has relired from the British army. The Countess of Warwick predicts that the formation of a home fleet of reserve-

The British Admirally has announced

UNITED STATES. Knights of Pythias pass a statute excluding from membership all dealers in The General Conference of the Union American Methodist Episcopal Churches has forbidden its clergy to marry, divorced persons.

The largest flag in the world, a Star-

Spangled banner, is to hang in the great court of the Post Office Building, Washington, as soon as the bunting can be sewn together. It will be 60 feet long by 35 wide, and the cost is to be about President Roosevelt has determined to prevent the further simultaneous employment in Government service of husband and wife. One or the other must retire. He has requested the Civil Service Commission to furnish him a list of all such cases. The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, on behalf of its switchmen, have presented demands to all the railroads entering Chicago for an eight-hour day. The move is the most extensive attempted by the railroad organizations in many years. Every railroad west of Pittsburg and Buffalo in the United States is involved.

GENERAL.

A United States company has secured the right to experiment in rubber growing on the Congo River. The French Cabinet has decided to sequester the properly and revenues of the rebellious clergy on December 11th.

Foreshadowed by Work of the Present Parliament. A despatch from Madrid says: The budget proposals of the Government, which were read at the opening of Par-Streets are now being laid out and liament on Tuesday, involve sweeping within three months Prince Bupert, financial reforms, including the institu-

SPAIN'S REGENERATION.

papers regard the legislative work of as the most important undertaking for At Winnipeg, on Friday, Alphonse years and as foreshadowing the moral Marcotte, an ex-convict, was found and material regeneration of Spain,

SEVEN KILLED IN MINE.

as never failed t o any address. ON & CO... Owen Sound, Out 43 €4.

something to kick

springing to his feet.