MILLBROOK AND OMEMEE MIRROR

Durham and Victoria Standard

VOL. 20. NO. 25.

$i per annum.

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1908,

C. W RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

The Price of Dishonor;

Or, The Lord of Verona's Disappointment

It is a day in early summer, as beautiful as such days were in the Southern lands of 500 years ago. It black horses, the size and magnifiis Italy steeped in golden sunlight cent liveries of the huge negroes read the horseman, and the caval which lies like a haze over the who walked at their heads. To cade passed on its heavy way, and spreading view; the year 1360, when him it was an interesting sight, an the faint hope that had leapt to life onta cities were beautiful and nature allpervading. Here is Lombardy, Milanese peasants it was the sym-sight of human eyes upon them, spread like a garden in the hollow bol of the dread power that ruled died within them. of the hills, ringed about with the Lombardy with a grip of blood, the But on the outside of the crowd, purple Apennines, covered with device that kept Milan, the wealthi- Tomaso and Vittore, kneeling with finest in Italy, winds from Milan to ner that had waved from city after coach came abreast, the woman oats quoted at 42c, Goderich. Brescia, its whole length through city, added by force or treachery made a convulsive movement with chestnut woods and plains covered to the dominions of Milan; the ban- her hands. The elder sprang to his side.

peers, stood back among the trees, | Still at the same measured pace | There was no need for a second surrounded by magnificent grounds. the coach advanced; a cumbrous With a scream of pain, Tomaso fell Behind them beautiful open coun- structure, swung high on massive back, and then, as if noticing them try spread into the blue distance, gilded wheels, and open under an for the first time, the horseman ragrant and glorious with budding embroidered canopy of scarlet silk. sent his glance on the crowd. No And cold and magnificent At the head of each black horse sound or movement; they cowered the great city itself, with its huge walked a negro, richly dressed in beneath his eyes in deprecating si- for it. walls and gates, crowned and em- scarlet and gold. The trappings of lence. lines of hundreds of turrets and ed leather and metal. against the sky. And paramount, peasant folk of Lombardy were used catching the eye with color, weigh- to; it was not that that made them ing on the mind with meaning, were crouch as if they would ask the peasants, that though the wounded are :the city's banners. They floated earth to hide them, shiver and shud. loy lay moaning in the road, not a Creamery, choice, pound 26c to 27c from the gates and the highest der yet further back as if the soft man, scarce a child among them Dairy prints, choice 24c to 26c buildings, half a score of them, all green bank could save them. with the same device. Far off could that device be read; a green Viper on a silver ground; the emblazon-

ment of the Visconti. From afar the city was a vision of stately splendor, and the low in furs, and half-hidden in sating dwellings clustered round about her cushions nothing of the ald walls, in the shadow of the palaces, visible, but his wrinkled face, grey appeared to the nearing traveller beard, and loaded with rings, thin but a touch added of the pictures-que. A close survey, however, revealed semi-ruined huts; in their his heavy silken robe. The woman, feul neglect and unsightliness, a blot upon the scene. They were homes of peasants, who, tattered and miserable, starved and unwashed, seemed their fitting occupants. Here comes a band of them slowly dragging along the road to-wards Milan, men, women, and children, leading a few rough-haired ions in an attitude of despair, the mules, laden with scanty country produce. It was poor stuff, and a poor living they made of it. The ing terror-stricken eyes over the wealthy grew their own fruit and wretched spectators in a mute apvegetables, the poorer could not af- peal for help, if even from them. ford to buy. Crushed by hopeless oppression into a perpetual dull horseman who had struck the teracceptance, the crowd trudged ror. His pace was leisurely, his along, with shuffling feet and bent horse's bridle held by a pale-faced heads, unheeding the beauty and man with long red hair, of a stealthe sunshine, unnoticing the glory thy bearing, crushed and mean- To Verona! of the spring, with dull faces from looking, but resplendent in a jewelwhich all the soul had been stamp- led dress. The rider himself, slight ed out, and "fear" writ large and handsome, about thirty, plainacross the blank. Every movement ly attired in green, gave, at a first showed them slaves, every line in glance, small token of the spell he their bent figures told they lived un- exercised. He rode with ease and der a rule of terror, too potent for surety; in one hand a half-rolled Scala's courtthem to dare even to raise their parchment from which he read and brown monotony along the long whip with which he flicked and Tomaso is dying! est beauty of fair Italy, these mis- age. blossoming country and the magni- man were the whole of the proces- help they could. ficent city they drew near.

Keeping close behind them walked At the rider's side hung a single a young man and a boy, better at- dagger, the others were unarmed, tired than the others, yet travel- yet the crowd trembled under a worn and weary-looking. The deli- spell of fear as if half Italy had cate cast of their features bespoke backed that man. No one gave sign them of another part of Italy, as of feeling, no one moved, though did the soft Latin tongue in which the wretched couple looked round they held their whispering, excited keenly and eagerly, with the helpconversation. The elder, whom his less misery of those who have falcompanion called Tomaso, was a len below everything save fear, and fair-haired youth of about nineteen; will stoop to ask help of the lowest. nipeg and has signed an agreement Bran-$21 to $22; shorts, $25; On- gaged or interested in public chari- versity has resigned. the other, like enough to be a re And the Visconti banner floated out lative a mere child of ten or twelve dreamily man the light coming the l lative, a mere child of ten or twelve dreamily upon the light spring here of a new elevator with a ca-The sun was growing hot, and their breeze, and the rider rode at case pacity of 1,500,000 bushels, to cost per ton, including bags; pure grain lic addresses at the Conference stout cloaks full of dull red serge and read from one parchment with soon,000. The site is already pro- mouille, $30 to $35; milled grades, will be delivered by J. A. Leonard, The site is already pro- mouille, $30 to $35; milled grades, will be delivered by J. A. Leonard, The site is already pro- mouille, $30 to $35; milled grades, will be delivered by J. A. Leonard, The site is already pro- mouille, $30 to $35; milled grades, will be delivered by J. A. Leonard, The site is already pro- mouille, $30 to $35; milled grades, will be delivered by J. A. Leonard, The site is already pro- mouille, $30 to $35; milled grades, will be delivered by J. A. Leonard, The site is already pro- mouille, $30 to $35; milled grades, will be delivered by J. A. Leonard, The site is already pro- mouille, $30 to $35; milled grades, will be delivered by J. A. Leonard, The site is already pro- mouille, $30 to $35; milled grades, will be delivered by J. A. Leonard, The site is already pro- mount to be site. were flung back, showing their lea- a smiling face. thern doublets, to which the elder Suddenly the old man rose, and most immediately. The promoters are steady at $2.40 per bag of 90 Reformatory, on Prison Reform. boy wore attached a great pouch of threw out his hands with a wild of the company are W. McWilliams, pounds, and cornmeal is unchanged Such important questions as the undressed skin, which evidently gesture towards crouching pea- N. Bawlf, and C. B. Piper, who at $4.10 to $4.30 per barrel, care of the consumptive, houses of fore their day's provisions.

grey, was distant barely half a sent him back to his seat with a which has a plant at Fort William. ored. White easterns are quoted juvenile delinquents, care of the mile, the group of wretched figures sparl of impotent fury. The wowas roused from its shuffling apa- man sobbed aloud, but sat still, for THREE KILLED AT CROSSING. creamery quoted at 26c to 263/4c in are to be discussed. A delegation thy; and the terror latent in their the tease of the wnip followed their aspect leapt into life and motion. slightest movements, though the Mrs. Robert Scott and Sons Run Swept back by the others, the horseman seemed to heed nothing two Florentines gazed in amaze- but the parchment from which he ment to learn the cause of this pan- read. ic. In the distance, brilliant between the dark stone of the gate- "Beautiful the Tuscan flowers grew Leonard and Murray, aged 11 and way of the city, fluttered a banner, biazoned with the same device as those that blew above the walls.

Around the Florentine-

The pelasants' eyes, sharpened by smiling lips; he raised his eyes and two crossings east of Auburn and No. 1 Northern, $1.04 to $1.04%; fear aso's; looked straight at the old man, who, eleven miles from Goderich. They No. 2 Northern, $1.02 to $1.02%; Lean's Camp, on the Transconting of the annexation of Bosnia determination net to budge on this and the calm voice continued:

> But straight and firm from poplars grew The Lombard ranks between."

The woman gazed round the crowd, desperate in hopeless misery.. Hopeless indeed. Not a finger was raised, not a word uttered, though, men alone, they numbered more than fity.

'Perchance thou wouldst not dare And draw the veil from off that

Fearing what secrets thou might'st [looked with pleasure not unmixed] Both for thine own and her disand from the midst of their delicate With trembling hands and mut- way the horseman drew rein, and 551/2c outside. blooms spring the slender stems of tered threats to their slow beasts, the terror-stricken crowd watched Buckwheat-55 to 56c outside. poplar trees; these are red-gold, the hinds dragged their burdens to breathless, while the youth advancbursting into bloom against a ten- the roadside, forcing the children ed boldly to his stirrup, hot words outside. der sky; tufts of young green; back into the hedges; leaving clear upon his lips, defiance in his eyes. the ways. Cowering and awestruck The red-haired man at the bridle nominal at 821/2c on track, Toron- land, too, has gone Taftward, all ing out in two distinct places. Sev- Pembroke Woollen Mills, Pem-But for all its unspoiled beauty, in fascinated expectation, they crouched, but before the lad could to, and No. 3 at 82c. the road was one of common use, stared, towards that oncoming ban- speak, the rider, leaning forward, Bran-Cars are quoted at $18 to cial count will be necessary to de-dow towards Brescia.

stirred from his place till the ban- Store, prints and tubs .. 22c to 23c ner of the Viper was a silver speck Inferior 19c to 21c a woman, but both so old and shriv- in the distance.

Then with shaking hands the twins, 131/c to 14c. hed that the distinguishing characteristics of their sex were wellnigh lost. Both were richly clad Vittore, rising from his stricken 22c to 23c. with horror-stricken eyes.

In the coach sat two, a man and cushions, nothing of the old man which were clutching nervously at painted and bedizened under a

Behind them rode the single large red wing, weighed down by gathering together. "Who are thou that thou know-a gown of cloth of gold, and with pearls around her neck, wrung her est not?" she asked. "I come from Florence," said hands together, and whispered inthe lad quickly, "cravelling to Vecoherently below her breath. Both thy way to Verona here.' man looking steadily in front of him with a white face, the woman cast-could scarce refrain from weeping. pickle, ic less than smoked. "To Verona!" said an old peasant, turning sharply at the name knees beside Tomaso.

(To be Continued.)

A NEW GRAIN ELEVATOR. Company to Erect $500,000 Structure at Port Arthur.

Down by Engine.

A despatch from Guelph says: Mrs. Robert Scott and two sons, 13 years, of Hullet, were instantly Minneapolis, Nov. 10-Wheat killed on Wednesday morning on December, $1.01%; May, $1.05%; The soft lines died away on his the Guelph and Goderich Railroad, cash No. 1 hard $1.05% to $1.05%; ds before he at the words, had twent in his seat were driving to school and were No. 3 Northern, 98c to $1.01% ental Railway, 18 miles north of and Herzegovina, the independence bank shoulder struck by a light engine, running Brau-$17.70 to $18. Flour-First Dryden, Ont., by an explosion of Bulgaria, the compensation to be have not been relaxed, but the Gov-

REPORTS FROM THE LEADING TRADE CENTRES.

Prices of Cattle, Grain, Cheese and Other Dairy Produce at Home and Abroad. BREADSTUFFS.

Toronto, Nov. 10.-Flour-Ontario wheat 90 per cent. patents quoted at $3.55 to $3.60 in buyers' ba flour, first pate ts, $5.80 on track, Toronto; second patents, $5.30, and strong bakers', $5.10. Wheat-Manitoba wheat, $1.051/2

Oats-Ontario No. 2 white, 38 to can majority of 57. The Republi- storey was first noticed to be in flowers, white, yellow, purple, and est, proudest city in the north, the rest, as that banner drew near, 381/2c outside, and at 41c on track, cans lost twelve seats. While there flames, but by the time the firemen pink. This wide road, one of the cringing in silent slavery; the ban- now stirred uneasily, and, as the Toronto; No. 2 Western Canada were Republican gains in some arrived the factory was doomed.

with flowering myrtle. Primroses per of Gian Galeazzo Maria Vis- feet and stepped forward impulsi- Barley-No. 2 barley quoted at Nebraska. The latest returns ap- the Leland Hotel, and thence to Fraser's boot and shoe store, vely. At sight of him in the road- 56 to 57c. and No. 3 extra at 55 to pear to increase instead of dimin- the hotel itself, and across the Briscoe's restaurant, Kemp's gro-ed at $22 in bulk outside.

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

Poultry-Prices hold remarkably firm, as there is a good demand apparently has carried only enough

Chickens, dressed 10c to 11c electoral college. Conceding Colphasied the landscape's beauty. The the steeds were dazzling, in stamp- "Drive on," he said, and the Fowl 8c to 9c orado to Bryan, it is likely that Mr. dreary procession started again, Ducks 10c to 11c Taft's majority in the electoral colspires, bold and delicate, leapt up But this splendor of array the winding through the sun and sha- Geese 9c to 10c lege will be 171. Turkeys 12c to 14c So great was the spell upon the Butter-Local wholesale prices amid a babble of blame and fear. ers' eggs, 24c to 25c; cold storage, are suffering from diseases of all and $1.90 to $2 for hand-picked. "Who was it?" he whispered at Honey-10c to 11c per pound for view somewhat of a surprise. last to the woman near him. "Who strained and $2 to $2.75 per dozen for combs. She turned a dull face up from Potatoes-Ontario 60c; Delawares lions of India is known to all, and the scattered vegetables she was 75c to 80c per bag in car lots on most of us were content to believe track here.

PROVISIONS.

rel; mess, $19 to $19.50.

pails, 1334c. where we looked to spend the night, 171/3 to 18c; shoulders, 101/2c to 11c; follows: rolls, 11 to 111/2c; breakfast bacon,

MONTREAL MARKETS

The child dropped again to his Montreal, Nov. 10-As far as inquiries for Manitoba spring wheat antiseptic that has the power of de-"Yes," he said, over his shoul- from foreign sources are concern- stroying this microbe. At present der. "My cousin-he is done to ed there is little to complain of, I can make no suggestion as to the death, I fear me-and I were trav- but the price offered is so out of origin of this mysterious antisepelling by way of Milan to Della line that there is still little trade tic '" eventuating. These show an ad-He broke off, and wrung his vance of from 11/2d to 3d. American CHARITIES AND CORRECTION eyes to question. A stream of grey aloud in a soft voice, in the other a hands. "Oh, help me, someone; corn is in quiet demand at 78c for No. 2 mixed in car lots and 79c for Conference Will be Held in Toronto glorious road, decked with the fair- teased the occupants of the carri- With a certain dull humanity, No. 2 yellow per bushel, ex-store. kindness it could scarcely be called Buckwheat, 61c per bushel for No. erable peasants were strangely out The coach and its occupants, the that was so inert and full of apa- 2 afloat. Canadian western No. 2 A despatch from Toronto says: of keeping, both with the radiant solitary rider, and the red-haired thy, one or two of them gave what white oats are selling at 45c to The meeting of the Canadian Con-451/c, No. 3 at 44c, extra No. 1 ference of Charities and Correcfeed oats at 44c and No. 1 feed at tion at Toronto, Wednesday and 431/2c; Ontario No. 2 white at 44c Thursday, November 25th and 26th, to 441/2c, No. 3 at 43c to 431/2c, and promises to be one of the most in No. 4 at 421/2c to 43c per bushel, teresting gatherings ever held in Flour-Manitoba spring wheat has evidently been carefully prepatents, firsts at $6, second at $6.- pared, deals with all phases of A despatch from Port Arthur 50; winter wheat patents, $5 to charitable work and corrective mesays: A new company, to be known $5.25; straight rollers, $4.50 to $4.- thods in this country. The aim of as the Thunder Bay Elevator Com- 60; do., in bags, $2.10 to $2.20; the Executive is evidently to bring pany, has been organized at Win- extras, $1.75 to $1.85. Manitoba together as never before all encured and work will commence al- $25 to $28 per ton. Rolled oats Superintendent of the Ohio State sants. His frantic cry was stilled are the principal stockholders in Cheese-Westerns quoted at 121/2c refuge, hospital financing, our gaol at 12c to 121/8c. Butter - Finest inebriate, causes of poverty, etc., round lots, and 27c to 271/2c to from every county in Ontario has grocers. Eggs-Selected, 25c to been promised and everyone inter-

UNITED STATES MARKETS.

2, 17½c per dozen.

WORLD'S MARKETS steady; No. 1 carloads, store, $1.
O73/4; Winter firm. Corn — Weak;
No. 3 yellow, 701/2c; No. 4 yellow, 691/2c; No. 3 corn, 67 to 69c. Oats —Steady; No. 2 white, 511/2 to 52c.

Rayley, Food to realize to 52c. Barley-Feed to malting, 61 to 70c.

2 Northern, $1.06 to $1.061/2; No. 2 Northern, $1.021/2 to $1.04; December, 99 %c asked. Rye-No. 1 75c. Corn-December, 623/4c asked. Barley-Standard, 64c; sample, 521/2 to 64c; No. 3, 56 to 59c; No. 4, 521/2 to 60c.

REPUBLICAN MAJORITY 45.

A despatch from New York says Election returns from Congressionfor No. 1 Northern, and at $1.021/2 al districts indicate that the House ance at $240,000 for No. 2 Northern, Georgian Bay of Representatives in the 61st Con-167 Democrats, giving a Republi- from a passing engine. The top flames. states, notably in Pennsylvania, From there it spread to the Wright pletely destroyed: National Manu-Rye-No. 2 quoted at 771/2c out- these were offset by striking De- tannery, a frame building adjac- facturing Co., Leland Hotel, mocratic victories in Indiana and ent, then to the frame stables of Wright's tannery, Brash's Hotel, ish Mr. Taft's sweeping victory. street to a number of frame build- cery, Wallace Co.'s drugs, Winter's From present indications he has ings. A terrible wind was blowing, dentistry, Harding's photograph Peas-No. 2 quoted at 85 to 86c carried Missouri by 8,000, thus ad- and the burning embers and sparks gallery, Mitchell's stationery, Mil-with its five electoral votes, Bryan States to give him 151 votes in the CHOLERA AND THE GANGES. Whitewashing the Reputation of the Sacred River.

The revolting customs which pre-Cheese-Large, 13c to 131/2c; vail among pilgrims to the Ganges, including promiscuous bathing by youth was dragged into the ditch Eggs-New-laid, 26c to 30c; farm- those who are well and those who sorts and the drinking of water HAPPENINGS FROM ALL OVER comrade, gazed into the distance Beans-$1.80 to $1.90 for primes from the bathing places, make the following item from the Indian Re-

"The reputation of the water of Telegraphic Briefs From Our Own the Ganges among the Hindu milthat in a hot and thirsty land like northern India such a magnificent river as the Ganges had many claims to be highly thought of, but Pork-Short cut, $23.50 per bar- it would appear as if modern science was coming to the aid of anci-"To Verona! Thou are not on Lard-Tierces, 131/4c; tubs, 131/2c; ent tradition in maintaining a special blessedness of the water of "I know it, but the company we Smoked and Dry Salted Meats- the Ganges. E. H. Hankin, in the travelled with was bound for Milan. Long clear bacon, 12c to 121/4c, preface to the fifth edition of his ex-Three days ago we missed them, tons and cases; hams, large, 121/2c cellent pamphlet on 'The Cause and and thought to find them in the city to 13c; small, 141/2c to 15c; backs; Prevention of Cholera,' writes as

"'Since I originally wrote this He glanced at his companion and 15c to 16c; green meats, out of pamphlet I have discovered that the water of the Ganges and the Jumna is hostile to the growth of the cholera microbe, not only owing to the absence of food materials, but also owing to the actual presence of an

Nov. 25th and 26th. Canada. The programme, which 251/2c; No. 1, 21c to 211/2c, and No. ested is invited to attend.

SEVEN MEN KILLED.

Explosion in a Cut on the G. T. P. in Rainy River.

By Net 10.-Wheat-Spring five days.

Milwaukee, Nov. 10—Wheat—No. Plames Started in Factory and Licked Up Half the Business Section.

A despatch from Pembroke says: zens assisted in the work of check-Over half the business section of ing the fire and saving the goods.

The fire started in the National for safety. ding eighteen more electoral votes were carried a block to the main ler's general store, Shepherd's but-Corn-No. 2 American yellow to the Republican column. Mary- street of the town, the fire break- cher shop, Pembroke Milling Co., though it is probable that an offi- eral business blocks were complete- broke Clothing Co., Standard offor Milan was within hail. Villas, ner, and at the horseman who rode struck him a blow full across the $19 in bulk outside. Shorts quotfor the electoral ticket. Mr. Taft's dwellings. By one o'clock the fire al Bank, Quebec Bank, Bell Teleprobable vote in the electoral col- in the business section was under phone office, Taylor's paint shop, lege will be 327 against a possible control, and two hours later all public library, Delahaye & Reeves 156 for Bryan, Colorado being still danger of the fire spreading in the law office, Beal Stone Works, Bea-

HOTEL AND TOWN HALL SAVED.

hotel in the town, is standing with Harry Irwin. Market block: John burned buildings on both sides and P Miller, wholesale provisions; several other residences caught fire, shops.

ed all day, and all classes of citi- burnt.

Pembroke, including the best busi-ness blocks and two banks, the tel bars were closed. Despite the largest manufacturing concerns, fact that it was at an early hour sacks outside for export, Manito- Standing of Parties in the Next eral dwellings, were wiped out by lost, and very few narrow escapes. fire which started at 4 o'clock on From one of the houses which was Wednesday morning. The loss is burned the body of a Mrs. Sulliestimated at 500,000, and insur- van, who died on Tuesday night, had to be carried to the Town Hall gress will stand:—218 Republicans Manufacturing Company, a three- In the Leland Hotel an Indian Ontario Wheat-No. 2 white, 90 to 173 Democrats, giving a Repub- storey brick factory situated adjac- had to be called half a dozen times to 901/2c outside; No. 2 red Winter, lican majority of 45. The present ent to the C. P. R. tracks. One before he got up, and before he left 90 to 901/2c, and No. 2 mixed, 90c House stands 224 Republicans and supposed cause of the fire is sparks the building it was in a mass of

COMPLETELY GONE.

The following buildings are comin doubt. Eliminating Colorado, residential section was removed. mish (furniture), Kenning, veterin-

PARTLY DESTROYED:

The Copeland House, the largest Residences: Thos. Delahaye and its frame outbuildings all burned Hardwood's jewelry store, Edwards in the rear. The Town Hall and & Harrison, photography and paint

The stone bridge over the Musk-Business was completely suspend- rat River was badly broken and

B. C. Whitney of Detroit, the proprietor of several theatrical States, had his skull fractured in an automobile accident near

GENERAL.

China has granted the Dalia

Lama a salary and ordered him to

The anti-Japanese riots in Hong Kong have reached such proper-tions that soldiers have been called

Que., Act Bravely.

The branch of the Eastern Townships Bank at Marieville, Que., was entered by robbers on Tuesday night, but they were beaten off.

The noise of their entry aroused two clerks sleeping in the rear of the building, and hastily dressing,

A despatch from Montreal says:

Brownstown, Ind.

return home.

CONDENSED NEWS ITEMS Fairbanks, Alaska, was shot and killed by a demented woman.

houses in Canada and the United THE GLOBE.

and Other Countries of Recent Events.

CANADA.

Mr. John Carter died at Guelph from injuries received by being out to patrol the business streets. crushed in a gateway.

The house of Mr. Michael Egan FIGHT WITH ROBBERS. of Chatham was wrecked by an explosion of natural gas. Two Bank Clerks at Marieville.

Mr. D'Arcy Scott, Mayor of Ottawa, has resigned and taken his seat on the Railway Commission. From May 1st to the end of October $6,663 has been collected in liquor license fines in the Temiskaming district.

The schooner Lorna Doone, arriving at Halifax, reported the loss of Captain Roberts, who was washthey took up arms and entered the ed overboard. room where the burglars were at The township of Geulph is taking work. The miscreants fired at on account of polluting the River followed. A bullet grazed the head The Railway Commission will alnot serious. The bandits then fled lew railways to handle grain at lake ports on Sunday, on condition They are being pursued by Chief ing the authorities that the work McCaskill of the Provincial police action against the city of Guelph is necessary to prevent undue de-GREAT BRITAIN.

The conference of cotton-workers at Manchester ended without a set-seat in the British Cabinet.

UNITED STATES. President Eliot of Harvard Uni-

and his assistants. PARIS BOURSE DISTURBED.

Owing to Gravity of Situation in of one clerk, but his condition is

Near East. A despatch from Paris says: The tlement of the great strike being Bourse, despite the satisfaction I that pervades the public ever the William Redmond, the National-| result of the American election, st, suggested in the House of Com- was very much depressed on Wedmons that the Kaiser be offered a nesday, on account of a feeling that the situation in Eastern Europe continues to be very grave, and also on account of the serious friction existing between France and Germany over the former's arrest ers from the French foreign legion.

Suddenly when Milan, clear and in his lips, and a cut from the whip the Empire Elevator Company, to 12% for colsystems, care of the feeble-minded, white easterns are quoted at 12/20 lettage, hospital indeed, and 12/20 lettage, hospital indeed, systems, care of the feeble-minded, white easterns are quoted invenile, delinquents, care of the lettage, hospital indeed, systems, care of the Balkans May be Expected in the Spring, However.

A despatch from Vienna says: | the annexation of Bosnia and Her-The Government has received a zegovina or make any comment note from Russia proposing an in-ternational conference, but indi-consensus of opinion is, however, cating that the programme for this that Russia is determined to oppose meeting will be much vaguer than the annexation of Bosnia and Her-A despatch from Winnipeg says: that issued in London some time zegovina, and consequently there is Any moment cash on tridit agrouns. The prents, $5.25 to $5.50, cond patdynamite in a rock cut. The accipaid by the latter to Turkey, the comment is of the opinion that hosdent occurred late on Tuesday, and claims of Montenegro and Servia, tilities are most improbable this four bodies are still buried in the abolition of the capitulations. Winter. On the other hand, if debris. This makes nine deaths in and foreign post-off in Tuckey. things do not settle before Spring The note does not potest against trouble is to cur ir then.