DOUBLE WEDDING.

A unique event occurred at "Fairview," Campbelleroft, on Thursday, Dec. 21, when two of Mr. and Mrs. W Wright's daughters were married to two of Peterborough's popular young men. At one o'clock p. m., as the sweet strains of the wedding march were being played by Miss Flossie Chislett the popular organist of the First Presbyterian church, Port Hope, Mr. Wright entered the parlor with a daugh ter leaning on each arm. Under an arch of evergreen and holly the grooms took their places on time. The Rev. William Johnston, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Millbrook and Garden Hill, proceeded to unite the couples Miss Amy M and Mr. Franklin A Coates were supported by Miss Hannah B Wright and Mr David J Cameron. As soon as the minister pronounced them man and wife, Mr. David J Cameron and Miss Hannah B Wright moved forward a step, the newly married couple returning the compliment as supporters. The brideslooked charming, Miss Amy wore a rich gown of white silk with all over lace trimming and Miss Hannah white eolienne trimmed with all-over lace and insertion. After signing the register about 75 sat down to supper, which was sufficient to satisfy the most fastidious Rev. Mr. Johnston proposed the health of the brides in a speech full of wit and bumor; this was replied to by Mr Pratt, Postmaster of Cobourg, uncle of the brides, in a happy vem full of wise counsel and helpful information. The presents were numerous and costly, and were an evidence of the esteem in which they are held. The gift of Mr Coates to his bride was a set of furs, and Mr. Cameron presented his bride with an elegant gold watch and chain. The brides also received crescents of pearls for their services as bridesmaids. The happy couple left on the 445 train amid congratulations and showers of rice for an extended trip to Toronto side of the street his and other cities. Mrs. Coate's going away dress was green ladies cloth with hat to match while Mrs. Cameron's was of brown ladies cloth with hat to match. They purpose making their homes in
