MITTEROOK AND OMEMEE MIRROR

Durham and Victoria Standard

VOL. 19. NO. 28.

$1 per annum.

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1907.

C. W. RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

Roric and Vixen;

 \mathbf{c} we detail and the properties of the prop

63000300

OR, A HAPPY MARRIAGE.

CHAPTER XLIII.

his wife was to have had after Violet's five, as the afternoons are so short."

"I know that you are a heavy loser come." by my mother's death," she wrote, "and I shall be glad to do anything in my power to lessen that loss, I know bring you. Remember this will be your your future should be provided for. I told her a few days before she died that I should make you this offer. 1 do it with all my heart; and I shall family mansion without one?" ance of it."

know that there are reasons why it is known sorrow. ai. You will be sole and sovereign of Briarwood.

got into a fly and drove to the station erness to go and see her. She was a tion. at Lyndhurst road, whence he depart- strict observer of the laws of caste. The "You dear, dear old fellow!" cried Vix- more conciliating. Her ambilion, hithed by the first train for London. He duchess has much less pride." for the future; he left no address but forgave herself for marrying a com- she exclaimed. his club. He was next heard of, six moner," said Vixen. "She revenged her "So he was, and I bought him." months later, in South America.

governess directly after Mrs. Carmich- which her lover had chosen for her, "I thought you so unkind, so indif- Ireland. She looked forward complact mixed, 95c to 96c, outside. ael's death; and that good and homely after vain endeavors to trace and re- ferent about him." person arrived on the day after the cover the long lost Titmouse. These "You were unkind when you could Mallow would be reigning at Dublin No. 3 extra, 63c to 65c. funeral, to lake her abode with her old she drove to Briarwood, Miss M'Croke think it possible I should let your fa- Castle, and when Hibernian arts and Castle, a pupit as companion and chaperon until resigning herself to the will of Provi- verite horse fall into strange hands. industries would revive and flourish side; mixed, 47c to 47%c, outside. Miss Tempest should have become Mrs. dence with a blind submission worthy But perhaps you would rather Lord under her fostering care. Pending Rye-82c to 82 1/2c, outside. Vawdrey, and would have but one com- of a Moslem; feeling that if it were Mallow had bought him?" panien henceforward in all the journey written that she was to be flung head "To think that you should have kept Itish poplin, and Irish lace, Irish stockof life. Borie and Vixen were to be foremost out of the pony carriage, the the secret all this time!" said Vixen. married in six months. Airs. Carmi- thing would happen sooner or later. "You see I am not a woman, and can majesty's Drawing-room on St. Patrick's Buckwheat-60c to 61c, outside. chael had made them promise that her Staying at home to-day would not ward keep a secret. I wanted to have one Day, with a sprig of real shamrock - Bran-S19 to $20, in bulk outside; volume, the year drawing to a close death should delay their marriage as ele to-morrow's doom. So she took her little surprise for you, as a reward sent her by one of her husband's ten- shorts $21 to $22.

you know; dear," she said. "You can the ponies, warranted quiet to drive in tiptoe to kiss him. "And though I have tensely Irish than the children of the $5.80; seconds, $5.20; strong bakers', be married in your travelling dress single or double harness, stood up on leved you all my life, I don't think I soil; just as converts to Romanism are $5.10. something pretty in gray silk and terry end and made as if they had a fixed have loved you the least little bit too ever more severely Roman than those velvet, or with chinchilla trimming, if intention of scaling the rhododendron much." it should be winter. Chinchilla is so | bank, distinguished-looking. You will go! abroad, I suppose, for your honeymoon | -Pau, or Monago, or any of those blandly, as she administered a reproach-places on the Mediterranean. There was comfort in the thought that out of them before we started?" her mother loved her, according to her They were soon tearing along the sunrise to sundown. They were mar-

Abbey House, Beiarwood was to be le to any wealthy individual who might desire a handsome house, surrounded by exquisitely arranged gardens, and burdened with glass that would cost a small fortune annually to maintain Before Mr. Vawdrey could put his properly into the hands of the auctioneers. he received a private offer which was in every respect satisfactory.

Lady Mallow wished to spend sompart of every year near her father anmother, who lived a good deal at Ash bourne, the duke becoming yearly more develed to his -Chillingham oxen and mons'er turnips. Lord Mallow, who loved his palive isle to distraction, but always found six weeks in a year sufficient period of residence there, was delighted to please his bride, and agreed to take Briarwood, furnished, on a seven-years' lease. The orchid-houses were an irresistible attraction, and by this friendly aggangement Lady Mallow would profit by the alterations and improvements her cousin had made for ber gratification, when he believed she ofher. All Rorie's tiresome ways, all Violet honored him, because he had never believed her paragon capable of 15c to 15%c; heavy, 13%c to 14c; backs, was to be his wife.

Briarwood, thus disposed of Rorie was free to consider the Abbey House were to her the dearest people and the of inspection, and admired the new church to the railway-station, on their bovels are giving place to model cot. Manitoba rejected, 56c, and Quebec Barley-95c to $1.10. Rye-No. 2, $7c charge of stealing bonds in Paris. It dens he had planted and improved, or's language, "old gold." wood before it is let, Vixen," Mr. Vaw- before it is quite dark," said Rorie, pre- fortable gray suit. "You might just as at this, for though she had often found The demand for hay is active. No. 1. dry said to his sweetheart, one No- sently. "I made a few slight improve- well say that we are going to live it difficult to keep awake during the $17.50 to $18; No. 2, $16.50 to $17; Venber morning. "You may at least ments there while the builders were among the mountains as long as Rip rehearsal of her daughter's verses, she mixed, $15.50; clover, $14 to chers' cattle, $4 to $4.25; medium to fair, great of looking at it before it becomes | "You know I have a weakness for not going to remain away from you those efforts of genius. The secret of Provisions-Barrels short out mess. the property of Lord and Lady Mallow. stables," answered Vixen. "How many fifty years. We are coming back in Lady Mallow's silence rests between her $22.50 to $23; half barrels, $11.75 to 500 to $1.50 per cwt. over and drink tea with me this afterma about my unfortunate tastest But Then came kissing and hand shakThen came kissing a shakThen came kissing a shakThen came kissing a shakThen came kissing a shakThen came kissing a ments you made for Lady Mabel, before your misfortune. I think Lord Mailaw must consider it very good of You to let him have the benefit of all the money you spent, instead of bringing an action for breach of promise

against his wife, as you might yery

ments you made for Lady Mabel, bevery useful, in their proper place," remarked Miss M'Croke, sententiously.

marked Miss M'Croke, sententiously.

"But one ought not to bring the stables into the drawing-room," said
the money you spent, instead of bringing an action for breach of promise

against his wife, as you might yery

marked Miss M'Croke, sententiously.

"But one ought not to bring the discordant element in domestic life. I hard. 16c to 11c; pure lard. 12½c to 15½c; fresh killed shattoir
"How dreadfully I shall miss them."

"How dreadfully I shal

A REPORTATION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY

well have done."

"Oh, ves. you will. Curiosity will chamber at Briarwood,"

"Is there a Bluebeard chamber?" "Of course. Did you ever know of a awful inside."

consider myself obliged by your accept- Vixen was delighted at the idea cl. cried Vixen, eagerly. The captain's reply was brief and he and it were her own property. How nicely, when we hunt together." "I thank you for your generous offer," father to the meet on Briarwood lawn. Do I know him?" he said, "which I feel assured is made Yet it seemed a century ago-the very | The grunts and snortings were con- Among Violet's presents was a dia- prize in the lollery of life; but it is al- seat on the wool sack, Black Rod teen available for handling the traffic in good faith; but I think you ought to beginning of her life-before she had tinued with a crescende movement; an mond bracelet from Lady Mallow, ac- together a different kind of happiness was despatched to summon the mem- c! the present season. Contracts for impossible I should accept any benefit Miss M'Croke, who was ready to do door that shut off the loose-box. from your hand. I shall not re-enter anything her pupil desired, was really "If you have a good memory for old dreys received after they came home among the beechen woods, whose folithe Abbey House after my wife's funer- pleased at the idea of seeing the interior friends, I think you will know this was from Lord and Lady Mallow. The age sheltered them when they were own weakness upon other people." Violet had telegraphed for her old Violet had a new pair of ponies, "Because you did not ask me."

"You can have a very quiet wedding. let's side, and sat calm and still, while "You are good," she said, standing on led on her bosom. She was more in bid; Manitoba patents, special brand,

"They'll settle down directly I've taken the freshness out of them." said Vixen.

It had been finally settled between that They were to live at the ere; but of course the Abbey House peare. ter, being just the one perfect home in would have no one present except the work that was going on, to the smal- Baled Straw-$10 to $10.50 per ion played the mistress of the house sweet. her away. He was a white haired old having a finger in the pie. He bred swiftly from one old memory to an- above turnips and top-dressing; but and was happy. The duchess, who had and cases; hams, medium and light, Vixen's mischevious tricks, were re- been her father's oldest friend. For wrong-doing, had been infinitely shock- 16%c to 17c; shoulders, 10c to 10%c;

his luture home; and Violet had the hap- didn't I, Rorie?" asked Vixen, leaving ladies, whose conversation was as ster- angry with her idolized daughter. She Ic less than smoked. puress of knowing that the good old the tea-party, and stealing softly behind ectyped as a French and English voca- very soon came back to her original Pork-Short cut, $22.75 to $23 for house in which her childhood had been her lover's chair to lean over his shoul- bulary, but who dressed well and looked idea, that whatever Mabel Ashbourne barrels; mess, $19 to $20. spent would be her habitation always, der caressingly, and pull his thick brown pretty. vault under the old yew-tree. There as to terment the person one leves best gifts, no ceren onious wedding-breakfast, world gladly forgives a scandal that the she too was carried to the family heard, "There is nothing so delightful are young people who languish for in the world. Oh, Borie, I mean to lead leveliest scenes upon earth. It would morning-room that had been devised for way to untrodden paths in the Engabe pleasant to free to travel with her Lady Mahel in the very latest style of dine, whence they were to return at no possible encouragement from the owner Choice spring wheat patents, $6.10; husband, and see fair lands across the Butet Remaissance walls the color of appointed time. sea, but pleasanter still would be the muchly water, glacified ging rejars, ebo- "We are coming back when we are years, the glories of Dublin Castle $5.75; straight rollers, $5.50; do., in he me-coming to the familiar hearth be-mized chairs and tables, and willow- fired of mountain scenery and of each shine like the Pole-star that guides the bags, $2.60 to $2.65; extra, $2.05 to some which her father had sat, the old puttern dates all countries other." Violet to'd Mrs. Scobel in the wanderer on his way. I es that had looked upon him, the carbains und-soler, with a mediava church porch, lends that had served him, the gar- design in diety yellow, e. in uph dater- "That will be never!" exclaimed Rorie, been false to the promise of her girl- dlings, $27 to $29 per ton, including over and drink ten with the unit and about my unfortunate tastest but I fine came kissing and hand shall be stockers; 650 to $3.75; left Onlario Railway for the month of neon? I believe my housekeeper brews can there be anything in the world ing, a shower of violets and primroses to the provide the reason of length to the provide to the provide the reason of length to the provide to the reason of length to the provide to the reason of length to the reason of can there be anything in the world ing, a shower of violets and printed and pr brown coat, and one white stocking; hill and plain, and the happy pigs had Blue Peter, broad-chested, well-ribbed, devoured all the beech-nuts, Mr. Vawand strong of limb; Pixie, the gray Arab drey and his wife came back from their mare, which Lady Jane used to drive exploration of Alpine snows and peaceand made herself at home with them. "I dare say. But you see I am of a House to live you dear things," she and quarreled, and made friends again; just liament of Canada. Outside the Parlia- having become involved in a contro-seemed curiously familiar.

well that it was her earnest wish that last chance of seeing the Bluebeard looked intently at Rorie, who was time.

exploring her lover's domain, now that "A horse that I think will carry you has never been sick or sorry since he cipate, he will live in grand style, and Point was the signal for the arrival progress has been made, both on the well she remembered going with her "What horse? Have I ever seen him? always taken particular care of him, He, too, is happy after his kind, and chamber preceded by a brilliant staff, tion of the western division. A sec-one," said Borie, withdrawing the bolt. first great dinner to which they were children. mistress of all things from that hour.' "I have never been inside the doors, A head pushed open the door, and in bidden was at Briarwood, where it He kept his word. He was chief you know, dear," she said, "often as another moment Vixen's arms were seemed a curious thing for Rorie to go mourner at the quiet but stately burial I have driven past the gates with your around her old favorite's sleek neck, as a guest. under the old yew-tree in Beechdale dear mamma. Lady Jane Vawdrey was and the velvet nostrils were sniffing her Matrimony with the man of her choice church-yard. When all was over he not the kind of person to invite a gov- hair and cheek in most loving recogni- had wondrously improved Mabel Ash-

"Why did you not tell me that?"

EPILOGUE.

It had pleased her to settle everything to hope they will," replied Miss spring, when the forest glades were yelloweride provision for the extension of the world-wide recognition to the extension of the world-wide recognition to the extension of the world-wide recognition to the extension of the extension of the world-wide recognition to the extension of the extension of the world-wide recognition to the extension of the extens If hope they will," replied Miss spring, when the forest glades were yellow the levers. Violet remembered all M'Croke; "but don't you think Dates low with primroses, the mossy banks of the levers. Violet remembered all M'Croke; "but don't you think Dates low with primroses, the mossy banks of the mossy banks of the mossy banks of the levers. Violet remembered all mossy banks of the mossy ba heard with monotonous iteration from materially advantageous than the cousmooth Roman road at a splendid pace, ried in the little village church at Vixen remarked approvingly; but poor that Miss Tempest's wedding was the be would have kept up my breed of about nominal at 30c. Miss M'Croke thought that any clock prettiest that ever had been solemniz- Chillingham cattle. Mallow's a good Poultry-Choice chickens, 7c to 9c; which went as fast as those ponies ed in that small Gothic temple. Never fellow, but he knows nothing about inferior, 5c to 6c; choice ducks and would be deemed the maddest of time- perhaps, even at Easter-tide, had been farming. He'll never spend enough geese steady at 7c to 9c; fat, clean, such a wealth of spring blossoms the money on manure to maintain the soil dry-picked turkeys, 12c to 13c; thin They found Roderick standing at his wildings of the woods and hills. The at its present producing power. The turkeys, 8c to 10c. gates, waiting for them. There was a duchess had offered the contents of her grasp of his mind isn't large enough to Potatoes-85c to 90c per bag in car glorious fire in the amber and white bot-houses, Lady Ellangowan had of allow him to sink his money in ma- lots on track here, drawing-room, a dainty tea-table drawn fered wagon-loads of azaleas and ca- nuring his land. He would be wanting Beans-$1.75 to $1.85 for primes and front of the hearth, the easiest of mellias, but Vixen had refused them all. to see an immediate result." hairs arranged on each side of the She would allow no decorations but the able, an urn hissing, Rorie's favorite wild flowers which the school-children more and more devoted to his farm. per 15. for 60-15, pails, and 12c to 13c pointer stretched upon the hearth, ev. could gather. Primroses, violets, blue. His Scottish castle delighted him not, for 5 to 10 th. pails. Combs at $1.75 rything cozy and home-like. Briar- bells, the firstlings of the fern tribe, nor the grand old place in the Mid- to-$2.50 per dozen. vood was not such a bad place after cowslips, and all the tribe of innocent lands. Ashbourne, which was the II, Vixen thought. She could have con- forest blossoms, with their quaint rustic pleasure-dome he had built for himself, frontquarters dull at 4c to 5c; carcases.

"ixen remembered the wedding-feast at ends so pleasantly. her mother's second marriage, and what | So Lord and Lady Mallow go their

They all went out to the stone-paved of her leisure with the lovers. "They put things pleasantly. "Literature has quadrangle, which was as neatly kept are both so full of life and brightness." lost a star; but I have gained the noblest a West-End livery-yard. Miss "They are young and happy!" said lest and sweetest companion Provi-

When the first frosts had scared the beeches to a fiery red, and the berries There were all Rorie's old favorites were bright on the hawthorns, and the -Starlight Bess, with her shining latest bloom of the heather had faded on in a park-phaeton—quite an ancient ful Swiss villages, to the good old Ab- Forest where they were born, dispenslady; Donald, the iron-sinewed hunter, bey House. Their six months' honey-Vixen knew them all, and went up moon had been all gladness. They them and patted their graceful heads were the veriest boy and girl husband known, and the old men and women Chambers presented on Thursday afand wife who had ever trodden those in the scattered villages round about ternoon on the occasion of the opening

The day before the funeral Captain Carmichael received a letter from his atep-daughter, offering to execute any deed be might choose to have tea, and all the things children—

The day before the funeral Captain forgiving lemper. Well, I shall tell said, delightedly.

The day before the funeral Captain forgiving lemper. Well, I shall tell said, delightedly.

There was a loose box, shut off by a five-foot wainseet partition, surmount of the Unit
There was a loose box, shut off by a five-foot wainseet partition, surmount of the Unit
There was a loose box, shut off by a five-foot wainseet partition, surmount of the Unit
There was a loose box, shut off by a five-foot wainseet partition, surmount of the Unit
There was a loose box, shut off by a five-foot wainseet partition, surmount of the Unit
There was a loose box, shut off by a five-foot wainseet partition, surmount of the Unit
There was a loose box, shut off by a five-foot wainseet partition, surmount of the Unit
There was a loose box, shut off by a five-foot wainseet partition, surmount of the Unit
There was a loose box, shut off by a five-foot wainseet partition, surmount of the Unit
The day before the funeral Captain is a five-foot wainseet again; just like children, and were altogether hap
I dare say. But you see I am of a like children, and were altogether hap
I dare say. But you see I am of a like children, and were altogether hap
I dare say. But you see I am of a like children, and were altogether hap
I dare say. But you see I am of a like children, and were altogether hap
I dare say. But you see I am of a like children, and were altogether hap
I dare say. But you see I am of a like children, and were altogether hap
I dare say. But you see I am of a like children, and were altogether hap
I dare say. But you see I am of a like children, and were altogether hap
I dare say. But you see I am of a like children, and were altogether hap
I dare say. But you see I am of Captain

I dare say. But you see I am of Captain

I dare ed, setting upon him the income which We had better make it four instead of the stable, and on approaching this high spirits. The glass of Time seem-At the sound of these she stopped in the well-filled stables, and all things for her sake."

had wondrously improved Mabel Ash-bourne. She was less self-sufficient and LEADING en, and then turning to Rorie; "You erto confined to the desire to excel all greedy of parliamentary fame for him; $1.05%. that happy state of things she wore Peas-88c, outside. ings, and Irish linen. She attended her Toronto freights.

> born and nurtured in the faith. Her husband was intensely proud of his wife, and of his alliance with the house of Ashbourne. The duke, at first but prices are unchanged.

"I should like Borie to have had Ash- | Eggs-Storage are 23c per dozen in

As time went on, the duke became rived to be happy with Roderick even names, most of them as old as Shakes- contained all he cared about. Too heavy 8c to 9c. and too lazy to hunt, he was able to was, in her mind, a hundred times bet- It was a very quiet wedding. Vixen jog about his farm, and supervise the to $18.50. Scobels. Miss M'Croke, her two bride- lest detail. There was not a foot of on track here. They all three sat round the fire, maids, and Sir Henry Tolmash, an old drain-pipe or a bit of thatch renewed drinking tea, poured out by Vixen, who friend of her father, who was to give on the whole estate without the duke They talked of old times, sometimes man, who had given his latter days up fat oxen and prize cart-horses, and made Smoked and Dry Salted Meatssadly, sometimes sportively, glancing to farming, and had not a thought a great figure at all the cattle-shows, Long clear bacon, 10% to 11c for tons bridemaids she had Colonel Carteret's ed by Lady Mabel's desperate course; rolls, 10%c to Hc; breakfast bacon, "I think I led you a life in those days, daughters, a brace of harmless young but it was not in her nature to be 15c to 15%c; green meats out of pickle, did was right. And then the marriage | Lard-Firm; tierces, 12c; tubs, 121/c; There was no display of wedding- was so thoroughly happy, and the pails, 12%c.

looking ineffably happy, but not very | hood. She has not achieved success as | bags. Milled mouille, $28 to $32, and should like to show you Briar- "I should like to show you the stables much like a bridegroom, in his com- a poel. The duchess wenders vaguely pure grain mouille $25 to $37 per ton. Van Winkle. No, Mrs. Scobel, we are had a fixed belief in the excellence of $14.50 per ton in car lols. husband and herself; and it is just pos- 812.25; clear fat backs, $23.50 to $24.50; Trade in feeders and slockers was "Very well. Rorie, we'll come to tea.

I should rather like to see the improve "Stables are very nice indeed, and leaves were steady."

Stables are very nice indeed, and leaves were steady. Treasurer. The disbursements were large, all clustered about the oaken gate.

Stables are very nice indeed, and leaves were steady. Treasurer. The disbursements were large, all clustered about the oaken gate. Sheep, lambs and caives were steady. Treasurer. The disbursements were sheet, she were steady make the steady

M'Croke had an ever-present dread of her husband, quietly. "Who would dence ever beslowed upon man." Lady the ubiquitous hind-legs of strange not miss youth and brightness?" Mallow has not degenerated into fem inine humdrum. She assists in the composition of her husband's political many of his letters, and is altogether

While the Irishman and his wife purher fortune. The captain has bought the diplomatic representatives, clergy, arising under said Article 1 to The Among Roderick's wedding-gifts was a villa at Mozaco-a villa in the midst Deputy Ministers and other important Hague tribunal. "That is my Bluebeard Chamber," he one from Lord Mallow-Bullfinch, the of orange-groves, the abandoned play- personages. were occupied by the The difficulty of obtaining labor and said gayly. "There's something too best horse in that nobleman's stable. thing of an Austrian princess; and he ladies. Over thirty Senators had to materials at a time of great business "I know your wife would like you to has hired an apartment in one of the sland below the bar in the reservation activity has somewhat retarded the "What horse have you got there?" have her father's favorite hunter, new avenues, just outside the Arc de set apart for this day for Commoners, construction of the National Transconwrote Lord Mallow. "Tell her that he Triomphe, where, as his friends anti- The booming of the guns on Nepean linental Railway. Nevertheless, great has been in my stable, and that I have receive the pleasantest people in Paris, of his Excellency, who entered the eastern division and on the prairie sechas won the twenty thousand pound After his Excellency had taken his tion of the latter of about 250 miles has eager nose was rattling the latch of the companied by a very cordial letter; and from the simple and unalloyed delight bers of the Commons. almost the first visit that the Vaw- of Borie and Vixen, in their home

THE END.

Corn-No. 3 yellow American, 671/c, in reduction of the public debt.

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

Venison-Hindquarters, 11c to 121/c;

PROVISIONS.

MONTREAL MARKETS.

In one thing only has Lady Mallow $25; Ontario bran, $23.50 to $24; mid-sue their distinguished career, Rorie and Vixen live the life they love, in the Butter-Supplies are a little heavier.

Honey-Strained steads at 11c to 12c

Baled Hay-Timothy is quoted at $18

50 to $5.85. A moderate demand prevails for domestic eggs in the local market. New- sideration the several subjects to which 23c to 24c; seconds, 17c to 18c. There is a very firm tone to the local vine light. cheese market. November tail-ends are selling at 11%c to 11%c, and October at 12c to 121/c. A moderate and steady demand pre- Alleged Bond Thief Wanted in Paris vails for butter. Grass goods, 28c to 281/c: current receipts, 27c to 271/c.

er, No. 1 Northern, $1.15% on track; in the penitentiary under the name of the hest, but it was not thus with Vio
The hest, but it was not thus with Vio
The hest, but it was not thus with Vio
The hest, but it was not thus with Vio
The heat of the heat o let Tempest. The people she had needs be sweet, for it will be spent with bride wore her gray silk travelling-dress, good works—and the pleasant valleys white oats on spot, 59c; Ontario and Higher; No. 2 white, 64%c; No. 2 yel- at notoriety. He will finish a sevenwith gray hat and feather, and she and around Mallow are dotted with red Quebec No. 2 white, 58c to 58%; No. low, 67c. Oats-Unsettled; No. 2 year term in February next, and on firm; No. 2 red, $1.04%, elevator; No.

cows, common, 82.25 to $2.50; canners, Receipts for Temiskaming Railway for pamphlets, which bristle with lines from Euripides, and noble thoughts from the German poets. She writes a good Speech of His Excellency the Governor General at the Opening.

Forest where they were born, dispens- A despatch from Ottawa says: Old be submitted to you immediately, and ing happiness within a narrow circle, timers cannot recall a more brilliant you will be asked to give it your sancbut dearly loved wheresoever they are scene than that which the Senate tion. "You are all coming to the Abbey beaten tracks. They teased each other, the Abbey House rejoice in the good of the fourth session of the tenth Par-deed he might choose to have preparand young ladies—like, at four o'clock, ed by a waved iron rail, at one end of settling upon him the income which and settling upon him the settling upon him the income which and settling upon him the settling upon inclosure Vixen was saluted with sundry ed to be turned backward at the Abbey tain Carmichael, who has married a Chamber, especially from outside points. United States, and Canada being also "If you are impertinent we won't grunts and snorting noises, which back and white-baired old Bates ruled to the interested in the question at issue, my back, and white-haired old Bates ruled ter and heiress of a well-known money Senators were this year gallantly sur- Government has joined with the Govlender. The bride is reported ugly and rendered to the fair. Even in the cen- ernment of Newfoundland in an agreeshort, turned red, and then pale, and were as in the dead and gone squire's illiterate, but there is no doubt as to ire of the floor, the places reserved for ment to refer all matters of difference

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE. The speech from the throne was as follows: Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate:

In again meeting you at a period of ous construction. MARKETS the year most convenient for the despatch of business, it gives me great the year most convenient for the depleasure to be able to congratulate you on the remarkable expansion of told no one anything about his plans "I don't think Lady Jane ever quite told me he was sold at Tattersall's!" other women in her own person, had Toronto. Dec. 3.-Manitoba Wheat- the trade of Canada with other counassumed a less selfish form. She was No. 1 hard, nominal; No. 1 northern, tries, the total trade of the past year opposition. A member of my Governnow only ambitious for her husband; $1.15; No. 2, $1.10; No. 3 northern, far exceeding that of any of its predecessors. A gratifying result of this full of large hopes about the future of Ontario Wheat-No. 2 white, red or expansion was that the revenue of the last fiscal period of nine months was ently to the day when she and Lord Barley-No. 2, 65c to 67c, outside; more than sufficient to meet expenses of the great cantilever bridge in course on consolidated fund, National Transoutlays, all expenses of the Dominion of every kind, and leave a balance of over three million dollars to be applied The stream of immigrants coming tio Canada continues to increase in showing a larger number than any place in the cushioned valley by Vio- when you had been especially good." antry—among the diamonds that spark- Flour—Ontario winter wheat, $3.80 preceding year, and it is gratifying to devise means for the completion of the observe the many coming from the bridge within a reasonable time. British Isles. The Dominion has been blessed by a large series of prosperous years, and of postal rates which have been made, though at the present moment its busi- the revenue of the Post-office Departness is being restricted by the financial stringency which prevails throughout The large receipts of this branch of

THE COLONIAL CONFERENCE. The conference held in London in tween the Government of the United Kingdom and the Governments of the British Dominions beyond the seas satisfactorily dealt with many subiccts in which the Empire at large is interested. A copy of the minutes of the proceedings will be laid before

Two of my Ministers, duly authorized by his Majesty for the purpose, and val at an early day. acting in conjunction, with his Majesty's Ambassadors at Paris, have recently negotiated a convention with Hon Gentlemen of the Senate. the Government of the French Republic respecting the commercial relations between France and Canada, subject

however, to the approval of the French | ted to you is a bill for the extension Chambers and the Canadian Parlia- of the boundaries of Manitoba and of

I commend to your thoughtful conly-laid, 32c; select, 26c to 27c; No. 1, I have referred, and I trust that in your delibedation you may be guided by Di-

BUFFALO MARKET. Buffalo. Dec. 3 .- Wheat-Spring firm- for the theft of bonds. He is a convict which she had played when a child. After ten they set out upon a round her husband went straight from the brick school-houses, and the old stone 3 57c to 57%; No. 4, 55%; No. 2 mixed, 47%; his release will be re-arrested on a hard winter, $1.11% f.o.b. affoat.

CATTLE MARKET. Toronto, Dec. 3 .- Good loads of but-

THE FISHERIES QUESTION.

the portion of the prairie section west of Edmonton are about to be let, and immediate steps will be taken for the commencement of work at both the eastern and western ends of the mountain division. Thus, in a very short time, the whole work from Moncion to Gentlemen of the House of Commons: the Pacific Ocean will be under vigor-

ORIENTAL IMMIGRATION. The unexpected influx of immigration of Oriental countries into British Columbia aroused a strong feeling of Japan to confer with the Japanese Government on this subject. The sudden and unexpected collapse rence, in the vicinity of Quebec, may be regarded as a national calamity. and the event has evoked much sorrow for the lives which were lost on that

A commission has been appointed to enquire into the causes which led to the disaster. When received, the report of the commission will be laid before you. It will be necessary to

It is most gratifying to find that. notwithstanding the large reductions ment has continued to increase rapidly. the world, I feel assured that this un- the Government business will enable Vixen and Rorie were married in the line of a country of the department business will enable and that the illimitable resources of the department to make still more lib-

WIDE GOVERNMENT CONTROL.

The time has arrived when the public interest requires that telegraph and the months of April and May last be telephone companies holding Federal charters should be placed under Government control. A bill will be introduced for that purpose. Gentlemen of the House of Commons: The public accounts for the nine months ending 31st March last will be laid before you without delay. The estimates for the coming fiscal year will be submitted for your appro-

OTHER NEW BILLS.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons: Among the measures to be submitment. A copy of this convention will other provinces, also a bill to provide for the issue of Government annuities for old age, a bill respecting insurence and bills to amend the Election Act and the Dominion Lands Act.

TRACED TO PENITENTIARY.

Now in Kingston. A despatch from Kingston says: Detectives have secured trace of "Kid" McManus, wanted in Paris, France. to a confederate, who, it is thought, NEW YORK WHEAT MARKET. | made away with them. McManus is wanted in the hope that he will give information as to where the bonds 2 red, $1.05% f.o.b. affoat; No. 1 north- are. Some think they are hidden, ern, Duluth, $1.19% f.o.b. affoat: No. 2 others believe they have been destroyed. He was arrested in Ottawa for burglarizing Bryson and Graham's store and sent to prison.

GOVERNMENT ROAD'S EARNING.