TELLS HER SUFFERING SISTERS TO USE DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

They Proved a Blessing to Her When Her Pains and Weakness Were Almost More Than She Could Bear.

St. George, Man., Dec. 14. (Special).—Hoping to save her sister women in the West from pains and aches which come at the critical times in a woman's life, Mrs. Arsene Vinet of this place has given the following statement for publication: I have brought up a large family with always enjoyed good health until the last two years. I am fifty-four years of age and at a critical time of life that comes in every woman, I had pains in my neck and shoulder. I could not sleep in two minutes at a time suffering the greatest agony. Sometimes I awakened with the feeling as if some one had laid a block of ice on my head. Another time it would be a burning under the left shoulder. I took many medicines, but they did me no relief, till reading of similar cases to my own by Mrs. Dodd's Kidney Pills, led me to try them. They did wonders for me. I want all women to know what Dodd's Kidney Pills did for me. Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the kidneys. The woman who has sound kidneys is safeguarded against nine-tenths of the suffering that makes life a burden to the women of Canada.

FAMOUS DISHES IN LONDON.

Inns Which Have Won Success Through One Dish.

Formerly every London inn with any pretension at all had its own special fish, upon whose excellence it prided itself and to partake of which patrons travelled many miles. Eel pies were once the great feature of the duellist's breakfast served at the old Sluice House, near Finsbury Park. The necessary quantity of fish was regularly dredged up from the stream which ran under the windows. The pies are still to be had, but the eels are obtained from a nearby fish market. Simpson's in the Strand is noted for its fish dinners. The place was once very popular, and even to-day there is a certain following who swear by this repast. For a certain sum the guest eats as much of a variety of fish as he cares to. The Ship and Turtle, in Leadenhall street, is noted for three things—the turtle soup, the turbot and the Madeira. The first named is prepared after an old recipe which has been in the possession of the hosts of the house for over a quarter of a century. Only certain parts of the turtle are used and these are stewed and seasoned with a variety of herbs and spices, besides lemon and Madeira, making a most delectable dish. Another inn boasts of a special dish in the shape of a saddle of Southdown mutton. This is wheeled up to the table on a movable arrangement, in order that each individual may select the particular cut to which he is partial. The mutton is kept warm by means of water heated by a lamp.

DANCING BIRDS.

A species of albatross found on the island of Laysan, in the Hawaiian group, affords visitors much amusement. These birds sometimes perform, in pairs, a kind of dance. Two will approach one another, nodding and making profound bows, cross their bills, produce snapping and groaning sounds, rise on their toes, puff out their breasts, and finally part with more nodding and bowing, only to come together again and repeat the performance.

RENEW YOUR YOUTH.

Never before has the struggle for social and commercial success been so keen as in our own day, and to the victor and the vanquished alike comes a time when nerves and body cry for rest. Nature and science have combined to produce an environment where tired men and women may renew their youth. On the main line of the Grand Trunk Railway System, at St. Catharines, Ontario, is situated "The Well-land," where the ills of life are alleviated by bathing in the Saline Springs of the "St. Catharines Well," under proper medical supervision and attendance. Apply to J. D. McDonald, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

IT ALL DEPENDS.

"Can a man afford to be perfectly frank at all times?" asked the youth.

"He can," answered the Sageville, "if he doesn't care whether he has any friends or not."

WITH THE CHILDREN.

At supper to-night will they serve the most wholesome and easily digested food nature has provided? Not unless they have Orange Meat. This is made from the whole wheat, thoroughly and properly cooked and mixed with malt. Orange Meat served with milk or cream combine to make a perfect food.

OF UNCERTAIN AGE.

"Little Willie—Say, pa, when is a woman said to be of uncertain age?"

"Pa—When other people are certain of it, my son."

A Medicine Chest in Itself.—Only the well-to-do can afford to possess a medicine chest, but Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which is a medicine chest in itself being a remedy for rheumatism, lamboago, sore throat, colds, coughs, catarrh, asthma, and a potent healer for wounds, cuts, bruises, sprains, etc., is within the reach of the poorest, owing to its cheapness. It should be in every house.

The most sumptuous train in the world is that used by the German Emperor. It cost $1,000,000, and took three years to build.

Repeat it:—"Shiloh's Cure will always cure my coughs and colds."

TALLEST POSTMAN.

The tallest postman in the British service is Peter Sinclair, bearer of letters to and from Pabbay, Mingallay, and Barra islands, off the West Coast of Scotland. He stands but one inch short of 7 ft. in height.

THE QUEEN BROKE DOWN.

When Presenting Victoria Crosses to Crimean Heroes.

Queen Victoria was a woman of wonderful courage, and not in the least emotional. It was singular, therefore, that the first distribution of the Victoria Crosses won by her soldiers "For Valor" should be the only occasion in public when emotion should get the better of her.

As her heroes approached to receive at her hands the reward for their devotion and suffering, it was observed that she trembled and was distressed at the sight of the more badly hurt of the veterans. But she struggled bravely through until almost the last medal had been pinned to its owner's breast.

Then came one poor remnant of humanity who presented a spectacle too piteous. Both his arms had been shot away, one leg stiffened by injury; and there was a bandage about his pale, wan face.

The Queen started as she saw him. She gazed at him for a moment; then the medal dropped from her nerveless fingers; she covered her face with her hands, and burst into a passion of weeping.

The soldiers on parade, when they saw their Queen in tears, were overwhelmed for a moment. Then they broke rank; caps were removed, and they surged around the Queen in rough, inarticulate sympathy.

These men, who had not flinched in the fact of Russian shot and shell, were unmoved at the sight of a noble woman's piteous tears. It was some minutes before order was restored, and the Queen, mastering her grief, could fix the medal to the poor man's breast.

TRAVELLER'S VALUABLE FUND.

Travelling on the I.C.R., Mr. Harry Towers, St. Paul Street, St. John, N.B., found a box of Zam-Buk, the great skin-healer. He was suffering from badly chapped hands, and so he applied the balm. He says:—"Zam-Buk cures the pain in an instant, heals the cracks, and made my hands quite smooth. Finding it so good, I kept a supply handy, and have since proved it a really wonderful healer. It cures cuts, sores, or burns equally well, and I would not like now to be without a supply."

Mr. Towers is only one of thousands who are glad they heard of Zam-Buk. There is no skin disease it will not relieve and cure. Its fame is spreading everywhere, and it is now regarded as Nature's great "first-aid" in workshops, on the farm, or in the home. No traveller should be without it. Every home should have its box always ready for use. A little Zam-Buk rubbed regularly on the hands and face before retiring each night will keep the skin soft and free from chaps, cold-sores, or disease.

If you have a cut, a bruise, or some irritating skin disease, which has defied all ordinary remedies, apply Zam-Buk. It first cleanses a wound by killing off all harmful bacteria. Then it builds up new tissue cell by cell—just as a bricklayer lays new bricks row by row. Then it covers the wound with new healthy skin, and the cure is effected.

Zam-Buk is also a cure for piles. It gives speedy relief and ends the throbbing, burning pain. Skin-disease, such as eczema, itch, dandruff, rash, rashes due to blood-poison, etc., cannot resist its powerful healing virtues. Purely vegetable. It is an ideal combination of power and purity. 50c a box of all druggists and stores, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Reject cheap, harmful and dangerous substitutes.

"See here, Mr. Jones," he said, in the tone of an injured man, "if you keep on meddling in this way, how do you suppose I am going to make any money out of this job?"

Repeat it:—"Shiloh's Cure will always cure my coughs and colds."
