Charges Against Negro.

Windsor, Jan. 13.-Jeremiah Jackson, a negro, 36 years of age, was arrested at Puce, a village about fifteen miles east of here, on a charge of attempted murder.

It is alleged Jackson burned the home of Thomas Carter another negro, because the latter's 15-year-old daughter refused to elope with him. When arrested the officers identified him as the man who thirteen years ago figured in a murderous assault and escaped. He will be charged with assault with attempt to kill, erson, and bringing stolen goods into Canada.
