C.L.S. Won their Fourth Game in Town League

BANKERS DEFEAT OMEMEE—AN OYSTER SUPPER ENJOYED BY TEAMS.

Four straight wins are now chalked down for the C.L.S. team after Wednesday's game, when they put it over the 45th Regiment team by the score of 12 to 3.

Two games filled the bill on the rink, the first being between the Bankers and Omeme, the second being the C.L.S. and 45th Regiment game. The former game was another victory for the Bankers by the score of 9 to 3.

Quite a large crowd filled the rink, but not as many as should have been there, as the rink company's bill will be quite high in the doctor's lines.

It may be said that both teams, in either games, played fast hockey, but above all, each did their share of using the wood against their opponents' bodies. The Bankers and Omeme game was every man for himself, but as the fighters, who were caught by "Ken" Randal in their dirty work, were sent to the boards, the cheerful voice of the managers would say close to their ear, "Accidents will happen."

The second game between the C.L.S. and 45th Regiment was fast and exciting, while at times rough work ruled in spite of the exertions made by "Ken" Randal to hinder it, while Stoddard stuck to watching the playing of the rubber.

The 45th team worked under difficulties all the way through the game, one of their men, Yarnold, after ten minutes of play, having been hit with Cain's stick above the left eye, leaving a gash about two inches in length, which required three stitches to close. McConnell also got a dirty crack on the left hand when falling under another C.L.S. player's runners, leaving a deep cut which required some attending to at the close of the game. On the other teams line-up luck seemed to follow them, none of their players being seriously injured.

Beatty and McGee did the scoring of the three goals for the Omeme team against the Bankers, while Livingstone and Greene scored three goals apiece, Spence two and Sylvester one for the Bankers.

At half time the score was far up, it being 7 to 3, showing better defence work on the Omeme's team in the second half than in the first, although through their hard work several of both team's line-ups hung on the fence for two minutes at a time.

In the second half Greene and Livingstone scored one goal apiece, leaving the score 9 to 3 at the close. The teams fell in line as follows:

Bankers (9)	Goal	Omeme (3)
Connors	Point	Mitchell
Bingay	Cover Point	Bradley
Greene	Rover	Beatty
Sylvester	Left Wing	Murray
Livingstone	Centre	Lytle and McQuade
Koyle	Right Wing	Mitchell
Spence	Referees	Stoddard and Randal.

Timekeepers—Thomas and Hamilton.

The second game between the C.L.S. and 45th Regiment was fast, and the score does not at all give any account of the playing, as both teams are fast and quite equally matched.

Jack Dougan of the 45th team, made things hum by scoring the first goal after two minutes of play, but things were killed by Cain scoring for the C.L.S. and Yarnold being hurt.

All through the game players were constantly hung on the boards for tripping and fighting.

The scores were principally chalked down by the Spratts, Jack doing three of the number and Peter six, and Joe Killen three. On the other line-up the Dougans did the trick, Jack opening with one and Jim doing the same a few seconds before half time.

The score at half time was close, it being 4-2, while in the second half the C.L.S. did nothing but score, leaving the tally standing 12 to 2.

The teams were as follows:

C. L. S. (12)	45th Regiment (2)
Goal	Goal
McGrath	Newton
Duck	Carew
Killen	McConnell
J. Spratt	Jim Dougan
J. Spratt	Lane
Cain	Jack Dougan
Burke	Yarnold
Referees—Stoddard and Randal.	Timekeepers—Butler and Ferguson.

Y.M.C.A. YOUNGSTERS TRIM FENELON FALLS HOCKEYISTS.

Last evening if Peterboro put it over the Lindsay Midgets at Peterboro, the local youngsters put the finishing touches over the Fenelon bantams by the score of 7 to 0.

The game, which was given in behalf of the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, was well patronized, the building being quite filled with spectators from Fenelon Falls and Lindsay.

The game, which was practically shabby, was of a laughable character, the youngsters from both burs being all over the rink, especially at the visitors' goal. The Lindsay 'kids' goal-tender had nothing to do, as the puck was within a few yards of the Fenelon goal all through the game.

It is given that owing to the locals being members of the Y.M.C.A., and more physically developed than the Fenelon hockeyists, the visitors had hard luck against them.

Mr. Mann, of Fenelon Falls, deserves much credit for the manner in which he helped his own town team, having kept them here until this afternoon at the Simpson house. He also paid full expenses of the team and its rosters to the town.

The teams lined up as follows:

Lindsay	Goal	Fenelon Falls
Dennis	Point	Scott
Carew	Cover Point	Mann
Flavelle	Centre	Kelly
Coombs	Rover	Pearce
Griffis	Right Wing	Shane
McLennan	Left Wing	Wilson
Wallace	Referee—Mr. Daymen,	Fenelon Falls.

DEATH OF LITTLE KATHLEEN CARLON.

Kathleen Carlon, one of Lindsay's youngest citizen, passed away at her home on Sussex-st. at a late hour last Wednesday.

The young deceased was suffering with croup, which had started from a cold received a few days previous, and on becoming worse yesterday the family physician was summoned, working with the child for some while without effect until a late hour, when she passed quietly away. She was four years of age, having been born in Lindsay at her late home on Sussex-st. south.

There are left two sisters, besides her parents, to mourn her loss. The funeral will take place to-morrow from her late home.

SUDDEN DEATH OF LINDSAY YOUNG LADY IN TORONTO.

While visiting her sister, Mrs. Buller, Toronto, on Friday, Miss B. Henderson of town dropped dead in her room at her sister's home this morning.

The sad news was received by Mr. T. J. Tiley, local Bell Telephone manager here, by whom the parents were notified.

At the time of going to press no further reply had been received except that the body would arrive on the C.P.R. this evening.

Miss Henderson was for some years bookkeeper at the local branch of the Bell Telephone Company. She was a young lady of the highest character and was most popular with all who knew her. The news of her sudden death will be received with the deepest sorrow.

Her mother, Mrs. Henderson, resides on Sussex-st., north. Several sisters are living at home. To the family the sympathy of a wide circle will be extended.

Savannah, Ga. Feb. 6.—Fred Simpson, the Canadian Indian who is ambitious to wrest the laurels from Longboat, Shrubbs, et al., lowered the American outdoor record for fifteen miles here. He ran over a part of the Grand Uxix automobile course. Time, 1:27 2/5.

Five miles of the run was in the teeth of a stiff wind. He finished strong, and afterwards gave an exhibition of his sprinting in front of the grand stand. Simpson is here to train for the international Marathon which will be run in Madison Square Garden on St. Patrick Day.

Lindsay Curlers Make Good at Cannington

ONE RINK WINS CONSOLATION OCCULIST FOR SCHOOL CHILD-PRIZE—OTHER SECOND IN PRIMARY.

The two rinks from Lindsay that went to Cannington to take part in the Bonspiel there, certainly upheld the curlers' honor for Lindsay.

The ice was very heavy at Cannington in the final games and nearly everyone had to turn their stones. This made it hard work all right, but all agreed that everyone had a good time nevertheless.

The Toronto rinks were kicking because they had to play three games in forty-eight hours, but one Lindsay rink made such a record look like the easiest kind of work. Mr. Knowlson's rink played five games in twelve hours and this is considered a record in curling, particularly as every game was won. The games were as follows:

Hicks, sk., (Peterboro) 5; Knowlson, sk., 15:
Palmer (Claremont) 9; Knowlson, 18.
Purdy (Scarboro) 8; Knowlson, 9.
Omerod (East Toronto) 3; Knowlson 14.
Gilding (East Toronto) 3; Knowlson 14.

Mr. Knowlson's rink thus won the first place in the Consolation, and as a reward received the prize of a handsome solid leather suit case for each member. The members of this rink were: W. Knowlson, W. Williams, T. Burke, J. M. Knowlson, skip.

The other Lindsay rink—B. Searie, W. Carley, M. Williams, Fred Thom as, skip—won second prize in the primary. This prize was four sets of silver knives and forks. This rink did exceptionally well for a rink that is little used to playing away from home.

Lindsay certainly can produce the rinks that will carry off the silverware no matter where they go.

BOBCAYGEON—FENELON FALLS CURLERS.

(Fenelon Falls Gazette.)
Two rinks of curlers from Bobcaygeon drove to Fenelon Falls and two rinks from here went to Bobcaygeon, on Wednesday to play the first round for the Bobcaygeon-Stanton cup, which the Falls won last winter. ### "LET THE ASSASSINS BEGIN IT."

The French have an apt answer when the horrors of capital punishment are held out and it is suggested in the name of humanity and kindness and so forth and so on and so on, that the death penalty be abolished. "Let the assassins begin it!" say the French.

A similar answer might rightly be given to such men as Hon. Mr. Aylesworth who prate about the degrading effect of the lash. Let Hon. Mr. Aylesworth rest assured that the cowardly beaters of the women they have sworn to protect and cherish, the miserable recreants who assault the weak and bring violence and horror to their lawless deeds, have little chance of further degradation. They have reached close to the limit, and while the application of the lash might not bring them altogether back to a sense of decency and manliness, the fear of the lash would assuredly hold in check the impulses of such cowardly brutes.

Hon. Mr. Aylesworth and other soft-hearted gentlemen may talk their fill of humanity and the degradation of those touched by corporal punishment, but the fact remains that this form of punishment is the only sure deterrent and when enforced has rid more than one community of the crimes of violence.

If humanity and dignity of person are to be preserved "let the assassins begin it." If the Dominion parliament harkens to the voice of Aylesworth in this particular, it will show itself as far behind public opinion as it has often proved itself in the past. The public at present, with some recent horrible examples before it, is more anxious for the protection of the weak, the innocent and the law-abiding, than for the care of the hides, the dignity or depravity of the brutes who curse society with their violence.

Falls 9 Flats in Shaft Still Living in Hospital

HARRY MOSS, YOUNG ELEVATOR WORKER R, ESCAPES INSTANT DEATH IN A TUMBLE OF OVER 100 FT.

Toronto, Feb. 6.—Falling over 100 feet in the hoist shaft of the nine-story Darling Building at Adelaide-st. and Spadina-ave. yesterday afternoon, Harry Moss, of Lambton Mills, still lives in St. Michael's Hospital.

He has a broken jaw, a broken arm, and internal injuries, and is expected to die, but his escape from instant death is nothing short of miraculous.

A wire grillwork near the bottom of the shaft through which he crashed broke the full effect of his fall. Moss was crossing on a concrete beam which supports the floor at the ninth storey, when he lost his balance and fell. He struck a window on the first floor and a glancing blow then demolished a wire work at the basement.

Moss, in company with another workman, was completing the installation of the elevator for the Parkin Elevator Company at Hespeler. He is single and about 25 years of age.

A doctor was immediately summoned, who ordered him to be removed to

WORKER AND SINGER.

By Mary F. Butts.
O company of toilers, the army of the Lord,
With ax and pick and shovel instead of flaming sword,
Who fell the towering forests, who work the midnight mine—
O mighty band of mariners who sail the foaming brine,
All honor—none shall scant it—to you, brave men, belongs;
And honor to the poet who sings the worker's songs.

All honor to the poet who holds your courage high,
Who sings when you are sorrowful till you forget to sigh;
Who weathers your festive garlands and but a love-look craves;
Who drops the blossoms of his thought upon your darlings' graves;
Who with his soaring music draws your hearts into the sky
Till you know yourselves God's children and are not afraid to die.

O company of toilers, true helpers all are we;
And some must plow the solid land and some must plow the sea;
The prophet's warning some must raise mid cruelties and wrongs,
And some must cheer the countless host with the music of sweet songs,
Oh, let the hand be strong and brave, and jubilant the voice—
'Tis ours to work till twilight falls and in our God rejoice.

LINDSAY BOY SPEAKS TO THE EMPIRE CLUB.

The following refers to a son of A. D. R. Kylie, of town, a Lindsay boy in whose success a wide circle of friends take special pride. The World of this morning says:—

Prof. E. J. Kylie spoke on "The Menace of Socialism" at the Empire Club yesterday, with the moral in so many words that if all were socialists it would put an end to socialism.

"If each of us was putting his best at the service of the community so socialism would be disarmed," was Prof. Kylie's phrase.

He did not think socialism was as yet a factor in Canadian life. It must have come to many as a shock that a full socialist program had been accepted by the British Labor Council. Perhaps socialism was, like some diseases, the more dangerous the less clearly it was understood.

"Socialism means in essence either robbery or religion," said the speaker. As proclaimed by the ordinary street orator, it meant robbery and confiscation, plunder of the rich for the benefit of the poor.

Karl Marx's theories were not now given so much attention. Mr. Kylie proceeded to discuss some of the Marxian definitions, labor, capital, etc.

Capital was greater than any capitalist or group of capitalists, as it represented the savings and thrift of all the people, the capitalist only trying to swing it in certain directions. There was no question that the socialists meant war. Their weapons were the ballot paper. They hoped that by turning society over the rough would be made smooth.

"But you can't kill a fallacy by persecution any more than you can lay a ghost by cremation." The only way to deal with popular socialism was by argument directed against economic fallacy and by sympathy.

Socialism like science was a changing thing, constantly shifting its basis. The popular forms were the cast-off system of intellectual socialism.

Mr. Kylie mentioned the fact that 941 people out of 1000 in England left under $1000 behind them. What chance had the children of these 941 beside the offspring of the other 59?

ONE MAN KILLED AND THREE INJURED IN A FIGHT IN A GARMENT MAKERS' SHOP.

New York, Feb. 6.—One man was killed and three others injured in a riot incited, the police declare, by a walking delegate of a garment-makers' union, who descended upon the field in East second street late to-day, and attempted to coerce the employees of the place into quitting work.

Greenfield and his brother, Wilfe, employed as foreman, attempted to prevent wholesale destruction of the shop by the invaders, and a melee ensued in which clubs, shears and pressing irons were freely used.

Police reserves dispersed the rioters. In the debris of machinery they found Samuel Kram, said to be one of the strikers, lying unconscious, with a broken skull. Jacob Greenfield, the proprietor of the establishment, his brother Wolfe, and Baego Cassello, an employee, were also badly battered.
