

GOUGH'S 'Where the Good Clothes Come From' GOUGH'S

MANUFACTURER'S SURPLUS STOCK SALE SUITS, FURNISHINGS, HATS

Manufactured expressly for this season's trade---bought by us at a mere fraction of their real values and in turn offered to you at prices lower than man ever realized such apparel could be sold for.

This is a sale of exceptionally high-class stock---not an inferior garment in the entire showing. Even if men had to pay usual prices for suits offered they would gladly do so, because of their style and superiority over the usual ready-to-wear Clothing. At such prices as this great sale offers doesn't it look like throwing away good money not to take advantage of this opportunity. We know it is just a matter of having you see the garments to convince you, so come along, no man should be so blind to opportunity that he cannot at least investigate.

Men's Suits, regular $8.00, Sale Price $5.00.

All argument is worthless, if the clothing is not of itself the strongest and best argument of its own merit. We want you to see these suits, made of imported English tweeds and blue and black worsteds, beautifully finished, single and double-breasted coats, cut in the latest fashion in the business, sack or new varsity style. Not one of these suits that could be sold at less than $8 in the regular way; most of them would be sold at $10.00 or more. All sizes here for all kinds of men. For..... $5.00

Men's Suits $7.50

These suits are distinguished by the originality---by deftness of finish---by all the characteristics which appeal most to those to whom "best" must mean "best" in every sense of the word. They are the finest grade of imported tweeds and worsteds, in all the new colors and patterns, including new fine stripes and overchecks and were made to sell $10.00 to $12.00 and seldom could you buy such good values at these prices. But we have all sizes here, and this purchase enables us to sell you this line at..... $7.50

Men's Suits $10.00

We are not arbiters of fashion, but we do believe that we exert influence in the dress of the men of this vicinity. The fact that our styles are often copied, is a sincere tribute. This line of suits at $10.00 means our own ideal of all that is worthy and good in clothes, and we offer them to you with the greatest degree of faith, knowing the splendid value of this line. The goods are the finest imported worsteds and Scotch tweeds in all the dark and light colors, linings are very fine, and the shoulders are braced with the finest French canvas, button-holes beautifully finished. Coats are cut in the three and four button sack, deep lapels, low cut vest, concave shoulders, high, close-fitting collar, wide peg-top trousers...In short, all that is good in clothes is embodied in this line. Not a suit in this lot that would not sell readily at $15, all sizes. ale..... 10.00

Men's Trousers $1.75

This is a line of 200 pairs of Men's Trousers, cut in the very latest style. All sizes in Worsteds and Scotch Tweeds. Made to sell at $3.50. Sale price..... $1.75

Boys' Clothing

Boys' Blue and Black Suits in single and double-breasted styles, sizes 25 to 28. Regular $3.50 and $4.00. Sale price..... $2.75

Boys' Two-piece Norfolk Suits, in the new, serviceable tweeds, sizes 23 to 33. Regular $3.50 and $4.00. Sale price..... $2.25

$3.00 Men's Hats 99c

Of course it is public property that we are interested in the purchase of Wyndham stock. This firm carried a beautiful line of hats. We will place 400 Men's Fine Soft Felt and Straw Hats, the new American and English shapes. Not a hat in this lot that would not bring $3.00; in fact, most dealers get $3.50 for this quality...All sizes and shapes. Sale price..... 99c

TOWN TOPICS.

The Woman's institutes of East and West Victoria will hold a picnic at Fenelon Falls on July 9th.
Mr. McGill, manager of the Farmer's Bank, is having an addition made to his residence on Sussex-st.
Business is very brisk at present on both the C.P.R. and G.T.R. lines. The working crews are not sorry.
William Meehan, an employee of the Cavendish Lumber Co., was drowned last Tuesday at Lakefield.
The Madison Williams Co. have received a large order this week to furnish a mill which is being constructed in Orillia.
Mr. W. A. Graham, general merchant at Bobcaygeon, has decided to remove to Kirkfield, where he formerly conducted a business.
Mr. Lamb, the successor to Carscadden & Mullen, sold his entire stock to W. H. Sparling Co., to make room for his moving picture gallery.
Judge Winchester, of Toronto, recommends the lash for wife-beaters. If reports be true, we have a couple of hubbies qualifying for the cat-nine-tails.
Mr. J. R. Graham, of Bobcaygeon, father of Mr. W. A. Graham, general merchant there, is removing to Lindsay. His household goods arrived last Thursday.
There is a secret in sharpening Lawn Mowers to make them run light and easy, cut clean, and last long. They have it at SHEPHERD'S (Webster's old stand). His customers get the benefit---dwl.
A chemist claims that he has found a process for distilling whiskey without a worm. But worms are not what trouble the fellow who sees boat constructors with barber-pole decorations.
Herb Workman purchased a valuable mare Friday from Mr. James Gostlin, to be used in connection with his hack and baggage transfer business. Herb is a careful man in his line, and his business is growing daily.
The Postmaster-General of Canada has announced that the series of postage stamps to commemorate the Champlain tercentenary will be issued at Ottawa on the 3rd of July, which marks the exact anniversary of the founding of Quebec by Champlain.
Congressman Moore, from Philadelphia, announces that he will introduce a bill imposing a penalty on laundries who tear and fray garments entrusted to them. We may yet get a bill to prevent politicians

CITIZENS MUST SOON BUY THEIR DOG TAGS.
The Chief of Police is now busy gathering in dog licenses and handing out dog tags these days. The by-law of the town states that all taxes must be paid before the 1st of August of every year. After that time the Chief may capture, kill or dispose of any dog that runs around the street at large. Chief Vincent proposes to enforce the by-law concerning dog taxes. The taxes may be paid at any time to the Chief, at his office in the town buildings.
THE LINDSAY REGIMENT.
Ottawa, Ont., May 30.—Lindsay troops will not go into camp when expected. An announcement was made to-day by the Militia Dept. that the camps of this season in all but the four Western Provinces will have to be postponed.
LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES.
In another column we publish a list of the candidates in the field for the Ontario Legislature, with the majorities polled at the last election by members seeking re-election. Our readers should cut and preserve the list for purposes of comparison when the returns come in on the night of June 8th.

CONSERVATIVES HOLD MEETING AT VICTORIA ROAD.

The meeting of the Conservative party held at Victoria Road last party at Victoria Road Wednesday supporters of the Whitney administration. Mr. Chas. Dryden, a popular resident of Victoria Road, took the chair. He explained in a brief address how the farmers of Victoria County were being looked after by the present government.
Mr. Jos. Peel, a citizen of Victoria Road, was also heard from in an impressive address on how the farmers around him in that district were used. Closing he spoke of the agricultural classes, and how much more useful they were to the county than a Normal school.
Mr. Carnegie, East Victoria's representative, then came forward and was given a warm reception by his supporters. He touched on the great topics of the day, and dwelt at considerable length on the money spent in East Victoria, of which $29,000 was spent on cement and iron bridges on some of the main roads. He then dwelt on the secret ballot which was one of the great improvements of the present government. He brought his remarks to a close after speaking for a few moments on the lumber and mining questions. Now the settler owned the mineral that was under the surface of the earth, and the timber above.
Reeve G. A. Jordan was given a great ovation by those present when he came forward to give an address. He touched upon the editorial that appeared in The Post, and stated that the "bump on the log" was true, but Mr. Fox was a hard bump which no one could reflect upon. Closing he pointed out what would be derived from the Agricultural classes, and how much more useful they were than the Normal school which is now in Peterboro. Mr. Jordan's speech was punctuated by humorous remarks, and when he brought it to a close he was warmly applauded.
TORY RALLY AT BRITAIN.
The Conservative party held a meeting at Little Britain Wednesday, the hall being crowded with enthusiastic supporters of the Whitney administration. Mr. John Prouse, Little Britain, occupied the chair and gave a brief address on the present government.
Mr. Macdonald, the editor of The

CONSERVATIVES HOLD MEETING AT OAKWOOD.

Daily Warder was heard from in an impressive address, touching on the insinuations in The Evening Post about Mr. S. Fox, such as a "bump on the log," a farmer and a brick-maker. Closing his remarks, he pointed out that Mr. Fox was the only man who had anything to do with the bringing of the agricultural classes to Lindsay for the benefit of the farmers.
Mr. Hughes, of Little Britain, also gave a brief speech on the topics of the day.
Mr. Boxall was heard from on legislation.
Dr. Vrooman was called and gave a very interesting speech on the Normal School question.
Mr. Fox was very warmly received, and in his speech he touched on all great topics of the day. He dwelt on the school books question, which now gives a chance to the poor boys and girls as well as the rich. He brought his remarks to a close after speaking for a few minutes on the improvements made on the roads and bridges in the different parts of West Victoria.
The meeting of the Conservative party held at Oakwood Monday was crowded with enthusiastic supporters of the Whitney administration. Mr. Jos. Taylor took the chair, and after a brief address of the good work done by the Whitney government for the farmers of that district, he called on Mr. Jas. Boxall, of Lindsay, who spoke on the topics of the day, touching on the lumber and mining questions. Dr. Vrooman was then called forward and spoke the the interest that Mr. Fox has given this district. Closing, he brought before the people the good the agricultural classes will do the farmers of this district, and that Mr. F. H. Reed was put there to do his best for the farmers.
Mr. S. Fox, West Victoria's representative, then came forward, and was given a warm reception by those present. He spoke on the mining and timber questions, after which he dwelt at considerable length on the public school book question, of which he said that the Liberal party said that it was only a remnant sale.
LIBERAL RALLY.
A very enthusiastic meeting was held at the Reform committee rooms in the Post Block Wednesday and a large and interested crowd was present. The chair was occupied by Mr. Walter Reesor, who in his opening remarks impressed on his hearers the nearness of the eighth of June and he asked them to work hard and victoriously would be theirs. He believed that Mr. Stewart was going to get in

THE FITTEST WILL REMAIN.

by a substantial majority. He then called upon the first speaker of the evening, Dr. M. B. Annis, who dealt with the general policy of the government, pointing out that Whitney had failed to keep the promises that he made before his election in 1905. He also dealt with the educational policy of the government and the cheap school book question, pointing out that Mr. Whitney's reduction was only temporary.
The next speaker of the evening was Mr. Ernie Anderson, who effectively criticised the actions of the Whitney government. He dealt with the Canadian Northern guarantee and pointed out that it was practically giving $2,500,000 to McKenzie and Mann, the promoters of the railway. Mr. Anderson then closed with an attack on the government's action concerning the LaRose mine, pointing out the government of Ontario was either being cheated out of a valuable mine or else they were taking from the O'Brien people and giving to the LaRose people that which they had no claim to.
The last speaker was Mr. Robert Kennedy, who stoutly arraigned the Whitney government for not keeping their pre-election promises. He dealt with the giving of $2,500,000 to the Canadian Northern Railway Co., and $130,000 to the LaRose people for practically nothing. He also dealt with Mr. Whitney's attitude towards this important matter.
The meeting closed with singing "God Save the King."
DOING THEMSELVES PROUD.
Bob. Independent: The Lindsay Free Press, daily and weekly, under the experienced editorship of the veteran newspaperman, J. V. McNaulty, presents an excellent appearance, and is full of vim. Editorially and mechanically it is a first-rate production, and if the town needs a third daily it should be well satisfied with The Free Press. Messrs. McNaulty and Moore are doing themselves proud with their new acquisition.
The Free Press circulation is increasing daily. Have you subscribed yet?
