

BRIGADE TELL WHY THEY ASKED MEMBER TO RESIGN

Lively Time in Council Chamber Last Monday THIRTEEN TO ONE Chief Denies Asking Mr. McGillivray For His Resignation.

Cass Seaton denied this, and said he told him he did sign it. Mr. McGillivray said to him, "I have never done anything against you. Now, you stick to me, and I'll stick to you."

"I want to say right here, that if I ever spoke of a fireman as being no good I meant no good as a fireman, and not as an individual. I would say it again and say it now that Harry Bell is no good as a driver."

At a recent meeting of the fire brigade, a petition was presented signed by members of the brigade asking for my resignation as one of its members.

He claimed to have known nothing of the petition until the night of the meeting. He knew that Mr. McGillivray had been doing a great deal of kicking, both this year and last.

When Mr. McGillivray arose, he was pretty well excited, and said that he was up against the same proposition as in the fire hall—thirteen to one.

REFERRED TO PROPERTY COMMITTEE. A general harangue then took place between Mr. McGillivray and the firemen, in which they brought up petty matters about who did the work and who did not at the different fires that have occurred lately.

THE LETTER. The following letter was read by the Clerk to the Mayor and Council: Town of Lindsay.

Learn to Swim Well And Thus Avoid Danger

Every person should learn to swim if there is any possible opportunity to do so. The tipped boat was suddenly plunged into deep water the timely hints would all end in a struggle.

LOOKED LIKE DAGOES.

Driver Bell, the next witness on the stand, told how Mr. McGillivray stood in his estimation. One time, he said, the boys were testing out on Victoria Park and as they were returning he heard McGillivray remark, "The Chief must take us for a bunch of fools."

USED STRONG LANGUAGE.

Cass Seaton also made a few remarks, telling of some stormy language used against members of the brigade.

THIRTEEN TO ONE.

When Mr. McGillivray arose, he was pretty well excited, and said that he was up against the same proposition as in the fire hall—thirteen to one.
