

Popular Janetville Teacher Receives Tokens of Esteem

SEASON OVER AT THE ELEVATORS - MANY VISITORS IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD - PRESBYTERIAN GARDEN PARTY A GREAT SUCCESS.

JANETVILLE, July 6.—The first of July brought many visitors. Mr. Wilbert Thornton, of the Dominion Express staff, Peterboro, and his mother, Mrs. J. Thornton, spent a few days with Mrs. Edward Thornell. Mr. and Mrs. Agnew, of Burnell, were the guests of Mrs. Wm. McGill lately. Mr. and Mrs. B. Heaslip, and Mr. and Mrs. Mason of Toronto, were the guests of Mrs. A. McGill lately. Mr. and Miss Wilson, of Peterboro, spent July 1st with Mr. Robt. Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. W. Bell, of Regina, were the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Wm. Magee, for a few days. Mrs. Flack, Mrs. Thos. Syers, Mr. and Mrs. Merriman, and Mrs. Hobbs visited friends at Midland lately. Mrs. Wm. Suggitt, of Valentia, spent the holiday with friends in Havelock. The Presbyterian garden party was a great success; the night being all that could be desired, everyone enjoyed it and will look forward to a good time next summer at it. Mr. Bert. Eyres was up this week hauling a car of grain, which finishes this season's work at the elevator. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. E. Bradburn. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Peel have returned home, after spending a week with friends in Oshawa. A very interesting event took place at the prayer services, when an address and presentation were made to Miss Biggar, who is leaving us after teaching in this section for four years. Miss Biggar has been highly esteemed by all who knew her, and the church and community will miss her very much. She goes from here bearing everyone's best wishes for her future. The address is as follows: Dear Miss Biggar: You have been one of us, one with us, and one for us, during the past four years and a half, and we, your Epworth League friends, can scarcely think of Epworth League without at the same time thinking of you, so close, pleasant and helpful have been our associations. We are deeply grateful that during the years spent together you have shown us, by example as well as precept, the advantages of self control and kindness. Your life has always been such as to exert a helpful christian influence over all who came into touch with you, and we know the re-

Bobcaygeon Becoming A Tourist Centre

MR. A. J. LAWLESS SAYS THE TRADE IS MORE TRANSIENT THAN LAST YEAR.

Mr. W. J. Lawless, of Bobcaygeon, reports the tourist trade in that place very brisk and prospects are bright for a good summer. He remarked that he thought the trade more transient this year than last. Mr. Lawless is proprietor of the Rockland house, which has always enjoyed a good business since its erection. It is quite apparent that Bobcaygeon is becoming more popular every year as a resort for those seeking rest and a place of natural beauty.

Royal Templars To Hold Picnic

SPECIAL TRAIN ON I. B. & O. R.Y - VICTORIA COUNTY BRETHREN WILL ATTEND.

Kinmount, July 7th.—Rev. Mr. and Mrs. A. Cummer, accompanied by the latter's sister, Miss S. L. Moore, left this morning for a trip up the Kawartha Lakes as far as Orillia, in their gasoline yacht. From there, Mr. and Mrs. Cummer will proceed to Owen Sound, Miss Moore to Toronto to continue her studies in china painting. During Mr. Cummer's absence there will be no service in St. James' church here. Mrs. A. Campbell and daughter, of Texas, are visiting Mrs. Campbell's sister, Mrs. (Dr.) E. A. White. Mr. Harry Dettman is home from French River. Miss Maggie Graham, accompanied by her cousin, Miss May Graham, of Peterboro, spent from Friday till Tuesday at her home here. The last report from the doctors is that the smallpox is being kept well in check, there being no new cases during the last week. A special train will be run from Kinmount to Goderham on the I. B. & O., July 16, when a union picnic will be held by the Royal Templars of Haliburton and Victoria districts. Return fare 55c., leaving Kinmount at 9.30 a.m. Mrs. Lou. Christopher accompanied her sister home to Peterboro, after her two weeks' visit here. Mr. Christopher will join her here on the 12th.

Obituary Notices

About 11.30 Tuesday, June 30th, at the home of Mr. Jos. Kent, Crandell-st., east ward, there passed away in the person of Mrs. James Kent, one of Lindsay's best known and highly esteemed citizens. Her demise will be learned with deep sorrow and regret by all who knew her. The deceased lady has been ailing for some time, and about two weeks ago was taken ill. During her illness she was always patient and kind, and bore her troubles with true christian fortitude. Mrs. Kent was over 79 years of age. She was born in Ireland, and came to this country at about five years of age. After spending a number of years on a farm in Emily and Hope townships, she moved to this town about 35 years ago. After the death of her husband she lived with her son, Mr. Joseph Kent, east ward. She leaves behind her three daughters and four sons, Mrs. Wm. Fee and Mrs. Cunningham, of town; Mrs. Davidson, Saskatchewan, and Messrs. Joseph Kent, George Kent and Jas. Kent of town, and Mr. John Kent, of Collingwood. The funeral took place from the family residence, Crandell-st., east ward, Wednesday, July 1st, at 2.30, to the Riverside cemetery.

The Prices Ruling on the Lindsay Market

GRAIN AND PRODUCE QUOTATIONS FOR OUR READERS. The market was very poorly attended Wednesday; buyers were rather scarce and prices were somewhat lower than usual. The price of pork has advanced considerably during the past few days, and is still soaring. The farmers are now reaping the benefit of keeping their hogs during the winter months. The price of grain still remains steady. The market clerk is anxious to have more people come and attend the market, as it will encourage the farmers to bring in more produce and also to sell at considerably lower prices than at present. The Ruling Prices. Flour, best Manitoba, $3.00 per cwt. Flour, Manitoba, $2.80 per cwt. Rolled oats, $2.40 per cwt. Fall wheat, 75c. per bush. Spring wheat, 70c. per bush. SAID TO HAVE SOLD FRESH TROUT—WILL APPEAR IN POLICE COURT.

On Saturday last two young men were brought to town by Inspector J. Watson, of Fish and Game in the Caereia district, charged with having broken the law by selling fresh trout. It is likely the young men will be tried in a few days in police court. These are the first to break the law in that district this season, and Inspector Bradshaw says this shows that the law is well observed among fishermen in that district.

Merry Wedding Bells.

REYNOLDS—HUGH. A very pretty wedding took place on June 24th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh, Franklin, when their daughter, Cora Stewart, was united in marriage to Mr. John Reynolds, of Mount Horeb. Rev. Mr. Marvin, of Bethany, tied the knot of unity, and Mrs. Dr. Marvin played Lohengrin's wedding march. The groom was assisted by Mr. John Hickson, of Mount Horeb, and Miss Edna Hugh, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. There were only a few of the immediate relatives present. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds left on the evening train for Mount Horeb where they will reside in future. The bride's dress was of blue silk, trimmed with allover lace, while the bridesmaid was dressed in blue lustré trimmed with allover lace. The bride was given away by her father. Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Skuce, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming, of Mount Horeb. The dining room was prettily decorated with roses. The bride received a number of very costly presents, the groom's gift being a gold watch and chain, and to the bridesmaid a pearl brooch and a pearl pin to the groomsmen.
