Four Cases Were Disposed

of at Haliburton Yesterday

TWO LOCAL LAWYERS APPEAR IN ALL CASES—ALL WERE SUITS FOR DAMAGES—ONE MAN WANTED HIS WAGES — THE CASE DISMISSED.

At Haliburton, Tuesday, before Judge McMillan, four cases were brought up. In the first three cases Mr. Harnsworth and Mr. Parish were the principals. Mr. Fred. Holmes Hopkins, B.A., of town, appeared for Harnsworth, and Mr. I. E. Weldon acted as counsel for the other. In the first case Parish sued Harnsworth for $43.50 for work, and after hearing the evidence His Worship dismissed the case. Harnsworth then turned round and sued Parish for damages amounting to $50, and also $20 damages for allowing some pigs to go astray while taking them to pound. His Worship, after hearing the two latter cases, dismissed them also. A case which was left over from the last court, that of Gibson vs. Warrian, was brought up before His Worship this morning. Mr. F. Holmes Hopkins appeared for Warrian, the defendant, and Mr. I. E. Weldon for Gibson, plaintiff. The case was left over to hear the evidence of Mr. Gibson, jr., who had been joined as party plaintiff by order of Judge Harding. It appears that Gibson bought a cow from Warrian, which did not turn out to be as good as he had guaranteed. Warrian claims he did not guarantee anything, which statement, of course, the other affirms and wants $12 damages. The case was left over to be argued before Judge Harding at Lindsay.

FENELON FALLS C.O.O.F. EXCURSION TO MIDLAND.

Over one hundred and twenty-five adults represented the number on board the train for Midland on the annual excursion of the C.O.O.F., of Fenelon Falls, which passed through this morning, and a merrier crowd could hardly be imagined. The train was composed of three coaches and a baggage car, which contained that which was held in the greatest anticipation by all, the lunch baskets. On arrival at Midland the excursionists will make their headquarters in the park. Returning, the train will leave the Midland depot at about 5.30 o'clock, reaching Fenelon Falls between eight and nine o'clock.
