OBITUARY NOTICES

ALEXANDER FASER, KIRKFIELD.

The funeral of the late Alexander Fraser took place on Wednesday, Oct. 7th, from the family residence, and was largely attended. The deceased was 65 years of age, and leaves a widow and three daughters to mourn his loss, viz.: Mrs. Sangster, of Trenton; Miss Fraser, a graduate of Harper's Hospital, Detroit, and Miss Evelyn at home. The late Mr. Fraser was born in Inverness, Scotland, and came to this country with his parents when five years of age. The family settled in the county of Glengarry, where several brothers and sisters still reside. About forty years ago he came to this district and opened up a blacksmithing and carriage business, which he carried on successfully until a few years ago, when he was appointed postmaster of the village of Kirkfield. He was a fine specimen of manhood, open and kind-hearted, and one of the most popular and respected citizens of that neighborhood. He was a staunch Liberal and fought many a battle for his party, but never allowed politics to interfere with his friendships, and among the Conservatives were many of his warmest friends. In religion he was a Presbyterian, and his remains were interred in the Presbyterian cemetery at Balsover.

ANDREW G. HOUSTON.

At 12 o'clock Sunday, at the home of Mr. A. Houston, St. Patrick-st., east ward, there passed away, Andrew Houston, beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Houston.

The young lad became ill after the evening service on Sunday, Oct. 11th, with cerebro-spinal mengitis, which was given as the cause of his death.

The child was 7 years, 8 months of age. He was born north of the town, and removed a few years ago with his parents to town, where Mr. Houston took charge of the Federal Business College.

The funeral took place from the the last general election. From the family residence on Monday to the ception the Liberal workers in On- for inferment at the Pine Grove ceme-
