

LIBERAL GOVERNMENT RETURNED TO POWER AGAIN WITH BIG MAJORITY

With 211 Constituencies Reported Grits Have 125, Conservatives 86—Ontario Showed Total Gain of Two Ridings—New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Western Provinces are Surprised—None of the Cabinet are Defeated.

(Special to the Free Press.)

Toronto, Oct. 27.—It is four more years of Laurier. Probably in the general result the public were not surprised, but the good guessers in arriving at their total figures were a long way out in many instances.

At midnight there were 125 Liberals and 86 Conservatives elected. Seven constituencies will vote later.

The surprises were Ontario, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and the west.

Ontario was expected to give a much larger majority to the Conservative party. The majority in the old House was eight, and the Conservatives confidently expected it would exceed 20, some even predicting as many as 40 to the good. But Mr. Borden's followers from Ontario has been increased by two only.

SIR FREDERICK BORDEN.

Among the Conservative gains in Ontario were Centre York, North Grey, Parry Sound, North Ontario, West Hamilton, South Bruce, East Peterboro, but they made losses in North Waterloo, Brantford, Stormont, Prince Edward, South Ontario, East Simcoe and North Perth. No one had any idea that Alex. MacLaren would lose his seat for North Perth. The Perthes were to be "solid for Borden," but both went Liberal, and the Simcoes were likewise in the Borden column until the returns began to come in, when Mr. Bennett, the "stormy petrel," was found to have lost his place in the House.

The Conservative leader has two seats to sit in, for he was also elected in Carleton. As Carleton is a Conservative hive, he will likely decide to sit for Halifax.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has also too many seats, having been elected for Ottawa as well as Quebec East.

The following are the latest returns:

Protest in Peterboro.
Peterboro, Oct. 27.—The Conservatives here will proceed at once to try and unseat J. R. Stratton (Lib.), who defeated A. H. Burnham yesterday by 350 majority. Mr. Burnham's followers claim they have an abundance of evidence of wholesale bribery and corruption to annul the election. The city only gave Mr. Burnham five majority.
