Organ Recital Given at Omemece

HALLOWE'EN NIGHT PRANKS - LADIES' AID SOCIAL ATTRACTED LARGE CROWD. (Special To Free Press.) Omemece, Nov. 2.—Mr. Frank Harvey, of Peterboro, visited his father, Mr. Harvey, over Sunday. Misses Maggie McCaffrey and Laura Bigelow were among those who took in the Bethany fowl supper on Monday evening. Miss Ada Shepherd, of Coldwater, visited her uncle, Mr. Wm. McCaffrey, the latter part of the week. Among the many who left on the deer hunting expedition last week were Messrs. H. Beatty, J. Weir, A. Fee and Victor Mitchell. They intend going to Sequin Falls. Rev. Mr. Teney and Dr. Sutton left for their hunt in Parry Sound district. Friday evening Miss A. W. Ivory's organ recital afforded a great treat to the lovers of high-class music. Talent of the highest order was displayed in the course of the program. Mrs. J. C. Eaton, assisted by Mr. Wm. Stevenson, sang several numbers in a rich contralto voice. The choir, assisted by Mrs. Eaton and Mr. Stephenson, gave several selections which were well received. Miss Ivory, in her third instrumental, was greeted with a beautiful bouquet of red carnations and maiden hair ferns. The recital was very much appreciated by those who were fortunate to be present. Halloween night passed over very quietly. Only a few boys made themselves busy piling up wagons, horse rakes and several other things too numerous to mention, on the main street. Mr. Peters' moving pictures last week were a decided success, and were appreciated by all, and the appreciation was shown by the large attendance each night. Mr. Peters expects to come again in the near future with a number of the latest views. The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church intend giving a social in the Methodist church basement Monday evening, Nov. 9th. A large programme will be given in connection with the body of the church by foreign and local talent, and the choir. The ladies are working hard to make this one of the greatest of the season.

Real Estate Changes In Fenelon Falls

LOCAL OPTION DROPPED IN THE VILLAGE FOR THE PRESENT.—METHODIST CHURCH ANNIVERSARY SERVICES PLEASING AND INSPIRING.—LARGE ATTENDANCE AT FOWL SUPPER. (Correspondence Free Press.) Fenelon Falls, Nov. 5.—Miss Dora Dickson is visiting friends in Bobcaygeon. Miss Helen McDougall and Miss Dorothy French returned to Lindsay on Monday after spending Sunday at their respective homes here. Rev. Mr. Gott of Georgetown, with his wife and young daughter, came to the Falls on Tuesday of last week on a visit to Rev. Mr. Cook and Mrs. Cook, of the Baptist parsonage. Mr. Cook and Mr. Gott were friends in England in their younger days. The reverend gentlemen left on Wednesday last to attend the meeting of the Baptist Synod, which is in session in that city. Mrs. F. Cullon spent a couple of days last week with friends in Lindsay. Mrs. A. J. Gould and baby Jack returned last week after a visit of some days with friends in Lindsay. Miss Annie Nie, teacher at Burnt River, spent a couple of days of last week under the parental roof here. Mr. A. A. Cameron, principal of the Public Schools here, who had been called to his home in Whitby through the serious illness of his mother, returned to the Falls on Saturday noon, only to be recalled this morning by telegram stating that his mother had passed away on Sunday. The sad news was a severe shock to Mr. Cameron, as his mother's condition had much improved when he left home on Saturday. It is not probable that Mr. Cameron will return until after Thanksgiving. Rev. Mr. Lord left this morning for Queen's University, Kingston, where he purposes taking advantage of a special course of lectures. Mr. Lord expects to return on Saturday. Mr. M. H. McCalkum, merchant tailor of town, and Mr. J. Jones, Village Constable, left on Friday last to join a party of hunters from Kinmount, whose destination will be Hawk Lake, some miles north of Minden. We wish them success and a safe return. During Constable Jones' absence his place will be filled by Mr. J. Jones, Jr. Mrs. Tugman and her son, Mr. C. Tugman, of Toronto, spent a couple of days last week with friends in town. Miss Brandon spent Sunday with friends in Lindsay. A number of changes in real estate have taken place here during the last few weeks. Mr. Wm. Hetherington, Sr., has purchased a dwelling on Fidler's Hill, owned by Mr. A. Tiers. Mr. A. Gillis has purchased the house on Louisa street, owned and occupied by Mr. John Welsh. Mr. Welsh will remove to another house, owned by him on Francis street, E., which has been occupied by Mr. T. Shane, who has removed to one of the Smith cottages. At a meeting held in the Presbyterian Church here last Friday evening the idea of undertaking a local option campaign was for the present dropped. The anniversary services in connection with the Methodist church on Sunday last were conducted by Rev. R. P. Wilson, D.D., of Cambridge St. Methodist Church, Lindsay. The subject chosen for the morning sermon was "Burden-Bearing," the speaker taking for his text Galatians 6:5. Those who had the opportunity of hearing this sermon will long be inspired by the earnest and eloquent words of the speaker. The text chosen in the evening was Rom 1:16. The speaker referred to Paul, the great Jew, born in Tarsus, educated at the feet of Gamaliel, the great Roman citizen, and the wonderful Greek scholar, declaring the Gospel of Christ the greatest of all the powers. To put to the test this greatest of powers the speakers called upon his hearers in forcible and convincing terms. The choir, which had been specially trained for the occasion by Miss Lillian Wilson rendered suitable selections and acquitted themselves in a manner which reflects the greatest credit upon their leader. On Monday evening the ladies of the congregation gave a fowl supper in the basement of the church. This was attended by possibly the largest crowd ever seen at a supper in our village. The tables were spread with abundance of good things and looked very enticing to the hungry crowds who were admitted to the basement only when vacancies occurred at the tables. In this way the unpleasantness occasioned by overcrowding was overcome, and all had the opportunity of enjoying their meal in peace. After supper all repaired to the church, where a programme consisting of selections by the choir, a violin solo by Miss Marjorie MacDougall, greetings from the Anglican denomination, by Rev. Mr. French, and a lecture, entitled "Here and there in the Old Land," by Rev. J. P. Wilson, was rendered. The degree of excellence to which the choir has attained was the

RHEUMATISM RECIPE.

A well-known authority on Rheumatism gives the following valuable, though simple and harmless, prescription, which any one can easily prepare at home: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal, and at bedtime. He states that the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost, and, being of vegetable extraction, are harmless to take. This pleasant mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling, if any, diminishes with each dose, until permanent results are obtained, and without injuring the stomach. While there are many so-called Rheumatism Remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will, no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time. Inquiry at the drug stores of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately or the druggists here will mix the prescription for our readers if asked to.

BETTER THAN EVER.

Our readers when deciding on their reading matter for 1909, should not overlook "The Family Herald and Weekly Star" of Montreal. Of course, you want your local paper for local news, but any home in Canada would do better for receiving "The Family Herald and Weekly Star." It costs but one dollar a year, and is without doubt the greatest value in the newspaper line. It is a weekly newspaper, family magazine and an agricultural journal, all three in one. It should be in every Canadian home. —And there are girls who dislike being kissed—by the wrong fellow.

CAMERON.

(Correspondence Free Press.) Nov. 2.—Early Saturday morning a number of sportsmen left here for Digby to enjoy a couple of weeks' of camp life and hunting for deer. The party consisted of Wes. Hewie, Harvey Harrison, P. Perrin, W. Perrin and J. Tamlin, of Cambridge. Mr. M. Maybee left for Kinmount on a similar expedition. We hope they may all be successful in bringing home trophies of the chase. Our village will soon be able to boast of three blacksmith shops. Mr. Townsend is erecting one on his lot facing Front-st., and expects to be able to do business in the near future. The Methodist congregation are making preparations for their annual fowl supper, to be held on Monday, Nov. 16th. Special services in the church on Sunday, the 15th, morning and evening. We hear of a basket social before long. Further particulars later on. We are sorry to hear that Mrs. W. Hepburn, sr., is not recovering as speedily as could be desired. Her condition is very precarious, and at times very little hope is held out for her recovery. Miss Flossie Braden visited Miss Ethel Irwin on Sunday. Miss Annie Jackson, of the L.C.I., spent Sunday the guest of her friend, Miss Pearl Perrin. Mr. and Mrs. W. Pollard are visiting friends in the village this week. The schoolhouse grounds are being enclosed with a new fence, which will add to their appearance. The boys enjoyed themselves on Halloween night in a few innocent jokes, but taken altogether they behaved themselves pretty well and no one is any the worse for their evening's fun. —Free Press Want Ads. cost only 10c. per insertion if five lines and under; three insertions, 25c.; six insertions, 40c.

TOWN TOPICS

—The directors of the Peterboro fair will not be in their new premises by next year. —Money makes the mare go, but the trouble nowadays it's too easy to get her to trot along on credit. —Mr. John McDonald, of Bobcaygeon, has been attracting considerable attention in Peterboro with the Shetland pony. —Toronto Star: Breakfast food stocks have made their appearance on the Toronto Stock Exchange. They are recommended as supplying a highly nutritious diet for bulls and bears. —According to a decision of a Michigan judge, makers of sausage in which stale bread, oatmeal or other "filler" enters, is liable to a severe penalty if he sells the product under the sacred name of "pure" sausage. The Ontario needs a law of the kind—the sooner the better. —Mr. Wm. Healey, of town, has been the caretaker chosen by the government to take charge of the post office, beginning January 1st, 1909. Mr. Healey is a town citizen, who appears in the position at the sickness of the present caretaker, Mr. Walker, who had been in charge since the leaving of Mr. Wm. Galbraith. Mr. Healey's appointment will no doubt be a popular one, as he is well known as a faithful and conscientious citizen.
