TOWN TOPICS - The Winter Fair is a winner. - Bert Naylor, Barber, four chairs, no waiting; east of Simpson house, opposite Benson house. Shoe shine in connection. Most up-to-date. - Ops Council met lately to receive the treasurer's financial statement and transact business remaining to be dealt with before the close of the year. - The Board of Governors of the Ross Memorial Hospital acknowledge with thanks a contribution of $5.00 from the Presbyterian church, Fenelon Falls. - It will pay any ambitious young person to read, on page 7, the new advertisement of the old established Commercial School, located in the city of Peterboro. The winter term opens Jan. 4th.—w4. - The Cambridge-st. Methodist church held a very successful bazaar Thursday under the direction of the ladies of the congregation. Tea was served and a generally pleasing time was spent. The event was a complete success and over $50.00 realized from the affair. - A number of the members of the local lodge of the Independent Order of Oddfellows drove out Friday to visit the Fenelon Falls lodge, where they assisted with the work and spent a generally enjoyable evening. They report the roads as being in splendid shape, and also the Fenelon Falls lodge as prospering and progressing. - While working in the Gull River Lumber Co.'s camp, north of here, Mr. William Harrison, of Anson township, cut his foot badly, severing one completely. He was hastened to Minden, and in the absence of the doctor, Mrs. Boice, the doctor's sister, dressed the wound and carefully replaced the severed toe. The patient is progressing as favorably as can be expected.—Minden Echo. - The Victoria Poultry and Pet Stock Association held an informal meeting Thursday to consider certain matters in regard to the arrangements for the big winter poultry show here on Jan. 26th, 27th and 28th. Reduced rates on all railways will be in force for the event, and Lindsay's poultry show promises to be bigger and better than ever this year, which is certainly saying a great deal for this county event. - Peterboro Examiner: Once again Mr. Dan Whetung has been the first to drive a team of horses across Chemong Lake. This morning the lake had a substantial coating of ice and no danger was possible. Mr. Whetung crossed early this morning and succeeded, of course, in getting to Peterboro with considerable less labor than is generally expended. The thermometer out at Chemong Reserve
