RETIRING WILLIAM'S EXCITABILITY IS BEING MITIGATED.

London, Dec. 13.—There has been a good deal of talk in diplomatic and the best informed political circles about the peculiar disappearance of Emperor William.

His effacement from world politics is unprecedented since his accession, and it is being openly asserted that he is "undergoing a course of sedative treatment to mitigate his excitability."

FENELON FALLS L.O.L.

The annual election of officers of L.O.L. No. 996, was held at the regular meeting of that lodge, held on Tuesday evening of last week, and resulted as follows: W.M., Bro. F. J. Aldous; D.M., Bro. Wm. Cassidy; Chap., Bro. Thos. Johnston; Rec.-Sec., Bro. Hugh Strong; Fin.-Sec., Bro. S. Corbett (re-elected); Treas., Bro. R. M. Mason (re-elected); D. of C., Bro. T. Austin (re-elected); Lecturer, Bro. L. Deyman; Sr. Com., Bro. Jno. Hughes; Jr. Coms., Bros. R. Dundas, A. Dundas, Wm. Golden, jr. and Chas Metcalfe.

FENELON FALLS MAN GOES TO TORONTO BUSINESS COLLEGE.

Mr. George E. Wiggins, who has withdrawn from the local lumber firm of Moore, Connell & Wiggins, of which he was a member, left on Thursday morning for Toronto. During the two years for which he has been a resident of the Falls, Mr. Wiggins has made many very warm friends, all of whom will sincerely regret his removal from town. He has accepted a position on the staff of one of Toronto's leading business colleges.—Gazette.

MR. A. D. MALLON WANTS TO KNOW.

(To the Editor of The Free Press.) Dear Sir,—I would like to know what next the Grits will take away from me.

First they took away the mail carrying without any fault on my part. Then some of them got up a subscription to get a fellow to sue me for slander, but they failed.

Then they tried to stop me selling tea, because I was not a natural born citizen or because I wasn't of age or something like that.

Lately they've taken the position of deputy-returning officer away from me. Whenever I see Grits coming these cold days I hang on tight to the clothes I'm wearing.—Yours truly, A. D. MALLON.

KEEP YOUR PLUCK.

When you acknowledge you're down and out, you're licked. But so long as you swear that you won't give in— That you'll hang-on and bang-on until you win, No matter how hard you were cuffed and kicked, No matter how sadly your faith was tricked— If you just remember what brought you low And keep away from the undertow It's only a matter of holding tight Before you're back in the big world fight!

But the man who pines and the man who whines, Who skulks away from the skirmish lines, Who hasn't the grit to swing and hit, And slug his way, never counts a bit. He isn't worth bothering over a minute— He's out of the game and never was in it. A man who is really a man keeps his pluck, So long as he keeps a good chest full of pluck. —Chicago Tribune.

Foot and Mouth Disease Caused by Immigrants

U. S. SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE SAYS IT WAS NOT INTRODUCED BY LIVE ANIMALS. Washington, Dec. 11.—That the outbreak of the foot and mouth disease now prevalent in several states was due to the importation into the United States of such material as straw, CHICKEN COOPS DESPOILED.

Mr. Robt. Conley, whose farm lies west of Mr. Robt. Arksey's, on the Oakwood road, is mourning the loss of a number of choice fowls one night last week. Every bird in one chicken coop was purloined, and from the direction traced in the snow by a strange rick he feels that he is not astray in blaming Lindsay thieves.
