SHEPHERD OF PEOPLE
 (Kingston Whig)
 The Archbishop of Montreal cannot be regarded as a religious zealot. He acts like a great leader, and does not hesitate to set his ban upon amusements which are not elevating in their character. Besides, he is not careful to note what others say or do. He studies each public issue as it arises.
 When the city was affected by the temperance movement—and it was stimulated by an all too evident abuse of the license system—he did not hesitate to inveigh against it. When some of the theatres were inclined to give plays in which the morals of the people were not sufficiently studied, he pronounced his disapproval. Now he has forbidden the picture plays which have the rail on popular regard.
 The amusement managers have undertaken to defy him. It is with much respect for him to do so, but the minister hardly has an hour to the week to study the world. He favors a ministerial "insurrection" for the good of the profession.

not, can give no weight to his evidence. The apostolic condemnation of perjured persons in the same list as the most abandoned and wicked sinners has no effect upon him."
TALKS "INSURRECTION"
 Rev. Geo. E. Reed, President of Pickens College, things most young ministers are educated into mental lethargy. Their training is too much devoted to books and too little to men. They talk about having studied this and that and taken post-graduate courses in sociology, and what not. All this is nonsense. What they should know is how to reach men and how to know them. Men, and not books, should be known, for it is to reach men that the gospel is preached. He thinks they also attempt to be a book agent, many collector, church paper agent, head church bazaars and teas, due out, and, in fact, do almost everything but what he should be expected to do so much that he should not let the minister hardly has an hour to the week to study the world. He favors a ministerial "insurrection" for the good of the profession.

WEDDING BELLS

Farnfield—Honeybourne.
 The marriage was solemnized on Dec. 24th, in Toronto, of Miss Florence Honeybourne, formerly of this town, to Mr. Chas. Farnfield, of Allandale, by the Rev. Beverley Smith, of St. John's church, Toronto. The bride looked pretty in her travelling suit of brown broadcloth, with hat to match.
 Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Farnfield have the best wishes of a circle of friends. The young couple will take up their residence in Allandale in the spring.

Rogers—Wells.
 Port Hope Guide; On Christmas Day a quiet wedding took place in St. John's church, when the pastor, Rev. E. Daniel, united in marriage Miss Edith R. Wells, of Port Hope, and Mr. Fred Rogers, of Lindsay. The bride was Miss Grace Rogers, and the groomsmen Mr. Walter Rogers. After partaking of lunch at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Wells, Durham-st., the happy couple left on the 4.30 train for Lindsay, and Belleville they will take up their residence in Port Hope for a time.

Sluggert—Geach.
 A pretty, but quiet wedding, was solemnized on New Year's day at four o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Geach, of the Y. M. C. A., when their eldest daughter, Sena, was united in holy wedlock to Mr. Geo. A. Sluggert, of town. The Rev. H. L. Phelps officiated. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. (Rev.) Phelps, the bride entered the drawing room, which was tastefully decorated, and was given away by her father.
 After the ceremony, the guests repaired to the dining room and partook of a light repast. The happy couple left on the eight o'clock train for points east. Many costly and useful presents were received.

McElroy—Schwardfager.
 A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Schwardfager, 44 Elgin-st., on New Year's day, by Rev. J. Wallace, when their eldest daughter, Bertha, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Samuel McElroy, of Rainy River.

Hogg—Haygarth.
 A very quiet but impressive wedding took place in College-st. Methodist church, Toronto, on New Year's day at 3 p.m. The contracting parties were Mr. James Hillyard Hogg and Miss Vivian Gertrude Haygarth, both of Toronto.

Kennedy—Gillon.
 A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Gillon, Ops, on New Year's day, when their only daughter, Cora Maud, was united in marriage to David Kennedy.

Amputated His Own Finger.
 Evening Post of Jan. 4th
 Mr. Pat Leddy, who works for Mr. John Coughlin, a farmer near town in Ops, met with a rather unfortunate accident yesterday. He was cutting a stake for some purpose, and the instrument he was using slipped and cut the first finger from his left hand. He was driven to town to have the hand dressed.

If Christ Were Here.
 (Woodstock Sentinel-Review).
 Would you find Jesus Christ at the ring, where crowds assemble to see two men hammer each other till the blood flows? Would you find Jesus Christ editing a paper that would give a full account of such a performance? Would Christ attend the card table, the whist tournament? Would he attend the opening ball at the Armories? These and many other questions were asked by a local minister in the course of a sermon on Sunday on "The Devil of Sport". They suggest other questions. Would Christ be found editing a modern church paper? Would he attend a modern prayer-meeting? What would be his attitude towards modern church institutions and modern systems of government? Towards the Lord's Day Alliance? Would he lead a modern army to battle? Would he lose a modern patriot? Would he favor Japanese exclusion? Would he be a modern politician? And so on.

Thompson—Copeland.
 A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Copeland, "Fairview Farm," Mariposa, on New Year's day, when their second daughter, Esther Jane, was united in marriage to Mr. Bertram Thompson, of Valcutt. Miss Edith Dundas, of Lindsay, played Mendelssohn's Wedding March, as the bride, who was given away by her father, entered the parlor at 2.30 o'clock, looking charming in a navy blue suit with white silk waist trimmed with chiffon and ribbon. She carried a bouquet of primroses and ferns, and wore the usual conventional veil caught up with smiles and carinations.

 The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Alice, who wore a grey suit with cream silk waist over pale blue, trimmed with white ribbon and carried a bouquet of pink roses and ferns, while Mr. Harry Thompson, brother of the groom, acted as best man and little Miss Sadie, sister of the bride, looked charming in a cream dress, acting as flower girl. Master Fred Stroud acted as page, carrying the ring in a basket of flowers.
 After the ceremony, performed by the Rev. Mr. T. Brown, of Oakwood, the party proceeded to the dining room, where they sat down to a sumptuous repast.
 The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and to the bridesmaid a manicure set, and a ring to the flower girl.
 The couple left on the six train for Toronto and points west. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson bore testimony of their good will, love and esteem, by the many handsome gifts and good wishes. About sixty guests were present, some from Peterboro, Lindsay, Linden Valley and Little Britain. After January 17, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will reside at Washburn's Island. Many happy days.

Constipation

Baked sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others course all-wheat bread will have the same effect. Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man. If physicians can find Sature's way to health. And Sature's strikingly true with regard to Constipation. The bark of a certain tree in California—Cascara Sagrada—offers a most excellent alternative. But, combined with Egyptian Senega, Sature's Elix. Bark, Solid Extract of Prunes, etc., the same Cascara bark is given its greatest remedial power to correct constipation. A testimonial from Dr. Sature's Laboratories, from this important, reliable, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Salivary Complication, etc., is indeed prompt and satisfactory.

SENTENCE SERMONS.

A high ideal is a help to high life. The ideal the bible places before us is the perfection of the character of Christ.

Men of the noblest dispositions think themselves happiest when others share their happiness with them.—Taylor.

I have often had occasion to observe that a warm blundering man does more for the world than a frigid wise man.—Richard Cecil.

Many, indeed, think of being happy with God in Heaven; but the being happy with God on earth never enters their thoughts.—John Wesley.

Everything hard or painful in a christian's life is another opportunity for him to gain a new victory and become a little more of a man.

The simplest road to knowledge is always the surest.

Being, knowing, doing — are the three fundamentals of success.

It isn't hard to find trouble if a fellow goes on a hunt for it.

If your circumstances don't fit you, you fit the circumstances.

The measure of your capacity is the measure of your responsibility.

This old world is sad enough without having to hear the story of your woes.

If no heavy rain clouds ever drifted across your sky and shut out the sun for awhile, some day you will long for the splash of the rain in factos.

PREVALENCE OF PERJURY.

In an address on the evils of perjury, Bishop Worrell, of Halifax, recently made the following statement:

A right conception of God and His word, and a due reverence for them, would make perjury absolutely unknown. The growth of perjury is a terrible thing, and there can be no doubt that it is growing. The other day Judge Riddell, of Toronto, stated that it was becoming a most serious problem in the conduct of the courts, and I have heard a well-known police magistrate of a large city in Ontario declare that it is impossible to believe people on their oaths. (The statement made by a witness in a recent celebrated election trial that he advised his agents, when sworn, to kiss their thumbs instead of the book, and then they would not be guilty of perjury, shows the utterly unworthy idea such a man has of Him who reads the heart of the man, and judges not by the outside of the platform as to the cleanliness of it.)

"The wholesome dread which the story of Ananias and Sapphira once exerted seems to have lost little power to-day—especially in a liquor trial or a contested election. Affidavits are taken and oaths administered often in such an irreverent manner that the solemnity which is attached to them is lacking, and the awfulness of invoking the name of God in attestation of man's word is but little realized. There should either be special officers for the administration of oaths, or the fact that is now so often stated should be done away with. To swear a man upon a bible of which he has never read a word, of which he has heard but little, and in which he does not believe, or thinks he does

SLEEP BROKEN BY ITCHING ECZEMA

Skin of Whole Body Covered for a Year—Awful Itching Kept Sufferer Awake Half the Night—Tried All Kinds of Remedies but They Had No Effect.

CUTICURA REMEDIES A PERFECT SUCCESS

"I wish to let you know that I have used one set of Cuticura Remedies—one cake of Cuticura Soap, one box of Cuticura, but two vials of Cuticura Resolvent Pills—which cost me a dollar and twenty-five cents in all. For a year I have had what they call eczema. I had an itching all over my body, and when I would retire for the night it would keep me awake half the night, and the more I would scratch, the more it would itch. I tried all kinds of remedies, but could get no relief. A friend of mine told me to try the Cuticura Remedies which I did, and am very glad I tried them, for I was completely cured. If any of my friends should be troubled with the same disease, I will cheerfully recommend the Cuticura Remedies, and if I know any one who wants to know how I cured myself, I shall be glad to tell them. Walter W. Paglusch, 207 N. Robey St., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 8 and 16, 1906."

CUTICURA

The Great Skin Cure and Purest and Sweetest of Emollients.

Cuticura Ointment is, beyond question, the most successful curative for torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, yet compounded, in proof of which a single anointing with Cuticura Ointment, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed in the severer cases by a dose of Cuticura Resolvent (Laxative or Pills), is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning, and scaly humors, eczemas, rashes, and irritations, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure when most, if not all, other remedies and even physicians fail.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor of Infants, Children, and Adults, consisting of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, in vials of sixty) to Purify the Blood. Sold throughout the world. "Just Broke & Chem. Co., Sole Props., Boston, Mass.
