The volume of trade of the United States for the year now closing shows a shrinkage of $450,000,000 as compared with last year. This tends to show how little sense is displayed by the Conservative critics who blame the Liberal government for the decline in the country's revenue which has made it necessary to curtail expenditure.

LONDON TIMES APOLOGIZES.

It was part of the late campaign to make an attack upon the Commissioners who have in charge the building of the National Transcontinental Railway. The Conservatives had a plot which would have been sprung at the last moment, but unfortunately for them it was discovered by their opponents, and nothing was done.

About this time a certain correspendent of the London Times, who had been sent out here to give his views of the country, fell into the hands of members of the Tory party with the result that he was inspired to write articles reflecting seriously upon the honesty of the members of the F. Peel Transcontinental Commission. The H. Wallace advise many persons I examine not to charge was brazenly made that an J. W. Anderson wear them. HE GOT THE HOOK.

I sit me down in sad dejection Brooding o'er my rank rejection, For my hopes had soared so high That to fall so hard I sigh-I got the hook.

In my mind I'd made such plans As should please the wildest fans, I vowed to grind each man his axe And wipe away most every tax-I got the hook.

What boots it that I tried And twisted every way and lied * To get support and win election-I only won a rude rejection-I got the hook.

Henceforth I'll pin my faith to none With public matters I have done, Seven hundred votes to me were pledged Six hundred of 'em went and hedged-I got the hook.

*This, of course, is poetic license; no candidate ever lied.

Interesting Items Touching This Excellent Institution

A large number of men filled the game room on Sunday to hear Mr. Pearson's address.

Mr. Pearson is a rendy and apt speaker. He took his desson from Daniel where Daniel, the young Hebrew of fair complexion, the youngest in attendance on the great king purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself. 1(1
