

...THE BIBLE STUDY CLUB...

The Post has arranged to conduct a branch of the International Newspaper Study Club. The questions will appear in this department every week, and all are invited to write out their answers and send them in to this office.

Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must of course answer the 52 questions to qualify for the prizes. It is however desirable that the questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

This club is for the purpose of promoting in an unfeigned way among the masses, a wider study of the Bible and the biblical truths of Christianity. It is composed of all those who join a local club, and take up this month's course herein outlined, bearing only ordained clergymen. We have the systematic co-operation of the latter, but it is not considered fair to have them compete for the prizes.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.

- 1. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a subscriber to this paper during the continuance of the contest in order to qualify for membership in this Local Club.
2. Each contestant in this Local Club must answer each of the written questions for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing Saturday, Aug. 22, 1908, and the answers must all be in the possession of this paper by August 30, 1909, which allows two weeks' grace after the close of the contest.
3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must exceed 200 words in length, and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answer on letter paper, size about 8 1/2 inches by 14 inches.

4. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of each answer, so it can be identified, giving a number, registered, and then the name cut off so the examiner can know it by the number only.
5. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this the lesson text must be read and especially the verses or verses upon which the question is based.

6. The question from the Local Club must be delivered to this office, and they will be collated at the end of the contest and forwarded to the headquarters of the International Newspaper Bible Study Club for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks, and those won by members of this local club will be given out from this office.

THE PRIZES.

- First series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants.
Second series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants.
Third series—A teacher's Bible, price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants.
Fourth series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50, to each of the next thirty-five contestants.

Fifth series—A developed mind, an expanded imagination, a richer experience and a profounder knowledge of the Bible, and of life, to all who take this course, whether winning a prize or not.

Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner, and for what it is awarded and in like manner each bible and book will be inscribed.

All who can write and have ideas are urged to take up their studies regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational or literary standpoint, but from the point of view of the cogency of their reasoned ideas.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club

"Registered in accordance with the Copyright Act."

JANUARY 10, 1909.

The Descent of the Holy Spirit.—Acts ii: 1-21.

Golden Text.—I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you forever; even the Spirit of the truth.—John xiv: 16-17.

Recall and repeat some of the thoughts developed in last Sunday's lesson.

Verses 1.—What was the day of Pentecost? (See Ex. xxiii: 22; Lev. xxiii: 15; Num. xxviii: 26; Deut. xvi: 10.)

Is a barren or unprofitable meeting possible when Christians meet "with one accord"?

Would the Holy Spirit have come on this occasion if there had been divisions among them?

Can the Holy Spirit come to any church in which there are divisions or in any heart that is not in "accord" or love with everybody?

Verses 2.—Was the sound the Holy Spirit, or was it a great wind, which was one of the attendant circumstances of his coming?

Is there any other scriptural account of God's coming, with any similar outward manifestations? (See I Kings xiv: 11-12)

Verses 3.—These eleven tongues, were clearly no part of the Holy Spirit; do you think it possible that they were made by forked lightning, or some similar phenomena?

What did the sound of the wind and the flashes of fire in the shape of tongues signify?

In these days of millions of good books and papers is the human voice still the most potent means of testifying for Jesus?

Was it the Holy Spirit or the tongues that "sat upon each of them"?

Verses 4.—What is your conception of the meaning of the statement that "they were all filled with the Holy Spirit," and how many spoke with tongues?

Granted that it is the privilege duty of all men to be filled with the Holy Spirit; does the same hold good with the gift of tongues, and similar spiritual phenomena? (See I Cor. xii: 8-10; xiv: 4, 5, 13, 14.)

Verses 5.—Are there still devout men in every nation under heaven, even where the historic Christ has never been heard of?

Verses 6-12—Do devout men filled with God still make a stir in every community?

What do Christians most need today in order to amaze and convert the world?

All must admit that an educated ministry is desirable, but which will make the most converts, a man with fair intelligence and a common school education, filled with the Holy Spirit or an university graduate lacking such experience?

Verses 13.—What resemblance is there between a man filled with the Holy Spirit and one under the influence of strong drink?

Verses 14-21—What is the prophesy by the Prophet Joel here quoted from? (See Joel ii: 28-29)

Should the emphasis for Christian service be put upon the natural or the supernatural equipment?

Is the Holy Spirit meant for every body, even the man on the street, and now may he be received? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Lesson for Sunday, Jan. 17th, 1909.—The beginning of the Christian Church. Acts ii: 22-47.

ROSE BROUGHT BACK.

Toronto Jail-Breaker Says He Expects a Life Sentence.

Toronto, Jan. 5.—Alexander Rose is once more in Toronto Jail. He arrived in the city last night, having been brought from Huntington, W. Va., where he was serving a term of twenty-seven days for carrying a dirk knife.

He says that the lock in the jail corridor which was the first step in the escape, which was left by a previous prisoner. He says that he, with Jones, who is now in Newcastle, Pa., having been arrested in Williamson, W. Va., and Clarke struck for Little York on a King street car.

That night they rode blind baggage to Blackwater Junction, and thence on to Peterboro. Then in a like manner they made Montreal on Sunday afternoon. And afterwards proceeded to Boston, having lost Clarke in a chase by the police in Montreal.

A few days later they returned to Montreal, thence to North Bay, where they worked a week and came down to Allandale and Georgetown and across the line to Port Huron, Detroit and Toledo, and on to Columbus, O., Portsmouth, and Huntington.

After Rose's arrest, Jones, who, with Rose, had committed a number of burglaries at Huntington, went on to Williamson, where he was employed as a waiter in a Y.M.C.A. until arrested and brought to Huntington, just as Rose was being taken away.

While in jail at Huntington, Rose made an attempt to escape, and had got through one door when discovered. Rose says that he expects a life sentence.

New Strength For Weak Girls

Can be Had Through the Rich, Red Blood Made by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

There comes a time in the life of almost every girl when sickness attacks her. The strain upon the blood supply is too great and there comes headaches and backaches, loss of appetite, attacks of dizziness and heart palpitation, and a general tendency to a decline. The only thing that can promptly and speedily cure these troubles is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This is the only medicine that actually makes new, rich, red blood, and a plentiful supply of rich blood is the one thing needed to maintain the health of growing girls and women of mature years. The truth of this statement is proved in the case of Miss Ester E. Sprague, Truemanville, N. S., who says: "At the age of sixteen years I left my country home to attend high school. The close confinement and long hours of study nearly broke me down. My blood supply seemed to be deficient and I grew pale and emaciated. I was dizzy nearly all the time, and ripples broke out on my face. I was altogether in a miserable condition and it seemed impossible for me to continue my studies unless I found a speedy cure. I tried several tonics prescribed by the doctor, but they proved useless. My mother urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I finally consented to do so. I had hardly finished the second box before a change for the better took place, and the use of a few boxes more fully restored my health, and I have since been well and strong. I feel that I cannot say too much in favor of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I strongly recommend them to other suffering girls." You can get these pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brookville, Ont.

Where Cranberries Grow

Unless you live in the quiet corner of Massachusetts called Cape Cod, or in certain sections of Southern New Jersey, or near the "waste land" of Wisconsin, an invitation to visit a cranberry bog would mean, likely, that you were to don a queer assortment of old clothes, draw on a pair of rubber boots, and slip away prepared to have a swampy time of it. If so, you would find yourself dressed very inappropriately.

That a cranberry bog is a bog only in flooding season is not the only surprise awaiting the uninitiated who think that the little red or pink and white berries destined for the sauce which crowns the winter feasts are gathered like strawberries or apples, and as quickly packed in barrels or boxes, and shipped to market. There is more to the cranberry business than appears at the bogs, and good-nest knows, enough of interest occurs there. Cape Cod berries are prime. Wisconsin berries are few, and not superior, but Jersey berries are good and plentiful, and consequently supply sauce for dinners all over the States, as well as gatisfying the table of many a John Bull.

The Kingston Whig celebrated its 75th anniversary on Thursday. David Parsley, car cleaner at London— "Make a good article and tell the people of its goodness and the people will buy it and continue to buy it." The truth of this statement is proved by the success of "Salada" Tea.—106.

An Enjoyable Time on New Year's

A very enjoyable day was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. V. Thurston on New Year's Day, when twenty-five invited guests sat around the table, loaded with fowl and all kinds of dainties. There were friends from England, Bobeaygeon, and surrounding vicinity. The afternoon was spent in music, and congenial conversations. In the evening games were played, and they tripped the light fantastic till it was late in the morning. Needless to say, all went home well satisfied with the day's enjoyment.
