

Peterboro Bonspiel a Great Success

Interesting Narrative of Lindsay's Achievements

(From Thursday's Examiner.)

When play in the big local bonspiel was brought to a close last night only two of the twenty-eight rinks which started on Tuesday afternoon were left in the running for the primary prizes and they were from that headquarters of good curlers, Lindsay. Skip Flavell and Skip Little, of Lindsay, fought their way through the various rounds to face each other in the final this morning. The games yesterday were keenly contested, and that the bonspiel has been one of the most successful ever held here is conceded on all sides.

Considerable progress was made yesterday and last night with the consolation contests, and the probabilities are that the event will be over tonight.

Great interest was taken in the bonspiel yesterday and there were many spectators present throughout the day, while at night several hundred people followed the play.

Peterborough's last chance to figure in the primary finals faded yesterday afternoon, when Skip A. Moore was badly beaten by Skip Dobson, of Beaverton, to the tune of 20-5, while the veteran skip, W. A. Reid, of Bobcaygeon, defeating J. H. Connal, by 14-11. Little of Lindsay proved too good for Skip Toogood of Orillia, defeating the northerner by 14 shots to 8, while at the same time Skip Flavell of Lindsay, was demonstrating the secret of his success at Winnipeg by beating the well known Napanee curler, Skip Ham, by 14-10 in an interesting game.

This left two Lindsay rinks, Beaverton and Bobcaygeon in the semi-finals, and the draw was made as follows for the game last night: Flavell, of Lindsay, vs. Reid, of Bobcaygeon.

Little, of Lindsay, vs. Dobson of Beaverton.

A big crowd of interested spectators was on hand for the semi-finals, and the chief interest settled in the battle between Flavell and Reid, both tankard winners. They had a beautiful game, in which the curling was at times brilliant and always interesting and the good plays of the two rinks were enthusiastically cheered by the big gallery, which followed the progress of the game.

The Bobcaygeon rink played carefully and steadily at the beginning, getting a shot on each of the first two ends. Flavell's men tied the score with a two-end in the third, but the quartette from Little Bob came back with a one and then a two-end and were three to the good at the end of the fifth. Flavell won the sixth with one shot, but Reid's four retaliated by taking one on the seventh, maintaining their lead of three. The complexion of affairs was changed in the ninth, however, when Skip Flavell, by raising a guard with his last stone changed a majority of one for 'Caygeon into three for himself and tied the score.

This was the exciting stage of the game with both sides doing steadily, careful curling. Reid succeeded in scoring a two-end in the ninth, but Flavell repeated the feat in the next and the two were still tied, with four ends to play. Flavell, however, by splendid curling got one in both the eleventh and twelfth and clinched the game with three in the thirteenth. Lindsay were lying three, and although Reid had a chance to draw in, his last stone was heavy and did not change the situation. Reid threw caution to the winds in the last end when needing five to win, he tried to build up a big end. He was lying three when Flavell played his first stone, getting shot with a nice draw. Reid made a pretty attempt with his last stone but only succeeded in taking out one stone, leaving Lindsay one up on the end and six on the game. It was a splendid game and both rinks are to be congratulated. The personnel of the rinks was as follows:

Lindsay vs. Bobcaygeon
F. Williams vs. D. Dickson
W. Williams vs. T. C. Boyd
R. H. Outbert vs. J. T. Robinson
J. D. Flavell vs. W. J. Reid
Lindsay vs. Bobcaygeon
12081030050302 vs. 18
00100102101010 vs. 10

LITTLE BEAT DOBSON

Meanwhile over across the rink Geo. Little of Lindsay was qualifying for the finals by defeating A. Dobson of Beaverton in an interesting game which was however marked by considerable loose play. Big ends being a feature. The Lindsay quartette won by 18 to 10 and were never in serious difficulty. Beaverton, who had played several brilliant games throughout the bonspiel being off color last night. Little started out with one in the first and two in the second and was never colored afterwards. Beaverton won the third by one but dropped the next two by the same margin. and then after winning the sixth with one let Little get away with a three end in the seventh and Lindsay were six to the good. Two in the eighth and one in the ninth improved Beaverton's stock a little, but they were set back in the tenth when Lindsay piled up a five end. Nothing daunted Beaverton came back with a majority of four in the next end, only to lose the twelfth by three. The thirteenth fell to Beaverton by one shot, but Lindsay lay two on the last end, winning out by 18-10. The rinks and score by ends were as follows:

Lindsay vs. Beaverton
W. E. Reesor vs. M. Roach
M. H. Sisson vs. W. Dobson
T. Burke vs. E. Birchard
G. A. Little vs. A. Dobson
Lindsay vs. Beaverton

The rinks were as follows:

—If your stomach, heart, or kidneys are weak, try at least a few doses only of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. In five or ten days only, the result will surprise you. A few cents will cover the cost. And here is why help comes so quickly. Dr. Shoop doesn't drug the stomach, nor stimulate the heart, or kidneys. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to the weak and failing nerves. Each organ has its own controlling nerve. When these nerves fail, the dependent organs must of necessity falter. This plain, yet vital truth, clearly tells why Dr. Shoop's Restorative is so universally successful. Its success is leading druggists everywhere to give it preference. A test will surely tell. FATHER D. O'CONNELL

The death took place at St. Joseph's hospital, Peterboro, at two o'clock this morning, of Rev. Father Daniel O'Connell, one of the oldest clergymen of the Catholic church in the province.

"Father Dan," as he was affectionately known, was parish priest at St. Joseph's church, Douro, when the present diocese of Peterboro, (which was at that time a portion of the archdiocese of Kingston) was formed with the late Bishop Jamot as first bishop. He was afterwards appointed parish priest of St. Martin's church, Ennismore, and after some years retired from active work and took up his residence at St. Joseph's hospital.

Rev. Father O'Connell was a native of Galway, Ireland, and was a clergyman who was beloved by all classes. He was good-natured, broad-minded, and tolerant, a friend of the poor and the little children. He was besides a priest of exceptional ability and was considered one of the finest Latin scholars in the diocese.

His death removes one of a trio of grand old clergymen of the diocese of Peterboro, whose labors on behalf of their people will serve as monuments when they are called by death. The two remaining are Rev. Father Lynch, formerly parish priest at Lindsay, but who is now living retired in Peterboro, and Rev. Father Conway, parish priest of St. Paul's church, Norwood.

Rev. Father O'Connell's death was the result of a severe cold contracted about a month ago. He was about 75 years of age.

Events Were Keenly Contested and Much Interest Aroused

GRAND carnival was held on the Maple Leaf rink at Little Britain on Thursday night. Although the afternoon was very mild, and rain and sleet were falling the ice was in a condition, the weather turning a little colder towards evening.

The crowd was not as large as it would have been had the weather been more favorable. However, by 8 o'clock about two hundred had gathered to skate, spectate, and exhibit their costumes. Oakwood, Manilla, Cresswell, Valentia, Sonya and Lindsay were represented by a goodly number.

At 8.15 the judges, Messrs. James W. Ferguson, David Yerex and Laurie Kennedy called the first item on the program, which was a gent's 1 mile race. There were five entries, but Garfield Heattie and George Heattie of Little Britain, took first prize and second in the usual way. In the boys under sixteen 1/2 mile race there were five entered. Orville Heattie, of Little Britain took first and Herb Perrin, of Oakwood, second.

The keg race was keenly contested by fourteen aspirants, and, as usual, created intense excitement. Fatty Heattie, of Little Britain, got his mud hooks on the last keg.

Next came the comic costume for gents which was very interesting, as there were ten entries. E. Yerex, of Little Britain, took first, representing John Bull.

Then came ladies' comic costume, first being secured by Miss Ida Webster, of Little Britain.

The best dressed gent was taken by Mr. Enos Metherell, Little Britain.

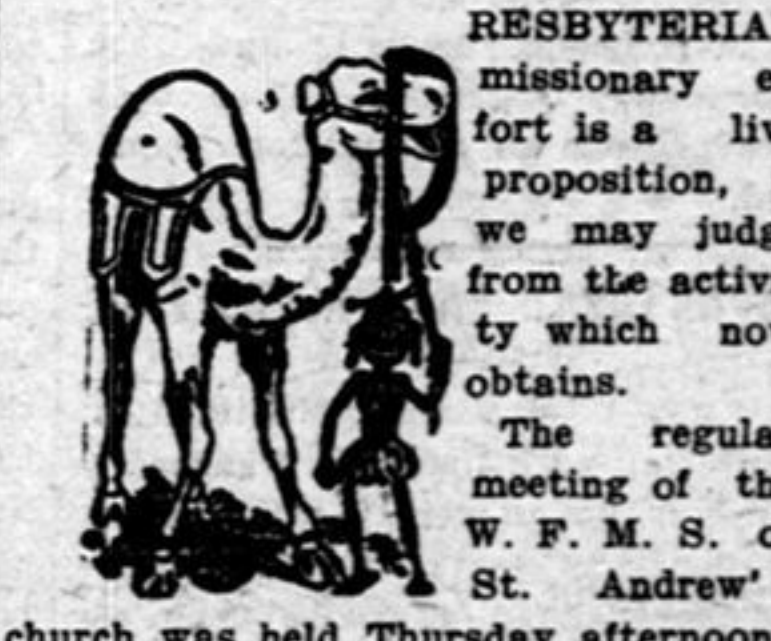

Best dressed lady, Miss Millie Heattie, Little Britain.

Best dressed lady and gent, speed and costume considered Mr. O. Metherell and Miss M. Heattie. Mr. Garfield Heattie and Miss Lila Glass looked like sure winners, but Miss Glass caught her skate in her dress and threw herself. They secured first in Oakwood with ease.

The proceeds amounted to about twenty dollars. Mr. Wilson, the proprietor, is to be looked upon as a first-class rink manager. Another carnival is expected later.

Lindsay Presbytery Raises $2,000

Interesting Meeting of St. Andrew's Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

RESBYTERIAN missionary effort is a live proposition, if we may judge from the activity which now obtains.

The regular meeting of the W. F. M. S. of St. Andrew's church was held Thursday afternoon, in the school room at 3.30 o'clock. The report of the treasurer for last year was very encouraging, over $2000 having been raised for the support of missionaries.

Mrs. Thos. Stewart gave a very interesting account of the semi-annual Presbyterial meeting held in Wick the day before. Amongst other encouraging things she reported that the different auxiliaries in the Presbytery of Lindsay had raised over $2,000 for the support of lady missionaries in heathen lands.

Mesdames McDougall and McIntyre gave very comprehensive addresses on Mahomet and his religion, the subject for study for the month.

After a very interesting programme refreshments were served and a sociable hour was spent.

Sixteen new members were added to the auxiliary.

Charges Were Not Sustained

Twenty-nine witnesses were examined at a session of the county court at Fenelon Falls Friday, when a Kinmonth hotelkeeper was charged with selling liquor on Dec. 25th and 26th, three charges in all. Two of these were dismissed and the third with draws. The case was brought up by License Inspector Lithgow. The cost amounted to $22.40, and will be paid by the government.

—On account of the hockey match on Thursday night the Century Club will hold their weekly skate on Friday night.

I know now that there is nothing on this earth like it! It cured me of piles, and once cured, I have had no return of the evil. I would like all women who suffer as I did to know that Zam-Buk will cure them!"
