A Positive Guarantee

There will be a demand for years come for the beautiful picture, "The Soul's Awakening," issued by the Family Heeald and Weekly Star of Montreal. There will also be many sorely disappointed when very soon they are told that not another copy can be had, It is a wonderfully charming picture. It touches the heart of mankind. If placed in a show window almost every passer-by will stop at first sight of it, study it and go away feeling better for having seen it. But there is no reason for being without a copy in your own home. The publishers positively guarantee that for some weeks yet they will mail a copy to every person who remits a dollar for a year's subscription to The Family Herlad and Weekly Star. What She Wanted "Have you any whiskers?" asked a young lady customer absent-mindedly. The assistant felt cold water running down his back. "I beg your pardon," he stammered, "I asked you if you had any whiskers," the sweet young thing repeated. The assistant was just wondering whether it was another sad case of beauty and brains having parted company when a chuckle from the shop boy caught the young lady's ears. "Of course," she said, with embarrassment. "I mean egg whiskers. I want one about 15 cents."

There was an institution on the hill, Mr. Beal said, that would cost the town considerable money this year, and yet not more than three per cent. of the inhabitants will use it. Any body of our citizens wanting to use our public buildings should be given the privilege without charge.
