News Letter From Janetville

(Special to The Post.)

Janetville L.O.L. No 64 had a very successful oyster supper and entertainment in the C.O.F hall here on the evening of Friday, Jan. 21st. The day had been stormy, but the evening turned out fine and quite a number came to enjoy the good things our boys put up. Had the day been fine an overflowing house would have been the result. As it was about 300 sat down to the tables and did ample justice to the oysters and other good things. The supper was good with plenty of everything that was wholesome, and men have said it was the best they ever sat down to. After the dinner man was satisfied for all a programme was commenced but it was rather late, as supper lasted until almost 9 o'clock. Thos. W. Self, county secretary, of Toronto, gave a very interesting lecture on life in Ireland, in 1688-1690. It was illustrated by limelight views which were very good. Owing to the lateness, Mr. Self had to omit part of his lecture. Next on programme was Mrs. Jno. R. Bradburn who gave a very suitable recitation in her usual good manner entitled "the orange and the green" Mr. Gilbert Gomm Presbyterian minister of Pontypool, and also a brother Orngeman gave a splendid address on "Why I am an Orangeman." He gave very good common sense reasons telling why he was not afraid or ashamed to own the open bible and its teachings, also the religious liberty of the association. His address was interesting to all, being interwoven with spicy parts to keep the younger ones in good spirits. Next on the programme was a dialogue, "the Nigger and the Dutchman," given by Lloyd Johnston, who acted well the part of the Dutchman. Herb Johnston who acted well the part of the nigger and Bernie Sheekleton who acted the boss. It was humorous and gave variety to the evening. Rev. Mr. Snowden then gave a short address, after which more pictures were shown by Bro. Self W. M. Jas. McGill occupied the chair. The evening's entertainment came to an end about 12 o'clock, everyone enjoying themselves. The proceeds were $71.30.

Owing to the bad and wet weather last week our rink was not in shape for skating and the horkey team did not get much practice. As a result, also, Bethany hockey team did not get over to play on Friday afternoon, but we expect them some fine day soon.

Mr. Thos. Wauchope tried to play a little game of hockey one day last week and was struck by a stick over the right eye, making a nasty cut. It was necessary to have the doctor dress the wound and put in a few stitches. It is improving nicely now, and will soon be the same as ever.

Sunday's storm made church services rather small. Only seven heard Mr. Gomm at the Presbyterian church while only five were present at Methodist class meeting.

Saturday's severe storm made the roads impassible, so that Rev Mr. Snowden did not go out to his other appointments. On Sunday night he had a fair congregation, to whom he preached a very good sermon from the text: "Blessed are the pure in heart."

Next Sunday church services will be abandoned here on account of quarterly meeting and love feast service at Bethel appointment of Janetville circuit. All other morning services are withdrawn.

What might have been a very serious accident and which was rather a miracle occurred last Thursday. Mr. Jas. Fanning, sr., was walking along the railroad north of here and fell, hurting his chest and face. Mr. Fanning who is quite old, tried in vain to get up, but could not. He heard the train whistling and lay down and rolled himself off just in time to clear himself of a terrible death of being run over by the train. The train hands notified the men at the station. He was taken home and medical aid summoned. Last report says he is improving, and doing as well as can be expected.
