C.T.R. Collision At Campbellford

An accident occurred on the Belleville branch of the G.T.R., on Sunday evening about 7.30 when a double header and caboose pitched into another double header and caboose about four miles west of Campbellford. No person was injured. It appears that three double headers, attached to three cabooses respectively, left Belleville, for this city on Sunday evening. An eccentric strap broke on the first engine of the leading train and a stop was made to make temporary repairs. Unfortunately the accident occurred on a sharp curve, and as the second train was close following it caught up before

A MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING

Hamilton, Jan. 3.—The police are investigating a mysterious shooting case which occurred on Simcoe Street, Saturday night, in which Mrs. John Lampman, whose husband is serving time at London, was shot above the heart. The doctors fear serious results from the operation that will be necessary to extricate the bullet. The occupants of the house where the shooting took place say she was fooling with an old revolver. The wounded woman has refused to discuss the affair with the police.

FEARED TO GO DRY

Welland, Jan. 3.—The fact that there was a majority of fifteen against the Local Option by-law seems to indicate that Wellanders are afraid that the growth of the town would be retarded if it were to go dry. The steel plant and Supreme Heating Works had threatened to close if the measure carried.

DIED

BOWES.—At Oakwood, on Wednesday January 4th, 1911, Christina Frances, beloved wife of Mr. Jos. Bowes aged 63 years, 1 month and 17 days. The funeral service will be held at the house at 1.30 p.m. Friday, 6th inst., and interment in the East Oakwood cemetery.

Jottings From Lively Janetville

(Special to the Post.) We notice in our midst, Nellis Arthur, a former Janetville boy, who is now doing for himself in the great west, but is now home visiting. He arrived home Thursday and was accompanied by his auntie and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miss Helen Paul. Nell thinks there is no place like the west and intends to return in the spring. Miss Vera Sproule, of Lindsay, spent Sunday the guest of Miss Mossey Hutcheon. Mr. and Mrs. E. McGill, of Ottawa are the guests of friends in this burg. Miss Grace Hobbs and Mr. Herbert Hobbs, of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Haskill, of Oshawa visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas Hobbs, over the holiday. Mr. James Nasmyth, contractor on the new railroad near Orillia, visited at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. C. Armstrong over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McGill, and twins, of Lindsay spent the holiday visiting friends here. Mr. C. Argue, another of Janetville's old boys arrived in our burg but not alone this time, as he was accompanied by his wife. We understand Christy thinks that there is no place like the west. We as Janetville friends join in wishing them a long and pleasant journey through life. Miss Mahala McGill, of Peterboro Normal School, is visiting under the parental roof. Miss Olive Paul, of Toronto, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Paul. Moss Eva Baxter, of the Eaton staff, is home for the holidays.

Golden Wedding at Janetville

Fifty years of married happiness was celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. E. Thornton, of Janetville Monday, when a large number of guests, relatives and friends gathered at their home to commemorate the rare occurrence. About forty guests sat down to dinner, after which Rev. Mr. Snowdon made a very suitable address. This was followed by a recitation by Mrs. Snowdon, entitled, "Seventeen and Seventy" Musical selections were also contributed by Mrs. F. Sandy, Mrs. Snowdon and Mrs. Morgan. After this Mr. Thornton was presented by the children with a beautiful Morris chair, and Mrs. Thornton with a large Morris rocker. The presentations were accompanied by an address read by Miss Euphemia Fair, of Peterboro, their granddaughter. The ringbearer was Master H. Thornton, their grandson. Many beautiful gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Thornton, and the enjoyable occasion will be one that will long be remembered by those present.

"WET" FORCES CELEBRATE

St. Catharines, Jan. 3.—With the band playing victorious music the wet forces celebrated the defeat of Local Option in Thorold last night. The vote 293 to 241 shows that practically every voter in the town cast his or her ballot.

HYMENEAL

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Donald Spence Glenarm on Dec. 28, 1910, when her daughter, May, was united in marriage to John E. Kidd, of Wyoming, Ont. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Whattam, of Woodville in the presence of the immediate friends. After partaking of the bountiful things provided, a toast was given to the bride, and the groom very able responded. (The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents. The happy couple amid showers of rice and confetti left on the evening train for their home in Wyoming.
