DROPPED DEAD BEFORE PUPILS LEADING DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES

The Toronto Mail has the following reference to the demise of Mr. J. C.

"While conducting the devotional exercises at the Weston High School vesterday morning, Mr. J. C. Harstone, the principal, was seized with heart failure, and died in a few minutes. For the past several days Mr Harstone has suffered from a heavy cold, but no serious results were ever thought of by himself, his family or his friends.

When he was seen to stagger some of the senior pupils and the assistant principal at once went to his assistance and a doctor was summoned, but Mr. Harstone lived only a few "In Weston Mr. Harstone was very highly thought of, and his work was greatly appreciated. Although he had only been principal of the High School there for about a year, he had made hosts of friends. Before going Weston Mr. Harstone was principal of the Lindsay Collegiate Institute and f occupied that position for eighteen years. It was on account of the heavy en't Institute will be held at work there that he was compelled to home of Mrs. Dr. McPhail on Wedrelinguish his position and remove to nesday, Jan. 25th, commencing at 2 Weston. He expressed his regret at Mr. Welch's removal ful minister of the gospel. from Lindsay, but he was pleased that it would afford a larger opportunity to exercise his great abil

A VISITING PASTOR.

The Rev. J. R. Webb was pleased to be present to bear testimony to Mr. Welch's worth as a brother minister, he felt that he could not allow him to leave Lindsay without showing some appreciation of Mr. Welch's friendship. He said in securing such an able earnest man as Mr. Welch, the Baptists had virtually said that they had let loose in the community the very best man they possibly could get to do his best for the community, moral ly, socially and to do anything that would make better citizens. REV. MR. WALLAGE

Rev. Mr. Wallace in a short ad dress, voiced his appreciation of Mr Welch's good work as a pastor, and a citizen while in Lindsay. Their relations had been most cordial in every respect, while he regretted his departure, he believed Mr. Welch would win name for himself while in Aylmer as a preacher, and a citizen that will be felt for the good of the town.

REV. CANON MARSH.

Rev. Canon Marsh said he been at the reception of Mr Welch to Lindsay and it gave him great regret to say good-bye. He however felt that it was for the better as it would open up a wider scope of usefulness, and his earnest work would soon be felt in coMmunity to which he was going.

REV. J. P. WILSON.

The Rev. J. P. Wilson, pastor of the Cambridge.st., Methodist church made a short and happy speech. wishing pastor Welch every success new manager will be brought from To- in his new field of labor, and expressing regret at Mr. Welch's removal from town.
