THOUSAND SCHOOLBOYS FOR MILITARY TRAINING THIS SUMMER

ture strength and efficiency of the Ca- of guests. nadian militia, Col. Hon. Sam Hughplan of training, which has been approved by the government.

The cadets will train during the heliday season at regimental or district headquarters camps, being given a week of instruction under school ed officers or officers now in the ser-

Camps will be organized at central points, such as county towns, the cadets being provided with uniforms, day. ents and complete camp equipment, provision for which will be placed in the estimates. An advisory board of the principal officers in the various cities will supervise the work, and meet at times during the year in Ottawa. Each school or municipality will be invited to send a local detachment to camp. The first camps will be devoted to instruction in military and physical drill and scouting. These camps will be followed by training in rifle-shooting and in a more practical and thorough organization of the whole militia service, with a view to promoting actual efficiency in the field under conditions of actual service.
