On Wednesday evening the I.O.F. gave a splendid concert in Coronation Hall to their members and friends. The artists were Miss Maud Bigwood, soprano, Miss Lillian Dillon, contralto, and pianist and Mr. Harvey Lloyd comedian. The programme was interesting from start to finish, the address given by Mr. Mitchell, of Toronto, Grand Organizer for the Lodge, being heartily received. Mr. Mitchell is a very convincing speaker and gave his views in a clear, concise manner. Mr. Lloyd, who has appeared before Omemees audiences in former occasions, was as entertaining as usual, his piano duet with Miss Dillon being specially worthy of note. Miss Digwood-s, "My Hero," from "The Chocolate Soldier," received a hearty encore, as indeed did all the various numbers, the soloists graciously responding. Reeve Mulligan made an excellent chairman, being complimented on the same by the Grand Organizer. The public appreciate kindness of the Order in furnishing this free entertainment.

Mrs. Robt. Williamson, (nee Miss McQuade) will receive for the first time since her marriage, on Tuesday, afternoon, Jan. 23rd., from four to six.
Miss Sophy McQuade returned on Monday to Ottawa, after spending the past few months with her mother, Mrs. E. McQuade, Sturgeon Pt.
On Monday evening a very successful tea party was held in connection with the anniversary services at Mt. Pleasant. An excellent tea was served by the ladies of the congregation in the Temperance Hall, from half past five until half past seven after which a concert was given in the Church. A splendid programme by home and Omemees talent was listened to by a large and appreciative audience. Addresses were given by several clergymen, the pastor, Rev. D. H. Currie, officiating in the capacity of Chairman. A number of people from here attended the concert and report a good time.
Mr. Clifford Robinson, of Hastings, was home over the week-end.
The Epworth League of the Methodist Church have secured the Coronation Hall for a grand Irish entertainment to be given on Monday evening March, 18th.

Mr. Morrow, of Glenarm, has moved his family to our village. Mr. Morrow intends building a fine residence in the summer.
Mrs. M. J. Stoddart visited friends at Cannington on Tuesday.

However, we kindly ask our good friend Mr. Bruce to accept our thanks for his fairness during his incumbency as overseer, and in doing this, we will congratulate our neighbor, Mr. James McGirr, for the choice made by Col. Hughes of West Victoria as successor, to Mr. Bruce for the position in question.
I might say that the position was one numbered with other prizes by the present government previous to their election in both N. Simcoe and West Victoria, and each had reason to believe that the same would be theirs, and naturally both counties claimed this gem as there were many aspirants. So when the cry of victory went up, this gem, with others went into the great scales of fairness, awaiting the weights of Toryism, and so it was after all those compliments were exchanged, peace seemed to reign, and each felt that they could trust their captain; but in a way that only the Col. and Mr. Sharpe can explain, the hand of "justice" was brought to bear on this good man, and he was found wanting by the weight of Toryism. So in a most mysterious way—a way that only a trained soldier could explain, these regulars of Simcoe sat in their rooms of comfort toasting their shins, being flattered by their past achievements, and awaiting the return of their captain. When the great voice of militarism sounded its muffled tones — tones that only a regular of experience whose ears had been trained by his Col. sprang forth and claimed the prize and in a storm that history has no record of, came rushing into this humble village. In view of the peculiar circumstances which surround this case, and the fact that all fairness has been shown by the two Sams, we sincerely trust that when the stewardship of our neighbor, Mr. McGirr, may be asked, as it was in this case, that he may be able to make that same honest and conscientious statement that he did his best as far as it lay in his power, regardless of party.
Yours, etc.,
R. H. BISHOP.

OUR LETTER BOX

The Post does not hold itself responsible for opinions of its correspondents

HE WAS FOUND WANTING.

To the Editor:
Sir,—We are sorry to notice that our good friend, Mr. G. F. Bruce of Beaverton, who has acted as overseer for this section of the Trent Valley Canal since the opening of same, and who so ably filled that position of trust, has been removed, and numbered with the transgressors. It is to be hoped that his removal is based on those principles laid down by Hon. R. L. Borden, rather than from any undue haste on the part of Col. Hughes.
I can only say with others along this waterway that his treatment to us has been with all fairness, regardless of party, as far as it lay in his power, and had there been that same fairness shown by the superintendent at Peterboro as was in Mr. Bruce's case our boys would have shared alike in the various positions held by Peterboro men during the working seasons along this

Weeks Doings From Oakwood

(Special to The Post.)
News was received here on Tuesday morning of the death of Mrs Isaac Keeley, of Lindsay, mother of Mrs D W. King, at the advanced age of 87 years.

R. H. BISHOP.

MILLERSMITH

(Special to The Post.)
The recent heavy snowfall has blocked the roads considerably in this community. The north and south roads had to be shovelled out in most cases.
We are sorry to hear that Mr. Richard Padget, on the boundary, is suffering with pneumonia, and we hope to see his speedy recovery.
The Bell Bros. have finished threshing clover for the winter, and they also have done a good season's work in grain, but owing to the hot weather last summer, the grains crops were not nearly so abundant as in previous years.
Mr. J. Ashmore and Mr. O' Zealand and several others spent Saturday evening in Lindsey enjoying the cool air of the skating rink.
Mr. Hugh Elliott, ex-teacher at Millersmith school, has recently accepted a position at Dunsford school. We wish him every success there.

MAKES STOCK THRIFTY

All kinds of stock are apt to be run down about this time of the year, and a little extra attention will yield good results both now and later. Feeding a good stock food for a while will insure better condition for months to come, and in the stock business health means profits.
If you have ever fed your stock Old English Condition Powder it will not be necessary to tell you what its good points are. If you have never given it a trial, now is a good time to do so.
