To-day's Toronto World says: The remains of the late Lorne Meagher, of Forest Hill road, Toronto, nephew of Sir William Mackenzie, were taken to Kirkfield by special train for burial on Saturday. The body was accompanied by a party of intimate friends of the deceased, con sisting of John Meagher, of Quebec, a brother; Charles Merry, of Winnipeg, R. S. Cosset, Harcourt Vernon, George Greene and R. J. Fleming.

Mr. Meagher was taken ill about two months ago while engaged construction work on the C.N.R. at Saskatoon. He was brought to Toronto for treatment, but finally succumbed after a hard fight.

The pall bearers were: Selby set, George Greene, Harcourt non. Messrs. Leith and Goad, of Toronto, and Mr. McEachern, of Kirkfield. Father Sullivan conducted 'he funeral services.

F. PALMER.

Minden Echo: Two weeks ago a Lindsay paper reported that an old gentleman named Palmer, accompan- ing to learn that Mr. William White. ied by his wife, had gone through to Toronto, and that those who saw travel er for Flavelles' Ltd., had pashim at the station believed that the unfortunate man would not survive the trip as he was suffering from dropsy and in a very weak condition. Last week the Haliburton correspondent to the Bobcaygeon Independent reported that Mr. Palmer had died shortly after his arrival at a Toronto hospital. He was one of the first settlers at Eagle Lake in the township of Guilford.
