GILBERT BOGART

Gilbert Bogart, late of Napanee. died Friday, at the home of niece, Mrs. Chard, Melbourne street. Lindsay. He was formerly a resident of Napanee, Ont., retiring several years ago after having spent 42 years of continued service as postmaster at Napanee, his old native town. In politics he was a Conservative, and a member of the Methodist church, and was a son of the late John Bogart, Adolphustown. He leaves one sister, Mrs. Jacob H. Trumpour, of Adolphustown, and several nieces and Funeral at Napanee on

JOHN DEYELL

On Saturday, Jan. 20th, at noon one of the oldest and most respected residents of the community died, in the person of Mr. John Deyell, in his ninety-first year. The late Mr. Deyell was a man posof a great many admirable qualities. In religion he was a consistent member of the Methodist trick, of Victoria, B.C., formerly of Miss Mary Nicholson, was united in church and had a wonderful influence as a man of good morals and straight forwardness in business matters. When he said "yes" or "no he meant what he said, and when he saw his fellowman doing or saying what he considered wrong, he would gently try and point out to him the better way. In this he was generally successful, his sincere and quiet manner or effort being of the convincing kind. Mr. Deyell seemed to be possessed of a very peculiar and praiseworthy quality when he approached where any vile or profane language was being used. It was soon hushed up by the remark. "There comes Mr.

In politics Mr. Deyell was a staunch Conservative, and as a farmer was a great success. He was always a great fancier of first-class stock, and took a great interest in agricultural fairs, and was often called on as a judge. He was a successful exhibitor.

Mr. Deyell was the last survivor of his father's family of five sons and four daughters, and he leaves to mourn his loss his beloved wife, Letitia Deyell (whose maiden name was Letitia Stinson) and four sons, namely, Robert, John and Wesley, of Mount Horeb, and Mr. Isaac Deyell, of Lindsay; also nine grandsons, and six granddaughters. There also predeceased him his sons William, of Verulam, who died 29 years ago, and his daughter, Margaret Jane, who died 25 years ago, and his son, the late Thomas Deyell, who died 21
