(nee Bessie Hardy) who had just returned from their honeymoon. Over sixty guests were present, all young people of the neighborhood, and spent an enjoyable evening in games and music. A special feature of the evening was the presentation of an address and beautiful music cabinet to Mrs. Turner by the members of the "Girls Social Society," of which the bride was a member. Miss Gladys Smith read the following address, and Miss Nettie Nancekivell and Myrtle Brentnell presented the cabinet: To Mrs. Turner,—"We, the members of the Girls' Social Society of Peniel, are gathered in your home tonight to show our respect and also to enjoy a social evening. Our pleasure is greatly increased in that this is not in any sense a farewell, but just a greeting by the way. Again it is an added pleasure to know that although you are changing your residence, you will still be among us, and your connection with our society will not be severed. Not for its special value, but as an evidence of friendship and esteem, we ask you to give this music cabinet a place in your future home. Wishing you and Mr. Turner a happy new year, and a useful and successful married life. Signed by the members of the Girls' Social Society, Nettie Nancekivell, pres.; Gladys Smith, treas.; Myrtle Brentnell, sec.; Francis Nancekivell, Emma Nancekivell, Gertrude Bagshaw, Ethel Nancekivell, Maggie Teel, Mildred Nancekivell, Winifred Hardy. Although taken completely by surprise, Mrs. Turner in a few suitable words expressed her thanks and appreciation of the handsome and useful gift. After singing the new year in, the party dispersed to their homes. Rev. W. R. Archer and family, of Woodville, also Dr. Albert Archer, and family, of Lamonte, Alta., spent Friday the guest of their cousin, Mr. G. W. Hardy.
