

You Get Bilious

Because Your Liver is Lazy

You get a bilious attack when your liver refuses to do its work. The bile does not flow. You become constipated. Food sours instead of digesting. You have that "bitter" taste. The stomach becomes inflamed and inflates. You turn sick, vomit, and violent headache. The best preventative and cure for biliousness is Chamberlain's Tablets. They make the liver do its work—strengthen the digestive organs, and restore to perfect health. 25c. a bottle. All Dealers and Druggists, or by mail.

WEDDING BELLS

RYAN-BRANDON

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brandon, Cannington, on Wednesday, when their youngest daughter, Clara Evelyn, was married to Mr. James S. Ryan, of Sunderland, Rev. W. W. Irwin officiating. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ryan left on the early train for Ottawa, Montreal, and other points.

LOWES-McGILL

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. J. J. McGill, 83 Aylmer street, Peterboro, on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, when his daughter, Miss Mary Anne McGill, was united in marriage to Mr. Wellington Lowes, of Emily Township. The young couple were unattended. A large number of friends from outside points assembled for the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. M. Clarry of St. James' Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Lowes will reside in Bethel, Emily.

BANVERX-BAIRD

An wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Munt, 140 Queen-st., Lindsay, on New Year's afternoon, when Mr. John Williams Banverx was united in marriage to Miss Queenie Ethel Baird. Both are formerly of England.

Rev. Canon Marsh performed the ceremony. The bride who was gown in white silk, was assisted by Mrs. Munt, attired in gray silk. The groomsmen was Mr. Munt. The happy couple will reside in Lindsay.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the baptism took place of Lillian Maud Munt, daughter of Mrs. George Munt, Logie-st.

JOHNSTON-BRADBURN

On New Year's Day, at the home of the bride's parents, Janetville, in the presence of some hundred guests, the marriage of Mr. Clarence G. Johnston, of Weyburn, Sask., to Miss Edna M. Bradburn, was solemnized by Rev. T. Snowdon, assisted by Rev. W. Jones, of Janetville. The bride was assisted by Miss Johnston of Dartmoor, the groom being supported by the brother of the bride, Mr. Orton Bradburn, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Toronto. The bride was gown in white silk, with pearl ornaments.

DOWN-NESBITT

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Thursday afternoon at 3 p. m. by the Rev. Canon Marsh, at the home of Mrs. Robt. Nesbitt, Adelaide-st., north, when her eldest daughter, (Miss Lizzie), was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Wesley Down, of Glenboro, Man. Only the intimate friends of the bride were present. The bride wore a travelling suit of navy blue with hat to match and was unattended.

The happy couple left on the evening train for Toronto, Niagara and other points in Ontario, after which they will go to their western home. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

JACKSON-HENRY

On New Year's day the residence of Mr. C. Jackson, 75 St. Patrick-st., was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Miss Lillian Henry was united in marriage to Mr. Jackson by Rev. Mr. McMullen, pastor of Queen-st. Church.

The bridesmaid was Miss E. Stenton, of Peterboro, and the groomsmen Mr. Victor Henry, of Peterboro. Delightful Dance.

The groom's present to the bride was a mesh purse. The groomsmen was presented with a gold stick pin and the bridesmaid with a ruby and pearl brooch.

The presents were very numerous and costly, attesting to the popularity of bride and groom. They included a well filled purse from the parents of the bride. Some forty-five guests were present, including Mrs. W. J. Allen, of Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. H. Finley, of Peterboro, Mr. and Mrs. T. Lee and daughter.

THORNCROFT-BLYTHE

A quiet and very pretty wedding took place in St. Mary's church, Midland, on Dec. 24th, 1913, at 4.30 p. m., when Gertrude Mabel Thornecroft, of Northamptonshire, Eng., was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Benjamin John Blythe, late of his Majesty's ship "The Dolphin," Portsmouth, Eng. The bride was very becomingly gown in Alice blue silk with shadow tan trimmings and wore bridal roses. Miss Nellie Blythe, the groom's sister, in a handsome costume, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Joseph Kelcher, of Lindsay very ably filled the position of best man, while Mrs. J. Kelcher was Matron of Honor. After the ceremony the bride party entered their home to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. Many guests came to the reception which followed, and Santa Claus made his visit during the evening, bringing many and beautiful gifts to the happy couple. A right royal time was spent by all and the company dispersed after singing "Suld Lang Syne" and God Save the King, wishing the young couple health, wealth and prosperity.

VETERAN ENGINEER'S WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. William Pilling, 462 Bolivar street, Peterboro, celebrated the fortieth anniversary of their wedding on New Year's night. They were married in Port Hope at 7.30 o'clock on Jan. 1st, 1874, and have resided in Peterboro during the past thirty years. Thursday night, with their immediate relatives, they held a quiet celebration in their home. The passing years have touched Mr. and Mrs. Pilling but lightly. They are both enjoying the best of health and they have won many friends in Peterboro among whom they are highly respected.

Mr. Pilling is particularly known to the travelling public and in the G.T.R. circles of Lindsay, Peterboro Port Hope and Belleville. He began duties as a fireman on the old Midland line in the days when the engines consumed wood.

The gauge of the tracks was 5 feet 8 1/2 inches, the standard for Canada at that time. The gauge of the United States was one foot less, and owing to the gradual increase in the handling of cars from United States lines, the Canadian gauge was reduced to 4 feet 8 1/2 inches some time after Mr. Pilling began work.

He was engineer on the Midland line when it was extended first to Beaverton and afterwards to Orillia. Later he was on the Belleville line, and latterly has been engineer on the service from Port Hope to Peterboro and Peterboro to Lakefield. His services have been marked with carefulness and crowned with a splendid reputation among railway men. For some reason or other his work has been free from the excitement of wrecks.

The new cartage schedule was announced to come into effect on January 1.

NEW AUTO NUMBERS HAVE SICKLY COLORS

The automobile markers for 1914 suggest tincture of rhubarb and a disordered liver. The choice of colors will give rise to grave doubts as to the state of digestion of the individual who made the final decision. Black letters on a dull pink may describe in some way the odd tint that has been adopted. What merit the 1913 markers possessed in having black letters on a yellow background has been lost this year. The old markers were discernible for a great distance along a road, but the new combination will dissolve into a flat tone on the speeding car that is anxious to escape detection.

OBITUARY

THOS. LONG.

Port Hope, Dec. 30.—The citizens were shocked this afternoon to learn of the sudden death of Thomas Long, one of Port Hope's prominent and respected citizens. The deceased had been indisposed for some time, but was at his office daily to the date of his death. He returned to his home at noon today, when he was suddenly seized with a weak spell, and passed away in a few minutes.

E. C. EDWARDS.

Word reached Woodville Tuesday of the sudden death in Toronto the previous night of Mr. E. C. Edwards, ("Dutch") formerly of that place. Mr. Edwards was the eldest son of the late Thomas Edwards, of the "Eldon House," Woodville, and for some years carried on business in Woodville as a tailor. Later he moved to Cannington and became interested in the Queen's Hotel. He had been in Toronto some years.

ALFRED ARGUE.

The death occurred Friday morning at his home, 138 Rudridge street, Peterboro, of Alfred Argue, after an illness of several months.

The late Mr. Argue was 39 years of age, and was born in Manvers township. For fourteen years he has been well known in Peterboro as a resident, and has a great many friends, who will be very sorry to learn of his demise. He was a member of Charlotte Street Church.

The deceased gentleman is survived by his wife, and one daughter, Margaret, at home. One sister, Mrs. McGill, of Peterboro, and three brothers, George, Henry and William, of Manvers, also survive him.

THE LATE MRS. GARVEY.

The death occurred at her home in Norwood shortly before 7 o'clock Monday evening, of Mary Fitzpatrick, wife of Mr. Wm. Garvey of that village. The late Mrs. Garvey was born in Norwood, and resided there all her life. She was a sister of the Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, of Ennismore.

The deceased lady was very highly respected in Norwood and throughout her native township. She had a very large number of friends and acquaintances, and everyone who came in touch with her, were impressed with her sincerity of character.

She is survived by her husband, one sister, Sister Stanislaus, and one brother, the Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, of Ennismore.

MRS. W. J. HOOPER.

The residents of Little Britain were shocked today to learn that Mrs. W. J. Hooper, a highly respected resident of that village had passed away suddenly last night at her home.

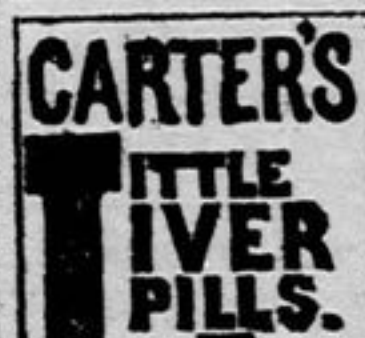

It was only last Friday (Dec. 26th) that her husband succumbed to typhoid fever. She took the dreaded disease a week ago, and although her condition was most favorable, her heart gave out last night and death claimed her.

The late Mrs. Hooper, whose maiden name was Nellie E. Smith, was a native of Michigan and was in her fiftieth year. She is survived by her daughter, Pearl, who will have the sympathy of the entire community.

The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon from the family residence at 2 o'clock. Interment at Christian Cemetery.

MRS. PATRICK McDONALD.

The closing of the old year, Dec. 27, 1913, brought with it the close of a bright, young life when Mrs. Patrick

PAIN NEARLY DROVE HIM MAD

Suffered Horribly Until He Turned To "Fruit-a-lives"

J. A. CORRIVEAU

DRYSDALE, ONT., June 15th, 1913

"I am a general storekeeper at the above address, and on account of the great good I have experienced from using 'Fruit-a-lives', I recommend them strongly to my customers. They were a great boon to me, I can tell you, for about two years ago, I was laid up in bed with vomiting and a terrific pain at the base of my skull. The pain nearly drove me mad. Doctors feared it would turn to inflammation of the brain but I took 'Fruit-a-lives' steadily until I was cured. I have gained fifteen pounds since taking 'Fruit-a-lives' and I verily believe they saved me from a disastrous illness."

J. A. CORRIVEAU.

For Headaches, Neuralgia, Rheumatism and other diseases arising from an impure condition of the blood, "Fruit-a-lives" is invaluable and infallible. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

McDonald, (nee Mary Whalen) was called to her eternal reward.

Her pilgrimage on earth was a short one, but her virtues will keep her long in the memory of her dear ones and those with whom she came in contact.

Pive short months ago, Mary became the happy bride of Patrick McDonald and had resided in Carden.

Her illness was of a few weeks' duration, during which those in attendance did not despair of her recovery. All that loving friends could do for her was of no avail. She knew she must soon leave this earth, and conscious to her last moment, she called each of her dear ones to her bedside and bade them a fond farewell.

Fortified by the rights of Holy Mother Church and surrounded by her dear ones, she quietly passed from this life.

She will be sorely missed at home and among a large circle of friends, with whom she was a special favorite.

The funeral left the residence of her mother and proceeded to St. Mary's Church, Victoria Road, where a solemn Requiem High Mass was chanted by Rev. J. O'Sullivan, thence to the cemetery.

The pallbearers were Mary's six brothers.

Besides a loving husband she leaves to mourn her loss a loving mother, brothers, David, Michael, Nicholas, John, Willie and Frank, and sisters, Margaret, of Seattle, U.S., Mrs. M. Foley, of Hart, Sask., and Evangeline at home.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved husband and family.

CONSTABLE FINDS STOLEN CANOE

Mr. John Lynch, of Hogan's Island, Ops, has, through the good work of High County Constable Thornbury, recovered his canoe which was stolen from the west shore of the Scugog river near Cross Creek last Sunday, Dec. 28. Mr. Lynch accused one or more of the party of Lindsay skaters who were up the river on that day of the offence, and was quite positive that the canoe was taken towards Lindsay, as he traced marks made by the boat from where it was stolen to the Ops swing bridge. At this point the purloiners of the craft must have taken to the roadway as their tracks disappeared and were lost sight of.

Mr. Thornbury traced the canoe to a residence in the south ward, where it had been stored away for the winter. The canoe had been taken by a fourth ward boy and his companions, but the boy's father states that they intended making enquiries for the owner.

James Elliott, the general manager of the Molsons Bank, Montreal, is dead from pneumonia, aged seventy-three.

She—I wonder why they hung that picture?

He—Perhaps they couldn't catch the artist.
