a close game it was. Although the Needler rink is out of the Flavelle competition, they still have a chance in the other two competitions and no doubt their play will win them a high place among the contestants.

SLEEPY TELEGRAM.

The Toronto Telegram's sporting man is responsible for the following:

"A bunch of local rooters, headed by Mose Hunter, the well known organizer of the beef trust, will leave for Lindsay tomorrow night, just to see with their own eyes, that curling can be successfully carried on in a local option town."

"One hundred and four rinks, four hundred and sixteen curlers, cooped up in Lindsay! Only eighty of them can play at once. Now what are the rest going to do? Remember always it's a dry town."

"Which reminds us, however, that today they are probably mixed up with a dry cold they can feel. For you know Lindsay is a "dry" town. And it is probably cold."

"Charlie Snow, of Lakeview meets Mac Rochon, of Winnipeg, in the first round at Lindsay. And if Charlie works things right he ought to win. All he has to do is to get Pat Hayes to talk to Mac while he trims him."

DR. BROWN ON TOP.

Eddie Seagram's quartette suffered another defeat today. In the game for the Gillies Trophy he bit the ice before Dr. Brown's rink. Score 13-10.

A GREAT BONSPIEL.

This is the greatest bonspiel ever held in Canada, said a well known curler this morning. The prizes offered are the best that were ever given at any bonspiel and are valued at $900.

INTO THE EARLY HOURS.

The 9.30 o'clock games last night lasted until three o'clock this morning and were witnessed by a number of spectators to the close.

GREAT IS BRADEN.

This afternoon Skip Braden bumped into Skip Gillies of Brampton, and a battle royal was the result. A big crowd followed the game to the close and Braden won out 17—8.

SEAGRAM DOWN.

The Seagram rink of Waterloo suffered bad usage at the hands of Judge Valin's North Bay quartette who walked away with the score to the tune of 10 to 6 in favor of the New Ontario town. The game proved very interesting and every end was worth watching.

AFTERNOON GAMES.

The afternoon games drew a great many more spectators than those in the morning. As the day wore on the crowd grew. The three o'clock games were the best attended of all and enthusiasm ran high.

There were many ladies present and the club room windows and platforms alongside the ice were crowded with people at the Peel-st Rink. The Lindsay-st rink also had a large number of interested bystanders.

Neither rink however had as many to see the games as if the temperature had been slightly higher. The cold wind prevented many from walking down town to see the games, although inside the rinks it was not unpleasantly cold.

They surged back and forth between ice three, four and five for it seemed that each game the playing was closer and better than on the rest of the rink. A number of well known men playing on these centre ices probably contributed largely to the attraction.

In the afternoon games commencing at 3.30 p. m., one of the famous Rennie rinks skipped by Mr. R. Rennie, of Toronto, occupied No. 4 ice with Crawford's Scarboro rink and the result was a game that was a joy to curlers. Skip Rennie's rink was viced by T. H. Brown, 2nd J. C. Breckenridge agd lead, R. C. Matthews.

The Scarboro rink was D. Crawford, Skip, G. B. Little, vice, J. Weir, second, and A. Petch lead. The game was well played throughout and many well placed shots marked every end.
