FENELON FALLS

(Special to The Post.)
Miss Della Brokenshire, who recently resigned her position in Mr. A. J. Gould's drug store, where she has been employed for several years, was tendered a miscellaneous shower by her many friends on the eve of her departure from Fenelon Falls. A large number of handsome and useful presents in linen, china and silver testified to the popularity of the recipient. Among the many gifts was a purse containing a sum of money, presented by a number of friends and well wishers of the young lady, and accompanied by the following address, which was read by Mr. H. Jordan:
Miss Brokenshire,—We, the undersigned wish you to accept this small token of our respect and kind feeling for your never tiring efforts to serve the customers even under the trying circumstances with which you had so frequently to contend, and our very best wishes accompany this small mark of appreciation.
A pleasant meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Friday afternoon, January 16th at the home of Miss Hand. The President, Mrs. Lamb, occupied the chair after opening exercises, and the visiting committee's report received. The secretary read a communication from Miss Hotson, secretary of the special committee appointed at the recent convention to consider the matter of medical dental inspection in schools. A discussion of the subject followed, and it was decided to leave the matter over till the next meeting. The roll call was followed by the appointment of a committee to arrange for the production of a play under the auspices of the Institute. A piano solo by Miss Tilly Patten was much enjoyed. A paper entitled "Appreciation," by a member of a sister Institute, was read by the secretary, and was highly appreciated. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. Minthorne. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem, refreshments being served afterwards by the hostess.

FRANKLIN

(Special to The Post.)
While some of our local sportsmen go out with rifles and hounds in quest of foxes, they are sometimes less fortunate than was Mr. Edward Freeman who is engaged with A. H. Veals, and near whose barnyard he espied a fox one day last week crossing a nearby field. Fred immediately gave chase with a collie dog, and a shot gun. Sir Reynard made off for a short distance, and then, his curiosity getting the better of him, he started back to take stock of his would be captors, with the result that Mr. Freeman was enabled to get within about 45 yards of him, and taking aim, managed to plant a few No. 2 shot beneath his furry hide, and Reynard's curiosity was satisfied for all time. The pet which was an exceptionally large one, was shipped to one of the firms of Toronto, and a handsome price is expected. Freeman feels quite elated over his capture.
