Broken Rail Causes Bad Accident Near Ottawa.

TWO DEAD, SEVEN INJURED

Heroic Conduct of Engineer Saved Many Lives-Stuck to Brakes and Died at His Post - Heavy Gale Blowing at Time - Fire Broke Out But Was Promptly Extinguished-Crew Worked Well.

Ottawa, Feb. 17.-By an unexplained breaking of an 80-pound rail on the Grand Trunk Railway at 10.15 Saturday night, the regular train, No. 7. from Montreal to Ottawa, was derailed five miles east of the capital. Engineer Alfred Parks of Ottawa East and Fireman Wm. Robertson Martin of 238 Frank street, Ottawa, were killed. They were both scalded

Rural Dean Taylor of Aylmer and Mrs. Taylor were badly shaken up, and are in the hospital. Conductor A. J. Leamy, Ottawa, sustained severe cuts about the head. Baggageman I. C. Moore, Ottawa, had his hands badly cut. Expressman F. M. Griffiths, Ottawa, got his hand lacerated and leg bruised, while J. N. McIntosh, Ottawa, had a leg injured slightly. A. D. McBride was severely shaken

Died at His Post. Engineer Parks stuck to his post heroically, and as the engine shot through the air shut off the steam and put on the brakes, thus saving the twenty-one pasengers most miraculously. Then he left his cab and crawled out fatally injured. He died at the Ottawa hospital at 6 o'clock yesterday morning.

The fireman's body was found lying in the snow with life extinct. He was 24 years of age and married but four months.

The rail which caused the accident is in Superintendent Donaldson's office. The break is a clear one, with no sign of any previous weakness whatever. The edges of the fracture are rounded where the wheels of the engine struck. The forward truck of the last coach, the parlor car, left the rails and made a temporary hospital for the wounded. The engine ad all the other cars were overturned. Fire broke out in the forward cars, but were extinguished with snow, of which a heavy gale was blowing. The crew did admirable work.

The train was running on time and had entered the one and one-half mile straight stretch of track east of the N. Y. & O. diamond. The banks on either side, where the derailment occurred, were level, and the engine and three coaches skidded fifty yards over the snow-covered ground. The tender of the engine jumped first. G. W. Riley of Montreal, an oldtime telegrapher and a passenger on the train, walked back to Carlsbad and telegraphed to Ottawa. A bevy of doctors and wrecking machinery was sent out immediately. The damage to the rolling stock is Foolhardy Sailor Killed.

Victoria, B.C., Feb. 17 .- In a spirit of bravado, a half-intoxicated sailor, at an early hour yesterday morning, undertook to walk the telephone wires between two of the 100 feet posts on Government street. When discovered in midair by the police, who were attracted by the man's singing, an alarm was turned in for the fire department, who spread nets in order to save the man's life should he fall. He however, made the trip all right and had descended to within 25 feet of the pavement, when he missed his footing and fell to the sidewalk, fracturing his skull and dying a few hours later at the hospital.

Cobalt Clerk Suicides. Cobalt, Feb. 17.-Fred Anders, clerk in the Cobalt freight office of the T. & N. O. Railway, shot and killed himself at 12.30 p. m. Saturday. Drygoods Merchants Will Prosecute Respectable Shoplifters. New York, Feb. 17 .- A number of large retail drygoods merchants have banded together to prevent prominent social connections from saving a woman detected in "shoplifting" from public prosecution. "Store detectives generally spot professional shoplifters as soon as they enter the store," said a drygoods man Saturday. "But you can't do anything with a so-called respectable shoplifter unless you catch her with the goods. And then, as is usually the case, she has prominent relatives, or her father and mother are well-known socially, she sends for them, and the case is never heard

A number of large drygoods merchants met the other day and decided to engage Martin W. Littleton to prosecute all cases. All of these men agreed that as soon as a woman was arrested or detected shoplifting they would immediately have the case taken out of their hands, no matter how much they were appealed to by the woman's relatives and friends. trict Attorney Jerome has been spoken to, and has expressed his readiness to do all he can to assist the merchants, it was said.

BOY HAD CLOSE CALL.

Fell Under Train and Eight Cars Passed Over Him.

Stratford, Feb. 17.-To lie beneath the rails near the Grand Trunk station here while eight cars thundered by was the unique experience of Eli Dion, a 14-year-old lad of Penetang, who has recently been released from St. John's Industrial School, Toronto. He had been under a three-year sentence, but was released after having served two years and sent to a farm near Seaforth.

Becoming tired of the dull monotony of rural life he filled his knapsack and decamped via a Grand Trunk freight train. Arriving at Stratford the boy attempted to leave the train while it was moving by the station and in so doing fell underneath the cars. Conductor Hayne, who stood on the platform of the caboose, is authority for the statement that at least eight cars passed over the boy. When the tail end of the freight disappeared from view the precocious Eli slowly rose from his crouching position and with merely a sprained ankle made a hasty retreat. He was captured by the station officials and arraigned in the Police Court on a charge of vagrancy. He was remanded to jail.

GIRL BRUTALLY ASSAULTED.

Four Young Men Arrested at Kingston on a Serious Charge.

Kingston, Feb. 17 .- On Saturday night a girl came to the police station and complained that four young men whose names she gave, assaulted her in or near Soward's coal yard. She alleged that she was seized by the throat and prevented making a noise. The marks on her body are evidence that she had been cruelly treated.

The police then went in pursuit of the accused quartette, arrested them and they are now held in the station pending developments in the Police Court to-day.

Their names are James Brickwood, "Reddy" Devine, Mozier and Crozier. Complaints have been made by girls lately that they have been followed in lonely places by young men and at times accosted by young men and few have been willing for some time to go out on the streets alone.

POWDER IGNITED GAS.

Empty Can Explains Cause of the Disaster at Port Hood.

Port Hood, C.B., Feb. 17.—The verdict of the coroner's jury in the mine explosion of Feb. 7, which caused the death of ten men, was, in effect, that the disaster was caused by the explosion of some explosive mixture. Since the close of the inquest another examination of the mine was made on Saturday, when Manager McLellan discovered an empty powder can completely shattered. Above the spot where the can was found there was a large hole in the roof, and timbers were blown away.

At this point the man who was most disfigured was found, and it is now believed that this discovery explains the cause of the explosion; first, powder, and then a small amount of gas along the level ignited. Stewart, the fire boss has been dismissed, and it is said other heads will drop.

Almost Victims of Coal Gas. Smith's Falls, Feb. 17.-The family of Rev. N. B. Topping of Perth had a very narrow escape from asphyxiation by coal gas a few nights ago. Mrs. Topping and one of her daughters awakened about the same time. Miss Topping could neither move nor speak, and it was with the greatest difficulty Mrs. Topping succeeded in reaching a window. Though in a half-dazed condition she managed to break a pane of glass and the sweep of fresh air partially revived her just as she felt consciousness leaving her. By almost a superhuman effort she aroused some of the other members of the family, and by their united efforts all were taken into the air and their lives were saved. Two of her sons were unconscious for some time, and all were very ill, but are gradually recovering. The dampers of a coal stove had been shut too closely and this accounted for the gas being in the house.

Family Nearly Wiped Out. Hamilton, Feb. 17 .- Another case of asphyxiation that nearly cost the lives of the three young children of S. Schreiber, 15 York street, was discovered yesterday. Early in the morning Mr. Schreiber got up and lighted a gas stove in the room where his three children were sleeping. He then returned to his own room for a Sunday nap. A short time after one of the children tottered into his parent's room complaining that he was very ill. Investigation revealed the fact that the other two children were lying unconscious in their room. An alarm was given, and by the prompt re-sponse of Constable Yanxley and others aid was obtained and the children were all brought around. The stove that caused the trouble did not have any chimney. Hit With Iron Pin. Stratford, Feb. 17 .- A serious accident befell Arthur Jones, day foreman at the G.T.R. roundhouse, Saturday evening. He was superintending a piece of work when a pin which workman was driving flew up and struck him in the face. The pin became dislodged when the helper made an inaccurate drive. Mr. Jones' nose was broken and his face otherwise disfigured by the flying piece of iron.

Stratford School Crisis. Stratford, Feb. 17.-The finance committee of the city council have decided not to issue debentures for the proposed new $60,000 school until the present financial conditions have changed. law be submitted to the people. Street Car Crushed Man's Arm Chatham, Feb. 17.—The left arm of

New York's Deputy Fire Chief Killed While Fighting Flames.

RISKED RESCUERS

Kruger Had Been In Brigade For Thirty-Six Years-Was Leading His Men Through a Dark Cellar-Filled With Smoke and Deadly Gases-Fell Through Trap Door and Was Drowned.

New York, Feb. 5 .- Deputy Chief Charles W. Kruger, known for many years as "The Grand Old Man of the Fire Department," lost his life yesterday while leading his men in a desperate fight against flames in Canal street.

While working his way cautiously through a cellar filled with smoke and gases, Kruger plunged through a trap door into a sub-basement filled with water. He was dead when taken out, but in the few minutes which elapsed between the time the old man fell and his body was drawn out, more than a score of men had risked their own lives in an effort to save that of their leader.

"I knew it would happen this way," said one of Kruger's men when the chief's body was being carried away. "I have been to many fires with him. He was always in the lead. He never said, 'Boys go into that place or this place,' he always led us himself. He said, 'Boys follow me.' And that's just what he said this time when he led us into that basement."

36 Years a Fire-Fighter. Kruger was 57 years old, and had been a member of the department for 36 years. Several years ago Kruger was acting chief of the department for a time while Chief Croker was temporarily under suspension.

The fire started at 217 Canal street and before it had been subdued swept that building from basement to roof, spread to two buildings adjoining. routed the tenants from several surrounding tenement houses and threatened the Church of the Most Precious Blood, in Baxter street.

It was after the flames in the upper part of the building had been brought under control, that Kruger took his men to the basement. A great pile of excelsior in bales was blazing furiously, and attempts to reach it with streams from the street had been unsuccessful. After several attempts to get at the fire from the outside, Kruger asked permission of Chief Croker to take his men through the basement of 215 and cut a hole through the wall to 217 where the fire was burning. Croker consented, and a moment later, with a dozen men behind him, Kruger plunged into the cellar.

The place was filled with smoke, and the deadly fumes of illuminating gas which flowed from broken or melted pipes, but the men pressed cautiously forward in the darkness. Just in the middle of the cellar Kruger stepped on a trap and plunged into six feet of water in the sub-basement.

Then began a desperate fight in the gas-filled cellar to save the chief. He could do little to help himself, and when Battalion Chief Galvin plunged into the dark hole and raised the old man's head above the surface he was unconscious. It required the combined efforts of twenty firemen, weakened as they were by breathing smoke and gas, to draw Galvin, who still clung to Kruger's body, from the

The property loss as a result of the fire is placed at $50,000.

SAYS FARMERS ARE STINGY.

Bishop Du Moulin Denounces Anglicans In Niagara Peninsula. Hamilton, Feb. 18.-With all the vigor of which he is capable and in a sermon that bristled at times with stinging sarcasm, the Lord Bishop of Niagara, Right Rev. J. P. DuMoulin, preaching at St. Thomas' Church Sunday night flayed the wealthy farmers of the Niagara Peninsula for their niggardly contributions to the church. He also took a rap at Hamilton business men, who, he said, when the clergy called, squirmed and showed a desire to get rid of them, promising an answer that never arrived. Many of the clergy, he declared, could not live honestly on the miserable pittance doled out to them. His lordship was preaching in support of the laymen's movement, and he did not mince his words in denouncing the stingy farmers.

After quoting statistics to show how small the contributions were, he said: "That is the record of our returns to Almighty God for His benefits. Although this diocese is rich beyond comparison its returns are the poorest. This has been stated time and again and it makes no impression whatever. It falls on deaf ears. have had pastor after pastor leave the diocese because they could not live an honest life, that is to say, no man with a family that God had blessed him with can live on $60 a year doled out in coppers silver pieces when it pleases the wardens and church officials to dole it out. That is invariably their reply when they came into my office with their resignation. 'I can't live on the stipend doled out to me. "Let me tell you that the wealthy and prosperous farmers of the diocese of Niagara, the southern peninsula particularly, and throughout the prosperous north, think they have discharged every obligation if they give $5 and are surprised if they give $10, that they think they should be translated to a place beyond the angels." His lordship declared that he had not uttered a word that he could not substantiate with plain cold facts.

SLEEP IN TWO SHIFTS.

Father Vaughan Denounces Horrors of London Sweat Shops.

London, Feb. 18 .- Father Bernard Vaughan, a brother of the late Cardinal Vaughan, preaching in the Jesuit Church here, during the course of a powerful plea in behalf of the bill which will come before the House of Commons this week, against "sweat shops," gave a graphic illustration of the manner in which the poor workers in the east end of London are compelled to live.

In a small room, he said, that ought to be occupied by no more than two persons, there were twelve machines working all day and late in the evening. Then the machines were removed and straw mattresses laid on the floor, men being admitted to sleep. At 2.30 in the morning, these men were turned into the streets and the room re-let to another set of sleepers, who were also driven out at 6.30 a.m. on the return of the machine workers.

Edison Saves a Life.

West Orange, N.J., Feb. 18.-J. F. Randolph, treasurer of the Edison Manufacturing Co., of which Thomas A. Edison is president, committed suicide yesterday by shooting. That Mrs. Randolph did not follow her husband to death was due to the prompt and determined action of Mr. Edison. When he reached the house, Mrs. Randolph was hysterical, crying out that she would kill herself. He came upon her as she was about to throw herself from a second storey window, seized her, and, after a hard struggle, succeeded in pulling her back to a place of safety.

Stork on Train.

Brockville, Feb. 18 .- During the recent storm, while a R., W. & O. Railroad train was stalled in the snowdrifts near Richland, the stork made his appearance in a coach, and a bright, healthy baby was born. There was no physician aboard the train, and when a doctor arrived through the storm the lady passengers had taken care of the little one, which was wrapped in a flannel petticoat. Mother and child proceeded north in the storm.

Child's Clothes Afire.

Brockville, Feb. 18 .- Florence Wilder, aged four years, residing on a farm near Pulaski, was fatally burned while left temporarily alone with a younger child. If the blood is impure, if pin. ples, boils, headaches occur, if the stee. ach is weak-first eradicate the polson from the blood.

AN IMITATION OF NATURE'S RETROD of restoring waste of tissue and impores ishment of the blood and nervous force is used when you take an alterative extra of native roots, made without the use of alcohol, like Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This vegetable medicine coaxes the digestive functions and help in the assimilation of food, or rather take from the food just the nutriment the blood requires.

Along with its use one should take exercise in the outdoor air, get all on can of God's sunlight and air; practio a deep breathing exercise every dar This "Medical Discovery" gives no faise stimulation, because it does not contain alcohol or a narcotic. It helps digestion and the assimilation of such elements is the food as are required for the blood Unlike a cod liver oil, against which the already sensitive stomach will declare open rebellion, this tonic has a pacifying action upon the sensitive stomach and gives to the blood the food elements the tissues require. It maintains one's nurtion by enabling him to eat, retain, digest and assimilate nutritious food. It over comes gastric irritability and symptoms of indigestion, and, in this way, fever night-sweats, headaches, etc., are dens away with.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery purifies the blood and entirely eradicates the poisons that breed and feed disease. It thus cures scrofula, eczema, erysipelas. boils, pimples, and other eruptions that mar and scar the skin. Pure blood is essential to good health. The weak, rundebilitated condition which so many le experience is commonly the effect of impure blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery not only cleanses the blood of impurities, but it increases the activity of the blood-making glands, and it enriches the body with an abundant supply of pure, rich blood.

Concerning Golden Seal the highest medical authorities agree with Prof. John M. Scudder who says, *It stimulates the digestive processes. and increases the assimilation of food. By these means the blood is enriched, and this blood feeds the muscular system. I mention the muscular system because I believe it first feels the increased power imparted by the stimulation of increased nutrition. The consequent improvement on the nervous and glandular systems are

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states." Concerning Bloodroot The American Dispensatory says, "Stimulates digestiva organs, increases action of heart and arteries-stimulant and tonic. Very valuable as a cough remedy-acts as a secative-further valuable as an alterative." ## NGTICE TO FARMERS.

We beg to advise our patrons and farmers in g-neral that we are now prepared to give out seed stock and are booking orders for the coming season for the growing of Fancy and other Pess, and would request those wishing to grow, and have not already left their orders and require seed peas, to call at our office at once and leave their orders.

Owing to the drought and part failure of the crops in some sections, many are without seed of any kind, and at present date we are receiving more orders that ever before at this time of the year and many special varieties are getting that and intending growers had better call at at our office at once and make their selecvarieties and take their seed home.

The prices for 1938 have advanced on many varieties - 3m JAMES W. SQUIER & SON, SQUIER & FLAVELLE.
